Juniors Entertain Seniors.

The Junior class of the High school royally entertained the Seniors last evening at their annual reception which was held at the Henry Herold residence. The house was gayly decorated in the school colors, the walls being decked with pennants. The hall in which the punch was dispensed during the pleasant hours was draped in the host's colors and the dining rooms bore the decorations representing the class of the guests. A quite lengthy program was given and a guessing game was indulged in, in which Miss Rachael Livingston and Ben Harrison captured the prizes.

The large porch was filled with dancers in the later part of the evening the music being rendered by Miss Mumm. At each place in the dining room where ice cream and cake were served, a small Junior pennant was found bearing the date 1911 in the colors of the class, black and gold.

The Junior class of the school wish to express their appreciation and extend a vote of thanks to the Herold family for the delightful manner in which the house was turned over to them for the evening and for the assistance that the family gave in making the party such a decided success. The program of the evening consisted of:

Positive Proof.

Should Convince the Greatest Sceptic in Plattsmouth.

Because it's the evidence of a Plattsmouth citizen.
Testimony easily investigated.
The strongest endorsement of merit.
The best proof. Read it:
J. W. Hickson, Oak street, Plattsmouth Nebr., says: "I will never cease to praise Doan's Kidney pills, as they proved of such great benefit to me several years ago. For some time I was caused much suffering by attacks of lumbago that came on without the least warning. The simplest movement was painful and I was annoyed by irregular passages of the kidney secretions. I read so much about Doan's Kidney Pills that I finally procured a box from Gering & Co's drug store. I was gratified with the results of their use, that I publicly recommended them in 1906 and at this time, I willingly renew that statement. I hope that other kidney sufferers will profit by my experience.
For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster Milburn Co., Buffalo New York, sole agents for the United States.
Remember the name—Doan—and take no other.

A Frenchman was teaching in a large school where he had a reputation for making some queer mistakes. One day he was taking a class which was rather disorderly. What with the heat and troubles some boys he was very snappish. Having punished several boys and sent one to the bottom of the class he at last shouted out in a passion "The whole class go to ze bottom!"
