

MYNARD

Count us among the dry with no assurance that we will ever be wet.

Price of corn has made a small advance and Geo. Gradaville has shelled and delivered his corn to the local buyer.

Guy Kaiser had an automobile mixup Saturday and landed on the ground with one wheel of his carriage to the bad.

Corn planting is progressing nicely among the farmers in spite of the dry weather corn is sprouting well.

Rev. Lestey preached at Liberty chapel Sunday morning and evening, to an unusual large audience, Rev. Leslie is a fine speaker, and all were well pleased.

Miss Eva Porter is home over Sunday. Eva likes her new work very much.

Hi Gruber bought a fine large span of nicely matched mules at Louisville paying $500 for them. They are well worth the money. Hi expects to work them on the rock quarry at Nehawka.

Mrs. R. L. Propst visited in Ralston and Omaha for several days. Edna and Roberta accompanied her.

W. B. Porter has finished his census work. Mr. Porter is to be commended for the efficient work and the short time it has taken him to complete such an undertaking.

Mrs. E. E. Goodwin has returned from the northern part of the state where she has been visiting friends. Rainfall has been quite plenty in the countries of Rock and Brown.

The ladies missionary society will meet on an all day Wednesday at the home of Mrs. John Livingston one mile north of town.

Chris Parkening's smiling face was seen on our streets Monday. He belongs four miles west of Plattsmouth. Nevertheless Chris knows where to market his produce raised on the farm.

Flaming Arcs Fall Through.

The big flaming arc light that adorned the corner of Sixth and Main streets is a thing of the past, for the time being at least, and it is somewhat doubtful whether it will ever be taking its conspicuous place on the corner again. It was put up by the light company as a sample of what the business streets would look like if the company's proposition of lighting was accepted. Now it looks like the proposed system of flaming arcs on the principal business corners had fallen through and the city will not get its new lighting scheme which looked so profitable for a while. The men who circulated the paper to secure the names of 80 boosters willing to pay the sum of fifty cents a month for the brightening up of Main street, have about given the matter up and unless Manager Clabaugh revives it when he comes back, the new lights will never be more than an air castle. The company was unable to get the number of signers it had hoped for, but were willing to order the lights with 70 names on the list. They looked about two names of having enough when some of the people wished to withdraw their signatures and the company threw the matter up in disgust.

The members of the Jolly Six are advertising their next grand ball which they have arranged to have the coming Saturday night at Coates Hall. The music will be rendered by the M. W. A. Orchestra and as the combination of the Jolly Six and the M. W. A. Orchestra is always a good one, the dancers are looking forward to a very enjoyable evening.

Mrs. F. E. White a former resident of this city is in town making a visit among relatives and many friends here. She now resides in Omaha.

The Senior Class of the high school is planning on a big class banquet which will be given tomorrow night at the residence of H. N. Dovey.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. T. H. Pollock and a very pleasing session was enjoyed.

In Need of Ambulance.

It seems as though this city were badly in need of an ambulance or some humane means of conveying a sick person when the occasion arises. This dry wagon means of transportation when a sufferer is in a critical condition is enough to kill a person if he has not a constitution like an ox. An ambulance is not a thing that would be used every day in the week, but when one is needed, its condition may mean life or death to the suffering party. The need of a comfortable carriage for this purpose has recently come to the notice of the people when two Burlington victims, both in very critical conditions, were jolted up in a cumbersome dray wagon.

It is natural for people to think nothing of a matter of this kind until they are afflicted themselves or when some of their very close friends suffer from a bad accident, then it unfolds to them as a vivid nightmare. Think of a person suffering with a crushed lung or mangled limb being carted to the physicians office like a side of beef, when every jolt on the rough cobblestones sends a thrill of pain through the system of the injured. How much better it would be and how much safer he would be transported in a rubber tired carriage, fitted with a stretcher which combination would take all the jolt and jar of the uneven pavement.

A person is not required to ride very often in such a carriage, but when he is, he would certainly be willing to pay the price to ride in ease. What do a few dollars amount to, if a person may be relieved of part of their suffering or if their chances of life are brightened? At present it is at the peril of life that a person in a weak condition is brought from the country for medical care. It ought to be worth while for one of the livery barns of the city to purchase an ambulance; there is not a first class one in the county. It seems a conveyance of this kind would be a money maker for its owner, besides being a good advertising card for the establishment and city as well. Can't Plattsmouth secure an ambulance.

Deserves Big Crowd.

Green's Nebraska Indians are getting in the neighborhood of Plattsmouth and next Friday afternoon they will be in town to put up the best of ball played in the city this year. These red skins have got a reputation all over the United States and Plattsmouth is going to rub against the real thing when they meet the tribe. The boys say they can tend to their part of the game, if the citizen's will only tend to their's and see that the grand stand is filled until their isn't room for one more. The team certainly deserves better support than they have been given at the first two games of the season. It is not yet encouraging to the promoters to bring an expensive team into the city and take in about enough off the crowd to pay for the balls used. If you've got any American blood in you at all, come out Friday and see the national game between the aborigines and the pale faces. Every business man of the city out to have a representative of his firm on the grand stand and he ought to be there himself even if he is going to lose the sale of a ten cent pair of suspenders in his absence. Make a big turn out and help the boys make the Indians bury their tomahawk.

Debate Called off at Train Time.
The High school debating team was given a sudden surprise yesterday when they received a telephone call from Wahoo about ten minutes before train time saying they would be unable to handle the question without more preparation and refusing to debate last night as scheduled. Two of the home team were already at the depot when the message arrived. If Plattsmouth were to try and take the matter up she could very probably secure the debate by default but they want to give the Wahoo bunch a show for it before pinning the district championship to their own mast. The state debate at Lincoln has been postponed for two weeks, were it not for this, they would have been compelled to pull off the contest last night as arranged. It seems to be a clear case of cold feet on the part of the Wahoites and all they want is another week to practice up in. The date set yesterday afternoon was next Tuesday evening and it is hoped they will "cut out their kid play" and get up enough back bone to meet the Plattsmouth trio by that time.

The Seniors have decided on Thursday May 19 for the date of their class play "Cupid at Vassar." The theater has been secured and all arrangements made for that evening and the caste is now busy in practicing for the production which they will give.

Testimony easily investigated.

The strongest endorsement of merit.

The best proof. Read it:

J. W. Hickson, Oak street, Plattsmouth Nebr., says: "I will never cease to praise Doan's Kidney pills, as they proved of such great benefit to me several years ago. For some time I was caused much suffering by attacks of lumbago that came on without the least warning. The simplest movement was painful and I was annoyed by irregular passages of the kidney secretions. I read so much about Doan's Kidney Pills that I finally procured a box from Gering & Co's drug store. I was gratified with the results of their use that I publicly recommended them in 1906 and at this time, I willingly renew that statement. I hope that other kidney sufferers will profit by my experience.

A Frenchman was teaching in a large school where he had a reputation for making some queer mistakes. One day he was taking a class which was rather disorderly. What with the heat and troublesome boys he was very snappish. Having punished several boys and sent one to the bottom of the class, he at last shouted out in a passion, "Oz a whole class go to ze bottom!"
