WAGNER AND COBB COMPARED
How Two Greatest Ball Players In Game Size Up.

DIFFERENT STYLES OF THE MEN

Tyrus Wins Admiration by His Grace, While Honus Awees One by His Bulk—Both Have Achieved Great Results.

As has been the case for the past few seasons, Hans Wagner of the Pittsburg Nationals and Tyrus Cobb of the Detroit Americans are again corraling all the batting and base running honors of their respective leagues. Nearly every spring reports from the training camps tell that the equals or superiors of these two stars have been found. But shortly after the season opens these would be greets fall by the wayside. There is only one Ty Cobb and one Hans Wagner. They are the two greatest players in the game today.

The comparison between Cobb and Wagner is an interesting one. Both achieve great results, but not in the same manner. Wagner is a ponderously perfect athlete, while Cobb, a slender, delicate appearing chap, possesses ability which is constantly brought to the surface by his brilliant plays and the wonderful spirit that has made him envied and hated by others.

Both men are wonderful hitters, wonderful base runners and wonderful fielders. For more than twelve years

HOW THE TWO GREAT PLAYERS PERFORM ON THE DIAMOND

Wagner has kept up a dizzy pace. He has played every position and, not only that, has been a sensation in all. He has the speed of Cobb, the terrific hitting powers of Lajoie, the energy of Jennings and the disposition of Willie Keeler. Cobb, on the other hand, has been setting the kingly pace for but four years.

But how different they are! You point to Cobb with pride as the ideal ball player, and then you watch Hans Wagner and smile at the comparison, for all that Cobb is, except in ability to "get there," Wagner isn't.

In action Ty Cobb comes closer to the athletic ideal than any other man in baseball. Built like a greyhound, his lithe body is always a study.

Wagner is without precedent in the athletic world. As Cobb wins admiration by his grace, Wagner awes one by his bulk. Wagner just bulges all over. He has to have shoes made to order, he is cramped in an ordinary bed, he eats a meal worthy of three men, and his hands are as big as good sized hams.

When Wagner waddles to the plate swinging his great bat it looks as if Gibraltar were toppling over. But when he is set to swing there is action—wonderful action.

Wagner can run the hundred yards in close to ten seconds any time during a season's play. He doesn't sprint in the sense of the word, nor does he gallop. No one has been quite able to describe just what he does, but he gets there.

In fielding it's the same way. In Hans' great hands the ball assumes the size of a pea or close to it. The most terrific drive in his direction becomes a popy tap when he reaches for it.

Wagner hits .300 every year by force of habit. He has no equal at short, and his base running is always of the best. He is paid probably the biggest salary of any player in the game.

Cobb is a study. Just picture yourself as you are. Imagine seeing your picture in the paper every night in every town you went to with lines under it to the effect that fifteen or more men in every city had vowed to "get you." Wouldn't you feel a little squeamish, and wouldn't you the next time you went out be a little more careful?

But not Tyrus. For four years now threats have been made against him by every disgruntled player he has shown up. But he has kept right on playing better ball every day, and now he stands with only one man as his rival, and that is Wagner.

RACE THROUGH THE RAPIDS.

Unique Event on Niagara to Be Held Sept. 17.

Saturday, Sept. 17, has been fixed as the time for the power boat race through Whirlpool rapids, Niagara river, for the John A. Penton $500 gold cup and Power Boating's cash prize of $1,000. Already some twenty contestants have signified their intention of entering, and a half dozen boats have been named.

The committee in charge at a recent meeting in Buffalo decided that open boats shall not be allowed to compete. The committee thinks the element of danger too great for an open craft, and as this is a test of reliability and not of daring as many elements of danger as possible have been eliminated.

No restriction will be placed upon the number of crew. Contestants shall be started away at intervals of not less than ten minutes. The boat finishing the prescribed course under her own power in the shortest time will be declared the winner.

The course shall be from the Maid of the Mist landing on the Canadian side or some point above the bridge, as may be decided later, down to and around a turn about one-half mile below Queenston dock, thence to Pitz's dock at Lewiston.

TWO FAITHFUL PITCHERS.
Pittsburg Has Valuable Pair in Philippe and Leever.

Sam Leever and "Deacon" Philippe have won 339 out of 522 games for the Pittsburgs during their careers with that club. During the time they have been with Fred Clarke their work has been faithfully performed. Only recently they demonstrated their loyalty to Captain Fred. At St. Louis the Pirates were forced to play the Cardinals while rain and snow fell in inclement combinations.

Clarke didn't want to take a chance on ruining either Adams or Cannizz for life, so he asked for volunteers to pitch the game. Leever and Philippe were the ones to answer the call. Leever was chosen, and he went in and won.

His Ambition.
The reader of plays sighed wearily. "I started out in life," he said, "to make friends. See the result. In one year I have gained 2,000 bitter enemies, 7,000 associate enemies and 11,000 enemies by marriage. How many plays in the last bunch, John?"

"Two hundred an' twenty-nine, sor."

"Send 'em all back."

"But you haven't looked thim over, sor."

"Never mind that. I'm going to establish an enemy record if it takes every play in Christendom."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Positive Proof.
Should Convince the Greatest Skeptic in Plattsmouth.

Because it's the evidence of a Plattsmouth citizen.

Testimony easily investigated. The strongest endorsement of merit. The best proof. Read it:

J. W. Hickson, Oak street, Plattsmouth Nebr., says: "I will never cease to praise Doan's Kidney pills, as they proved of such great benefit to me several years ago. For some time I was caused much suffering by attacks of lumbago that came on without the least warning. The simplest movement was painful and I was annoyed by irregular passages of the kidney secretions. I read so much about Doan's Kidney Pills that I finally procured a box from Gering & Co's drug store. I was gratified with the results of their use that I publicly recommended them in 1906 and at this time, I willingly renew that statement. I hope that other kidney sufferers will profit by my experience.

Notice.
In the District Court of the County of Cass, Nebraska.

John H. Spangler and John W. Lloyd, Plaintiffs, vs. Peleg Davis, et al., defendants.

To the defendants in the above entitled cause, to-wit: Peleg Davis, Albert M. Davis, Benson Davis, Lucian Davis, Darwin Davis, Lovorne Davis, Helen Davis, Lavora Davis, Emma Davis, Matilda L. Worden, Lucinda Calkins, Martha Jones and the unknown heirs and devisees of William A. Davis, deceased, and Mrs. Ann Jane Totten and husband, Clinton Totten.

You and each of you are hereby notified that on the 28th day of April, A. D. 1910, plaintiffs filed their petition in the District Court of the County of Cass, Nebraska, claiming title to the east half of the southeast quarter of section twenty-eight, township eleven, north of range thirteen east of the 6th P. M. in the County of Cass, Nebraska, by reason of their adverse possession of said land for more than ten years by themselves and grantors prior to the time of filing said petition and its verification, and that the defendant Ann Jane Totten and husband Clinton Totten are notified that the purpose of said petition as to them is to correct, because of mutual error and mistake, a deed by them executed to the Plaintiff, John H. Spangler, on February 2nd, A. D. 1909, recorded in Book 48 at page 127 of the Deed records of the County of Cass, Nebraska, and to substitute the name of the plaintiff John H. Spangler, for that of said defendants in the habendum clause, which reads as follows:

"To have and hold the premises above described together with all the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging, unto the said Ann J. Totten and Clinton Totten, and to their heirs and assigns forever."

and to quiet the title to said premises against each and all of said defendants forever. Each of you are required to answer said petition on or before the 13th day of June, A. D. 1910.

John H. Spangler, and John W. Lloyd, Plaintiffs.

A Frenchman was teaching in a large school where he had a reputation for making some queer mistakes. One day he was taking a class which was rather disorderly. What with the heat and troublesome boys he was very snappish. Having punished several boys and sent one to the bottom of the class, he at last shouted out in a passion, "A whole class go to ze bottom!"
