Suggestive Questions on the Sunday School Lesson by Rev. Dr. Linscott For the International Newspaper Bible Study Club.

Copy't 1910, by Rev. T. S. Linscott, D. D.

June 5th, 1910.

Jesus walks on the sea.—Matt xiv: 22-36.

Golden Text.—Then they that were in the ship came and worshipped him saying: Of a truth thou art the Son of God. Matt xiv: 33.

Verses 22.—What remarkable event had immediately preceded this lesson?

Why did Jesus want to scatter the multitude? (See John vi:15.) Why did he, probably, send the disciples away even before he dismissed the multitude?

If the rulers of the Jews, and not the common people only, had wanted to crown Jesus king, would he have resisted them? Why or why not?

Verses 23.—Why did Jesus need solitude and private prayer?

How much solitude, and private prayer, are essential to one who would have the spirit and do the work of Jesus?

Verses 24.—Why does God permit his children to be so "tossed with waves when they are on the voyage he has sent them?"

Which are the more blessed and why those Christians that have a stormy voyage and contrary winds through life or those that have fair weather and favorable winds? (This question must be answered in writing by members of the club.)

Verses 25.—Why did Jesus leave them in their distress so long? and why does God often permit his children to be buffeted with wind and waves until it seems there is no hope for the ship?

Verses 26.—The disciples saw Jesus coming at last, but why is that any ground for hope that God will, when we are in trouble, come to our rescue in time to prevent any real disaster?

Can you give any examples, besides this, of being afraid of the very messenger, or circumstance, that God is sending to save us from our troubles?

Verses 27.—When, if ever, is there need for a true disciple to be afraid of anything?

Give a reasoned answer to the following. Is God literally in every circumstance, and does he speak with words of cheer in every event, whether loss or gain, or pain or pleasure, to the disciple who has spiritual faculties to see and hear God?

Verses 28-31.—Was it wise or profitable for Peter to have made this daring venture, seeing his faith had failed him?

When God invites us, or bids us, do anything no matter how hazardous should we do it, even if our hearts tremble at the anticipated result, or should we get the full assurance of faith first?

Is it wise, or otherwise, and why, for us to attempt everything that Jesus did?

What are the limitations to our duty, and privilege in duplicating the life of Jesus?

How much risk is there of failure if we attempt to do all God commands us?

Verses 32-33.—Could any ship sink in that day with Jesus on board, and what does your answer suggest, as to the safety of all today who take Jesus for their captain?

If they worshiped the man Jesus in the same way as God should be worshipped, what comment have you on their act?

Verses 34-36.—How much benefit would it be today, if all the people of this community would bring their sick ones to Jesus?

The lesson for Sunday June 12, 1910. The Canaanish Woman. Matt xv:21-28.

Plattsmouth People Should Know How to Read and Heed Them.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys, backache and urinary disorders.

Plattsmouth evidence proves this statement.

Mrs. O. J. Gilson, Lincoln, avenue Plattsmouth, Neb., says: "We have used Doan's Kidney Pills in our family for lame back and other kidney disorders and they have brought the best of results. My advise to anyone suffering from kidney complaint is to give this remedy a trial."

POSTED WITH PLACARDS

mits a message from the United States consul at Nanking, in which he says that the city has been posted the destruction of foreign life and property, in consequence of which considerable nervousness is felt. The minister adds that the United States steamer New Orleans is there and is prepared with the German and British warships to land a considerable force if found necessary to protect the foreign consulates.

NANKING, June 3.—The foreign consuls here have received a warning from the revolutionists, which is similar to that sent to the legations at Peking. It purports to emanate from the "revolutionary board of war" and announces that a day has been appointed for the opening of hostilities. Neutrals are warned not to interfere with the military preparations and protection is offered foreigners heeding this injunction. The consuls, however, are urging fellow citizens to leave Nanking.
