

(From Monday's Daily)

Come here to celebrate the Fourth.

Mrs. Elster returned Saturday from a week's visit with friends in Lincoln.

Mrs. C. L. Martin was among the Omaha travelers on the Burlington this morning.

Miss Anna Preisman returned to Omaha this morning after her regular weekly visit in the city.

Mrs. John Fight was a passenger on the north bound Burlington, going to Omaha for a brief stay.

Carl Gelak left this morning for Omaha where he expects to take up work on the Union Pacific.

Miss Katherine Shields of South Omaha arrived in the city Saturday night for a short stay with friends.

Miss Juliet Atwood of Lincoln was a visitor yesterday at the home of her aunt Mrs. Thomas Parmele.

Mrs. A. N. Sullivan left this morning for the metropolis to make a short visit with her son C. N. Sullivan.

Clyde Brooks of Omaha was in the city over Sunday visiting with friends. He left this morning for his home.

Robert Propst and mother Mrs. Goodwin of Mynard drove into the city this morning to attend a few business matters.

Mrs. E. H. Sage of Maywood, Nebraska and Mrs. Jennie Wells of Lincoln are in town for a few days, being guests at the home of Mrs. H. J. Streight.

C. P. McPherson, one of the key artists for the Burlington at Omaha, was in the city over Sunday visiting with friends. He returned to work this morning on No. 15.

Mrs. W. E. Martin of Lincoln returned to her home this morning after being in the city for several days being entertained at the home of her sister Mrs. Val Burkel.

Mrs. P. L. Lake of Denver is in the city making an extended visit with her sister Miss Anna O'Neil. The two ladies left this morning for the day's pleasure trip to Omaha and return.

H. J. Oltrogge, a traveling man of the city who represents Smith Bros' Trunk company, was in town over Sunday, departing this morning for his trip through different Iowa towns.

Miss Hazel Cowles returned to the Gate City this morning to resume her duties at the milling company at which she is employed, having spent Sunday with her parents in this city.

T. W. Carr of Custer County, Nebraska arrived in the city last night to make a visit at the home of his brother in law A. J. McKinney, one of the old residents there.

W. C. Lessley of Lincoln was in town yesterday, filling the pulpit of the United Brethren church south of the city. He departed on No. 15 this morning for his Capital City home.

John Kotyzz, a traveling man from Omaha was in the city over Sunday visiting one of his old time friends John Nemetz, leaving this morning on No. 6 to resume his grip-knight duties.

Mrs. Henry Meisinger left this morning for Omaha to see her sister Mrs. W. K. Shepherdson of Murray who is confined in St. Joseph hospital. Mrs. Meisinger expects to return home on one of the evening trains.

Joseph Wurga, who has been living in Denver for the last year, returned to the city this morning for a visit with his folks. He is a tinner by trade, having been employed at Bauer's hardware store while in the city.

Mrs. Arthur Gibson of Fremont and Mrs. Thomas Gibson of Seattle visited with their sister in law Mrs. Perry Gibson one of the inmates of the Masonic home. They returned to Omaha on one of the early trains this morning.

G. B. Gould, chief clerk of Superintendent Baird at the Burlington, has rented the Gamble residence for the summer and will move from his rooms in the Riley to his new quarters tomorrow. The Gamble's are to spend the summer in northern Minnesota.

A complaint was filed against Robert Propst of Mynard, charging him with using obscene language before a woman, Barbara Wagner. It is a matter that must be settled in district court, but the preliminary in justice court has not yet been arranged.

Ed Reynolds was a visitor over Sunday at Nebraska City, where he has a number of friends.

H. G. Ohgle of Lincoln was a Sunday visitor at the home of I. C. Lyle, departing this morning on No. 15 for his home town.

Jacob Tritsch and wife were among the many Omaha travelers at the depot this morning, expecting to spend the day at that city.

Miss Edna Adams of Cleveland Ohio and Miss Carrie Adams of Eagle, Neb., are visiting in the city with their sister Mrs. O. C. Dovey.

Mrs. George Reichart of Louisville was in the city today for a few hours, coming in on the Schulyer this morning.

A number of Plattsmouth people spent Saturday night and Sunday in Murray, many of them attending the dance given there Saturday evening. Among those there were Earl Barclay, Glen Low, Harry Rice, John Hadraba, Thomas Mack, Henry Hess and Mr. Seotten.

C. S. Polk, former owner of the News left this morning for Louisville, enroute to his home at Boise, Idaho where he is now practicing law. He has been in the city several days visiting his many friends. After spending the day in Louisville, he will proceed to Lincoln for a brief stay before returning to his western home.

A young man giving the name of Nelson was seized with a sudden attack of sickness Saturday night while on board the way car of No. 30, a Burlington freight. As the train was slowly moving through the yards about 11 o'clock at night, Nelson fell from the platform of the car receiving some bad bruises. A carriage was hurriedly summoned and he was sent to his home in the city where he soon rallied.

Word just received from the bedside of Leander Barnes, the young man who was painfully burned in a gasoline explosion of the linotype at an Ogalalla printing shop, assures the parents of the injured boy, who reside in this city, that he is resting well and his burns are healing as rapidly as could be expected. His sight will not be injured and the most serious burns are on his hands which he will be unable to work with for some months.

In district court today, Judge Travis set the bond of Vandervert and Breckenridge at $200 each for their appearance at the next term of court which will not be until fall. A petition in partition and order was filed in district court for the securing of title of certain land in Cass county, the plaintiff's in the case being Benjamin F. Landon, et al; defendants John W. Bellinger, et al.

Joseph Klein, now of Lincoln, a former business man of this place dropped in the city this morning to continue his work with the Equitable Life company of New York with which he is now connected. Mr. Klein was at one time one of the leading clothing merchants of Plattsmouth. He is now holding a fine position with the New York insurance company.

Miss Florence McElroy of Lincoln who has been visiting for the past several days at the home of her parents in this city, returned to the Capitol City this afternoon to take up her work.

Earl Morris of Union is languishing in the county dungeon awaiting a hearing, being charged with store breaking at Union which occurred night before last. He will probably be given a hearing tomorrow.

George Gobelman, one of the paint department employees the Burlington, received a deep burn on the left hand yesterday afternoon while drawing some hot water from the pipes. The middle fingers of the hand were badly affected, which required the careful attention of the company physician.

Mrs. Charles M. Foster is informally celebrating her fiftieth anniversary today at her comfortable home on South Tenth street, entertaining a number of ladies of the Christian church who are helping to make the day a pleasant one for her. The afternoon is being spent in sewing and conversation, wound up with delicious refreshments.

Mrs. J. R. Wells of Lincoln and Mrs. E. H. Sage of Maywood, sister in law and sister of Mrs. H. J. Streight have been entertained for the past few days at the Streight residence. They left this morning for Lincoln where Mrs. Sage's son has undergone an operation for appendicitis at one of the hospitals. After stopping a day or two at the Capital City, Mrs. Sage will return to her home.

Mrs. Roy Tarrant and sister Mrs. W. C. Ford of Sheridan, Wyoming are guests at the home of Mrs. Emil Walters, the former being a visitor today at Omaha.

A. F. Nickels of Murray was in town for a short while this morning enroute to South Omaha where he will dispose of a quantity of sheep.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Marsh are in Omaha for a day or two where Mr. Marsh is attending the stock market at South Omaha and Mrs. Marsh is visiting friends.

Mrs. H. Steinhauer and little daughter Gladys, departed this morning for Superior, Neb., where she will remain several days visiting at the residence of her cousin George Spong.

O. T. Davis was in town yesterday arriving in the city in the morning from his home at Union.

Miss Lillian White and mother Mrs. Alice White are spending the day in Omaha where they are visiting friend

C. R. Jordan of Alvo was a caller at the county seat yesterday, signing up at one of the local hotels for the day.

M. and Mrs. Fred Denson are in Omaha and Council Bluffs today visiting their friends at those cities.

Mrs. William Porter took one of the early trains of the day for Omaha, intending to make the return trip this evening.

Misses Ellen and Alice Pollock are visitors of the day in Omaha, going up to that city this morning on an early Burlington.

Mrs. C. E. Hartford bought a Burlington ticket for the state metropolis this morning to which place she went for a short visit.

Mrs. J. A. Libershal and Miss Anna Libershal boarded the early Burlington bound for Omaha where they remained for the day.

Remember it's Wednesday night—the ice cream social given by the Loyal Sons of the Christian church on the lawn at William Baird's residence. 2t

William Hunter was a traveler to the city this morning, having some business up there that required his attention.

Mrs. O. Fields and son left today for a short stay at Pacific Junction with Mrs. H. M. Fields, Mrs. Fields mother in law.

C. J. Nordenson, an inmate of the Masonic Home, boarded the north bound Burlington this morning, going up to Omaha for the day.

Mrs. William Barnhart departed on No. 6 this morning for Pacific Junction where she spent the day with her daughter Mrs. E. E. Monroe, who is a resident at that place.

Miss Ben Honnold of Seattle, who has been a visitor for some time at the home of Benton Kinkaid, left this morning for Omaha in company with Mrs. Woodford. After the day's stay in the city Miss Honnold will depart for Washington.

Solomon Rowe, who has an 80 acre farm on the Iowa side about a quarter mile from the ferry, is expecting to dispose of his place this summer and make his departure for Northern Minnesota or Dakota where he will take up a farm.

Jesse Perry's tonsorial parlor is undergoing a general clean up and a few artistic touches on the brush of a competent painter, which is making it assume a very cleanly appearance

Mrs. Liddia Funk, who has been visiting for the past week or ten days with her husband at David City, returned to her home last night. Mr. Funk is holding a position for the summer in that city.

Miss Florence McElroy of Lincoln who has been visiting for the past several days at the home of her parents in this city, returned to the Capitol City this afternoon to take up her work.

Earl Morris of Union is languishing in the county dungeon awaiting a hearing, being charged with store breaking at Union which occurred night before last. He will probably be given a hearing tomorrow.

George Gobelman, one of the paint department employees the Burlington, received a deep burn on the left hand yesterday afternoon while drawing some hot water from the pipes. The middle fingers of the hand were badly affected, which required the careful attention of the company physician.

Mrs. Charles M. Foster is informally celebrating her fiftieth anniversary today at her comfortable home on South Tenth street, entertaining a number of ladies of the Christian church who are helping to make the day a pleasant one for her. The afternoon is being spent in sewing and conversation, wound up with delicious refreshments.

Mrs. J. R. Wells of Lincoln and Mrs. E. H. Sage of Maywood, sister in law and sister of Mrs. H. J. Streight have been entertained for the past few days at the Streight residence. They left this morning for Lincoln where Mrs. Sage's son has undergone an operation for appendicitis at one of the hospitals. After stopping a day or two at the Capital City, Mrs. Sage will return to her home.

Mrs. Roy Tarrant and sister Mrs. W. C. Ford of Sheridan, Wyoming are guests at the home of Mrs. Emil Walters, the former being a visitor today at Omaha.

A. F. Nickels of Murray was in town for a short while this morning enroute to South Omaha where he will dispose of a quantity of sheep.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Marsh are in Omaha for a day or two where Mr. Marsh is attending the stock market at South Omaha and Mrs. Marsh is visiting friends.

Mrs. H. Steinhauer and little daughter Gladys, departed this morning for Superior, Neb., where she will remain several days visiting at the residence of her cousin George Spong.

D. O. Dwyer was a business traveler to the city this morning.

Mrs. M. A. Howland, Mrs. C. C. Parmele and Mrs. W. J. Streight constituted a committee of delegates from the local branch of the P. E. O. to attend the convention of the order which is being held for a few days at Seward. The ladies left this morning for Omaha, from where they proceeded to their destination.

(From Wednesday's Daily) C. S. Newlon and H. H. Miles two Weeping Water residents were callers in town yesterday.

Mrs. Joseph Fetzer is in the Gate City today visiting friends and attending some small business matters.

Mrs. Robert Ward and son Everet were early travelers to Omaha today spending the day with friends the city.

Miss Blanche Horning is visiting a short while with friends at the Capitol city, starting there this morning on No. 15.

M. W. Moose of Murdock was a business caller in town yesterday, returning to his home town this afternoon.

T. L. Pollock and Charles Parmele had business matters that called them to Omaha today. They went up on No. 15 this morning.

Miss Louise Glenn was among the Omaha passengers on No. 15 this morning. She will visit friends there for the day and return home his evening.

Mrs. A. A. Shae of Norborne, Missouri, and Mrs. O. H. Bayless of Watson, Missouri, arrived in the city yesterday afternoon for a visit at the home of their mother, Mrs. John Brady

The P. E. O. Society will meet Friday afternoon at the home of Miss Bertha Richie. The meeting is called for 3 o'clock and the members are requested to bring flowers.

Mrs. Charles Schwab of Murray, accompanied by her little son Frank, made the round trip to Omaha today, returning in time to proceed to her home this evening.

Mike Martin returned to his headquarters again at the Perkins House after being away on a month's visit at Valpariso, where he has quite extensive land interests.

A. W. Atwood made his departure for the metropolis this morning where he will remain today and tomorrow to attend the State Druggists convention which is in session there for two days.

William Caygill, a Wabash farmer was on the Plattsmouth streets yesterday. He returned home in the afternoon.

Mrs. J. W. Sage, Mrs. Dick Stright and Mrs. Elias Sage were in the crowd of Omaha travelers at the depot this morning, going up to that city for the day's outing.

Mrs. Henry Ohrt set out on her return trip to Calhoun this morning having been a visitor in town several days. She was entertained while in the city by her brother John Iverson and sister Miss Nelson.

George M. Porter representing the Omaha Bee is in the city today on his regular monthly visit in looking after the interests of the paper. He is making a number of changes in carrier boys and has placed the Plattsmouth agency in different hands.

H. W. Baughman, who resides on the Dovey section west of town, arrived in the city this morning from an eastern trip. He was called to the death bed of his brother W. H. Baughman, a resident of Avon, a little town a few miles south of Galesburg, Ill.

Will Ramsey went down to Lincoln yesterday afternoon to attend the annual of his graduating class from the University of Nebraska. He was a member of the class who's reunion will be held tonight.

Pete Evers, one of McMaken's employees, received a very serious cut in the right hand about nine o'clock this morning while unloading a bill of timber at the Burlington depot. The jagged cut extended across the palm of his hand to such an extent that eight stitches were necessary to close up the wound.

(From Tuesday's Daily) Mr. and Mrs. John Crabill departed this morning for Lincoln.

L. F. Sallee was a business traveler to the Gate city today.

Mrs. Robert Troop was a traveler to Omaha this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendall Heil are among the day's callers in the state metropolis.

Mrs. W. H. Freese is spending the day in Omaha being a traveler on No. 15 this morning.

Mrs. W. J. Malvaney and Mrs. W. Moreley were among the many Omaha travelers on No. 15 this morning. They expect to return home this evening.

Mrs. Roy Tarrant and sister Mrs. W. C. Ford of Sheridan, Wyoming are guests at the home of Mrs. Emil Walters, the former being a visitor today at Omaha.

A. F. Nickels of Murray was in town for a short while this morning enroute to South Omaha where he will dispose of a quantity of sheep.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Marsh are in Omaha for a day or two where Mr. Marsh is attending the stock market at South Omaha and Mrs. Marsh is visiting friends.

Mrs. H. Steinhauer and little daughter Gladys, departed this morning for Superior, Neb., where she will remain several days visiting at the residence of her cousin George Spong.

THE TRUE TEST.

Tried in Plattsmouth It Has Stood the Test.

The hardest test in the test of time and Doan's Kidney Pills have stood it well in Plattsmouth. Kidney sufferers can hardly ask for stronger proof than the following:

J. B. Partridge, Eighth street, Plattsmouth, Neb., says: "I suffer constantly from pains across my loins and kidneys and on several occasions I was so badly crippled that I could only get about with the aid of two canes. The use of the first box of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from Gering & Co's. Drug store, helped me so greatly that I continued taking the remedy until I was entirely relieved. It would be impossible for me to speak too highly of Doan's Kidney Pills."

The above statement was given in June 1906 and on Dec. 29, 1908 Mr. Partridge said: "I still recommend Doan's Kidney Pills highly. I willingly renew the public statement I gave over two years ago in their favor." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster Milburn, Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Legal Notice

In the District Court of Cass Co. Neb. In the matter of the Guardianship of Donovan A. Walling, a minor. Order to show cause.

This cause came on for hearing upon the petition of George W. Walling, guardian of the Estate of Donovan A. Walling, a minor, praying for a license to sell an undivided one-third interest in fee simple in Lots Twelve (12), Thirteen (13), Sixteen (16) and Seventeen (17), in West Greenwood Cass County, Nebraska, for the support and education of said minor and for the better investment of the residue, there being no personal property belonging to said minor's estate.

It is therefore ordered that all persons interested in said estate appear before me at Plattsmouth, on the 20th day of June, 1910, at 1 o'clock p. m., to show cause why a license should not be granted to said guardian to sell said real estate for the support and education of said minor and for the better investment of the residue thereof.

It is further ordered that this notice be published for three weeks successively in the Semi-Weekly News-Herald a newspaper published and of general circulation in said county, next prior to the date of said hearing.

Dated this 12th day of May, 1910 Harvey D. Travis, Judge of the District Court.

Legal Notice.

To Lydia Merriam, Art E. Alexander, Lloyd D. Bennett, Margaret L. Bennett, Medy Bloodworth, Meedy P. Bloodworth, Abigail Bloodworth, Spencer Packard, L. R. Baxley, (first and real name unknown The unknown Heirs or Devises of Selden N. Merriam, deceased, The Unknown Heirs or Devises of William Parman, deceased, The Unknown Heirs or Devises of Elias Gibbs, deceased:

You and each of you will hereby take notice that on May 28th, 1910, John Wurga, Plaintiff, filed his petition in the District Court of Cass County, Nebraska, against you, and others, the object, purpose and prayer of which is to remove clouds from and quiet the title of record by the decree of said Court, to the North East quarter of South East quarter and South East quarter of North East quarter of Section Five (5) and North West West quarter of South West quarter and Government Lot Four (4) in Section Four (4) and also a tract of land in said Section 4, described as: Beginning at quarter section corner on West side of said Section 4, and running thence north 10 chains; thence Southeast 72 chains to a point intersecting a line through the centre of said section 4, and thence West to place of beginning, known as sub lot 14 of Government Lot 3, in said Section 4, all in Town Eleven (11) North, Range Fourteen (14) East of the Sixth P. M. in Cass County, Nebraska, in Plaintiff as against you and others, and to exclude you and each of you from ever asserting or claiming any right, title or interest therein, or to any part or parcel thereof, and for such other and further relief as may be just and equitable.

You are required to answer said petition on or before the 11th day of July 1910, or the allegations contained in said petition will be taken as true and decree rendered accordingly. Dated: May 28, 1910. JOHN WARGA, Plaintiff. By JOHN M. LEYDA, His Attorney.

Notice to Water Consumers. All consumers in arrears for water assessments are requested to pay up on or before June 25th, 1910. Service will be discontinued from all properties after that date without further notice, where consumers are in arrears. 08-5t Plattsmouth, Water Co.

John Durman Expert Blacksmith Has taken charge of the William Puls Blacksmith Shop 4 1-2 miles west of Murray. All kinds of Fine Horseshoeing and all kinds of Blacksmithing. Satisfaction guaranteed. Call on Him.

$25.00 to California The World's Greatest All-the-Year Resort Double Daily Through Service VIA MISSOURI PACIFIC IRON MOUNTAIN Choice of Scenery The True Southern Route via El Paso Through Scenic Colorado via Pueblo and Denver Ask for Rates and Schedules Hugh Norton, Agent.

FUNERAL OF A. C. M'MAKEN (Continued from page 1)

first mail that went out of Plattsmouth on the Burlington, the mail car being only a common box car. In 1875 he was transferred to the Santa Fe and in 1877 he moved, with his family to Atchison, from Plattsmouth. In 1885 his mail car was in a wreck and Mr. McMaken was injured. He was then appointed to a position in the Atchison post office and continued in this work until the day he was taken sick, last April. November 27, 1886, Mr. McMaken was married in Atchison to Miss Kate Lavender, who survives him. The deceased was a member of the A. S. Everett post and had been a member of the Knights of Pythias over thirty years.

Notice to Creditors. State of Nebraska Cass County ss. In County Court.

In the matter of the estate of Edwin R. Todd, deceased. Notice is hereby given that the creditors of said deceased will meet the Executrix of said estate, before me, County Judge of Cass County, Nebraska, at the County Court room in Plattsmouth, in said County, on the 9th day of July 1910 and on the 12th day of January 1911 at 10 o'clock a. m. each day, for the purpose of presenting their claims for examination, adjustment and allowance. Six months are allowed for the creditors of said deceased to present their claims and one year for the Executrix to settle said estate from the 9th day of July 1910. Witness my hand and seal of said County Court, at Plattsmouth, Nebraska, this 6th day of June 1910. Allen J. Beeson, County Judge.

To Colorado. William Starkjohn, Fred Egenberger and Sam Shumaker set forth this morning, bound for Denver and a number of other Colorado points. They expect to spend Sunday in Denver after looking over some of the land in that vicinity. On the 23rd they will go to Burlington, Colorado where there is to be a big trustees auction of farm land. The land to come under the hammer is an enormous tract containing 33,000 acres, which does not require irrigation to make it produce profitably. The sale is being widely advertised and there will be people from all over the country to snatch up any bargains that may be offered. The Plattsmouth party will be gone a little over a week.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature of J. C. Watson