

(From Thursday's Daily)

Mrs. Rosa Hennings was an Omaha traveler on an early Burlington this morning.

Be a Booster and smoke "See Plattsmouth Succeed." Made by Speis. 5c.

Mrs. William Barclay and son Earl made their departure today for Fairmont, expecting to make a short stay there.

Mr. and Mrs. Crabill returned on No. 6 this morning from Franklin where they have been on a visit of a few days' duration.

Conrad Cent of Cedar Creek made a business sojourn to this city yesterday, signing up at one of the hotels for the day.

Postmaster Schneider departed this morning for Lincoln where he is combining business and pleasure on his short stay.

Mrs. A. G. Roman and daughter and son Ruth and Frances, are in Omaha today, going up on No. 15 this morning.

R. M. Shlaes of the Majestic bought a round trip ticket for Omaha this morning, where he went to spend the day with friends.

S. W. Seeger, a well known traveling salesman of Council Bluffs was in the city yesterday and last night on business, leaving this morning for Omaha.

Mrs. Joseph Sabaka and mother in law Mrs. Frank Sabaka, went to the Gate City this morning to make a brief stay with their friends in the city.

Mr. Barnhart returned this morning from Pacific Junction, having been there for the past few days visiting with his daughter who has been sick for several weeks.

M. Hild of Iowa and A. Hild who lives a few miles from the city were travelers on the eight-fifteen train this morning for Omaha, going up to the city for a day's visit.

Mrs. I. N. Cummins took the afternoon train yesterday for Pacific Junction where she will make a short stay.

Mrs. E. S. Tutt and sister Mrs. H. E. Nims, who is accompanied by her two children Arnold and Helen, made the round trip to Omaha today, going up on the popular morning train.

Mrs. F. E. Warren and children started out this morning for Hickman, Neb., where they expect to have a pleasant visit at the home of Mr. Warren's sister, Mrs. R. E. McClanahan.

William Barclay's fine restaurant is to be improved tomorrow by the addition of the new electrical piano player which he ordered last week from one of the large piano houses.

A. J. Bradley, a former Plattsmouth resident who worked in the upholstering department of the shops, was expected to arrive in the city this afternoon from Missouri Valley where he is now making his home. He will be in town until Sunday.

Miss K. E. Worley of the Universal Press Clipping Bureau of Omaha, a niece of the late A. C. McMaken, returned to Omaha this morning after being in town yesterday to attend the funeral of her uncle.

Miss Gertrude Long of Murray was in the city in company with her father this morning. She boarded one of the early trains for Shenandoah where she will make a visit with friends and attend a wedding which is to take place there.

I. G. Warthen and daughter, residents of Scotts Bluff, Neb., came in this morning from Anderson, Ia., and where Mr. Warthen had been attending a religious convention. While in the city, the party visited B. B. Warthen, then, a brother of the Scotts Bluffs man. The party left this evening for the final leg of their trip.

Isaac Pearlman, a former resident of the city who owned a number of buildings in the business section of town was a city caller yesterday, looking over the interests which he still holds here. He is putting on the market a house that he owns on Pearl street. Mr. Pearlman re-turned to his home at Omaha last evening on the Missouri Pacific.

H. K. Davis and family left this morning for Omaha from where Mr. Davis will proceed to Green River, Wyoming, expecting to take up a railroad position there. His family will return to Plattsmouth and continue to make their home here for the summer. Mr. Davis formerly held the position of general manager of the Bell Phone company in this city.

John Lutz was a business traveler to the Market Town this morning.

Charles L. Graves the good Union citizen was a caller at the county seat yesterday, being a guest at one of the local hotels.

Miss Clara Weyrich was a passenger on an early Burlington bound for Omaha. She will remain several days visiting friends.

John Wunderlich of Nehawka was a business visitor in town yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Meisinger of Cedar Creek were in town yesterday on a shopping expedition.

J. P. Falter has been on the sick list for the past day or two being unable to attend his business at the office.

Miss Mabel Hanks of Galesburg, Ill., is in the city expecting to spend the summer here with her parents J. G. Hanks.

John Monroe and wife left yesterday afternoon for Pacific Junction to make a short visit at the home of their son Elmer Monroe.

Mr. M. L. Ruby of McCook, Neb., who has been visiting a few days with old friends around here departed this morning for his home.

Another enthusiastic prayer meeting was held last evening at the Methodist church, the musical numbers being taken from the song books used at the recent revival meetings.

Yardmaster of the Burlington, Johnson, went up to Omaha yesterday afternoon where his wife is undergoing an operation at one of the hospitals in that city.

Mrs. W. B. Porter and her sister Mrs. H. E. Vilas of Albany, N. Y., just returned to Mynard today where they have been spending a few days with the latter's son Arthur.

Mr. W. O. Harrel and wife and Miss Vera Propst, Robin Richardson, William and Arthur Wetencamp departed this morning for Auburn, Neb., where they are going to attend the Epworth league convention which is being held at that place.

Bernice Newell departed yesterday afternoon for an extended visit in California, going by way of the Burlington from Omaha. She will spend the summer months with friends and relatives, some of them former Plattsmouth people, who are now living at Long Beach, San Francisco and other California points.

S. F. DeMoss, special representative of a Chicago insurance company, is in the city looking up the interests of his concern in this locality. He is placing the local agency of the company with Judge Douglass.

Petition for final settlement was made today in the estate of Lovenia Hunter. A waiver was filed of the notice and the final decree was made.

Civil action was commenced in county court this morning by Byron Dill against N. W. Kanoff for the collection of the principal and interest on a $160 promissory note.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Noyes and party of Louisville drove down to the city this morning in their automobile for a day's visit with friends.

Rev. Mr. A. L. Ogden of Bethany, Nebraska will be in the city next Monday and Tuesday evening he will speak at the First Christian church.

Miss Elizabeth Falter is in Louisville, Ken., for a few days, having gone there the first of the week to attend the annual convention of the Beta Sigma Omicron. She holds the position of editor in chief of the quarterly magazine of the sorority, which is published at St. Louis.

Petition for letters of administration were filed this morning in county court in the estate of Sarah Olive Dye, a former Union lady who left an estate of a couple of thousand dollars. The attorney handling the case is Charles Graves of Union.

Commissioners Switzer, Daniel H. Switzer started out yesterday on a long trip in company with a friend from Lincoln. Mr. Switzer will make the voyage to the Panama canal, sailing the last of the month. If he like the country he will remain there a year or more, and probably enter the employment of the government.

Ex-congressman E. M. Pollard of Nehawka made a business pilgrimage to this city today in his touring car bringing with him his little son who thought the trip a great one. Mr. Pollard returned to his home early in the afternoon. It is his intention to leave the last of the week for Hayti where he will look after the interests of a lumber firm with which he is connected.

James J. Nowack, one of the planning mill force at the Burlington shops had his right hand slightly mashed and cut this morning while trimming up a collar on one of the big scapers. His hand was painfully pinched in the machine rushing the middle finger of the hand, so that medical attention was necessary, and a short lay off was included in the prescription of the company physician.

Robert Propst of Mynard made the round trip to Plattsmouth and return today in his American touring car. He proved to be the salvation of the New's automobile chauffeur, who chugged into Mynard yesterday after a long trip through the country as hot as the sun of Hades. Propst proved to be a real friend on this occasion and entertained the Plattsmouth journalist in a most royal fashion. He is certainly one of the live sparks of Mynard and a good neighbor for Plattsmouth. He is having his comfortable residence repaired and renovated, making it a county home that is hard to beat in the county.

FOR SALE—MY MODEL 10, 20 H. p. Buick Runabout with rumble seat, fully equipped with top, windshield, speedometer, Atwater-Kent ignition, all in fine condition and practically as good as new. Car has been used less than one year. BIG BARGAIN, $650. T. H. Pollock, Plattsmouth, Neb. 2td 17w

(From Friday's Daily)

Mrs. Fred Geis and Mrs. S. G. Stone are spending the day in Omaha.

Mrs. Robert Bates was a traveler on the north bound Burlington going up to Omaha to visit friends.

Mrs. Charles Manns and son Herold were early morning travelers to the state metropolis today.

Charles Parmele was among the business callers in the Market Town this morning.

A. B. Shriver of Des Moines, owner of the Coates block, is in the city today.

Carl Julene left this afternoon for Red Oak where he is working on the railroad bridge gang.

L. F. Sallee made a business sojourn to the Gate city today.

A. G. Trilety made the round trip to Omaha today, going up this morning on the early Burlington.

Mrs. J. P. Kuhney was in the crowd of Omaha travelers this morning, going up to the city for a brief visit.

Mrs. M. J. Burrows made a pilgrimage to Omaha today, being a traveler on the early Burlington.

Bruce Rosencrans returned this morning from Lincoln where he had been to attend a wedding.

Clyde Adamson, S. Ray Smith and the later's cousin Anna Smith, went up to the city this morning on a day's pleasure trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Marsh and daughter went up to the Market town this morning, making a combined business and pleasure trip.

Mrs. Joseph Wampler and three sons departed on No. 15 this morning for Omaha to make a days visit with friends.

Mrs. Ed Svoboda and daughter Mary bought round trip tickets for the metropolis to which place they went for a short stay.

Mrs. H. F. Fields was in the morning crowd bound for Omaha today, going up to spend the day with her cousin Mrs. McAllister.

Robert Newell set out this morning on a fishing trip to land a few of the finny tribe on the banks of the lake at Cedar Creek.

J. E. Mason had a few business matters to attend in Omaha today. He went up on the eight-fifteen train this morning.

Mrs. P. L. Lake of Denver departed this noon for her home after being in the city on a short visit with her parents Mr. and Mrs. W. A. O'Neill.

William Spangler and wife and little daughter are in Omaha today making a short visit with friends. They will return home this evening.

Ed Reynolds who has been the good natured baggage clerk at the Burlington for many moons, has taken up a similar position for the road at Nebraska City.

William Schneider of Cedar Creek was in town this morning looking after the purchases of a quantity of timber for his new home, which is now in course of construction.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hallstrom and son went to Omaha this morning where they visited with Mrs. Chas. Johnson, wife of Yardmaster Johnson of this city, who is confined in a hospital, following an operation which she underwent a few days ago.

Mrs. Anton Yanda and two little daughters were passengers this morning for Omaha, expecting to remain there for the day and return on one of the evening trains.

John Watson, a commercial traveler with headquarters at Kansas City, left this morning for Omaha after being in the city for a day transacting business and visiting his friends D. P. Jackson and others.

Mrs. Joseph Hiber and sister Mrs. J. G. Svoboda were sojourners to Omaha this morning on No. 15, where the latter is to have medical attention on her eyes which have been giving her considerable trouble of late.

Misses Florence and Edith Dean of Glenwood, Iowa were in town between trains this morning on their way to Stella, Nebraska where they will visit a short time. During their few hours stay in the city they were the guests of Mrs. Josephine Hall.

H. E. Pettit a South Omaha cow boy, blew into the city last night from the horse market at Omaha, having driven down a bunch of seven South Dakota horses for Perry Marsh, who has a farm south of town. The cow puncher and his saddle were travelers back to the city this morning on No. 15.

Henry Neuman, fireman at the Burlington brass foundry, received some bad burns this morning from hot metal with which he was working. The accident caused a deep burn on the right arm and chest. He was able to make his way alone to the company physician where he was given the proper treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Seibert of Omaha were in town today looking over some farm land in this vicinity which they were thinking of purchasing. They have not made any deal as yet, but they inspected a certain farm which they will probably buy later.

The Ladies Aid society of the Eight Mile Grove Methodist church will hold an ice cream and chicken pie social at the home of Guy Kiser, on Saturday evening, June 25, Everybody invited. 17w2t

(From Saturday's Daily)

Come here to celebrate the Fourth.

Brick, Brick, Brick, Ice Cream Brick at Masons. Try it. 17

Mrs. W. A. White was a passenger on the Omaha Burlington this morning.

Joseph Zitke and family are among the many Saturday callers at the Market town today.

J. D. Parker and wife made the round trip to Omaha today, making their first trip on No. 15 this morning.

Mrs. Bertha Peterson is spending the day in the Gate City being a passenger on the eight fifteen train this morning.

Mrs. W. B. Hutchison and daughter Florence were travelers this morning going up on the early train to spend the day.

Misses Margaret Flint and Pauline Hamilton returned to their homes at Omaha after having been in the city with friends and relatives.

Mrs. Roy Tarrant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Walters, left this morning for her home at Gillette, Wyoming, after making a pleasant visit at the home of her parents.

Mrs. E. Schubeck and children purchased Omaha tickets on the Burlington this morning, going up to the city to remain a few days at the home of Mrs. Schubeck's sister, Mrs. W. Sydon.

Mrs. Jonas Johnson made her departure today for Lincoln where she will be the guest for the next week at the residence of her husband's brother.

Miss Frances Likewise was a passenger on the north bound Burlington this morning, going up to the city to visit a few days with her sister Mrs. John Cleveland.

Mrs. M. A. Dickson bought a ticket for Omaha this morning going up to remain over Sunday with friends.

The river is still on the decline, this morning the gauge showing it had fallen three tenths in the last twenty-four hours.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Mr. and Mrs. Carl M. Holmberg made a pilgrimage to Omaha today being travelers on the popular morning train.

Miss Adelia White took one of the morning trains today, expecting to go up to Hooper to remain a couple of weeks with friends.

Mrs. J. E. Jones and Mrs. J. Andrews went up to Omaha this morning on one of the early Burlington's where the latter will consult one of the city physicians.

Mrs. Frank Janda boarded the early Burlington this morning going up to Omaha for a short stay.

Mrs. Patrick Egan was in the morning crowd at the Burlington depot this morning, making the trip to Omaha to visit friends.

Mrs. B. Motsin is spending the day in Omaha, combining business and pleasure in the day's outing.

Miss Anna Peterson departed this morning for Allen, Nebraska where she will visit friends until Monday and Tuesday.

Mrs. W. J. Herring and children are in the Gate City today expecting to return on an early evening train.

Mrs. A. E. Todd and two small sons who reside about four miles west of the city, made a day's sojourn to the metropolis today.

Ex representative E. M. Pollard and wife and two little sons paid the city a short call yesterday afternoon, coming up about 2:50 in their touring car.

Mr. and Mrs. William Spangler were aboard the north bound Burlington this morning, bound for Omaha on a combined business and pleasure trip.

Mrs. Joseph Fitzgerald and daughter Grace are in Omaha today on their regular weekly visit at the place, where Miss Fitzgerald is taking musical instruction.

Mrs. J. C. Peterson returned today from Sterling, Colo., where she has been for the past few weeks visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Ed Spies.

Mrs. T. P. Livingston made a brief sojourn to the metropolis today, going up on the eight-fifteen this morning.

Today is one that will make the corn grow. It is the hottest day of the spring. The Burlington thermometer registered 86 this morning at eight o'clock, this being nine degrees warmer than any eight o'clock reading this year.

Miss Margaret Callahan and Miss Margaret Hayes, a friend from Lincoln who is visiting her, went up to Omaha this morning on a short pleasure trip.

Pollock Parmele and George Dovey will leave tomorrow on a long automobile trip to Lake Okaboje, the well known pleasure resort in the northern part of Iowa. They will make the trip in the Parmele machine and remain at the lake several weeks.

Miss Grace De Lashmütt started this morning for her home at Burwell, Nebraska having been in the city a few days a guest at the J. M. Robertson residence. Miss De Lashmütt was a member of the South Omaha public school faculty the past year.

"The Boys in Blue" the patriotic production under the auspices of the Eagles, will take place this evening at the Parmele theater. The advance sale of tickets was large and the show promises to be a good one.

James B. Earhart of Murray was a caller at the office this morning, entering his name with the list of contestants in the News-Herald subscription contest which is attracting so much attention in the county. He seems to be a hustler and he will undoubtedly make a good run for the first place.

Final hearing was held in county court this morning of the accounts of A. E. Taylor, administrator in the Robert C. Kendall estate, who resigned his position and settled up his accounts. Benjamin Dabvis was appointed as administrator to fill the vacancy. The estate is one of considerable value, consisting of a large quantity of land and stock near Union. Mrs. Robert Kendall of Union, widow of the deceased, was present at the hearing.

Here's A New And Better Way To Keep Things Clean

Avoid drudgery in the kitchen in cleaning pots, kettles and pans, in scrubbing floors, cleaning wood-work, bath-tubs and keeping things clean throughout the house. Old Dutch Cleanser has revolutionized house work. This new, handy all-round Cleanser does the work of all old-fashioned cleansers put together.

Old Dutch Cleanser Cleans-Scrubs-Scours and Polishes

in the kitchen, pantry, dairy, bath-rooms, bedrooms, parlor and throughout the house. It keeps everything clean and spotless, from milk-pails and separators to wood floors, wood-work, bath tubs, etc.

The Easier and Quicker Way. Wet the article, sprinkle Old Dutch Cleanser on cloth or brush and rub well, rinse with clean water and wipe dry.

Avoid caustic and acid cleansers. With this new Cleanser you can get through your housework in half the time and with half the labor formerly required.

10¢ LARGE SIFTER CAN

$25.00 to California

The World's Greatest All-the-Year Resort Double Daily Through Service VIA

Choice of Scenery The True Southern Route via El Paso —OR— Through Scenic Colorado via Pueblo and Denver Ask for Rates and Schedules Hugh Norton, Agent.

Just Plain Talk

We are a nation of particular people—We are most particular in what we eat. We want always to know that the various food articles of which we partake, contain only pure, wholesome ingredients. The fact that "Fairy Ice Cream" is the only Ice Cream made in Plattsmouth that has been approved of by the Nebraska Pure Food Commission, should place this delicious article upon the table of every family in the city. Guaranteed absolutely free from starch or any other adulteration.

QUART 35c. HALF GAL. 65c. Special Low Price in Quantities.

We are still the leading soda dispensers in the city. Everything neat, clean and sanitary—Ingredients prepared by an expert of fifteen years experience. Be good to yourself and make this your headquarters.

NEMETZ & CO. Candy Makers. Next door to P. O.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA