Call for Exquisito, 5c cigars.
Dr. W. B. Elster, Dentist, Waterman Block.

There is nothing like it. Continental whiskey, at Ed Donat's.

For tin roofing and spouting call on the Ebinger Hardware company.

Editor Lee J. Mayfield, of the Louisville Courier, was in town on Monday.

Call at Ed Donat's and try his twenty-one years old Continental whiskey.

All kinds of pumps and pump repairs at the Ebinger Hardware company's.

M. W. Waybright is arranging to remove from his farm into town for the winter.

If you haven't tasted the Continental whiskey at Ed Donat's, you don't know what is good.

Editor Huckins and Publisher Leedom, of the Nebraska Blizzard, were in the city on Saturday.

Wanted--Respectable lady for housekeeper, in family of two. Louis Ottum, Tenth and Oak streets.

George B. Lehnhoff's book and stationery store is headquarters for gas-line lamps and fittings, mantles, chimneys, etc.

Frank Schlatter returned on Tuesday evening from a trip to Laramie, Wyo., where he went to investigate some ranch property.

The killing frosts during the past week has put an end to the tomato crop, and caused an advance of three cents in the price of corn.

When you want to enjoy a good smoke call for the Exquisito 5c cigar. None better. Home made, union made. All dealers sell them.

Extra nice peaches on sale from September 15th to 30th, on all days except Saturdays, at 50c to $1.25 per bushel at Dan Kiser's, Eight Mile Grove.

Mrs. E. E. Goodwin paid the Journal office a friendly call on Tuesday, and left us some peaches. She says she is thinking some of selling her farm.

Flor de Aya, Red Axe, Acorns--ask for one of these brands when you want a smoke, and learn for yourself that the cigars of Ptak & Bajek are equal to any.

The Ebinger Hardware company will give you an estimate of the cost of putting a furnace in your house, and will do the work complete and do it right.

Monte Straight has resigned his position as despatching clerk at the local postoffice, and has been succeeded by Miss Mia Gering, who formerly held the position.

Don't forget that Ptak & Bajek are manufacturers of several lines of fine cigars, which have been put upon the market. Try them for a fine, sweet smoke.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Taylor returned home on Saturday morning from their visit to New York state and the Buffalo exposition. They report having a very pleasant trip.

H. L. Oldham, of Murray, has a large crop of peaches, which he will sell at $1.00 per bushel at his farm or $1.25 per bushel delivered. Will also sell in wagon load lots.

W. T. Melvin, a former resident of Plattsmouth who removed to Michigan about a year ago, has returned and will again become a resident here. There's no place like Nebraska, after all.

The boom of the cannon at Ft. Crook, can be distinctly heard in this city. During the past week salutes were fired every morning and evening, in compliance with the order of the war department.

The crop of watermelons is unusually large this year, and this market is greatly overstocked, although prices remain high. Several wagon loads were on the streets at one time last Tuesday and purchasers were scarce.

The theatrical season at the Parmelee theatre opens this evening, Chauncey Olcott, in his new comedy, "Garrett O'Magh," being the opening attraction. Manager Stadelman has some fine attractions booked for this season.

Ladies who are interested in the manufacture of fancy paper flowers, and other work of that character, are invited to call at George B. Lehnhoff's book and stationery store, where they will be shown something interesting in that line.

During the past week marriage licenses have been issued to the following parties: Bert Gallant Clarence, age 23, and Melissa Sallie Wiseman, age 23, both of Union; Chilton B. Laughlin, age 25, of Ashland, and Janette King, age 26, of Greenwood; John G. Osborn, age 21, of Elmwood, and Maggie Smith, age 18, of Plattsmouth.

Messrs. Frank J. Morgan, H. D. Travis, William D. Wheeler, William

Gillespie, Ed Fitzgerald, T. E. Parmelee and W. K. Fox were in Lincoln on Tuesday attending the democratic state convention. They report that the convention was well attended, the hall being crowded.

The concert at Murray last Tuesday night, given by parties from this city, was very successful from a musical point of view, and was heartily enjoyed by the people of Murray and vicinity. Financially the affair was also successful, but not to any very large degree, the expenses being quite heavy, and absorbed a greater part of the receipts.

Murdock

News Correspondence.
Sam Kitts has gone to Gretna, perhaps to locate permanently.

H. V. McDonald is entertaining visitors from Iowa this week.

Mrs. H. A. Tool and baby are visiting her parents at Stratton, Neb.

Henry Rickman bid in the Rush eighty Wednesday, paying $4.05 therefor.

E. M. Shatto has been sent to Carbondale, Ill., to investigate a mill property there, with a view of moving it to Murdock.

Matt Spader was presented with a third nomination for assessor of Elmwood precinct, upon his return from Germany.

H. R. Neltzel and family left for South Bend, Ind., Friday afternoon to visit with the former's mother and other relatives during the next ten days.

Holmes & Anderson are shipping their stock of general merchandise to El Reno, Okla., intending to locate somewhere in the territory. It is with regret that we see them leave.

Eagle

Charles Rudolph has purchased Otto Lubber's farm west of town, and Mr. Lubber has purchased Martin Horsh's farm.

S. S. English was calling on Eagle friends last week. He will soon remove to Chicago.

The rains of the past week have left the ground in excellent condition. While these rains come a little late, they go to show that Nebraska is all right, and can be depended upon.

Eagle was well represented in the art department at the state fair, Fannie Richardson having made twenty-one entries of embroidery, and came home with seventeen first and four second premiums, amounting to $38.50, having made a clean sweep. The exhibit consisting of pillows, fire screens, art squares, centers, etc., occupied a prominent position in the art hall, and received much attention and many flattering comments.

Fred Spahnle was quite badly injured last week, by having a horse which he was riding fall upon him.

Andy Hess' two jacks took first premium at the state fair, and his two jennets took first and second prizes. He also had a Poland China boar that took first premium, it weighing 715 pounds when fourteen months old.

Special Correspondence.

Many farmers are now busy with their fall plowing. The recent rains have put the ground in excellent shape.

David Bates reports the loss of both his ponies. He turned them into the pasture, and thinks they eat some poisonous weeds.

The new blacksmith in our town, spoken of a few weeks ago, is an assured fact. Frank Marler is his name, and he is said to be a good workman.

George Wenke has been plowing on the Metzger farm, rented by himself and his brother Will. He is boarding at Phil Cook's, and there is a reason for this. He is said to be looking for a cook.

The democratic ticket is heartily commended by all except republicans, and even some of them say it is a good ticket. We think it is No. 1, and will be hard to beat.

The populists, although weak in numbers, are well posted citizens, and the republican party in Cass county is not so far in the lead but they may be called down should the populists think it advisable, and there is quite a likelihood of their thinking so.

Dan Kiser took a load of peaches to Plattsmouth last week. He is selling them at home at from 50c to $1.25 per bushel. This is getting to be a great peach country. Only a few years ago Otter, Nemaha, and a few other counties south were the only peach producers in this section, but Cass county is coming right to the front.

Yours, gingerly, JAMAICA.

Maple Grove

Special Correspondence.

Quite a number of people from this vicinity were in attendance at the Modern Woodmen log-rolling at Louisville last Saturday.

J. S. Lindsey and son George started to lay the foundation for a new house at Phillip Hild's last Monday.

Glen Boedeker started on Monday to attend school at Murray this term.

John Hable is a regular Sunday visitor near Eight Mile Grove of late, and the people are wondering why.

Crede Harris, Adam Kraeger, Will Pius and Henry Engelke were Plattsmouth visitors on Tuesday.

John D. McBride and W. D. Jones passed through here last Sunday.

Miss Ida Boedeker was among the visitors to Plattsmouth on Tuesday.

Crede Harris has sold his spring wheat to Charles Heisel for 60c per bushel.

Union

From the Ledger.

Richard Good died at his home four miles southeast of Union on Sept. 6th from dropsy. He was aged sixty-four years, and moved to Cass county in 1883. The remains were buried in Lewistown cemetery.

The democrats of Liberty precinct have nominated the following precinct ticket: Assessor, W. E. Cross; justices of the peace, John Kennedy and J. R. Pierson; constables, O. T. Davis and G. W. Saxton; road overseers--district No. 40, Jas. Carper; district No. 39, Carter Albion; district No. 59, Fred Young; district No. 60, George Edmisten.

A musical and supper for the benefit of the church will be held at the M. E. church tomorrow night. Ice cream, cake and coffee will be served.

W. J. Pierson has sold his stock of general merchandise to R. H. Frans & Co.

Wm. Eikenbary has disposed of his fine farm of 320 acres a few miles northeast of Union, John T. Pope, of Woodbury county, Iowa, being the purchaser. The price paid was $20,800, or $65 per acre, possession to be given March 1st, at which time Mr. Pope and family will become permanent residents of Cass county. The farm is one of the best improved in the county and is well worth the price paid.

I. N. Applegate went to Lincoln last week, and informed us that he would probably extend his visit to Denver.

Nehawka

From the Register.

J. P. Holmes, whose barn was burned last week, has built a shed on the east end of his lot for use until his new barn is completed.

The W. C. T. U. will hold a special business meeting tomorrow afternoon at 3:00 o'clock.

G. W. Harshman Jr. has purchased a ten-roller corn shredder and husker, and has contracted to work up into feed three hundred acres of corn for E. M. Pollard.

The sound of the school bell is heard again, and the merry laughter of the children fills the air with happiness, all seeming to enjoy the pleasure of going to school. We do not know the exact number of pupils enrolled, but the school is well filled this year. Miss Buswell is the teacher, and we think she is fully qualified for the position.

Elmwood

From the Leader-Echo.

Edwin Jeary has sold a piece of Lincoln property for $500, that in the boom days ten years ago he paid $1,500 for. That's the kind of an investment a man will never forget.

During the storm Tuesday morning of last week lightning struck the barn on Wm. Coon's place north of town, damaging it to the extent of $200.

Charles Hart has received $668.80 in settlement of the insurance on the Elmwood house, which was recently damaged by fire. Mr. Hart has a force of men at work, and will rebuild the burned portion of the building.

Miss Mabel Dickson has gone to Springfield, where she will teach the village school.

One of A. J. McNamara's cows gave birth to triplets one day last week, and at last reports all were doing well. Two of the calves were of medium size, but the other one was quite small.

John Dreame, of Alvo, has purchased the Stanford house, and will move to Elmwood within a few weeks.

Louisville

From the Courier.

A heavy wind and electric storm visited this section last Wednesday evening. The shingles on the Stout stone house east of town were torn off, a corn crib upset, and several hogs belonging to Mr. Holyoke were caught beneath the crib and killed. Trees in many parts of town were blown down. The storm came up so suddenly it is a wonder that more damage was not done.

Simon Clark purchased an eighty acre farm east of town from Frank Inholder last week, paying $3,600 for it.

It was really comical to see the boys and girls make a run for home when the curfew bell was tolled for the first time last Monday night. Near the merry-go-round there was a perfect jam of children, but the sound of the bell had not died out when there was not a kid to be seen on the streets.

All was perfect harmony at the democratic convention held here last week. There were no contests and no dissatisfaction.

Miscellaneous

Marriage is certainly a partial failure in Mills county, Iowa, as the Glenwood papers report eighteen divorce cases on the docket for hearing at the next term of district court there.

George Ham and Dan McCurdy got into a dispute at Springfield recently, which ended in a fight. The two men clinched, and when parted it was found that Ham had chewed a piece of McCurdy's ear off.

The Weeping Water base ball team thought they could show Springfield how to play ball, and wanted to bet money on it. The challenge was accepted with $100 on each side. Springfield won, 4 to 0.

PLATTSMOUTH - - - - - NEBRASKA

HAYDEN'S CLOAK AND SUIT DEPT.

This year above all others in the history of our career in Omaha we are in a position to give better values in ladies' misses and children's ready-to-wear garments than ever before. This is brought about by our contracting for tremendous quantities of these goods in New York at a time in July when it was thought there that the era of belt was doomed. The great stock strike was in its infancy, and to one acquainted with the eastern markets business for the winter of 1901-2 looked disastrous. Manufacturers and tailors were willing and anxious to make up garments at a little over half price.

HENCE THE REASON OF OUR POSITION TO-DAY.

We invite your inspection. We ask you to examine thoroughly and you will see for yourselves we can save you fully 25 to 50 per cent.

SPECIAL BARGAIN No. 1--Women's all wool Kersey box coat, lined with French satin high storm collar, comes in browns, castors, blues, blacks, and reds; under usual buying conditions price would be $10.00, this season $6.50.

SPECIAL BARGAIN No. 2--Women's jackets, made of best quality all wool American mills Kersey, lined throughout with the famous American Skinner's satin, warranted for two years; a year; comes in coat or storm collar, strapped seams; under usual buying conditions would cost $12.00; this season $10.00.

SPECIAL BARGAIN No. 3--A flannelette wrapper made from extra heavy flannelette with deep ruffles over shoulder and back. A regular $12.50 wrapper; sale price 79c.

SPECIAL BARGAIN No. 4--Child's jacket made of elegant piece of English mixtures in very dainty shades, red, green, brown, blue, tan and castor; inlaid attached velvet lapels; under usual buying conditions would have to be sold at $5.00; this season $
