"The Telephone Girl."

The next attraction at the Farnelle theater will be "The Telephone Girl," a comic opera, which is booked for an appearance on Thursday night, March 27th. The company is well recommended, and Manager Farnelle has received the following letter from Denver concerning them:

Denver, Col., March 12.—T. E. Farnelle, Plattsmouth, Neb.—Dear sir: I, J. Rosenthal's excellent company is playing "The Telephone Girl" at the Tabor Grand this week, and notwithstanding the fact that this is its fourth visit to Denver, the receipts will be greater than during any of its previous engagements. The gross receipts for the week will easily reach $6,000, if not more. It is by far the best and most refined performance of "The Telephone Girl" that has ever been given, and the company headed by Dave Lewis as "Hans Nix" is all My New York representatives have booked it again for next season. Yours truly,
PETER McCURT.

Culled From the Courts.

Ed Donat was arrested on Monday on complaint of Michael Timmas, who charged Donat with disturbing the peace by fighting, to all of which Donat entered a plea of not guilty. Three witnesses were examined, and their testimony developed the fact that Timmas had gone into Donat's saloon on Saturday night and that during an altercation Donat assaulted Timmas and then threw him out on the sidewalk. Judge Archer fined Donat $5 and costs—a total of $9, which he paid.

Moses Fanger was awarded a judgment for $1277 against Howard Searle in Justice Archer's court on Monday. Fanger sued for this amount due for goods sold to defendant. Searle is an employe at the B. & M. shops and the company was garnished, answering that they were indebted to Searle to the extent of $12. The judge ordered the company to pay this amount into court to be applied on the payment of the judgment and costs—a total of $19.07.

William T. King appeared before Justice Archer on Monday and swore out an information charging Ed Donat with selling liquor to his son, Cornelius V. King, a minor. The sale is alleged to have been made on February 24th, and consisted of a quart of beer. Young King was recently convicted in district court of the crime of house stealing. His age is given at 17 years.

Wurl & Coffey have commenced an action in Justice Archer's court against J. W. Seiver to recover the sum of $34.42, alleged to be due on account for goods sold and delivered to defendant. The case is set for hearing this morning.

Doings in District Court.

The case of Hans P. Sundell vs. Theodore Lemm, involving the right of possession of a house and several lots south of town, which was appealed from Justice Archer's court, has been dismissed.

In the case of Lulu Taylor vs. C. Lawrence Stull the name of Cass county was allowed to be substituted as party plaintiff. This is an action wherein Cass county seeks to recover a certain sum paid out for a nurse, medical services, etc., at the time Miss Taylor gave birth to a child in one of the local hotels.

In the case of Louis Olsen vs. the C. B. & Q. railroad company the jury was waived and the case will be tried to the court some time next week.

Charles S. Troop vs. the Plattsmouth Ferry Co., an action to quiet title, was decided in favor of the plaintiff.

Fatally Shot While Hunting.

Frank Neuman Jr., the seventeen-year-old son of Councilman Neuman, was accidentally shot with his own gun while hunting last Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Young Neuman had taken his gun and left home that afternoon, going across the large sand bar opposite Main street to shoot ducks. He had succeeded in killing one duck, and was sitting on a log waiting for more to come his way. His gun was lying across the log, and when an opportunity for another shot presented itself the boy reached for the gun and dragged it toward himself by the muzzle. The weapon was discharged in some manner accidental and the charge of shot entered the boy's body near his left hip, inflicting a ghastly and fatal wound. He called for help several times, and his shouts finally attracted the attention of C. A. Weidely, who was working at the B. & M. depot. The wounded boy had started to walk over to town, but was rapidly becoming weak from the shock and loss of blood, and when Weidely noticed him he had just waved his hands in the air and called for help when he fell forward on the sand. Weidely immediately went across the bar to his assistance, and aided him to the B. & M. depot, where he was placed in a carriage and brought up town to Dr. Livingston's office, where his wound was dressed. The physician examined the wound carefully and pronounced the injuries fatal, and the unfortunate lad was conveyed to his home, where he died at 4:30 o'clock on Saturday morning.

The funeral services were held on Sunday afternoon, and were largely attended. Rev. Ploetz, of the German Presbyterian church officiating.

Nominate Citizens' Ticket.

The republican and democratic city central committees met in the commissioners' room at the court house last Friday night and placed in nomination a complete list of candidates for the city offices to be filled at the election on Tuesday, April 1st.

J. P. Falter presided, and W. L. Pickett acted as secretary, and a number of citizens were present as spectators.

The candidates selected are as follows: Mayor, Frank J. Morgan; treasurer, Dr. E. W. Cook; clerk, W. K. Fox; police judge, M. Archer. Councilmen—first ward, T. M. Patterson; second ward, Jesse L. Root; third ward, F. H. St-sinker; fourth ward, Henry Ofe; fifth ward, Jas. Higley. Board of education, D. C. Morgan and John Pearce.

The meeting was harmonious throughout and the candidates selected are acceptable to a large majority of our citizens, which means their election at the polls by an overwhelming majority.

No regular party nominations having been made the candidates names will appear on the official ballot by petition. It requires the signatures of 250 legal voters for a candidate's name to appear on the ballot by petition, and this number was easily and readily secured.

Frank J. Morgan, the candidate for mayor, needs no introduction whatever to the people of Plattsmouth. He is well and favorably known as one of our foremost business men, and in matters affecting the welfare of the city he has always been found at the front, devoting his time and energy to the advancement of every project that would be of benefit to Plattsmouth and her citizens. In all matters of this character his services and co-

We do it simply because we pay us, on the plain business principle that a baker would be better off by selling four cakes at a profit of forty cents than selling one at a profit of twenty-five cents.

Will Assess at One-Fifth.

The assessors for the different wards and precincts in Cass county met at the court house on Tuesday and held a conference in regard to the basis for assessment this year. After some little discussion it was decided to assess all property—both real and personal—on a basis of one-fifth of the actual cash value. Heretofore the basis has been on a third or fourth valuation.

There is considerable foolishness and rank injustice connected with fixing the rate at which property is to be assessed. While the law plainly states that all property must be assessed at its fair cash valuation, the assessors meet every year and agree to violate the law, and in many cases they next proceed to violate their agreement. The result is that some precincts are assessed on a basis of one third and others on a basis of one-six actual valuation. It is a notorious fact that real estate in Plattsmouth city is assessed at a fourth valuation while farming land throughout the county is assessed at a sixth, thus imposing an unequal and unjust share of the burden upon the tax-payers of the city.

The agreement among the assessors to assess all property at one-fifth valuation will have a serious and disastrous result on the revenues of the city of Plattsmouth, and means that the city will be crippled financially and will be unable to raise sufficient revenue to meet obligations without radical retrenchment of expenses.

Guilty of Petit Larceny.

The case of the State vs. Frank Boetel was called for trial on Monday. The defendant was charged with breaking into Hessel's mill one night last May. The jury found the defendant guilty of petit larceny, and found the value of the property stolen to be four cents. Sentence has not yet been pronounced. Walter Speck, charged with being an accomplice, entered a plea of guilty and was sentenced to imprisonment in the reformatory at Kearney, he being but fifteen years of age.

Black Dress Goods

Black Dress Goods are apparently the same everywhere. They are not. Ten cents a yard difference in price may cover a multitude of sins of which you are only made aware when the cheap black dress turns rusty and its quality is no more. We have studied the black goods question, and experience tells us that seekers of quality will pay for it. We have black goods of quality, and you are not asked to pay a single penny more than is right.

by everyone as being the best that could possibly have been made. For six successive terms the Judge has filled the office with such ability and fairness that each time he is a candidate for re-election he is chosen by a large majority. The office fits the Judge and the Judge fits the office, and there can be no doubt of his re-election for the seventh successive term.

For members of the board of education the candidates, Messrs. D. C. Morgan and John Pearce, are both known to be men possessing the requisite qualifications to successfully and satisfactorily attend to the duties of the office.

The candidates selected for members of the city council are all first class men. In the first ward T. M. Patterson has served one term in the council and has demonstrated that he is well qualified for the place. In the second ward no better selection than Jesse L. Root could have been made. The voters in this ward are rather erratic in their choice of men for the council, but in the present case there is no doubt but that Jesse Root will be elected by an overwhelming majority.

In the third ward F. H. St-sinker, who has heretofore represented that ward in the council with much ability, was chosen. His previous record in the council proved him to be a man of sound, practical ideas and his constituents, remembering his former good service, will elect him to the place. In the fourth ward, against whom no rational objection can be urged. He has served his ward several years in the capacity of assessor, and his services will be just as thorough in the council. He is a first class man for the place, as the voters of the fourth ward know.

In general, the candidates presented by the citizens' ticket are in every case men who are worthy of the suffrages of the voters of Plattsmouth, without regard to party or political affiliations. A citizens' ticket in Plattsmouth is in the nature of an experiment, and but one object is sought to be attained—the selection of competent and suitable men to transact the business affairs of the city. The elimination of politics with the attendant evil influences, is also a feature of the movement. No political principles are involved in the present city election, and in the selection of candidates it can be said to the credit of the committees that they have acted without the least regard for party, and the voters on election day should follow their good example and endorse all the candidates on the citizens' ticket by a rousing majority.

Brief Bits of City Politics.

The man with the petition has been much in evidence the past few days, and the voters have been importuned to sign petitions for candidates for all the offices to be filled at the coming election. It requires the signature of 250 legal voters to get a candidate's name on the official ballot for city offices, and 50 signatures for members of the council. As a general rule signatures were easily obtained, people signing every petition presented, thus allowing everyone who so desires to become a candidate.

The socialists met in mass convention at their hall in the Drew building last Thursday night and nominated candidates for city offices, as follows: Mayor, Chris Christenson; clerk, Anton Carlson; treasurer, Lawrence Limer; police judge, Frank Eckley; school board, Claude Butler and George McCavigan; councilmen—first ward, Charles Martin; second ward, Michael Bajek; third ward, J. T. Isner; fourth ward, Emil Ratke; fifth ward, Ole Roman.

Robert Hayes, whose term as councilman from the third ward expires this year, will be a candidate for re-election, and his name will appear on the ballot by petition.

John Lutz, councilman from the fifth ward and president of the city council, is a full fledged candidate for mayor. As a general proposition John is all right in both business and politics, but under present circumstances he will not do at all. He has been brought forward as a candidate by the politicians as a "rebuke" to the methods adopted in nominating the citizens' ticket. The people of Plattsmouth have not forgotten the awful pair of black eyes the city received at the hands of the water company and the electric light concern several years ago, and they know who was directly responsible therefor. This same influence is now behind Mr. Lutz's candidacy, which causes it to be looked upon with dark suspicion.

Now that John Unruh has concluded to leave town the political vendetta which has existed between John and Rush Fells will probably be at an end. Rush is hourly expected to show up in the republican camp with Unruh's political hide dangling from his belt, when he will duly exhibit the perforations made therein by his small pica barbed wire editorials and insist that the fatted calf be slaughtered.

J. J. Swoboda is a candidate for councilman in the second ward, opposing Jesse L. Root. John is a first class young man, and we sincerely hope that he will survive the shock when the votes are counted.

The boys who have heretofore done the fine work in city politics, at the primaries and conventions and at the polls, are very much "fernist" the citizens' ticket. The new order of things political completely cuts off their chances for "graft."

Melchior Soennichsen has been prevailed upon to become a candidate for city clerk, and his petition has been signed by the required 250 voters and duly filed with the city clerk. That he will receive a large vote is conceded. Melchior enjoys a deserved popularity, and had he desired it, and made such desire known, he could have had the nomination for clerk on the citizens' ticket.

James Higley, who was selected as the candidate for councilman in the fifth ward on the citizens' ticket, has declined to make the race, and Ed S. Barker has become a candidate.

Steinkamp Recovers Damages.

The case of Adolph Steinkamp vs. Henry Gaebel was tried before a jury in district court on Tuesday. This is a case wherein Steinkamp sued Gaebel for $10,000 damages for injuries received in a shooting affray near Louisville in 1895. The case has been dragging along in the courts for several years, and at one time was dismissed in district court and later on reinstated on mandate from the supreme court. The case was given to the jury at noon on Wednesday, and after several hours deliberation they returned a verdict for the plaintiff awarding him damages in the sum of $900.
