Miss Edna Tighe took the first prize in the county examination of pupils for the diplomas offered by the county superintendent.

We were shown a sample of red clover, Saturday, raised by Wm. Kirkpatrick. It is the second cutting, and has grown since the first cutting June 20, three feet. The numerous rains this season have done the work.

The Catholics held services in Manley last Saturday in their new building. They have fitted up Mr. Tighe's implement building and will use it until the weather gets too cold. They have $6,000 raised for their new church and will commence building at once.

Phil Rouse was given a complete surprise last Wednesday evening by twenty-five juniors dropping in upon him. They took ice cream and cake, and Mrs. Rouse made fruit punch, so the little folks had a delightful time. Miss Jessie Monroe accompanied the guests and assisted Mrs. Rouse in entertaining.

Mrs. S. A. Davis and daughters, Margaret and Eunice of Plattsmouth, drove over from that city last Thursday and visited W. A. Davis' family. Eunice and Alice wish to board with Mrs. Corbett and attend the state university when the latter has removed to Lincoln, and came over to complete arrangements with her, concerning the matter.

H. M. Worley, wife and son, Ivan, started to Syracuse, Friday, to visit relatives. The trip would have been a pleasant one, as they were enjoying the bracing air and beautiful fields of corn as they jogged along, but the horse was not feeling in the right mood and after bucking and kicking the dash board off and demoralizing things generally, more hired a farmer to bring them back to town, and made the trip the next day with a lively team.

"We Have Been Shown."

Mr. Herman Bestor, one of the staunch friends of the Journal, residing west of Plattsmouth, brought to this office last Monday a lot of apples of different varieties, including the "Autum Strawberry" and the "Dutchess of Oldenburg." Of course, "We are from Missouri," the land of the "Big Red Apple," but "we have been shown" that Nebraska, and especially that section known as Cass county, can compete with any other section on earth for fine apples. The samples before us are large and as beautiful as we ever saw. This is saying a great deal, but the "truth will out" even with a newspaper man occasionally. Mr. Bestor will not only please accept the thanks of the Journal for "showing us" what Cass county can do in this line of fruit growing, but also for a sack of splendid eating apples.

FAREWELL RECEPTION

Tendered to Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Rouse at Weeping Water.

On Friday evening, August 12th, another reception was tendered Prof. and Mrs. E. L. Rouse, previous to their return to this city. The Board of Education of Weeping Water had contemplated giving the Professor and wife a farewell reception, and the ladies of the Zetetic club having made similar arrangements, it was decided to make it a joint affair, representatives of both bodies assisted in the grand affair. Refreshments were served and an elegant time was enjoyed by all present. The two receptions given Mr. and Mrs. Rouse recently, show the high esteem in which they are held by the good people of Weeping Water. Pertaining to the event, we clip the following from the Republican:

About nine o'clock Mrs. Woodford, president of the Zetetic club rapped for order and announced that they would have a short program. R. V. Boone then rendered a cornet solo, "In Happy Moments." This number called forth liberal applause, as did the next one, a vocal solo by Miss Fannie Broewe, "Grasses and Roses" in which the rendition was particularly pleasing. This was followed by a vocal solo by Mrs. Treat, a lullaby song, that captured the audience, and was greeted with much applause.

Mrs. Woodford then on behalf of the Zetetic club, spoke of the regret at losing Mrs. Rouse, their love for her, and her work in the club, to which Mrs. Rouse responded in a very clever manner, thanking them for their kindness and trouble in preparing the reception and speaking particularly of the pleasant associations, and kindness shown them as strangers coming to our town, that they had enjoyed their five years of stay here and would leave with many kind remembrances.

Mr. Pool on behalf of the board of education spoke of Mr. Rouse's efficient work, the high standard to which the school had been raised, the harmony that prevailed between the board and Mr. Rouse and also the patrons of the school, and hoped that the change he was about to make would only be a stepping stone to something better.

Mr. Rouse responded with the usual humorous story or two intermingled and thanked all for their appreciation of his services. He stated that he had had the hearty co-operation of the school board and they had granted him what he had asked for, to make the school better in many particulars.

The essentials necessary for a good school, were: an efficient board, the sympathy and help of parents, students desirous of learning, and a capable superintendent; the former three he was satisfied we had, but he was too modest to allow the latter.

A grand march at a late hour ended this most pleasant occasion.

He Stole a Belt.

Ward Barr was arrested Saturday afternoon on the complaint of Julius Ramage, who charged him with having stolen a belt and some sword chains from him last February. Barr acknowledged his guilt, and Judge Archer fined him $5.00 and costs. His employer went his security for the amount, and he was allowed to depart.

OKLAHOMA.

As Viewed by One of Cass County's Farmers.

EL RENO, Oklahoma, Aug. 14, '02.
Mr. Editor:—As it seems to be the custom of those visiting Oklahoma to express their views of the country through your valuable columns, I thought by your kind permission, to do likewise.

We arrived in El Reno after a very pleasant journey and were most agreeably surprised to find my daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Coon Stoehr, so nicely situated. They have 160 acres of as good land as ever lay out of doors, capable of producing anything. They have an abundance of fruit of all kinds, peaches, pears, apples, plums and cherries, and their crops of small grain and corn is excellent, oats going between 65 and 70 bushels to the acre. Wheat was only about one-half crop, averaging about 14 bushels per acre, and his corn is fine, being almost matured and ready to husk. Of course, all places are not improved as well as theirs, as far as orchards are concerned, but this only verifies to us what the country will do.

Land is advancing rapidly in price, Mr. Stoehr having been offered $6,000 for his quarter.

We like the country so well that we think of purchasing a half section, as we feel certain that it will be a very profitable investment.

We had the pleasure of visiting Mr. A. J. Stinson and family and found them enjoying the best of health, and they seemed happy and contented. They have just added another quarter section of land to their farm, which now makes them three quarter sections.

Mr. Stinson hauled the oats which he raised on 48 acres right from the thrasher to the elevator and received in return $1,120. Mr. Stinson and family like the country and climate better all the time.

We also met Mrs. Mollie Mayfield of Burlington, Iowa, an old time resident of Elmwood, at Mr. Stinson's. Mrs. Mayfield was looking at land and also thinks of investing. Land is advancing so rapidly in price that my opinion is, those who wish to avail themselves of a home in one of the best countries—one in which you can depend on a crop—is to do so at once.

We called at Ernest Hayes' one afternoon, but as he was threshing, we did not have time to look over his farm. His wheat is as good as the rest, and his corn will make 50 bushels per acre. They are all well and pleased with their home.

Begging your indulgence for taking so much of your valuable space. I remain, Respectfully,
CONRAD MEISINGER.

Not Over-Wise.

There is an old allegorical picture of a girl scared at a grass-hopper, but in the act of treading on a snake. This is paralled by the man who spends a large sum of money building a cyclone cellar, but neglects to provide his family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a safeguard against bowel complaints, whose victims outnumber those of the cyclone a hundred to one. This remedy is everywhere recognized as the most prompt and reliable medicine in use for these diseases. For sale by all druggists.

A bountiful dinner consisting of all the delicacies of the season was served at noon. The afternoon was spent in reviewing old times. A very enjoyable day was spent by all present. Evening came only too soon and the guests departed for their respective homes wishing Mr. Crabtree many more happy birthdays.

Wants Deed to Lots.

Stephen D. Cecil has filed a suit in district court, against Mary E. Putnam, an executrix of the estate of Ira D. Putnam, deceased. Plaintiff alleges in his petition that on April 7th, 1898, he purchased from said Ira S. Putnam lots 8, 9, 10 and 11, in block 8, city of Plattsmouth. He was to make monthly payments until the full purchase price was paid, when he was to be given a deed. He states that he has fully paid for the property, but in the meantime Putnam died and his widow has been appointed administratrix. She cannot give a deed unless directed to do so by the court, and the object of the suit is to have her so directed.

Dysentery Cured Without the Aid of a Doctor.

"I am just up from a hard spell of the flux" (dysentery) says Mr. T. A. Pinner, a well known merchant of Drummond, Tenn. "I used one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and was cured without having a doctor. I consider it the best cholera medicine in the world." There is no need of employing a doctor when this remedy is used, for no doctor can prescribe a better medicine for bowel complaint in any form either for children or adults. It never fails and is pleasant to take. For sale by all druggists.

Remember the Dates.

On the following dates the Burlington will sell tickets to Omaha at the rate of 75 cents for the round trip, tickets limited in each case to the day following date of sale: August 21, 24, 27, 31 and September 3, 7, 10, 14 and 17.

Gray Hair

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for over thirty years. It has kept my scalp free from dandruff and has prevented my hair from turning gray."—Mrs. F. A. Soule, Billings, Mont.

There is this peculiar thing about Ayer's Hair Vigor—it is a hair food, not a dye. Your hair does not suddenly turn black, look dead and lifeless. But gradually the old color comes back,—all the rich, dark color it used to have. The hair stops falling, too.

Greenwood

From the News.
Allen J. Beeson, a candidate for county attorney, was in town Wednesday.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Christenson, Friday, August 15, a son, weight nine pounds.

John Kyle was taken to Omaha Wednesday evening, where an operation will be performed.

Greenwood has reason to congratulate herself on the good behavior of her visitors Wednesday. Not a single arrest. No disturbance of any kind. It speaks volumes for the M. W. A.

Miss Ethel Latsch and Mrs. Mollie Reed Goedecke, employes of the Omaha Printing Company, who are enjoying an outing a-wheel, paid the News a very pleasant call Saturday. The ladies are charming in every way and the News wishes they would come often.

The visitors were loud in their praises of the B. & M. railroad company which, contrary to the usual rule, allowed the coaches of the special train, which was side-tracked here, to remain open during the day and thereby enabled the visitors to enjoy a shelter from the storm.

Mrs. John U. Pope died at her residence six miles northwest of town Saturday morning. She was born in Missouri and came to Nebraska in 1883. She leaves a husband and four children. The interment took place in the Greenwood cemetery on Sunday.

He Wants Specimens.

W. L. Pickett, agent for the Burlington route, is anxious to secure some nice specimens of Cass county agricultural products, wherewith to decorate the interior and exterior of the depot. Nothing could give the county a better advertisement than this as thousands of passengers both from the east and west pass through Plattsmouth every week, and a good display of farm products will excite comment and inquiry.
