From the Leader-Echo.
A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bischoff, Thursday November 27. That's better than a Thanksgiving turkey, Henry.
Martin Shaefer, living a couple of miles south of town, is raising and remodeling his residence. An addition 15x16, two stories high, with a neat porch, will be built. James Durbin has the contract for the work.
Dan McNeely, H. B. Carter and Jess Carter broke the record on squirrel hunting last week. They went out hunting Thanksgiving morning returning a little after noon with twenty-seven squirrels, two rabbits and two prairie chickens.
Pete Clarence was shoeing a horse at Wm. Mueller's Wednesday, when the animal jerked its foot away, terribly lacerating the forefinger of Mr. Clarence's right hand on a nail protruding from the hoof. Several stitches were required to cover the finger bone with meat again.
Ed Mapes was taken ill in the corn field Friday, with hemorrhage of the stomach. He drove to the barn, put up his team and was about ready to start to the house when he suddenly threw up over a quart of blood. He became dizzy and fainted, and it was sometime before he came to and was able to crawl to the house, when medical aid was at once summoned. He is in quite a serious condition, but at last report was some better.
Ella, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Atchison, in company with one or two other girls, was riding horseback about their home Friday, when she met with a very painful accident. The girls all fell off the horse alighting on the ground in a heap, Miss Ella having the misfortune to fracture her right arm between the elbow and shoulder. Dr. Neely was called and set the broken member and the patient is getting along nicely.

Greenwood
From the News.
The Maple Leaf hotel changed hands December 1st.
Born—Wednesday morning, to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Carr, a fine boy.
Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Kern entertained several of their neighbors, at crokinole last Friday night.
Mrs. George Walling is rapidly recovering from the second operation for the removal of the dead bone in her arm.
Judge Foster is troubled with something like sciatic rheumatism and has to hobble around with a cane this week.
Miss Mattie Coleman, the efficient deputy postmistress, had a tussel with the gripe the first of the week and came out victorious.
Phillips & Anderson and the Hewitt family composing the Metropolitan Orchestra Company left on their tour Tuesday morning. These people are well known in Greenwood and the News joins their many friends in wishing them a successful theatrical career.
Mr. and Mrs. Guy Loder had a 30 pound turkey for their Thanksgiving dinner which was more than they could eat, at one meal, so they invited Mr. Loder's parents and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Pailing to aid them in disposing of his royal highness.

Nehawka
From the Register.
Earl Kirpatrick left last Saturday for a term in the Hammond railroad and telegraph school at St. Louis.
Henry Kamm and wife of Glenwood, Colo., came in Wednesday evening and are visiting relatives and friends south of town.
Deb Munn hitched his threshing engine onto a lister Monday afternoon and ploughed the trenches for our new gas plant.
Oliver Murdoch and wife returned to their home at Arapahoe, Nebr., after visiting about three weeks with relatives at this place.
Captain Geo. L. Sheldon and father, Mr. Lawson Sheldon, left Tuesday for Mississippi. They went to look after some business connected with the captain's plantation.
Uncle Wm. Chapman returned Saturday from DeWitt county, Illinois, where he went to see his sister who was suffering from an injury caused by falling. Mr. Chapman says he found his sister much improved and thinks that she will soon be well again.
Miss Gertrude Nelson was overcome by gas at the home of B. W. Bates Monday night. Mrs. Bates had turned the damper of the base burner causing the gas from the coal to escape in the room. Miss Nelson was quite sick for two or three days from the effects of the gas.

Eagle
Travis Crabtree has been very sick the past few days with tonsillitis.
The Missouri Pacific R. R. people have a gang of men here at work remodeling their depot. We will have a nice depot when it is finished.
The county bridge builders finished putting in two large bridges north of town this week and are now at work on the bridge east of McClintock's house.
Charles Aaron of Airo came home the other day with a bright new bride taking his friends by surprise. Charley had been so clumsy and stupid

"For 25 years I have never missed taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla every spring. It cleanses my blood, makes me feel strong, and does me good in every way."
—John P. Hodette, Brooklyn, N.Y.
Pure and rich blood carries new life to every part of the body. You are invigorated, refreshed. You feel anxious to be active. You become strong, steady, courageous. That's what Ayer's Sarsaparilla will do for you.
$1.00 a bottle. All druggists.
Ask your doctor what he thinks of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. He knows all about this grand old family medicine. Follow his advice and we will be satisfied.
J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.

Louisville
From the Courier.
Mr. P. Petersen is visiting his son, John, in Oklahoma.
James Stander is still quite sick with grip. He is confined to his room.
Charley Fossburg was married to a Miss Nelson of Sarpy county Wednesday.
Tom E. Parmele, of Plattsmouth, was in town today looking after his business interests.
George Schoeman, sr., is in Oklahoma where he went to look after business affairs. He expects to be gone about a week.
A petition was presented to the Board of Education Tuesday to have a meeting called to vote bonds for the purpose of erecting a new school building. The board deserves credit for their prompt action in putting the matter before the people. Louisville is very fortunate in having men on the school board who are interested in our public schools.
Miss Mary McKinnie was born February 26, 1826, was married to W. J. Sinner December 5, 1848, died November 28, 1902.
John Hook departed for Pleasant Hill, Mo., last evening in response to a message that his father was dangerously ill. He will return March 1 to work for Mr. Coop.

Weeping Water
From the Herald.
Born to Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Wallek, Sunday, November 30, a girl.
At her home four miles west and one mile north of Weeping Water, on Tuesday, Dec. 2, 1902, Mrs. Martha Gordon, aged 67 years, died of fever and hard cold.
Clifton Countryman has been engaged to teach school in the Hollenbeck district and commenced school Monday. His arm that was broken is rapidly knitting.
Ed Tighe says he has made the deal whereby he secures 3360 acres of land lying about thirteen miles west of O'Neill, Nebr., paying $15 per acre. There is about 1400 acres of this fine hay land, and good for cultivating, the balance pasture land. A good spring is also a desirable feature. Mr. Tighe expects to engage in the stock business and will probably go there the middle of February.
Mrs. O. K. Cromwell and son Richard went to Lincoln, Friday, to have a growth removed from Richard's nose, that interfered somewhat with his breathing. Examination, however, revealed the fact that his nose had been broken at some previous time, and that was the cause of the trouble. Just what remedy will be found necessary will be terminated later. They returned home Monday morning.
Wednesday, Nov. 26, 1902, Eva, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac N. Hunter, departed this life, aged four years and three months, of that dread disease diphtheria. The bereaved parents are almost heart broken in the loss of their loved one, a sweet and loving child, whose absence now will cause much sorrow. The deep sympathy of friends, is extended to them in their affliction.

Murdock
Special Correspondence.
M. E. Sunday School will observe Christmas Day with a tree and appropriate exercises.
Our genial butcher, Mr. Fred Wichter, sold his meat market the first of the week, and departed for Oklahoma taking the Tuesday evening train.
No additions to the race this week, but rumor has it several contractions in contemplation "two to be made one."
Services, both morning and evening, in both of the churches, M. E. and United Evangelical.
Rev. Eby began revival services Wednesday evening, December 3rd, in the United Evangelical church, and one of our most popular young men of this vicinity named "Jay" is seeking Grace.
Miss Charlotte Wartz visited her sister, Mrs. A. J. Towle, over Saturday and Sunday.
Mr. Scott Hare has returned home safe and sound from his trip to the eastern part of Iowa. He reports good time(s) prevail in our home metropolis, Omaha.
Ernest Bachmeyer, "Murdock's Beau Brummel" commences to assist waiting upon the holiday trade in H. V. McDonald's drug store.
Merchants of Murdock report the heavy rush of holiday trade began the first of December.
Blue coats, red caps, brass buttons, or any kind of a uniform upon any old thing seem to have a snap upon the affections of the belles of the burg over our solid, staid, future citizens. Young ladies, patronize home productions, they make truer beaux and are more reliable, and just as nice. The imported article is not so good.
Mr. Arthur Brann, of Wabash, was seen upon our streets last Saturday. He has contracted to teach school in this county. How many pupils, Arthur?

Union
From the Ledger.
Charles Templeton of Natuita, Colorado, arrived here last Friday for a visit with his friend, Prof. Gamble.
Fred and Will Ball departed last Saturday for Thomas, Oklahoma, to spend the winter, and may decide to make it their permanent home.
Walter Jones, a former Union boy, arrived Wednesday night from Hagenet, Neb., to make a visit with his relatives and friends in and near this village.
Dean Austin and Ed Stanton arrived home Tuesday morning from Hot Springs, Ark., where they took a few weeks treatment that proved beneficial to their health.

William DuBois received official notice Sunday of his appointment as postmaster at this place, and he executed his official bond and forwarded it to the department. His commission will arrive soon and he will take charge of the office immediately upon receiving the commission. He has appointed his sister, Miss Etta DuBois, as his assistant.
Clem Pickering came into town last Saturday afternoon with a face and head that looked like he had been in a head-end collision with a locomotive or something of the kind, but he explained that he and Joy Applegate had a little mix-up in which Applegate gave him a few thumps with a stick and made him see all kinds of planets. Clem had a two inch scalp wound on the top of his head and his eye and jaw had swollen to huge dimensions. Dr. Redfield dressed the wounds, while the wheels of justice were turning toward "the man behind the club." Applegate appeared before Justice LaRue, who assessed a fine of $3 and costs, which was paid.

Referee's Sale.
NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT IN pursuance of an order entered by the district court of Cass County, Nebraska, on the 12th day of November, 1902, in an action therein pending, wherein Frank E.
