

The Plattsmouth Journal

CONGRESS has convened and the responsibility of looting the treasury and falling to comply with the demands of the people will all lie with the republicans.

THE republican party is lining up for its grand stand play at Downing street. As a result we expect the trusts to have more "down" in their nests.

THE republicans have sounded the first gun in their campaign against southern representation, by challenging the credentials of Representative Glass, of Virginia.

IF England and Germany would collect their bad debts from the rotten monarchies in Europe and Asia, they would have a precedent for their seeming haste to seize the port of a western republic.

SOME republican statesmen seem to think that a law which would give more power to the elbow of the attorney general would make a good reason for keeping a republican at the head of the department of justice.

THE editor of the London Times calls President Roosevelt a coward. You can say what you please about Teddy but to substantiate a charge of cowardice, "that's a horse of another color," and the paper that amounts to anything to make such a charge wants to be situated at least as far away as the London Times.

IT is now settled that Oom Joe Cannon will be the choice of the republican caucus to succeed Speaker Henderson. Payne of New York and Dalzell of Pennsylvania, the only republican candidates who had the slightest chance of election, have formally retired. There never was much doubt that Oom Joe would be successful.

NOW THAT the republican party confronts a demand for anti-trust legislation, Senator Cullom has found that the present law is all sufficient. We have frequently remarked that fact and have asserted that a few prosecutions under the criminal provisions of the law would secure respect, but no republican attorney general dare enforce it.

ACCORDING to Engineer James C. Stewart, the British bricklayer lays an average of 450 to 600 bricks per day, while the American lays 2,000 to 2,500 bricks per day. When the American bricklayer gets $18 per day, which is what he earns as compared with the British laborer, wages in the United States will be as high as those paid in England.

OURS is not the creed of the weakling and coward; ours is the gospel of hope and of high endeavor.—President's message.

EXCEPT when "we" happen to bump into a tariff-protected monopoly or a criminal trust, and then "we" do not know exactly what "our" creed is. "We" wabble, "we" dodge, "we" hedge, "we" duck, "we" trim, and "we" await developments; for "we" are a candidate for reelection and "we" have been informed that "our" loquacity is likely to get "us" into trouble. "Our" gospel of hope and high endeavor has an eye single to a re-nomination. That is what it all amounts to.

"Two of a Kind."

THE following comparison, "Two of a Kind," is taken from the November issue of The Vanguard, published at Green Bay, Wis., which undoubtedly furnishes great food for thought to the laboring classes of the country:

1775 The rights and interests of the American colonists will be looked after and cared for not by the agitators or rebels, but by the kind Christian gentleman who I, as the direct representative of the people, God, have appointed to look after my lands in the western world. —KING GEORGE.	1900 The rights and interests of the laboring men will be looked after and cared for, not by the agitators or rebels, but by the kind Christian gentleman who I, as the direct representative of the people, God, have appointed to look after my lands in the western world. —PRES. BEAR.

J. P. Falter, of this city, at the state meeting of county commissioners in Beatrice last week, was elected chairman of executive committee of the state organization.

THE Burlington passenger No. 1, a through Denver train, which passes Plattsmouth at 5:27 a. m., flew the track coming into Pacific Junction Wednesday morning, derailing several cars and tearing up the track for a considerable distance. The train was running at a high rate of speed, and strange to say, no one was hurt.

THE lecture of Bishop McCabe at the Parable last night was largely attended, and well received. The chaplain's age is beginning to tell on him, and he does not speak with the vim of years ago. He is yet, however, a most interesting talker. The church realized in the neighborhood of $100 from the proceeds of the lecture.

IF you want any article in the furniture line for a Christmas present for your wife, or sleds, wagons or other suitable toys for the children, bear in mind that Sattler & Fassbender have just what you want. They are not selling at 20 per cent discount, but their prices are lower than their competitors, at that.

IN accordance with the instructions of the citizens on Wednesday night of last week, for the mayor to select six representatives of the city's interests to act as a legislative committee in forming a bill to be presented to the next legislature, regarding the collection of delinquent taxes, Mayor Morgan appointed the following, who have signed their willingness to act: H. B. Gering, Jesse L. Root, Frank E. White, H. N. Dovey, H. D. Travis and J. P. Falter.

A committee representing the Commercial club, of Louisville, called on the county commissioners yesterday and also the county attorney to solicit their co-operation in an effort to compel Sarpy county to bear one-half of the expense in making needed repairs on the bridges across the Platte river at that place. They promised to take action in the matter. It looks like Sarpy county ought to do the fair thing in this matter without any compulsion on the part of any one.

Long Hair

"About a year ago my hair was coming out very fast, so I bought a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor. It stopped the falling and made my hair grow very rapidly, until now it is 45 inches in length."—Mrs. A. Boydston, Atchison, Kans.

There's another hunger than that of the stomach. Hungry hair needs food, needs hair vigor—Ayer's. This is why we say that Ayer's Hair Vigor always restores color, and makes the hair grow long and heavy. $1.00 a bottle. All druggists.

If your druggist cannot supply you, send us one dollar and we will express you a bottle. Be sure and give the name of your nearest express office. Address: J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.

The average housewife always welcomes a choice piece of parlor or bedroom furniture for a Christmas present, and the place to get such articles is at Sattler & Fassbender's.

The Eureka Water Lift, by use of one gallon of city water, will put up a gallon and a half of cistern water, hot or cold, to your fixtures, thus saving one-third of the meter rate.

A glass or two of water taken half an hour before breakfast will usually keep the bowels regular. Harsh cathartics should be avoided. When a purgative is needed, take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are mild and gentle in their action. For sale by all druggists.

Mr. S. J. Kent, of Lincoln, organizer for the Carpenters and Joiners Brotherhood in the city last night for the purpose of effecting an organization here. A meeting was held in the shop of J. C. Coleman, in the basement of the Journal office, but as there were a number of carpenters who failed to be present, another meeting will be held to-morrow (Friday) evening for this purpose.

It will be good news to the mothers of small children to learn that croup can be prevented. The first sign of croup is a hoarse, rattling cough, or a dry cough before the attack the child becomes hoarse. This is soon followed by a peculiar rough cough. Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy freely as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the rough cough appears, and it will dispel all symptoms of croup. In this way all danger and anxiety may be avoided. This remedy is used by many thousands of mothers and has never been known to fail. It is, in fact, the only remedy that can always be depended upon and that is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all druggists.

From An Old Resident.

In a letter to W. K. Fox, requesting the Journal sent to his care, Cadre Rodgers, a former well known citizen of Plattsmouth, but now living in Sawtelle, California, says:

MY DEAR SEXTON:—As strange as it may seem, I still live, and I may annoy the public for some time to come by living presence. In fact, it is very sad that people die out here in this beautiful and healthy country, with such an abundance of sunshine, fruit and flowers at all times of the year, while you poor citizens live (or try to live) in any other place where there are many freetations and billiards. It is now raining. Peas, potatoes and in fact garden stuff is up and looking well. Send me the Journal and oblige. Do not forget to love to friends, i. e., if you should happen to run on to any. Inform all that may inquire of my welfare that I am all O. K., and so well pleased with this country that if I ever should happen to die it will be some place on this coast, as one can pass in his checks here with less pain than he could at any other point on the globe.

Fight Will Be Bitter.

Those who will persist in closing their ears against the continual recommendation of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, will have a long and bitter fight with their troubles, if not ended earlier by fatal termination. Improvement came at once and four bottles entirely cured her. Guaranteed by G. F. Frye & Co. druggists. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

The most inveterate smokers declare the "Exquisitos" the choicest cigars. Fourteen tramps were quartered in the tramp room on Tuesday night and also several last night.

Sattler & Fassbender disposed of one of their most costly "toys" this week, in the shape of a high grade upright piano. Charles Warner, south of the city, was the lucky purchaser.

Mr. Charles M. Sinnard and Miss Virginia F. Taylor, of Louisville, were united in the holy bonds of wedlock in this city yesterday afternoon by Judge Douglas. Mr. C. H. Sinnard, a brother of the groom, and Miss Etta Fosberg, of Sarpy county, attended them.

The tidy housewife always admires a fine article of furniture, and many prefer such to anything else for a Christmas present. Sattler & Fassbender have a most tasty and elegant line to select from. For the boys and girls they have an abundance of toys, including sleds, wagons and other articles calculated to make the young heart leap with joy on Christmas morn.

The funeral of Hiram DuBois, an old settler of Cass county, whose death occurred last Monday, took place Wednesday afternoon, December 17, at Union. The deceased was born in Ulster county, N. Y., in 1831, served in the civil war, after the close of which he came to Cass county, where he has since resided. He was an excellent citizen, and his friends were numbered by the score.
