Our merchants seem to be enjoying a good trade, and with the coming of the holidays every store will be packed with buyers. Traders are here from a distance every day, braving all kinds of weather to test the truth of the Journal's statements.

Mrs. I. Pearlman celebrated her birthday on Friday last, and in honor of the event, her husband presented her a handsome diamond ring, and the children gave her some cut glass articles. About twenty of her lady friends were invited in and assisted in making it a most enjoyable event.

One week from to-day is Christmas. Parents generally will have plenty to keep them busy and happy looking after presents for their own dear ones, but with all this, there are those who could make other little ones, not so fortunate as their own, happy also. The Journal would suggest to those who are able to do so, that they purchase and send or take a few toys to some little orphans or worse than orphans. There will be no trouble to find such little girls and boys in Plattsmouth, and you will get your money's worth by seeing how happy they will be. Try it.

Several parties from this city attended the dance at Murray Saturday night.

Mrs. John Robbins has been notified that she has been granted a pension of $8.00 per month.

John C. Rauth, a Manley subscriber to the Journal, was in the city yesterday on business.

Charles Stone, cashier of the Murray State Bank was a caller at Journal headquarters Thursday evening last.

Dr. Brendel and Judge R. W. Swearington, of Murray, while up to attend "A Stranger in New York" last Thursday evening, gave the Journal a very brief but most pleasant call.

Judge Paul Jensen of Nebraska City is holding court for Judge Fawcett. He will be on the bench till Judge Fawcett's return from Baker City, Oregon, for the holidays.—Omaha News.

Owing to the scarcity of fuel, and the high price for what there is, there will be very little, if any, courting done in Plattsmouth this winter, unless it is done in the family room with the whole family present. One fire will have to do for the whole "shooting match."

The amusement loving people of Plattsmouth evidently appreciate Manager Parmele's efforts to secure first class attractions for them. "A Stranger in New York," one of Hoyt's masterpieces, last Thursday night drew a large audience, and was highly pleasing to all.

Taking advantage of the fine sleighing one night last week a couple of Plattsmouth's young bloods together with their best girls went out to the other side of Murray, where the team ran away dumped the parties out, fractured the sleigh somewhat, and the horses were caught just before they reached Union. Our informant was a charming young lady of that vicinity who stated that the boys ought to learn to drive before they start out to give their girls another sleigh ride. The Journal knows the names of all parties, but will not print them this time.

Mrs. Barton Gets Bail.

A special from Sheridan, Wyoming, under date of December 12, states that Mrs. Agatha Barton nee Stull, who has been an occupant of the county jail at that place since the shooting of her father-in-law, R. W. Barton, at Arvada, and is held to answer to the charge of murder in the first degree, has been released by Judge J. L. Stotts, her bond being furnished by Sheridan business men. Her trial now has been set for February 6. It looks as though the citizens of Sheridan think that Mrs. Barton was justified in killing her father-in-law.

N. B. Since the above was put in Type C. Lawrence Stull, accompanied by his sister, Mrs. Barton have arrived at home, coming in Monday night.

Mention was made in the Journal several weeks ago of the proposed erection of two store rooms on the corner of Sixth and Vine streets by C. C. Parmele, A. W. White and Streight & Streight. Just as soon as a clear title could be obtained to the lots. This has been secured and excavation for the proposed buildings commenced on Monday morning. G. W. Osborn secured the contract for the erection of the building to be occupied by Streight & Streight.

Some of the employes of the B. & M. coach shops, last Thursday found a hobo on the trucks with growing wings, which undoubtedly could take unfail equal to any of the professionals if it could talk. It was in the shape of a chicken and was snugly perched on the tracks of a coach just brought in for repairs. How it got there, none are able to conjecture, unless being near the track when a fast moving train passed and it was sucked under the car. Both legs were frozen.

Dr. Miles is known to be a leading specialist in these diseases, and his liberal offer is certainly worthy of serious consideration by every afflicted reader.

His system of treatment is thoroughly scientific and immensely superior to the ordinary methods. He is now the best medical talent and spent $2,000 in doing so. I believe he is a wonderful specialist. I consider it my duty to recommend him." "For years I had severe trouble with my stomach, head, nervous, sinking spells and dropsy. Your treatment entirely cured me," writes Hon. W. A. Warren, of Jamestown, N. Y.

Mr. Julius Keister, of 330 Michigan avenue, Chicago, testifies that Dr. Miles cured him after ten able physicians had failed. Mrs. E. Trimmer of Greenspring, Pa., was cured of a chronic case of dropsy. Her case "hopeless."
