Weeping Water

From the Herald
Miss Maggie O'Leary is among those reported sick, having bilious remittent fever. S. M. Davis of Plattsmouth, visited his sons Troy and Frank several days last week, returning home Thursday. Christmas day at high noon will occur the marriage of Chauncey K. Gilbert and Lena Adell Calkin. Rev. D. S. Donegan of Eagle, will unite this happy couple in the presence of a few invited guests. The marriage of Miss Lucy Viola Rundel to Floyd E. Royer, will occur Dec. 25, at the home of the bride at Apache, Okla. Mr. Royer is a newspaper man at Apache, and the family at one time were residents of Weeping Water. Wednesday, December 24th at 8 o'clock p. m. occurs the wedding of Mr. David A. Patterson to Miss Jennie Gertrude Lorenson. Rev. Hanford will unite the lives and fortunes of these young people at the home of the bride in the presence of a number of invited guests. Last Thursday Patrick Murphy's one and a half year old boy, Patrick Jr., fell face downward into a tub of soft soap which had made. The soap was strong with lye and the little one's face was badly although not deeply burned. The eyes were filled with soap and although the sight will not be injured the lids were burned. Mr. Murphy sent for Dr. Rickard with orders not to spare the horses, and the doctor found when he arrived there that they had applied good simple remedies immediately, and now he reports it doing nicely.

From the Republican.
James Carper purchased a corn sheller and horse power from Fred Gorder last week. J. A. Leache shipped a car load of apples Monday to South McAlester, Indian Territory. The natives in that southern clime will now learn what good fruit is. Nebraska apples always taste like more. A farmer in Douglas county was indicted by the grand jury recently for replying to a green goods letter. The judge before whom the case was heard gave the gentleman a 30 days jail sentence and a fine of $50. It doesn't always pay to be too curious. Dr. Rickard was called out to W. Jameson's Saturday to see Mrs. Jameson's mother, Mrs. Davis who was quite sick. Mrs. Davis is well along in years and has never recovered from the death of her son Stephen Davis which occurred last summer. The friends of Mr. Osborn McNurlin will no doubt be surprised to hear of his marriage a few weeks ago to Miss Iva Near of Omaha. The Republican extends congratulations even if it is a little late in the day. Word was received here last week of the marriage of Mr. I. D. Morse, of Crofton, to Mrs. Hammond, of California. They were married at Hartington on December 11, 1902. Mr. and Mrs. Morse were friends in childhood, sweethearts in their younger days, so the wedding has a good deal of romance to it. The Republican wishes for this newly married couple a happy life.

Eagle

From the Beacon.
Mrs. John Osborn who has been quite sick is much improved. Last Thursday as Mr. Benton was going home he slipped and fell badly hurting his back. Mr. and Mrs. Travis Crabtree returned home from Cheney Wednesday where they have been the past month taking care of his brother Ross Eagle grain dealers are doing the right thing by tee farmers. If you don't believe if you ought to see the amount of grain they receive. That tells. Floyd E. Royer, editor of the Weekly Review at Apache, Okla., was united in marriage to Miss Lulu Viola Rundel Christmas day. Christmas eve was celebrated by the Germans at the German Lutheran church by a very appropriate program. A beautiful tree decorated with handsome decorations and loaded down with presents was one of the main features. A bountiful supply of candy and nuts was presented to the children.

Union

From the Ledger.
Joseph Peden bade adieu to his Union friends Tuesday and left for Wayside, Miss., where he will make his home. Joe made many friends during the few years he was here, and all will wish him success in his home in the "sunny south." The little son of Rev. and Mrs. T. K. Surface, of Julian, died last Saturday at the age of one month and 24 days. The funeral services were held at Julian on Sunday, and that evening the remains were brought to this village and interment was made in the Union cemetery northeast of here Monday morning. They have the sincere sympathy of many friends here. A palmitist advertising himself as Prof. Rollie made a "sitting" here Tuesday afternoon, but we fail to hear of anyone letting loose of fifty cents for his benefit. Andrew J. McNatt and Miss Sarah A. Liddsey went to Nebraska City on the noon train Wednesday, and the object of their visit became apparent when they called upon Judge Hayward and had him tie the matrimonial knot. Both of the contracting parties have extensive acquaintance in this vicinity. The bride is the daughter of Wm. Lindsey, one of the wealthy farmers residing west of this village. Mr. McNatt is an industrious farmer who has resided in this vicinity several years, and has established a reputation as an honorable and upright citizen, and the Ledger joins their many friends in extending hearty congratulations. Dr. Redfield was a very sick man for a week, his trouble beginning Tuesday morning of last week, and that evening an acute attack of appendicitis developed, causing considerable alarm, and he called Dr. Whitten of Nebraska City. For while it was feared that a surgical operation might be necessary, but fortunately he got along without it and comes up smiling and ready to take up his business again. Everybody in this vicinity had about reached the conclusion that our friend Miles Chilcott had decided to remain in "single blessedness" the rest of his days, but on Tuesday he and Miss Phena Berry quietly slipped away to Nebraska City and had the matrimonial knot tied that united them for life. The bride is a most estimable lady who is well known in this neighborhood, and she has the highest esteem of a large circle of friends. Mr. Chilcott is one of our most substantial farmers who has resided near here a number of years, during which time he has proven his worth as a gentleman of integrity, enterprise and intelligence. They will make their home on the farm east of town, where the Ledger hopes they may be happy and prosperous.

Louisville

From the Courier.
L. C. Eickhoff is up from Waukomis, Oklahoma, for a short visit. Mr. Lute Sinaard and Miss Fossberg were quietly married in Omaha Christmas day. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Richey and Mr. E. Fulton spent Christmas with Mrs. Richey's parents at Plattsmouth. Mrs. Fitzgerald and son Willie came up from Plattsmouth to attend the wedding yesterday. Dan Swencer, of Forestville, California, a former resident of Cass County, was in town Monday shaking hands with his many friends. While on his way home to Gretna Wednesday night Will Palmer had a runaway that might have been serious. As it was the buggy was badly torn up, but neither Will nor the team were badly hurt. Christmas season brings many and varied gifts to the people each year. Among other presents received by Mr. Wm. Holden was a blushing bride, Miss Maude Teodoraki. The ceremony that united these two young people was performed by Rev. Myers. About thirty invited guests, including ye editor, witnessed the ceremony and afterward helped to demolish the elegant spread. The happy event was celebrated at the home of the bride's parents in Louisville. The Courier joins with their many friends in wishing them their portion of happiness as they journey along the rugged road of life.

Elmwood

From the Leader-Echo.
A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Orvis Drum Tuesday, December 17th. A twelve pound daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Dote Buskirk, Tuesday, December 23d. An eleven pound daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cromwell, Saturday, December 20th. Invitations are out for the marriage of Miss Myra Ereland to Mr. Fred Buckleman, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Eveland near Murdock, on Wednesday, December 31, at 3 p. m. What might have terminated in a free-for-all, Fitzsimmons a la Corbett fight, with a horse doctor, a well known farmer and a real estate man as the principal actors in the saloon, Monday, was declared off by the sudden exit of the horse doctor from the scene of action. Tuesday L. F. Langhorst had a beautifully decorated tree laden with Christmas gifts, on exhibition in his north shop window. Tuesday evening the display disappeared in about one minute. When lighting the gas a part of the head of a parlor match is supposed to have fallen into the cotton used for decorations and in less than a second the whole window was a mass of flames. Mr. Langhorst threw a bucket of water on the fire then grabbed the blazing tree and carried it out doors, burning his hands considerably, and with the aid of the clerks present the fire was extinguished almost before the fire bell rang. There was from $15 to $20 worth of Christmas goods on the tree that were all a complete loss, but Mr. Langhorst counts himself lucky that it was no worse.

Nehawka

From the Register.
Lester O'Day, infant son of T. J. O'Day who has been very sick is improving. Earl Kirkpatrick came from St. Louis, Mo., Wednesday morning to spend the holidays with his parents. Uncle Wm. Chapman received the sad news last Saturday of the death of his sister who resides in DeWitt county, Ill. There were two Christmas trees in Nehawka Wednesday night, one at the U. B. church and the other at the Methodist. It is safe to say that no corn will be marketed at the present price in this town. The farmers have plenty and can command their own price for that cereal if they will only hold on to it and don't get scared. This is just what the grain men all over the country say and they know. Landlord Dyar had cause to fill the house full of blue language Tuesday morning. He got up to build a fire and after stirring up a bag of red hot coals he laid the poker on the floor and reached for some coal. The coal was just far enough away for him to have to take one step to get it. That was where the blue language came in, for Jim set his foot squarely on the hot poker. Of course he took his foot off from the poker as soon as he could; but all the same that member was pretty badly burned and it will require considerable attention for a few days.

Greenwood

From the News.
Rev. Builta leaves on Friday of this week to spend a week with his mother. Among your resolutions for the new year resolve to add to your own happiness by making others happy. Hugh Armstrong and wife are the proud possessors of a ten pound boy which arrived Tuesday evening. Mother and baby are doing well. Owen Marshall, an old resident of Greenwood, but who now resides in Coshocton, Ohio, arrived last Thursday for a few weeks' visit with friends. The Elmwood girl who hung her stocking up and got nothing in it should not blame Santa Claus, as its immense size caused him to mistake it for a meal sack. D. K. Barr wanted Santa Claus to put a can of "stove polish" in Judge Foster's stocking but the Judge was not here Christmas eve and failed to hang his stocking up before he left. On Wednesday evening there occurred a double wedding at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Birdsall, north of town, the contracting parties being John Kimberly and Edith Birdsall, and Albert Birdsall and Bessie Carnes. Further notice next week.

Mynard

Special Correspondence.
Winter weather "that's nice" W. D. Wheeler and S. O. Cole were in Omaha Monday. W. F. Gillespie was in the same city Tuesday. Chas. Stoehr is hauling in 3400 bushels of corn to Bengon, the coal man, today. Henry Trout and George Oberly, have started to "keep house" in the rooms back of Kiser's store. L. Crabtree, the harness man is spending the holidays at Weeping Water, and Douglas, Neb. Chas. Spangler, Wait Beaver, J. H. Adams, and numerous others were Mynard visitors on Tuesday. The snow having mostly disappeared corn shucking is again in order. Some farmers being in town in quest of shuckers. Phil Cook is today putting a quietus to his corn shucking. J. F. Cook of Jack rabbit fame, will depart on Wednesday for Hayes county to look at a ranche, with a view of purchasing. A few miles west of Mynard lives "a thing" in the shape of man, who is said to be a wife beater. There is talk of summary vengeance being dealt out in one large dose, should the beating be repeated. J. R. Vallery was in town Tuesday with a bob sled. He came to take out a glass door to his new residence, but O my! the snow was few and far between. Bert Satchell was victimized by a victimizer of some kind, in the shape of a corn shucker man, who departed hence with some of Bert's best clothes, and also some of Will Brantner's apparel, altogether valued at about $40, a few days ago. The old year has expired, and we hereby wish you, Mr. Editor, a happy New Year, hoping in the new year you will find many new pleasures, and the Journal many years of prosperity, we remain, "Yor' no."

Maple Grove

Special Correspondence.
Leonard Hill, of Iowa, is visiting with Adam Hill and family during the holidays. Quite a number of this locality attended the Christmas tree at Murray Christmas eve. Mrs. Mavor Fleming, of Cedar county, is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Rusterholtz during the holidays. George Schafer and wife left Saturday for Halle, Neb., where they will visit relatives for a few weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Allen, of Plattsmouth are visiting friends in this neighborhood this week. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Puls were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Engelkemier Sunday. Mrs. Phillip Hill was a Murray visitor Monday. Monday night a beautiful birthday dance was given at Mr. and Mrs. John Urish's. It was given in honor of Miss Tressie Hennings of Plattsmouth who is visiting there doing the holidays. Mr. Pappé sold a nice lot of hogs. Tuesday he delivered them to Murray.

Free-Lunch in Cairo.

The free-lunch habit is much in vogue in Egypt. In one barroom at Cairo the purchaser of a glass of beer for 3 cents, gets seven little plates with bread, olives, potato and green salad, beans, liver and mussels on them. These are replenished with every glass of beer.

Angel-Face Invisible After Dark.

Last week an east side boy went calling after 9 o'clock at night, and the old man met him at the door in his nightgown, and wanted to know what was wanted at that time of night. After this the boy will call before sundown.—Emporia Gazette.

Not His Fault.

Magistrate—"Now, I'll let you off this time, but it should be a lesson for you not to be in bad company again." Prisoner—"Gee whizz! it ain't my fault that I'm here; the cops made me come."—Philadelphia Record.

Forgers Not Shrewd Enough.

When the Warsaw police recently found a forged bank note factory they found a cabinet organ stuffed with counterfeit notes. One of the forgers was playing the instrument, and its defective music attracted suspicion.

Might Have Saved Time.

The man of 76 and spent his honeymoon in building a mausoleum overlooked one thing. He might have ordered the wedding coachman to drive from the church to the cemetery.

Danger in Inkstands.
In Germany a new microbe has been discovered and a very dangerous one it is said to be. Only in inkstands and ink bottles is it found, and for this reason it is known as the ink microbe. Vessels which contain ink and which are seldom cleansed or corked furnish a most congenial home for it. Ink infected with this microbe was recently injected into rats and guinea pigs, and as a result the animals speedily died. Fortunately there is an easy way to get rid of this pest, and that is by keeping one's inkstand clean and covered.

The Best Whiskey!
is the Cheapest in the End!

Poor Whiskey is not only disagreeable to taste, but undoubtedly injurious to the stomach. A little good Whiskey is a fine tonic and helps instead of harming.
