MEXICAN Mustang Liniment.

There is no test like the test of time. Cures everything that can be cured by a Perfect, Penetrating Liniment. Good for Man or Beast. One small bottle of Mexican Mustang Liniment will effect a cure when a gallon of the watery compounds sold as liniment would have no result. It is money thrown away to buy them.

For two generations Mexican Mustang Liniment has been the standby—the one Sure Remedy—of farmers and stockmen. The more people know about it the more they swear by it. It goes to the very core of pain and drives it out of the body. The public believes in it for its positive healing powers. Sold everywhere.

Weeping Water

Wm. Shepard returned home from Plattsmouth last Saturday. Will's father in Iowa put up $250 gold plunk bail for his appearance at the March term of the district court. A. J. Box was in town Monday, bringing in some hay to E. E. Day. The hay was a second crop of timothy and a very fine article. He said that off of sixteen acres he put up three tons and a half per acre. S. M. Peterson was delivering part of 5,000 bushels of corn to the Day elevator last week, which he sold at 30¢ and 31¢ cents per bushel. Lacs of cars delayed the delivery of all of it. Last Friday the public school was closed and the instructors all went visiting at Wahoo, where they were seeking more light and new ideas on school matters. Our teachers are an up-to-date corps of instructors, willing to teach and be taught. The case of W. Betts, vs. State ex rel Peter Jorgensen, proceedings in error dismissed. This action grew out of the refusal of Mr. Betts as director of school district No. 94 to file and approve Mr. Jorgensen's bonds as treasurer of said district. The case was one of mandamus and was heard before Judge Jensen in the district court and the issues were found in favor of Mr. Jorgensen and Mr. Betts was required to approve said bond. From this final order of the district court the case was taken on error to the supreme court and his petition in error dismissed. A. M. Russell appeared for defendant in error and H. D. Travis for plaintiff.

Greenwood
Oscar Finlay was before Judge Foster, last Saturday, on the charge of violating the state law by shooting a farmer's pigeons on the public highway, near town. He was fined $5.00 and costs. The elevators here are full of grain and it has been impossible to get cars to remove it. This is quite a drawback to farmers who wish to sell wheat and corn as the elevator men can not receive any more till they ship some away. Turner Zink, W. B. Banning and J. P. Falter, county commissioners of Cass county, were here Tuesday to inspect the new road which Congressman J. G. Cannon has made application for. The commissioners made this office a pleasant call. Mollie L. Erickson, wife of P. C. Erickson, and the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Brewster, formerly residents of Greenwood, died Jan. 31, at Brewster, Neb., after a long illness. To the bereaved husband and to father and mother, the News extends heartfelt sympathy in their great sorrow. Miss Mallica, living west of town, was taken suddenly ill on last Monday. Dr. Miller was called and pronounced the attack that of appendicitis. He removed her to the St. Elizabeth hospital at Lincoln, on Tuesday, where he immediately operated on her for the dread disease. Dr. Miller was assisted by Dr. Griffin, and as the patient is resting easy, this most delicate of all surgical operations, was most successful. Gertrude, the 15-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orin Baldwin, is sick at the home of her grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Armstrong, sr., of this city, with abscess of the lungs. Saturday evening her grandmother gave Gertrude a spoonful of what she supposed was cough balsam, but what proved to be carbolic acid. As soon as the mistake was discovered, Grandmother Armstrong poured raw egg and butter down the burning throat of the girl. Doctors Miller and Talcott were hastily summoned. They pumped the poison acid out of Gertrude's stomach and she was soon feeling much better. Had it not been for the hasty relief obtained the result might have been fatal.

Union

Mack Barger went to Plattsmouth last Friday evening, where arrangements have been made to have him taken care of this winter. Reese Delaney went over in the vicinity of Thurman, Iowa, Tuesday, where he bought a fine young team of bays weighing 2,500 pounds and of splendid stock. Geo. J. Spohn of Superior was here a short time last Saturday on his way home. He had been visiting some of his friends in Plattsmouth and relatives in Nehawka. Joy Applegate completed his arrangements for taking a show on the road, and Tuesday evening he departed for Cedar Rapids, Neb., at which place the business starts. He has some new equipments that will enable him to give a very creditable entertainment. George Graves of Plattsmouth, a nephew of the Ledger editor, came down last Sunday and made us a visit. He went to Omaha Monday morning to interview the base ball magnates, and was assured a trial on the Omaha Western League ball team this season. An important change will take place in Union's business directory on March 1st, when L. E. Upton will retire from the general merchandise business, his successors being Will A. Frans and Winnie McNamee. The deal has already been closed, but all papers find it convenient to make the change at the time stated. The new firm is to take the whole stock, and will continue the business in the building now occupied by Upton.

Nehawka

It is rumored that one of our barbers will join the benedictins in the near future. Wm. Shepherd purchased a first pair of mules of C. W. Tucker the first of the week. D. C. Tucker has moved onto a farm about seven miles north of Nehawka. Billy Tucker will farm the place vacated by D. C. The stone work for Nehawka's new gas plant was finished this week. The balance of the pipes will be put in as soon as the weather will permit. The revival meetings at the U. B. church were brought to a close Wednesday evening. We understand the Methodists will begin a series of meetings in the near future. J. F. McReynolds will leave today for Cherokee, Iowa, to accept a position offered him as traveling salesman for a wholesale dealer in fresh California fruits and provisions.

Elmwood

D. T. Tyson returned Wednesday from a trip to Oklahoma, looking for land. The country did not impress him very favorably and he did not invest. Jim Turner and Mat Kunz were shooting at a mark Monday afternoon. A couple of the shot glanced, penetrating one of Mat's arms to such a depth that he was compelled to come to town and have them picked out by a physician. Miss Lillian and John Gonzales entertained a few friends at their beautiful new home southwest of Elmwood last Saturday evening. Those participating in the event's enjoyment pronounce it one of the pleasantest social events of the season. A very pleasant social event occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. DelesDroier Friday evening last, the occasion being a surprise party given by Miss Myrtle DelesDroier in honor of the 18th birthday of Clayton Rosencrans. Dr. Hungeate, of Weeping Water, and Dr. Neely, of this place operated on Charlie West, residing one and one half miles northeast of Elmwood, Wednesday, for bone tumor. The tumor was located on the right limb, near the knee, and had to be chiseled off. The operation was quite a dangerous one, owing to its location near the arteries, but the patient came through in fine shape.

Eagle

Otto Boeswetter had the misfortune to lose a nice young steer by that dread disease, blackleg, last week. Mrs. J. Q. Adams returned home Wednesday evening from an extended visit with relatives at Plattsmouth. The younger son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Ketchum has been very sick the past two weeks but is now on the road to recovery. Wednesday being the 83rd anniversary of Uncle John Sumners' birthday, several of his friends and neighbors gathered at his home to help him pass a pleasant day. A delicious dinner was served and all present did ample justice. All present report having spent a very pleasant day. Thursday morning as Will Frauck and his mother were driving to Lincoln, one of the horses slipped and fell. The other horse became frightened and started to run dragging the horse and buggy with it, when the harness broke in several places letting the buggy free but nevertheless the buggy was upset injuring Mrs. Franck quite severely. The harness and buggy were quite badly demolished. Last Tuesday a couple of young fellows from Palmyra came up to spend the day and have a good time. They got started home about seven o'clock and got about a half a mile from town when their team ran off a bridge and spilled them out. The buggy was pretty badly demoralized. The last we seen of them they were going south afoot.

Louisville

Mr. Joachim living south of town has been very sick the last two weeks. Cius, Spence took two of his blood hounds to Beatrice Monday to have them trained. L. J. Mayfield was called from Gross Saturday by the illness of his son Earl whom he took to Omaha to see a physician who thinks he can cure him in time. On Jan. 4th Frank Stander had a straw stack blown over. He missed two calves about 7 months old. He hunted among his neighbors, but could not find them. Wednesday the other cattle had eaten a hole into the straw stack and here was found the calves alive and in fair health. Twenty-four days without a drop of water and covered up in straw is very wonderful. At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Urwin in this city occurred the marriage of their daughter Mary Rebecca, to Mr. Charles Henry McIntire on Wednesday evening, Jan. 28, 1903, at 7 o'clock, in the presence of a large number of relatives and intimate friends, Elder G. W. Mayfield officiating. After the ceremony the guests partook of a bountiful wedding supper. Miss Alice Urwin acted the part of bride's maid and Lawrence Waldron was best man. The school board met again this week and employed John Latenser of Omaha as architect for the Omaha auditorium. The surveyor was here yesterday surveying the ground and making diagrams.

Cedar Creek

The weather is dark as Egypt and smells like cheese. The Eight Mile Grove Center school is being closed on account of the measles. Mr. and Mrs. George Lohnes was visiting with John Meisinger last Sunday. Louis Heil has purchased a fine new harness of August Gorder. His father has also bought him a nice team of horses. Louis says that he is now looking for a busy shredding their corn fodder. Corn shelling has again been stopped on account of the scarcity of cars. The Duff Grain company has now over 40,000 bushels of corn on hand. Miss Mary Meisinger is very sick with hemorrhage of the stomach. August Schneider arrived here last Saturday. He has been out in New Mexico and Colorado for two months for his health. Stops the Cough and Works off the Cold. Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets cure a cold in one day. No cure, no pay. Price 25 cents.
