A cow belonging to Mrs. Amelia Clize had a sad experience last Sunday morning. She was running and playing in the lot, a part of which is on the side hill. She slipped on a terrace and slid into a barbed wire fence, cutting her legs badly. She bled profusely and it was with some difficulty that the blood was stopped. Barb wire is responsible for a great many ugly wounds.

Master John Hobson noticed some fire on the roof of his house next to the chimney one day last week, so he gets a bucket of water, mounts the roof and puts out the blaze. For a small boy to take this responsibility without notifying the family, ought to be a recommendation for efficient work in the fire company.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Mason returned from their Texas trip last Tuesday evening. They report a pleasant time except on their way home, near Arapahoe, Okla., they were in a head end collision with another passenger train on the Frisco route. Since coming home he has been feeling much better, but is suffering from pains in the back and neck some.

A slight error in figures made us say last week that Reese Delaney sold his fine team for $225, which was a mistake of only $100, the price received being $325.

MEXICAN

Mustang Liniment.

There is no test like the test of time. Cures everything that can be cured by a Perfect, Penetrating Liniment. Good for Man or Beast. One small bottle of Mexican Mustang Liniment will effect a cure when a gallon of the watery compounds sold as liniment would have no result. It is money thrown away to buy them.

For two generations Mexican Mustang Liniment has been the standby—the one Sure Remedy—of farmers and stockmen. The more people know about it the more they swear by it. It goes to the very core of pain and drives it out of the body. The public believes in it for its positive healing powers. Sold everywhere.

County Superintendent Smith was in town Wednesday visiting our schools and calling on his many friends.

The committee selected by the Commercial club to solicit funds to bring the G. A. B. reunion to Louisville reports that the necessary sum has been raised and we will get the meeting. The Commercial Club is to be commended for its prompt action in taking this matter up and raising the necessary money.

Our board of county commissioners have been quite busy the past week or two looking after the affairs of their offices and checking up for the past year. They have also been watching some bad bills in the legislature. Bills that if passed will work hardships on the different counties. It is a fortunate thing that Cass county has three men of the calibre of Paltor, Zink and Banning as they can save the county many dollars by looking after business in a business like manner.

Elmwood

The second crop of measles is now in full swing.

Representative DelesDernier spent Sunday at home.

John Lean returned Sunday evening from his trip to the Pacific coast.

Eagle

Dr. Thomas reports the arrival of an eleven pound girl at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Smith, Tuesday morning.

Last Monday morning about two o'clock Mrs. Ed. Williams got up in her sleep and fell down stairs, breaking one of her arms and badly bruising her in many places. Dr. Thomas was called and the fracture reduced. She is now getting along as well as could be expected.

The little babe of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Luther died last Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. That fatal disease, pneumonia was the cause of the little one's death. Mr. and Mrs. Luther have two more children very sick with the same disease but hopes are entertained for their recovery.

Died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wolfe, Mrs. Ida

Grover, wife of Ralph Grover, on Feb. 15th of consumption. Although she had been ill a long time and death was expected hourly, it came as a shock to her many friends and relatives. The remains were laid to rest in the Bennett cemetery.

One of the most pleasant social events of the season occurred at the home of Emma Miller Saturday night. About forty of her young friends gathered at her home to help her celebrate her birthday. A delicious supper was served at ten o'clock and all present did ample justice. Music and games were indulged in and time passed quickly. It was near the wee hours before the guests realized how late it was. A royal good time was had by all present. The guests departed for their respective homes voting Miss Emma a capital entertainer.

Nehawka

A presidential campaign is simply nothing compared with the telephone fight that is going on in this vicinity.

L. E. Stone was here over Sunday. We understand he is going to resign his position with the Marshall Paper company of Omaha, and will turn his attention to farming.

T. J. O'Day marketed eleven head of eight-months-old hogs this week that weighed over twenty-eight hundred pounds and brought the neat sum of $182.55. Who can beat it?

Mr. Stonecipher and wife of Indians visited over Sunday with their cousins, J. F. Hedges and wife. They left Monday evening for Elmwood where they will make their future home.

We understand a number of traveling salesmen have asked of their respective firms to be allowed to discontinue their visits to Nehawka until after the telephone fight has been settled.

Fred W. Crosser, formerly of Murray and Miss Cora Howard of Nehawka were united in marriage at the home of the bride's uncle in Denver, Col., on February 12th. They will make their home at Alva, Oklahoma.

The basket supper at Timm's school house last Saturday night was a decided success. A large number of young people, as well as many of the older ones, were present and all had a very pleasant time. The receipts amounted to $18.75.

Ernest Nutzman was in Nehawka on a short visit Tuesday. Mr. Nutzman has a fine stock of sheep, consisting of 1148 head on Charley Jones' farm three or four miles from here. That he will make dollars when the cattle men will make cents, goes without saying.

Mynard

There should be a bounty on ground hogs, as well as other varmints. Any animal pretending to be a weather prognosticator, and using no better prognostics should be exterminated. Here we have such beautiful weather and that's the reason why.

Our car famine is still here, and remarks are out of order, although we are about wearied to death over it. The revival at the U. B. church is still in progress, and will reach a successful termination we feel assured, as great interest is being taken, the house being well filled each night.

Chas. Lewis is today delivering ear corn here, and yet remarks are out of order. Others will do the same, with the same raling.

The infant daughter of M. L. Ruby, who last week was bereaved of his wife, died on Sunday evening, February 22nd, was buried Monday at Eight Mile Cemetery. Measles was the cause of death. His eldest son is very low, also, but at this writing reported to be improving. Surely his affliction is very sore, but he has the sympathy of all.

Phil Cook and Fred Gath are this week out south of Eight Mile Grove on a hay-balling expedition.

The "get rich quick" scheme is getting to be a favorite for money-making here; only there is no get rich to it. As yet it has very few "suckers." J. U. DelesDernier on Monday loaded a car with his household goods, furniture and belongings, and departed for Elmwood, where he will farm this summer.

The Williams Brothers are moving their belongings to Mynard preparatory to loading a car to move to Madison county in a few days, where they will go into the dairy business near Norfolk.

Harry Welch, who has been quite sick at the residence of Mr. DelesDernier, is rapidly recovering.

It is out of the ordinary to hear of any one shelling corn these days of "famine de car," but that act was performed by J. R. Vallery on Tuesday.

Geo. Bengen had a butchering match on Monday. This means he put a "quietus" to some of his fat hogs.

Billy Wheeler, as we write, has driven into our city through the mud, and as the thinker of ye correspondent is growing smaller in capability of gathering news, which is "scarc" we close. YU No.

Cedar Creek

The Cass County Girl's Miss. A Cedar Creek girl—pride of the state. In her clinging and cheerful way, Absorbs all with a yearning look, As sweet as the new mown hay.

The Plattsmouth girl says never a word And you'd think she was rather tame, With a practical view of matter at hand But gets there just the same.

A Louisville girl gets a grip on herself As she cheerfully takes off her hat, And grabs a fellow in a frightened way Like a terrier shaking a rat.

Weeping Water girls on tiptoestand, Their lips so rosy, tempting and red; You take her cheeks in both your hands Let her go, Gallagher, Murphy is dead.

The Mynard girl catches the mustache With a grip as tight as glue, And opening a little her ruby lips, Pulls the kiss on like an old shoe.
