ONE of our exchanges states that American women in Cuba have adopted the Spanish custom of flirting with a fan. In this country they flirt with a man.
 IF ninety per cent. of the bills introduced in the legislature were indefinitely postponed, such action would meet with the approval of a great majority of the people.
 SINCE the winter set in last fall there has been an unusual fatality among the aged people of Cass county. Although not especially a severe winter, the deaths appear to have been so numerous among the old settlers as to create comment.

SENATOR SHELTON'S bill, permitting a judge to send a convicted criminal under twenty-one years of age to the reform school, instead of the penitentiary for any crime except murder, has passed the senate, and will, or ought to pass the house.
 J. F. SMITH, of the Greenwood News, has purchased the Home Record, at David City, Neb., and will divide his time between the two places. It may be that there are publishers who can run two papers thus situated successfully, but, as a rule, it takes about all most of us can accomplish to run one and "make both ends meet." And many of them don't even do that. However, Bro. Smith may prove an exception to the rule.

WILL the voters of Nebraska be slow in forgetting the fact that H. R. 330, to tax railroads for city purposes on a value fixed by precinct assessors, was defeated by the republican legislature of Nebraska? Two fusionists voted with the republicans, and eighteen republicans voted for the bill. These eighteen republicans deserve the gratitude of the people, while the two fusionists should be branded on their foreheads with the word "traitor," so that when they return to their constituents the little boys will even know that they proved unworthy of the trust reposed in them.

EDGAR HOWARD SAYS: The governor of Georgia has officially proclaimed that a colonel on his staff shall wear a particular brand of uniform. The size of the buttons, color of cloth, weight of snickers and length of jimbards are all minutely set forth, and the cost of the whole business is $192.17. If Governor Mickey should make like regulations it would be pretty tough on all us colonels, except those who have the clothes and things in stock. However, it is not probable that Governor Mickey will adopt the Georgia regulations. If our good Governor should prescribe an official uniform, it would likely consist of a Methodist hymn book and a blanket mortgage.

IN the last hours of the senate's regular session the republicans heard some solid truth from one of their own number. It was Senator Elkins—and not a member of the opposition—who said to them that "for fourteen weeks a majority of the senate has been kept from voting on the statehood bill. The Aldrich bill, the Philippine tariff bill and the treaties have been defeated by the filibuster against the statehood bill." Mr. Elkins declared that "the minority opposing statehood in this senate is responsible for these failures." That is the absolute truth. A republican minority in the senate has filibustered the whole session against the statehood bill because that would probably strengthen the democratic vote in the senate and the electoral college.

RUTS

The walking sick, what a crowd of them there are! Persons who are thin and weak but not sick enough to go to bed.
 "Chronic cases" that's what the doctors call them, which in common English means—long sickness.
 To stop the continued loss of flesh they need Scott's Emulsion. For the feeling of weakness they need Scott's Emulsion.

It makes new flesh and gives new life to the weak system.
 Scott's Emulsion gets thin and weak persons out of the rut. It makes new, rich blood, strengthens the nerves and gives appetite for ordinary food.
 Scott's Emulsion can be taken as long as sickness lasts and do good all the time.
 There's new strength and flesh in every dose.

We will be glad to send you a few doses free.
 Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.
SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists,

Democratic City Convention.
 The democratic city convention met at the council chamber last night and organized by the election of H. R. Gering, chairman, and H. M. Soennichsen, secretary. After which the following candidates for members of the city council selected from the various wards, were endorsed by the convention:
 First ward—Ed Fitzgerald.
 Second—Carl Kunsman.
 Third—James H. Herold.
 Fourth—Joseph Peters.
 Fifth—Joseph Vohntrum.
 For members of the board of education, the following gentlemen were nominated: V. V. Leonard and L. E. Larson.
 H. E. Gering was selected as chairman of the democratic central committee. The convention was quite largely attended, and considerable enthusiasm manifested.

Crushing Bryan in Nebraska.
 "It is proposed to crush Mr. Bryan's influence in his own state and to prevent at all costs his control of the Nebraska delegation to the democratic national convention."—Brooklyn Eagle.
 According to the above they propose "to crush Bryan in Nebraska," do they? Well, now, won't there be a "hot time" in Nebraska when such proceedings are commenced? The Eagle evidently don't know the democratic sentiment in this state. But they will understand it better whenever the attempt is made to crush Mr. Bryan. Can water be made to run up hill? Well, that will come to pass when the Eagle and its cohorts "crush Bryan in Nebraska." They may do it in some states but in Nebraska—never.

In previous editorials in the Journal we have simply uttered our views regarding the matter of harmonizing party factions, and in doing so, were honest in what we thought. Every democrat with sound judgment knows that it is of but little use to even make the attempt to elect a democratic candidate for president in 1904, with the party divided as it was in 1900. We want success, and are willing to submit to almost anything to see a president elected who will scatter the thieves who are infesting the departments at Washington and leaders of trusts to the four quarters of the globe.
 The Journal wants harmony, but not at the expense of "crushing Bryan in Nebraska" by the crowd who follow in the pathway suggested by the Brooklyn Eagle. Let honest, earnest, untiring zeal for democratic success animate each and every one who loves the principles of the party and set to scorn the trust-ridden policy pursued by the republican hordes who care not for principles so long as they command the emoluments of office. Let the bitterness of the past vanish in the joys of a united effort for a glorious victory in 1904, with the following inscription upon our banner: "No enemies to punish or friends to reward—the government to be honestly, economically and impartially administered." Harmony means success for the party and relief to the toiling millions.

Keep It Before the People!
 "The republican party is responsible for the acts of this legislature; the members of this legislature are responsible. It is our duty to provide a fair system of taxation for this state. THESE ARE DARK DAYS FOR THE REPUBLICAN PARTY! ITS HANDS ARE TREMBLING IN THE BALANCE!"—Nelson, of Douglas, Republican.

Trusts and Matrimony.

President Roosevelt's recent remarks upon the need of larger families and more general observance of the social obligation of marriage will be recalled with new interest, now that Congress has expired without a single adequate measure of anti-trust legislation.
 Marriage is the normal condition of mankind. It is safe to say that the vast majority of men and women who pass the marrying stage in single "blessedness" can render some reason, satisfactory at least to themselves, for their non-marriage. Celibacy is in very few cases the result of absolute preference. Hence it is the part of consistency and wisdom for those who rebuke the non-married to do their best to promote those conditions which go to encourage matrimony and make its assumption easy. The restraint of trusts would manifestly be one of these. Every intelligent American knows that prices are extraordinarily high, and that the operations of the trusts, suppressing natural competition, have a great deal to do with these. Every intelligent American, too, knows that the high cost of living has a direct bearing upon the decision of sensible people of small incomes and modest prospects as whether or not to undertake domestic responsibilities. Let us have lower prices as well as larger families.

The president cannot, upon a second sober thought, condemn young men for taking the cost of living into account when debating matrimony. We remember of reading not long since an extract from a sermon delivered by that eminent divine, Doctor Rainsford, rector of St. George's Episcopal Church in New York, in which he remarked: "The young man who marries and tries to raise a family on less than $1,000 a year will fail, and deserves to fail," and a young man in the audience interjected softly: "Now, doctor, you're shouting." Bring prices down to within living distance of the young men who are able to command salaries of $600 a year, and there will follow a boom in the matrimonial market. Eliminate the trusts, and let the good work of "multiplying and replenishing the earth" go bravely on as it did "before the deluge."

Youtsey's Confession
 Former Governor Goebel of Kentucky has been a good while in his grave, but interest in the cowardly political assassination has not disappeared. Men accused of complicity in the crime have been convicted on circumstantial evidence, retired, and some of them convicted again. One of the confederates, Henry E. Youtsey, has at last made a full confession, in which he says that James B. Howard fired the fatal shot, for which purpose he was placed at the front window of the private office of Caleb Powers, the secretary of state. Among the eight persons named by Youtsey, as united in the conspiracy, was former Governor William H. Taylor, who after his indictment as an accessory to the murder, fled to Indiana, where he has since remained "in sanctuary," two republican governors having refused to honor Kentucky's demand for his delivery to its court in open defiance of constitutional law.
 President Roosevelt, when governor of New York, openly proclaimed the same contempt for a duty imposed by the constitution, declaring if Taylor went to that state he would not surrender him. Yet Taylor's only claim to immunity from the ordinary course of justice was that he was a republican politician. Partisans who have defended this lawlessness on the part of northern governors cannot find words too strong for expressing their views concerning conditions in South Carolina. Still the killing of Gonzales by Tillman was not so black a crime as the assassination of Goebel, for the latter was a planned crime against civil government as well as against the individual.
 The refugee, Taylor, probably will remain safe in the asylum he has found, but for life he is disgraced and a branded man, in the opinion of law respecting citizens, for they know that if innocent he would seek the legal investigation from which he hides.

Marvelous Escape from Death!

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND
 Does a Wondrous Work for a Lady Who Was Almost Crazed with Pain and Suffering.

It is well known that terrible rheumatism, sciatica, and neuralgia cause more helplessness, acute suffering, and agony, than any of the other diseases that afflict humanity. The great medicinal virtues of Paine's Celery Compound make it the only trustworthy specific for the cure of all forms of rheumatism and neuralgia. Thousands of strong testimonial letters from the most prominent people of the land, prove that Paine's Celery Compound has banished these terribly fatal troubles when all other treatment has failed. Mrs. Margaret Bethel, of Brainerd, Minn., after thirty years of agonizing torture had a desire to end her life, if it was the will of Heaven; she almost prayed for the time to lay it down. Heaven-directed, she made use of Paine's Celery Compound, and is enjoying true life once more. She says:
 "For thirty years I have been a great sufferer from neuralgia in the head, and also with rheumatism in the whole body. I began taking Paine's Celery Compound and soon found I was much better. Before taking the Compound, my life was such a burden that I almost prayed to lay it down. I was bedfast every two weeks with horrible pain in the head, back, and neck, until I was almost crazed. I am able to do harder work and more of it today than for twenty-five years. I really enjoying life again, thanks to Paine's Celery Compound. I am satisfied that my life has been prolonged many years by its use."
