Weeping Water

Born to Mr. and Mrs. John Bourke Tuesday, March 31, a ten pound boy. S. Wheeler, proprietor of the bowling alley, has discontinued business. Lack of patronage is the principal reason.

Dr. C. A. Oaks has pulled up stakes and departed, shipping his household goods to Seward. It is stated the doctor intends moving to California, on account of Mrs. Oaks' health.

Geo. Carter, clerk at Ambler Bros. & Co., and one of the best that ever stood behind counters, has resigned his position on account of poor health and a desire to be out doors more.

James Bird, the carpenter of Nehawka, has concluded to try other fields and left for California Thursday, where he will work at his trade. If he likes the west his wife will join him later.

F. O. Phillips and wife of Fairfax, S. D. are in town on a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Phillips. Frank reports the sudden death at Fairfax, of Miss Maggie Trudeau last Tuesday and the funeral was held the following Sunday. Miss Trudeau was the daughter of Mrs. Maggie Trudeau of near Avoca.

Mrs. G. W. Woodruff was stricken very suddenly Saturday evening with paralysis, affecting the entire left side. She was in quite a critical condition. Dr. Fate has had the patient in charge, and says he thinks it was over exertion that caused the trouble and that she will soon gain control of the affected parts.

W. W. Powell was able to be out on the streets again last week after an illness which confined him to his room for eight weeks.

R. K. Leyda left for his home in Falls City Saturday after spending several days at the old homestead, the guest of his son Tracey and wife.

Mrs. McGill and children left Tuesday morning for Palestine, Texas, where Mr. McGill has a position on the International and Great Northern railroad.

Mrs. Dave Woodard came down from Omaha last week where she had been having her eye operated upon by Dr. Gifford for cataract. She is able to see some out of the eye since the operation, and is much encouraged. She will have to make another trip to have the other eye operated upon and then hopes to receive a great deal of benefit. Mrs. Woodard has been almost blind for months and will appreciate her sight when it is restored. Miss Carrie Dunn came down home with her mother to make a visit.

John Philpot of South Omaha spent a portion of last week on his farm near here and Thursday shipped in a carload of cattle which had been fed on his place. Mr. Philpot called on the Republican and renewed his subscription to April 1904. He informed us that his son J. H. is contemplating moving to South Omaha to reside. The Philpot boys are all good citizens and Cass county is loser whenever one of them removes from her borders.

Jacob Meier our new merchant of the firm of Jensen & Meier druggists, arrived Thursday evening of last week and took charge of the store. Dr. Jensen's duties calling him away the greater part of the time. Mr. Meier was away just six months and during that time he has secured a diploma from the Highland Park school of pharmacy, of Des Moines, Iowa, and one from the Nebraska state board of pharmacy. His host of friends here are pleased to see him behind the counter again.

Elmer Kepler, of Avoca and Miss Iola Swacker, of Elmwood, were married at Lincoln Thursday of last week. E. B. Lambert was able to walk down town Monday. He had a pretty severe case of the "grip" and his many friends are glad to see him about again. Louis Dickson, of Collins, Illinois, is visiting at the home of his brother A. B. Dickson in this city, and expects to make his home here for a few months at least. One of the old settlers of Cass county has passed from labor to reward. Mrs. Jane A. Post, beloved wife of our fellow townsman, Edward Post, while on a visit at the home of her brother at Axtell, Kansas, departed this life April 7, 1903, and was interred in the Elmwood cemetery April 8, 1903. Village election Tuesday passed off King Alcohol. B. I. Clements and J. V. quietly, resulting in a victory for H. Rogge, the anti-saloon nominee, received 37 and 38 respectively, while A. J. Kear and L. R. Vaklner, the saloon nominees, received 54 and 61 respectively. The provision to vote bonds to extend the water mains carried. Vote 72 for, 23 against.

Nehawka

Henry Neu south of town is quite sick again. Jim Comer and family spent Saturday with friends. Mrs. Charles Franz has been sick the past week. W. H. Shoemaker had his arm wrenched a few days ago. The hurt was quite painful but it is to be hoped no permanent injury will result.

Mrs. John Knabe died at her home two and one half miles northwest of Nehawka on the night of April 2. She was one of the early settlers in this part of the country and for many years an honored and respected citizen in this community.

Tuesday J. M. Stone, F. L. Nutzman, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. West and J. A. Pollard were at Murray to attend the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Murray State Bank. The bank has had a very prosperous year, declaring a 10 percent dividend and carrying somewhat more than 10 percent to the surplus fund. J. M. Stone was re-elected president, C. C. Farnelle, vice president and Chas. S. Stone cashier; and the following were chosen directors, J. M. Stone, F. L. Nutzman, Katie S. West, J. A. Pollard, Charles S. Stone.

Greenwood

The First National bank has added a computing machine to its office which Cashier Welton says is a great labor saving device. It is a fine machine and does splendid work. Clarence Mathis received a telegram Monday announcing the death of her brother in Omaha, who was an engineer on the Union Pacific between Omaha and Grand Island. Mr. Mathis and wife took the next train for Omaha where the funeral occurred. Brain trouble was the cause of his death.

Misses Mary and Myrtle Carnes gave a reception to a number of their young friends last Wednesday evening at their home in honor of Rev. L. P. Bulta, before his departure. A lovely evening was spent in playing games and music after which refreshments were served. Before retiring to their homes Rev. Bulta took the pictures of all who were present. C. A. Schuelke, living about three miles south of Greenwood met with a very painful accident last week while hauling wheat to Murdock with two teams. In crossing a muddy place in the road, the front team gave a sudden lurch forward, jerking Mr. Schuelke from the wagon onto the road and snapping the levers in his foot. Under the care of Dr. Miller he is progressing very nicely, however.

George Bu ris and wife are the happy parents of a fine daughter which arrived at their home Tuesday morning, April 7, 1903. Dick Conrad is another farmer whose prosperity justifies improvements, and he has just completed a fine large barn that is a beauty. Mrs. Eliza Barnum received a telegram Monday telling the sad news of the death of her sister, Mrs. Mary Rice, at East Springfield, N. Y. Mrs. Rice was known to many people here, as she spent some time visiting here a few years ago. Jay Ed. Worley, the efficient foreman on the Plattsmouth News, passed this way Tuesday, going to Elmwood. He is taking his first vacation in two years, and will spend part of it with relatives in Missouri. Foreman Geo. L. Kennedy and his assistants have been rushing the work on the country telephone lines, and on Wednesday a number of them were connected and the farmers had their first chance to "hello" from their homes. A number of other country telephones will be in talking order as soon as the work can be done. Joseph Ellington was down from Murray on business Wednesday morning and made us a social call. Joe is lived outside of the county, and the past few years he has been quite successful in farming. However, he is looking for something better, and has sold out and will locate in the northern part of the state, where we hope he may continue to prosper.

Louisville

The farmers are quite busy now with spring work and it will not be long until we again hear the click of the corn planter. C. K. Preston is at Independence, Missouri, to visit his son Sid and attend the general conference of the Latter Day Saints church. He expects to be gone several days. Supt. O'Brien of the State Fish Hatcheries was in town Tuesday on business. He has just returned from a trip in the northwestern part of the state where he supplied a great many with fish. The big majority against the saloons comes as a surprise to everybody. While a great many anticipated a victory for the temperance ticket they hardly put the majority at more than ten votes. The contest was waged from morning till night by both sides and only when the ballots were counted did interest fall off. Mr. Whitney, the contractor from Humbolt, appeared before the Board of Education Wednesday night and asked that his bid be raised $500, claiming he had made a mistake in figuring. The board of course could do nothing and Mr. Whitney threw up the job and forfeited $150. The board at once called a meeting last night and asked Mr. Sumner to take the contract, he being the next lowest bidder. Mr. Sumner decided to accept his bid being $11,593.

Last Saturday night the freight set fire to the stubble belonging to Geo. Reitter, Jr., and burned one stack of straw before it could be put out. ## SEVERE ATTACK OF GRIP.

Cured by One Bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"When I had an attack of the grip last winter (the second one) I actually cured myself with one bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says Frank W. Perry, editor of the Enterpriser, Shortville, N. Y. "This is the honest truth. I at times kept from coughing myself to pieces by taking a teaspoonful of this remedy, and when the coughing spell would come on at night I would take a dose and it seemed that in the briefest interval the cough would pass off and I would go to sleep perfectly free from cough and its accompanying pains. To say that the remedy acted as a most agreeable surprise is putting it very mildly. I had no idea that it would or could knock out the grip, simply because I never tried it for such a purpose. But it did, and it seemed with the second attack of coughing the remedy caused it to not only to be of late duration, but the pains were far less severe, and I had not used the contents of one bottle before Mr. Grip had bid me adieu." For sale by all druggists.
