

THERE is one thing the legislature has done about which not one word of regret has been registered. It has adjourned. It was the best day's work they done during the entire session.

RELIGION and politics will not mix The man who attempts to mix religion with politics is a demagogue of the first water, and the man who attempts to mix politics with his religion is-well he lacks a whole lot of being a chistian.

THE legislature voted to buy 500 set of compiled statutes at $9 per set, a steal so palpable that Governor Mickey vetoed the bill, but both houses carried tofore the state has paid $2,50 per set for them. This is but a fair sample of the manner in which the late legisla- tution. ture has frittered away the peoples' money ..
