"The fruit is all killed," and "the fruit is not all killed," are the conflicting reports that come from various sections of the county. Now, how is a newspaper man to tell whether we are to have any fruit at all this year?
Aaron Anderson, an employe of the B. & M. coach shop who had his jaw broken in two places two weeks ago, is getting along nicely. It will be remembered that Mr. Anderson was struck by a heavy block of wood thrown from a fly-saw.
In the last issue of the Belle Fourche (S. D.) Northwest Post we noticed that B. L. Kirkham, one of its editors has been nominated for member of the school board. It shows that Bart stands pretty high in his new home, as he had no opposition for the nomination, even. The election, simply as a matter of form, takes place May 14.
Mrs. Conrad Schlatter returned from a most pleasant visit with her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Tighe, in Wabash, yesterday, accompanied by her daughter, who will visit a few days. Mrs. Schlatter has been absent about two weeks, and no one was better pleased to see her than our old friend Conrad, who has been quite lonesome.

A clerk's union has been organized in this city. The charter for same has arrived and the organization completed last night with a membership of about fifteen. George Tartsch says the clerks of this city have no kick coming unless it be to compel the merchants to take out all cash registers. But they don't propose to "go out" on that account.
In almost every neighborhood some one has died from an attack of cholera or cholera morbus, often before medicine could be procured or a physician summoned. A reliable remedy for these diseases should be kept at hand. The risk is too great for anyone to take. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has undoubtedly saved the lives of more people and relieved more pain and suffering than any other medicine in use. It can always be depended upon. For sale by all druggists.

White's express and delivery team created a little excitement on Sixth street yesterday as it came tearing through town. It collided at the corner of Sixth and Pearl with a telephone pole, which had a slight tendency to call a halt. They started from the M. P. depot, and got through town without injury even to the vehicle. A broken tongue is all the damage done.
"A man living on a farm near here came in a short time ago completely doubled up with rheumatism. I handed him a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and told him to use it freely and if not satisfied after using it he need not pay a cent for it," says C. P. Kayder, of Patton's Mills, N. Y. "A few days later he walked into the store as straight as a string and handed me a dollar saying, 'give me another bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I want it in the house all the time for it cured me.'" For sale by all druggists.

Tired Out

"I was very poorly and could hardly get about the house. I was tired out all the time. Then I tried Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and it only took two bottles to make me feel perfectly well." - Mrs. N. S. Swinney, Princeton, Mo.
Tired when you go to bed, tired when you get up, tired all the time. Why? Your blood is impure, that's the reason. You are living on the border line of nerve exhaustion. Take Ayer's Sarsaparilla and be quickly cured.
Ask your doctor what he thinks of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. He knows all about this grand old family medicine. Follow his advice and you will be satisfied.
