

The Plattsmouth Journal

PUBLISHED WEEKLY AT PLATTSMOUTH, NEBRASKA. R. A. AND T. H. BATES, PUBLISHERS.

Entered at the postoffice at Plattsmouth, Nebraska, as second-class matter.

ROOSEVELT deserves some credit. He has destroyed the Hanna "bossism" in the republican party.

Perhaps the lack of developments in the Washington fraud investigation means that vacation season has arrived.

ONLY one local crop is not affected by the excessive rains. June weddings are proof against every kind of weather.

SENATOR HANNA is likely to lose his popularity with the laboring men. He surrendered in Ohio without a strike, lockout or arbitration.

WOULD it not be a good thing if some of that $15,000,000 irrigation fund could be devoted to restoring bridges and roads destroyed by recent floods?

THE Postmaster General is striking that "pay dirt" he has long loved to joke about, and it proves to have been the filthiest sort of dirt, too.

AMONG the atmospheric phenomena recently noted is a decided frost administered to Mr. Roosevelt in Indiana. The temperature in Ohio has risen.

THE steel trust has made only $25,000,000 profits in April and May. No true republican would think of modifying the tariff schedule. That might curtail the trusts' pittance.

WE know of some distinguished gentlemen who will lose their interest in the Panama canal if they are not appointed to dig it with mahogany desks, revolving chairs and electric fans.

AN effective libel law is doubtless essential but it prevents the public from learning the inside facts of many a political deal, and paves the way for the wholesale defrauding of the government.

THE flood sufferers will not want for money and provisions. This big country has a big heart, and both rich and poor people have given and are giving generously in order to provide for the needs of those in distress.

THAT Brooklyn preacher who declares he would be proud to make up Booker T. Washington's bed, should invite Booker to stay with him, and prove that he is suffering from lack of good sense rather than from hypocritical cant.

IF the present investigation in the postoffice department shall open the eyes and the consciences of the public to the fact that thousands (no exaggeration) are drawing pay from the government and doing no work, it will not have been useless.

THE Postmaster General is finding that the people will have the facts regardless of his efforts at suppression. He might as well give up the task of protecting Mr. Hanna's political proteges, who are thieves that infest the postoffice department at Washington.

A THOROUGH investigation into some Navy Department purchases might furnish as unavailing a scandal as has been the probing of the postal service, but the ex-Assistant Secretary of the Navy will see that no naval contracts are submitted to the scrutiny of the public gaze.

"PRACTICAL POLITICS" in postoffice or any other department of the government, invariably means the swindling of the people. Sooner or later, the man who will appoint a ward-healer to an office which pays a salary but demands no return in the way of labor, will, if temptation arises or the opportunity offers, steal outright.

It appears to worry republican editors that the democrats do not set up a candidate for their opponents to throw stones at a year in advance of the nominating convention. So they must have some prospective candidate and as Grover Cleveland suits their purpose to annoy southern and western democrats, they are busy now in keeping the ex-president's name prominently before the country, in the hope that the democratic convention might possibly nominate him.

THE Atlanta Constitution remarks that hereafter when Booker T. Washington travels in the north he may be under the necessity of patronizing a colored lodging-house. Probably he will, since the north is not so slow to distinguish between welcome and unwelcome guests. But, except for the harm wrought upon his own people, you can't blame Booker for being more or less of a snob. Almost any one would cultivate a taste for first-class accommodations after stopping at the White House as Teddy's guest.

THE postal ring at Washington seem to be about the rottenest gang of thieves that ever disgraced any government. The rascals should be prosecuted and punished to the fullest extent of the law, regardless of the effect it may have on any political party. The people have a right to demand an honest administration of the affairs of every department of the government, and they insist that this be done. They will not put up with any screening of the guilty because they have powerful political backing, that adds further shame to the whole business.

EVEN Colonel Henri Watterson continues to belabor Mr. Cleveland. As the Kentucky colonel and the Princeton fisherman labored in the same republican vineyard in 1896, and have ever since been regarded as about equally tarred with the same stick, it looks like they ought to get on peacefully.

AND now Prophet Irl Hicks says that all these rains and tornadoes and floods must be charged to Venus' account. It's all right, of course, to fix the responsibility, and the pagan goddess of love and beauty deserves little consideration, perhaps, but haven't we sinned enough of humility's woes on her shoulders already? Prophet Hicks should go slow in adding to the burden.

ALWAYS with a willingness to correct any false statement that may have been made in the Journal, we gladly accept the opportunity of correcting one that appeared in these columns week before last. In an editorial the Journal said that in case Grover Cleveland secured the democratic nomination for president next year that paper would support Roosevelt in preference, or words to that effect. The editor of the Journal received the impression from other sources than the World-Herald proper, and is now satisfied that it was with an error of the head but not of the heart. The World-Herald never made any such utterances, or words that could possibly be construed in that meaning, and we are proud to render justice to whom justice is due. To Mr. Metcalfe, the abettor of the World-Herald, this apology is especially extended.

THE defeat of Judge Elbridge Haney in Chicago last week, is a just rebuke to the partisan judge. The courts are most sacred institutions of the people and should not be lowered to the partisan line. This Judge Haney did, and the people of his district would not stand it. In fact, take the state of Illinois throughout in the late judicial elections, and it shows that the people will not vote for a partisan judiciary under any circumstances, and here in Nebraska they will do the same. Judge Sullivan has proved to the people that he is unquestionably the "right man in the right place," irrespective of the desires of a few hide-bound, skin-flint republican, whose partisan prejudices are so great as to render odious the very air they breathe. Thank heaven, there are enough honest and conscientious republicans in the state of Nebraska who will throw aside politics when it comes to voting for such an eminent jurist as Judge Sullivan has proved himself to be, no matter the desires of the bitter partisan element.

Must Break a Hoodoo. Theodore Roosevelt is the fifth Vice President of the United States to be president by the death of the occupant of the presidential office early in the term. Every one of the five manifested an ambition to secure by election a full term through the accident of death. Not one of Roosevelt's four predecessors achieved it. It is for Theodore Roosevelt to show whether he is able to rise above those depressing precedents. He has gone into the contest for the nomination with greater determination than was displayed by either of the four predecessors. The conditions are more in his favor than in the case of either of the others. Unless something new looked for intervenes the probabilities are that he will be nominated on the first ballot and not improbably by a practically unanimous vote. That will break the record so far as concerns the nomination. Whether he will go into history as the first president by accident who succeeded in becoming president by election will then remain to be determined.

The "Ohio Idea." The Ohio Republican convention did about what was expected of it from the national point of view. President Roosevelt was emphatically endorsed for nomination in 1904, and Senator Hanna led the chorus very gracefully. The platform sounded a long tumultuous paean of praise for the republican party and its doctrines. The point of special interest, the reference to the tariff, was thoroughly republican, the strictly orthodox tone being not the least modified by a vague, ambiguous and utterly meaningless reference to possible future revision of the duty schedules. The substance of the tariff plank is found in this paragraph: We oppose all attacks upon this (protection) policy, whatever the pretext, as tending to bring back the disastrous days of the democratic tariff revision and free trade. Changing conditions and the possible benefits or reciprocity may call for timely readjustment of schedules, but protection as a principle and as a policy must be administered by friends of American prosperity and must not be sacrificed.

The hopelessness of tariff reduction, if left to republican politicians, could hardly be more impressively borne home. Even the word "readjustment" is used in the place of the word "reduction," and the country knows every "readjustment" so far made by the republican party has been upward, not downward. To make sure that even this excessive impression should not be confused with the "Iowa idea" which recognizes that the time for tariff reduction has come and that it should be practiced especially where high protection "shelters monopoly," the platform later, in connection with the trust plank, alludes to the "democratic plan of destroying all industries through tariff revision." There never was a more wholesale misconception of the democratic principles of tariff reform, or a more extravagant exaggeration of republican achievements than may be found in the Hanna platform adopted in Ohio.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell. Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest of its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

To the Very Point. The business men of this village (even the newspaper) are charged an occupation tax for conducting business, and that is all right and proper, for there must be revenue to meet expenses, but it does not appear right to tax the home business men then allow them peddlers and other itinerants to work their grafts without objection. The town is worked to death by non-resident peddlers and solicitors who take a great deal of business (printing included) that rightfully ought to be given to men who are taxed to pay the town's expenses. This will do for the village officials to consider.—Union Ledger.

The same can be said of this city in many respects. For instance, the city allowed an entire stranger, representing the "Chicago Mercantile Company" (whatever that may be) to come here advertising under the name of the foregoing company, and sell goods for three weeks without paying one cent of an occupation tax. Apparently, he was closing out an old stock for one of our merchants under contract, and this being the case he should have been compelled to pay the regular occupation tax, if not the full amount that itinerant salesmen are taxed. He remained here three weeks, or until the "cream" of the bargains were disposed of and then he vanishes to the ranch, for another point to do the same kind of business. If the business men of Plattsmouth are to submit longer to an occupation tax they should demand protection against future impositions of this character.

"I was laid up during the winter of 04-05 with sciatic rheumatism and nervous prostration brought on by a severe attack of La Grippe. The rheumatic pains were so severe at times that it was impossible for me to turn in bed. I was unable to sleep. I had two of our best physicians in attendance, took all the advertised remedies for troubles of this kind but got no help whatever until I took Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. Six bottles restored me to health; I am better today than for years; in fact an entire cure. I can say with a clear conscience that it was Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine that restored me to health. When the pains of sciatic rheumatism were most severe I secured Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. I have recommended Dr. Miles' Remedies to many people."—Fred Myers, Keokuk, Ia.

"I was taken with pain in my heart and under the left shoulder, with heavy oppression feeling in my chest that I could hardly breathe. I had palpitation so bad and my heart would throbb so that it would shake my whole bed. I also had a weak, all-time feeling in my stomach. My doctor treated me for liver and stomach trouble but I failed to receive any benefit until a friend recommended Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Restorative Nervine. I used both and one box of the Anti-Pain Pills. I believe I am completely cured and permanently cured."—Mrs. J. W. Golding, Noblesville, Ind.

VERY DAINTY INDEED are the new things in Ladies' Summer Jewelry. The designers have hit upon many happy conceits and the makers have carried them out skillfully. Some of this jewelry is very low priced—cheap enough to lose—but it does not look low priced. In appearance it is similar to jewelry costing four times as much. The difference in quality of material, stones, and finish accounts for the difference in price. SNYDER & CO., JEWELERS AND OPTICIANS. Bock Building, Plattsmouth Neb.
