

The Plattsmouth Journal

PUBLISHED WEEKLY AT PLATTSMOUTH, NEBRASKA.

R. A. AND T. E. BATES,
PUBLISHERS.

Entered at the postoffice at Plattsmouth, Nebraska, as second-class matter.

Roosevelt has given us a "Payne" for almost two years, and he will not find it easy to "Wynne" our forgiveness.

A PENNSYLVANIA miner is to be disciplined for attending a non-union wedding. As though there could be a wedding without a union.

A NEW YORK magistrate has decided that it is an insult to refer to a woman as an old maid. Glad to have a great authority voice our views.

It is said that President Roosevelt wants Senator Beveridge for a running mate. Well, let them run, with style and strenuousness. One should have a race suicide.

The folk song promises to be a feature of the Missouri campaign. With the strenuous district attorney at the head of the ticket the campaign will be the most successful in years.

ACCORDING to the census statistics, the combined poultry and egg product of the United States exceeds the value of the entire output of precious metals, and is six times greater than the wool product.

Some people claim that they occasionally hear a long, low wail from the White House in the small hours of the night. It is believed to be due to the "Payne" in the bowels of the administration.

THE ST. Joseph Gazette reports that "the local agent of the Standard Oil Company at Mound City, Missouri, was arrested five times in one day for selling inferior oil." Evidently there is no Mickey in office in Missouri.

For the president to "stand by" Payne after the way in which Payne stood by Beavers, Machen and others is still standing by Rand, will be a virtual admission that Mr. Roosevelt does not "hew to the line."

It is unreasonable to ask the president to "go to the top" in his investigation of the postoffice department. That would mean the exposure of the Hanna methods from which Roosevelt hopes to profit in the next campaign.

THE Washington correspondent who claims to have discovered that Roosevelt and J. Pierpont Morgan have become reconciled cannot expect much credit from this discovery until he demonstrates that there was ever any difference between them.

THE parliament to tax land values made in the British proposal was promptly met with a proposition for a tariff tax. The latter would be indirect taxation. LaFayette once described tariff taxation as a scheme for shearing the lamb without making the lamb bawl.

THE Augean stables were befouled by three thousand oxen when Hercules deflected Niagara Falls through them. Roosevelt has a bigger job before him in the postoffice department, and this department is only one of eight that need strenuous Hercules treatment.

A horse famine is one of the predictions made by men who claim to be posted. Exporters are eagerly waiting for a supply to fill the demand. Eastern dealers want more good horses than they have been able to buy so far. Prices are not much of an object if the right kind of horses can be had.

A PROMINENT official of the post-office department says that the real trouble with this department and all other government departments is the anxiety of the people to secure employment at handsome pay, and the fact that they will excuse anything in a member of congress, if he will only get securities for the people of his district.

THE president has scared Secretary Shaw, and he has inaugurated a still hunt for corruption in the treasury department. The trouble with "still hunts" is that they invariably bring the investigators face to face with the work of prominent politicians who, unless confronted by an urgent popular demand, manage to check further investigation.

THE democrats will hold their state convention at Columbus, on Tuesday, August 25, while the populists will hold their convention in Grand Island, on the same date. This may seem very strange, but then when the fact that there will be no opposition to Judge Sullivan in either convention, is taken into consideration, it does not appear so strange, after all.

OVERHAULING the state's politics may be readily accomplished if the good citizens in the counties will take a wide awake interest. Make an inventory of county politics and learn of the men who have managed them and the influences which they represent. The weeding out of the bad factors is simple enough if the majority of good citizens will bear a hand.

THE action of the Modern Woodmen in appropriating $50,000 to be used for the relief of flood sufferers comes as a most gratifying surprise and entitles that organization to high praise and honor. This is a very substantial sum for any one organization to offer. It is to be taken from the association's general fund and available immediately after the adjournment of the convention.

Our Sentiments Exactly.

The following from the Union Ledger, regarding the pardon of the murderer Rhea, meets the approval of the Union in every word the article contains:

"The condemned murderer, Rhea, who is in the penitentiary at Lincoln awaiting execution for killing Henry Zahn, is giving some of the high-toned ministers and society a fine opportunity for 'dress parade' in their efforts to induce Governor Mickey to let the murderer from deserved punishment on the gallows July 10, and the secret of all these spasmodic and idiotic efforts are undoubtedly due to the fact that this murderer's Indiana relatives and friends belong to a wealthy and 'silk tie aristocracy.' One Lincoln preacher took Rhea's case for his whole talk last Sunday night, and another preacher is advertised to repeat the performance next Sunday night, while abundance of society flowers are sent to the cell of the murderer. We venture the opinion that few (if any) of all the people who are now slobbering over Rhea ever soiled their shoes by stepping in the mud to lend a helping hand or kind word to a man in the gutter and try to rescue him from the path that leads to such a fate as awaits Rhea, but since it was discovered that the murderer has aristocratic friends this sentimental howling has been kept up, even in the pulpit. Are they sincere, or is it only dress parade? The case of Neigenfind gives the answer. In Neigenfind's case there was death of prayers and sermons to save him from the gallows, no flowers or influential friends. He was a poor ignorant man who committed murder while angered to the point of insanity; he was given a trial, but had not the means to appeal for his life through a higher court; his execution took place at the appointed time, and his body was placed on exhibition in a Lincoln undertaker's establishment. Rhea killed a man he was attempting to rob; Neigenfind killed because of some wrong he thought had been done him. If Neigenfind deserved to be hanged (and probably he did) why should the robber and murderer, Wm. Rhea, be shown any more mercy of kindness than the friendless Neigenfind? Some of those people who are asking mercy for a cold-blooded murderer might be in better business by striving to save his soul instead of his life."

BRIGHT and early the American Protective Tariff League is now Johnny-on-the-spot in Washington, working overtime to prevent the calling of an extra session of congress to ratify the Cuban reciprocity treaty. It makes no difference to the protectionists that we are in honor bound to establish reciprocal relations with Cuba and that the late President McKinley championed the reciprocity idea in his last public utterances. The tariff-fostered trusts have been in the habit of dictating republican policies and they are now striving to intimidate President Roosevelt by threatening him with the loss of their support if he insists upon Cuban reciprocity. The situation now developing brings a grand opportunity for a display of the much-vaunted Roosevelt backbone.

ROOSEVELT'S declaration, in connection with the postoffice department scandals that "there can be no greater offense against the government than a breach of trust on the part of a public official or the dishonest management of his office and, of course, every effort must be exerted to bring such offenders to punishment by the utmost rigor of the law," has something of the right ring. It is a trifle belated, coming after the failure of a most obvious movement to suppress the facts in the case, and voiced only when any other position has been rendered untenable, but it sounds promising. And now let us hope that the offenders, big and little, will soon be brought to punishment "by the utmost rigor of the law" earnestly administered.

A "forky per cent" swindling machine extending throughout the various branches of the postal service—which expends something over one hundred and twenty-five millions—must have helped themselves to a liberal sum. Million dollar boodle scandals are appropriate adjuncts to billion-dollar stewardships. We should not object so much to the heavy expenses of government, provided we get value received for every dollar.

DURING the past few weeks the Journal has made a special effort to get the opinion of the democratic farmers of Cass county as to their choice for county treasurer. We have failed, so far, to find one that does not favor W. D. Wheeler for the position. They all seem to think that Billy will be able to "streight'en out the republican candidate so completely that after the election it will be hard to tell which one of the boys he is.

THE rural free delivery system seems to have been a country-plein free lunch for republican machines in many states, including Nebraska, and especially that part of the state known as the first congressional district. The politicians got everything but the pickles.

PEOPLE in many counties of Nebraska cut loose from political ties when it comes to the election of county officials. Hence it behooves any party to nominate good, competent men. The people are the judges and demand an honest, intelligent service.

LOW RATES WEST. The Burlington offers round trip tickets as follows: Denver, Colo., and return, $15.00; July 1 to 10. Colorado Springs and return, $15.00; July 1 to 10. Pueblo and return, $15.00; July 1 to 10. Ask the ticket agent for particulars.

Often The Kidneys Are Weakened by Over-Work.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood. It used to be considered that only urinary and bladder troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases have their beginning in the disorder of these most important organs.

The kidneys filter and purify the blood—that is their work. Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, because as soon as your kidneys are well they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince anyone.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases, and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Write for this paper when writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

AMERICAN GOODS ABROAD. While in Ireland, Father Fitzpatrick visited Dublin, Cork and Belfast. He found conditions there much improved and many people in the rural districts were paying for their homes on the twenty-year plan, the government loaning the money for that purpose at 4 percent.

"What struck me as peculiar" continued Father Fitzpatrick, "was the price American products were sold in Ireland. Take flour for instance, I saw flour from a mill at Schuyler, Neb., being sold there for considerable less than what we pay for it in Omaha, and that after the freight from Schuyler to Ireland had been paid. Queer, isn't it?"—World-Herald.

SPEAKING of Mr. Barnes, whom the railroads of Nebraska have decided upon as the successor of Judge Sullivan on the supreme bench, the Lincoln Post says: "Mr. Barnes is a member of the supreme court commission, a make-shift engineer by a new state constitution. The members of this commission were not appointed by reason of their judicial ability, but because of geographical ability and political fitness. Had Mr. Barnes lived a hundred miles further south, he would not now be a member of the commission. Prior to his appointment upon the commission he was not known outside of his own backwater, and since his appointment he has not shown any startling indications of special fitness for the supreme bench. So much for Mr. Barnes. The men who have laid the plans for Mr. Barnes' nomination are much more interested in getting their kind of a man on the bench than they are in securing a court that will deal out equal and exact justice. In short, the men who made Mickey are trying to make Barnes, and for the same reason. They know Mickey and they know Barnes." Yes, and they know Judge Sullivan. They would throw Barnes overboard tomorrow if he would only consent to serve them in the manner they desire. But Judge Sullivan is too honorable a man to probe the judiciary in serving in the interests of the corruptionists who are in control of the affairs of Nebraska, and are constantly scheming to get a tighter grip upon the rights and privileges of the common people. Judge Sullivan is a man of the people and will never stand the dictations of a set of scheming corruptionists, who are ever ready to do the bidding of the railroads and other corporations; for the cash there is in sight.

A Smooth Grafter.

A special dispatch from Elmwood gives the following account of what may be termed a very smooth grafter who recently worked that town to a fare-you-well: "Not long ago a man calling himself J. Forest Marston, claiming to represent the Union Accident and Casualty company of St. Louis, and possessed of a goodly supply of the advertising matter, applications, etc., of said company came into Plattsmouth. He wore a cork leg, black Prince Albert coat, posed as a preacher in the Christian church and lectured on the holy land. He was smooth enough to get various amounts, ranging from $1 to $12, from several of our citizens for insurance, giving in return a receipt which amounts to very little, as the insurance company claim they know nothing of him and that he is not an authorized agent. By the time the victims discovered the swindle J. Forest had completely dispersed. He is said to have operated at Louisville and Weeping Water in this county, and from his talk about Elmwood being such a poor town for insurance, he must strike it rich in some localities."

COMMISSIONER'S PROCEEDINGS. PLATTSMOUTH, NEB., June 15, 1903.—Board met in regular session. All present. Minutes of last session read and approved.

THE following agreement was entered into: In consideration that the owners of the equity of redemption of lots 7 and 8 in block 28 in Plattsmouth, waive all questions of jurisdiction in the case of County of Cass, appellee, vs. Mary Fitzgerald et al., appellants, in the Supreme court of Nebraska, and consent to the entry of a final decree therein affirming said decree as to all property therein described except lots 7 and 8 in block 18, Plattsmouth, and to lots 7 and 8 aforesaid, that a decree shall be rendered in said court for the sum of fifty-one hundred dollars in full satisfaction of all the taxes and special assessments against said property for taxes assessed and unpaid and not included in any tax certificate, up to and including 1902, and shall waive the defense that said lots although separately owned were assessed at a joint valuation, and waive their two years constitutional right of redemption, the county attorney is hereby directed to have entered in said cause a decree in conformity with the foregoing, to-wit, to affirm the decree of the district court except as to lots 7 and 8 as aforesaid and as to lots 7 and 8 have a decree rendered against said property for $5,100 to be prorated between the several funds and assessments represented in the said decree for the years therein involved, and that there be a stay of said decree for the execution of said decree and the decree to bear 10 per cent interest from its entry, the costs of said suit to be paid as follows: All unpaid costs to be paid by the appellants.
