

The Plattsmouth Journal

Weeping Water

In a round-about way the news comes to us that Mr. and Mrs. Tom Marshall are the parents of a new baby girl.

Uncle Nicholas Halmes and wife came over from Plattsmouth, Monday, and are visiting their son Nicholas and family.

Chas. Murphy was in town Saturday, to meet a nurse that was expected down from Lincoln to take care of his mother. Mrs. Murphy is 80 years old and in very poor health.

Ben Thomson undertook to teach his horse to stand on his hind legs last week, but the front hoof caught Ben on the cheek, making a bruise that looked like someone's fist had been at work.

At the home of the bride, southeast of town on Wednesday, June 17, occurred the marriage of Mr. Frank L. Cappen and Miss Emma E. Branson. Rev. Moulton pronounced the words that united the hearts and lives of this couple at 2 p. m.

John McGrady has been promoted to dispatcher on the B. & M. at Lincoln, and expects to make that place his home. His wife who has been visiting here the past week with his folks will remain here until John makes the change. He is now operator at Waverly. Owen is proud of his new daughter.

Chas. Jenkins, a farmer living six miles northeast, on Frank Spangler's farm, while over to a neighbor's visiting last Thursday, had a night caller visit his house and steal $5.00. The man escaped through a window as Mr. Jenkins entered the door. Another neighbor had a large amount of cured meat stolen.

Notwithstanding the flood gates seemed to be opened and we had a tremendous rain and quite a little hail Friday night, yet the worst of the storm was farther south. Wm. Wollen says the hail cut down a lot of the corn and small grain. Near Avoca the damage was reported quite heavy from hail, and a few minor losses in buildings.

One of our subscribers desires us to state that in his opinion the charivaris indulged in by the boys of the town, are a relic of barbarism a disgrace to the participants, an offense that should be punishable, and the city authorities should make it their business to see that the practice is discontinued. About the only way to escape a charivari in Weeping Water is to remain single, and by the way maybe that is the reason there are not more weddings.

Bert Philpot narrowly escaped death Friday night. He had just hitched up his team to the buggy, leaving the bridle blinds off, and the horses not being used to seeing a buggy following behind them, ran away, upsetting Mr. Philpot along with the vehicle and he was picked up unconscious. Dr. Gilmore was called and found no bones broken, but as Bert had struck on his head, his condition was pretty serious and will confine him to the house several days. The team rounded up in a fence.

From the Republican.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Haslam, a son, on Tuesday, June 16, 1903.

We are pleased to state that Mr. Henry Hubbard has received an increase in pension from $8.00 to $10.00 per month.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ash, a son, on Friday, June 19, 1903. This is the only son and the parents are correspondingly happy.

Mrs. Donelan and Margaret went to Plattsmouth this morning to spend a month with her parents. While away she and her mother will visit a sister at Cedar Rapids, Nebraska.

Mr. Isaac Reed and Miss Jennie Hunt are to be married to-night (Thursday) at the home of the bride's parents. The Republican extends congratulations in advance, and wishes them a long and happy life.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Hansen were in town Friday. Mrs. Hansen has been ill for a long time and her life was despaired of several times but she is on a fair way to recovery now. This was her first visit to town since the G. A. R. reunion last August.

J. L. Corley received some new stools and chairs for his ice cream and soda department on Monday. They are very pretty and comfortable and from now on his customers can rest while being refreshed with a cool drink or dish of ice cream.

A quiet but very happy event took place on the evening of June 17, at the home of Superintendent and Mrs. D. K. Luthy in the second ward, when their daughter Miss Ethel was united in marriage to Mr. Arthur McCoy of Superior, Neb.

Mrs. Kressen and son Walter arrived home from Colorado, Sunday evening. They won the suit for alimony and then the judge dismissed the suit for "no exeat" and gave an order for Walter's release. The suit for divorce which has had a hearing has not been decided yet, but so far as Walter's having to be in Colorado is concerned everything is settled. The many friends of Mrs. Kressen here congratulate her upon the able fight she made and the success which followed her untiring efforts.

Elmwood

From the Leader-Echo. Raspberries are ripening. They promise to be quite an abundant crop. Lightning killed a cow for Will Gerbling Sunday, so we are told. C. D. Kunz lost one or two head of cattle Sunday. Too much white clover.

The Plattsmouth telephone company has commenced work on the farmer lines out of Elmwood.

Quite an addition is being built to the M. E. church at Alvo. An addition 17x28 on the south, 6x12 on the north, a belfry 8x8, and a new steeple will be built. A. H. Soffin of Elmwood, has the contract for the complete job.

George Kennedy, electrician of the Plattsmouth telephone company was an Elmwood visitor Friday. He has resigned his position with the Plattsmouth company to accept that of city electrician of Missouri Valley, Iowa.

Robert Wall's barn was struck by lightning about five o'clock yesterday morning and entirely consumed. No insurance. They succeeded in getting all of the horses out of the barn, but some hay and several sets of harness was destroyed. While getting the horses out another bolt of lightning struck the windmill, doing but little damage.

Will Hoover and Miss Ada Miller were married Wednesday at the home of Elder and Mrs. N. T. Harmon, at David City, Elder Harmon officiating. From there they go to the home of the bride's sister Mrs. Underhill at Tamora, where they will visit a few days before returning to Elmwood.

The bride is the estimable daughter of our fellow townsman H. W. Miller, and has a host of friends in Elmwood. Mr. Hoover is the well known and popular manager of Mrs. E. A. Green's drug store and is one of Elmwood's leading young men.

Union

Thos. M. Patterson and wife, F. J. Morgan and wife and Mrs. Oscar Brown came down from Plattsmouth last Sunday and spent the afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Swearingen.

L. R. Upton came down from Omaha last Saturday evening for a Sunday visit at home. He has a good position in Allen Bros. wholesale house, and appears to be well pleased with the business.

Other towns will have Union's help in celebrating July 4th, and in return they will unite with us to make a grand success of the old settlers' 15th reunion here August 7 and 8. That's reciprocity.

Dr. Walker was called to Murray Tuesday and Wednesday to attend Dr. Geo. H. Gilmore, who has been quite sick, and also looked after a number of other patients for the afflicted Murray physician.

E. O. Welsh, who was transferred to Omaha as night operator for the M. P. came down Monday for a few hours visit with his Union friends. He says he has a nice position and is well pleased with his location.

Mrs. Otis McNurlin was here a few days this week, visiting friends and having her household goods moved to Murray. While here a number of friends called on her to bid her farewell. Her sister, Miss Emma Hughson, will reside with her in Murray.

Hiram Lloyd, son of Mont Lloyd who resided near here a number of years, was shaking hands with his Union friends. Hiram has been in the west and south for some time, but is now undecided as to where he will locate. He was a small boy when he lived here, and many of his friends did not recognize him at first sight Monday.

K. D. Clark, of Carson, Iowa, was here this week, visiting and attending to business matters. We understand that he will have arrangements completed soon for remodeling and enlarging the Roddy building west of the bank and when that is completed he will move his stock of goods here and become a permanent citizen and business man of our town.

Eagle

Richard Wenzel says he does not like the mumps as well as he might.

Ross Crabtree and family of Cheney are visiting Eagle relatives this week.

Mrs. John Ritter, jr., has been quite sick the past few days but is much better at this writing.

Uncle John Michael returned Sunday evening from St. Louis, where he was sight seeing a few days.

Ed Ward had the misfortune to get one of his toes broken one day last week by being run over by a load of corn.

Alvo and vicinity was visited by a severe hail storm Sunday night. Nearly four inches of hail fell, damaging potatoes and small grain.

Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, Mr. Fred Schwegman and Miss Carrie Leidig were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at the German Evangelical church Rev. Haack officiating. A large number of friends and relatives were present to witness the ceremony. After congratulations were over the guests were invited to the home of the bride's parents where a bountiful feast had been prepared. These young people are well and favorably known as they have grown to maturity in this vicinity.

Nehawka

From the Register.

B. W. Bates lost a fine cow Saturday from bloat, caused by eating wet clover.

Two of William Trotter's children were under the doctor's care the first of the week.

Hump Back

SCOTT'S EMULSION won't make a hump back straight, neither will it make a short leg long, but it feeds soft bone and heals diseased bone and is among the few genuine means of recovery in rickets and bone consumption.

Send for free sample. SCOTT'S BOWEN'S Chemists, 409-415 Pearl Street, New York. 50c. and $1.00, all druggists.

Earl Kirkpatrick came in Saturday evening from St. Louis, where he graduated from the railroad school.

Simon Gruber had three head of cattle knocked off the track and killed by some of the Saturday night trains.

Mr. Blanchard and Mrs. Taylor who have been visiting relatives here for a short time left for their home in Vermont Monday morning.

The hail storm Sunday afternoon riddled the corn pretty badly out south of town. The farmers think it will come out all right yet. All the windows on the north side of Fred Nutzman's house were broken.

Last week Carl Kuntmann took Henry Schomaker's cattle to Plattsmouth. This makes the eighth year he has bought Mr. Schomaker's fat cattle and proves that he knows where to go to get a prime beef steer.

Henry Theile, wife, daughter and son were guests of Mr. Henry Schomaker's family the last of the week. They live over between Syracuse and Unadilla. Mr. Theile is a very pleasant man and we were glad to meet him. He says crops are the same there as here.

Mr. Naylor started Friday to bring hogs, to town, but could haul them no further than Kime's place. The mud was axle deep and he had to get help and unload, and drive the rest of the way. Ost Bros. hauled theirs by way of Factoryville to avoid the mud hole.

Mike Kime says that two hours work would make it passable; then what is the matter with their supervisor.

Greenwood

From the News.

Miss Pearl Lader who has been visiting for the past two months at Arlington, Nebraska, returned home Friday.

Miss Menerva Tool who has been here from Murdock for the past two weeks visiting with the family of T. M. McKinnon returned home Wednesday morning.

We are glad to have Dr. Talcott back with us again. He returned Tuesday after three weeks' treatment for one of his eyes at Lincoln and it is now better, though very weak.

The telephone wire running to the office of D. K. Barr was cut by someone Tuesday evening. We wonder if the one that cut it knows that it is a penitentiary offense from one to three years?

Miss Carrie Clark, formerly of this place, was married in South Omaha Monday to a Mr. Evers. Miss Carrie has a host of friends in Greenwood who were somewhat surprised to hear of the happy news.

Thos. Lee Brittenham died at the home of his brother, Tim Brittenham, May 27, 1903. Mr. Brittenham was born in Hillsdale, Mills county, Iowa, June 18, 1880, and came to Thayer county, Nebraska, in 1885, and from there he went to York county, where he resided until 1895 when he moved to Missouri and remained there until he came here for his health. After remaining for some time it became evident that he was not long for this life and died May 27. The cause of death was tuberculosis. Father, mother, three sisters, two brothers and many friends are left to mourn his loss.

Louisville

From the Courier.

Joe Fitzgerald and family were here from Plattsmouth this week visiting. Joe returned home Monday.

Dr. Thomas reports the arrival of a girl baby at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Rau, Tuesday, June 23.

Work is progressing rapidly on Louisville's new school house, the stone work being about complete and brick laying will commence shortly.

Word comes from Cropper, Oklahoma, that a bouncing baby boy arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Ragoss, jr., Monday, June 22.

Mrs. Stevenson was brought home from the hospital at Omaha Wednesday and is now resting comfortably at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Dr. Worthman.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Rollie Noyes, Tuesday, June 23, a girl. Postmaster Mayfield can hardly be convinced, however, that the arrival of the little miss makes him a great-grandfather.

Those in the neighborhood who are fortunate enough to have fields of alfalfa are preparing to cut the first crop, in fact a few have already commenced cutting. The yield this year promises to be greater than ever and the farmer who hasn't a few acres of alfalfa does not understand what he is missing.

Lou Bates, one of Springfield's druggists, is surely playing in hard luck. A few months ago, during the Springfield fire, his store and all its contents were burned. He erected a new building and just had it completed and was about to move in when his new building took fire from some unknown cause, the damage amounting to about $300.

Hot; that's what. Such weather is enough to make a person lapse into poetry if they lived at Cedar Creek, and could keep from plagiarism. And it would be so dreary. Hot stuff, and weather too.

L. C. W. Murray shelled corn Monday and Tuesday. That is R. L. Propst shelled for him. Your correspondent and a chicken merchant from Plattsmouth helped do the twirling (shelling) and it was so much fun.

Henry Spangler shelled corn on Tuesday, but we have sworn off. Wm. Stokes shelled on Wednesday.

Farm hands are very scarce and most any kind of a man, one-eyed, deaf, dumb or just so he's a man, can get a job here now.

Corn is taking on a fine growth these hot days. To look over the country now and see the verdure of the fields, the effect of the late wet spell is not very apparent, but there is plenty of corn that has been drowned out for all that.

D. E. Kiser is going to have wagon loads of peaches this fall, if the outlook means anything. Ye correspondent took a stroll through his orchard a few days ago, and peaches and cream will be much in vogue this season we opine.

Allen Land the new storeman, is making things hum in the repair line in his store, remodeling quite extensively, and getting things in order for a business we feel sure he will succeed in, as he lacks nothing in push and vim.

Tell your Cedar Creek sweet poet to give us more poems. He might dig up some of Milton's, as people are on-to late published poems. Y. N.

Maple Grove

Special Correspondence.

George Hild and Herman Gansmeier visited at Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Puls Friday night.

Carpenters began the work on Mrs. Schafer's new house last week. Mrs. Schafer is building quite a large house, and when completed will be a fine residence. Teakotter & Smith are doing the work.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Long gave a nice little party in their new house Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. James Cathey and son, Cameron, were among the Plattsmouth visitors Saturday.

Maple Grove will not celebrate this year. They will spend the Fourth in some other city.

W. H. Puls and James Lemon were among the Murray visitors Saturday.

Edward Hagel returned home last week. Ed has been down in Otoe county for a few months.

Mrs. Marten returned home to Plattsmouth Sunday. She has been staying with her daughter, Mrs. Chas. Engelkemeier for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. William Puls and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. August Engelkemeier and family were the guests of Charles Engelkemeier Sunday.

Grandma Harris is visiting the family of J. R. Cathey this week.

Our school meeting Monday night was not largely attended. The following officers were elected: Treasurer, J. R. Cathey; Moderator, W. H. Puls.

Mrs. Fulton and Mrs. Lemon were called to Plattsmouth Monday on account of the illness of their father Mr. Allen.

Murray

Special Correspondence.

A merry crowd gathered at the beautiful and commodious home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Long last Saturday evening in honor of their daughter, Miss Gertrude's 20th birthday. The evening was passed in playing games of various kinds. The music was furnished by Miss Ida Boedecker, and Lela Dugay sang several selected songs which created much amusement for the jolly crowd. At a late hour the crowd were invited out on the lawn, where delicious refreshments, consisting of ice cream and cake, were served by her mother and her sister, Mrs. R. M. Schrader; after which all departed for their respective homes declaring that they had spent a most enjoyable evening and wishing Miss Gertrude many more such happy events. Those present were: Dora, Will and Nettie Pitman, Ida Boedecker, Bertha Seybolt, Pauline Oldham, Lela Dugay, Minnie Will, Sadie Jenkins, Verna Schrader, Florence McDonald, Lydia Howard, Lulu Valley, Gertie Jenkins, Nora Henton, Gertrude Long, Glen Boedecker, Frank Valley, Earl Jenkins, Homer Schlichtemeier, Ray Dill, Wade Porter, Roy Howard, Albert Wheeler, Tom Will, Chas. Mr. editor, your last week's paper stated that your Mynard man took a trip in the southern part of Cass county. We have been wondering indeed where all of this hot air has been blowing from. Please put him in the ice chest and keep him cool, but don't freeze his brains.

J. G. Lohnes lost a valuable cow last week from the effects of clover bloat.

Some of the farmers in this vicinity have begun laying by corn.

The birds will sing in gentle spring. The flowers grace the garden spot. The dudes complain (oh, wondrous thing) Because the weather is too hot.

A young man in this locality has been out trying to buy a pony. The owner of the broncos showed him the best of horses but the buyer shook his head and said I guess I'll go fishing. (Where can I get a net?)

You readers of the Journal have surely read about the white crows which appeared in the Cedar Creek items last week. I will leave it for you to find out for yourself—but remember—and just think a minute.

Here is a simple problem. Though it's hard to answer right. How can a pair of crows so black Turn out so very white.

Brutally Tortured.

A case came to light that for persistence and unmerciful torture has perhaps never been equaled. Joe Golobick of Colusa, Calif., writes, "For 15 years, I endured insufferable pain from Rheumatism and nothing relieved me though I tried everything known. I came across Electric Bitters and it's the greatest medicine on earth for that trouble. A few bottles of it relieved and cured me." Just as good for Liver and Kidney troubles, and general debility.
