Special Attention, Democrats!
The most important meeting of the county central committee will be held in Plattsmouth, Monday, September 7th. All committeemen and all candidates will be present. Be sure and come.
HENRY R. GERING,
Chairman Co. Committee.

"INVESTIGATE!" is the demand of the hour. "What is sauce for geese is sauce for the gander."
KANSAS barbers have raised the price of shaving a corpse to $10. Is that because they cannot talk to the subject?

ROOSEVELT is following in the footsteps of Mr. Cleveland. He threatens to whip congress into line on the currency question.

THE democratic county ticket meets the approbation of a majority of the voters of Cass county, and without doubt a portion of it will be successful at the polls.

A PROMINENT Utah paper admits that if the republicans adopt the "full baby carriage" as a campaign slogan, the democrats will have to concede Utah.

ANOTHER investigation of gigantic frauds is on the tapis. This time it is the Interior Department, the Indian Bureau and the Dawes Commission that are now under suspicion.

ABOUT half of the forty delegates attended the republican judicial convention at Nebraska City last Tuesday and renominated Judge Jessen. Hon. E. B. Windom, of this city, had the honor of serving both as temporary and permanent chairman of the convention.

By call elsewhere in this issue of the Journal it will be seen that a convention will meet in Nebraska City next Wednesday, September 9, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for judge of the district court. Cass county is entitled to twenty delegates, the same as Otoe.

The ticket nominated by the democrats of this county, is very acceptable to the masses of the party. The majority of the candidates are also very popular among a certain class of republicans who will support a portion of the ticket, and are not at all backward in declaring their intentions.

Yes, we are eager for an investigation of the "distress warrant" business. And the work of investigation can't begin any too soon to please John D. McBride. By the way, what has become of the nine hundred distress warrants recently issued by the treasurer? And then, again, the Journal would like to know if the treasurer or deputy is not there to collect the taxes? If not, why not?

INVESTIGATE! Investigate! Investigate! Yes, investigate the "distress warrant" charges as soon as possible, and then, maybe, the treasurer and his deputy will be kept busy explaining why those nine hundred distress warrants are pigeon-holed in the treasurer's office unserved. And then let these gentlemen explain to you why an attempt was not made last year, the year before, and even the year before that to serve such warrants? And, furthermore, is it not the duty of the treasurer or his deputy, as much as it is the duty of the sheriff, to serve these warrants? We pause for a reply.

THE St. Joe Gazette wants General Nelson A. Miles for the democratic nominee for president. It sums up his excellent qualities: "The first friend of the great west; the distinguished soldier who has served his country nobly and well; the man esteemed and loved by the American people; hale and hearty physically and mentally; known and honored abroad; the outspoken advocate of justice in the Philippines, of reform in the national administration, of political integrity; the man who can unite all factions of the democratic party and who can command the support of the country's diversified interests; in short, the ideal candidate."

Judicial Convention.

The democratic convention of the Second Judicial district of the state of Nebraska is hereby called to meet in the court house, in the district court room, in Nebraska City, Neb., on Wednesday, September 9th, at 10 o'clock p. m. for the purpose of placing in nomination one candidate for judge of said district, and transacting such other business as may lawfully come before it. The counties are entitled to the following representation:
Cass..... 20
Otoe..... 20

Barnes, the Railroad Nominee.

Do the voters of Nebraska want any further proof that John B. Barnes was nominated for supreme judge through railroad influences, than the following from the Lincoln News? Barnes had virtually been nominated by these corporations many months previous to the republican state convention, as the News article fully demonstrates, as follows, to-wit: "Another remarkable feature of the race for supreme judge is the fact that no other name than Barnes is heard in connection with the nomination. Two years ago Judge Sedgewick was nominated only after a very fierce and prolonged struggle. This year Mr. Barnes will have no opposition. The situation is remarkable, but the politicians have an explanation. They say that two years ago the railroads had a fight and a drag-out. THIS YEAR THEY HAVE BURIED THE HATCHET. Mr. Barnes comes from Elkhorn territory AND HAS BEEN AN ATTORNEY FOR THAT ROAD in Norfolk. Under the conditions that existed two years ago his candidacy would cause the Burlington people to be out with two or three candidates, and there would be trouble all along the line."

"Soreheads."

The Plattsmouth News prints a neat little roast on "soreheads," those who go away from a county convention and feel that they have been wrongly treated. To a certain extent the Enterprise agrees with the News. Just because a certain candidate does not get the nomination is no cause to get "sore." All the aspirants can not receive the nomination but when delegates attend a convention and put up honest and capable men to be butchered by a "ring," then is the time to get "sore," or in other words it is time that honorable men do something to down "machine rule." If none but machine finish men are to be nominated and they are only to come from an "eastern shop," then let the convention be cut out and save the expense. The Enterprise man is a republican, was born that way, and does not believe in bolting the ticket but we do believe in equal rights to all men—especially when they are entitled to it.—Greenwood Enterprise.

WHAT kind of a political ring produced the nomination of Wiles for county judge? It certainly was not his knowledge of law or fitness for the duties of the office. His warmest supporters can give no reason for their support. He has never tried a case of any importance; in fact he is not in the practice of any profession. Why does the little attorney adjoining the police judge's office so much desire his election? He would not dare to take the people into his confidence and give the real reason. It cannot be Wiles' ability. It cannot be his good morals. The only motive is the use expected to be made of this incompetent, if elected. But the good sense of the electors will defeat this conspiracy to corrupt the county court.

SENATOR HANNA'S ex-slave pension bill is doing glorious work in the south. Thousands of dollars which might have been spent for strong drink, have been collected from the ignorant negroes by a few enterprising members of the race, ostensibly to promote the passage of the Hanna bill.

If there is no politics connected with serving these much-talked-of "distress warrants," why did the county treasurer take them to the sheriff in the first place instead of serving them himself, or have his deputy do so, as the law directs? Eh?

PEOPLE who are disposed to regard the Department of Commerce and Labor as a small affair, are mistaken. It employs 1,289 people in Washington. Its appropriation for the fiscal year is $9,796,841.

ROOSEVELT has found that the western lamb and the Wall Street lion will not assimilate except in a digestive way, and he has been compelled to abandon his financial legislation scheme.

Half-Sick

"I first used Ayer's Sarsaparilla in the fall of 1848. Since then I have taken it every spring as a blood-purifying and nerve-strengthening medicine."
S. T. Jones, Wichita, Kans.

If you feel run down, are easily tired, if your nerves are weak and your blood is thin, then begin to take the good old standard family medicine, Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It's a regular nerve lifter, a perfect blood builder. $1.00 a bottle. All druggists.

There are Keepers.

It's going to keep Sheriff McBride busy all fall explaining why he refuses to serve distress warrants. He will also have to explain why he returns them to the county treasurer marked "No property found" when the parties not only have property but they come in and pay their back taxes. If an officer is afraid to do his duty he should resign and let someone else do the business. Every good citizen is willing to pay his share of the taxes but he doesn't care to pay his own and that of others as well. We should suggest that every taxpayer investigate this matter to his own satisfaction.—News.

The Journal is as much interested in having this matter investigated as the News dare be; and while this investigation is going on, we would like to know why the treasurer or his deputy did not perform their duty by serving these distress warrants instead of placing them in the hands of the sheriff in the first place? Sheriff McBride is not treasurer of Cass county, and therefore the collection of taxes out of his line of business, unless the property is sold for taxes and by order of the proper authorities. The law emphatically states that these papers shall be served by the treasurer, deputy treasurer or sheriff. This being their case, we repeat, why did not either of the former their duty, in accordance with the laws? Is it not possible that such action would have injured the deputy in his candidacy for treasurer? Or was it a scheme hatched by the ring to defeat our worthy sheriff? The people are "onto" the ring, knowing full well that in their desperation to save their particular "pets" from utter defeat, they will resort to many such schemes to carry their point. So "if an officer is afraid to do his duty he should resign and let someone else do the business," or not run for the office at all.

A Political "Boss."

The masses of the republican party of Cass county are just opening their eyes to the fact that they have been for several years controlled by a self-constituted boss in this city, around whom has been gathered a "ring" of associates to do his bidding; and many of them have fully made up their minds that they will submit to his bossism no longer.

The followers of a political boss are his slaves in fact. They must be educated to perceive that they are really slaves, and in the estimation of the republican ring boss of this city, they are classed as slaves. Serfs of a political boss are slaves by their own consent; to the ring the boss is mightier than the law, although they know that, in his selfishness, he will desert them in a grave moment. Many good, honest republicans, men who are so from principle, see that they have been victims of the boss's schemes, as well as the tools for their own punishment, and it is probable that they will treasure their rights more, respect genuine liberty and renounce the mean domination that has made them slaves. Boss rule is slavery; it is nothing better.
