SECOND BREATH. J.

The best definition for law I have ever seen is the simple one: "Law is a rule of action." There are ionger definitions, and those going more into detail, but none so general and comprehensive. In endeavoring to remember different distinctions in law I have found it useful to memorize certain apt phrases. One of the best I recollect is that of Justice Story, who, in referring to particular powers of government, says: "The difference between the departments undoubtedly is that the legislature makes, the executive executes and the judiciary
