Proud of Her Prize.

The St. Joseph Evening News has been engaged in giving prizes to children for various kinds of drawings. Miss Mildred, the thirteen-year-old daughter of W. P. Cook, of this city, conceived the idea of drawing the Cass county court house, which is acknowledged to be one of the finest in the state and send to the News. She did not have the least idea of securing a prize, and was greatly surprised last Sunday morning when she received by mail a draft from the News for $5.00 with the statement that she was entitled to the second prize, and added many words of encouragement for her effort. The News printed the court house as she drew it, and she deserves great credit for making it as perfect as any one could possibly draw it.

In Their New Quarters.

The Ebinger Hardware Co. are engaged in removing their stock to their new quarters in the Coates block, where they will have more room for the display of goods. Surprise to Rev. Father Bradley.

The members of St. John's Catholic church of this city conceived of idea of giving a surprise to Rev. Father Bradley, and Thursday evening, September 17, was the date fixed upon for putting their plans into operation. Early in the evening both old and young assembled at the home of Mr. Ed. Fitzgerald, opposite the paroled residence, and at 8:00 p. m. marched over in a body, laden with presents, both useful and ornamental. The gathering completely filled the house, even to the halls and adjoining school rooms. Father Bradley, speaking in both English and German tongues, expressed his pleasure at the kindness and cordiality displayed towards him by the members of the congregation. After a couple of hours spent in pleasant and social intercourse (the ladies in the meantime serving refreshments) the crowd dispersed for their various homes, feeling "that it was good to be there."

What is Life?

In the last analysis nobody knows, but we do know that it is under strict law. Abuse that law even slightly, pain results. Irregular living means derangement of the organs, resulting in Constipation, Headache or Liver trouble. Dr. King's New Life Pills quickly re-adjusts this. It's gentle, yet thorough. Only 25c at F. G. Fricke & Co.'s drug store.
