Weeping Water
From the Republican.
The careful farmers who were holding on to their old corn until they were sure of a new crop have about all sold. Harold, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Davis, died of cholera infantum at their home west of Weeping Water, on Wednesday, September 30, 1903, aged eight months and ten days.

Dr. M. U. Thomas of Louisville and Dr. William Thomas held a consultation Sunday night at Tom Bourke's in the case of his little daughter, who has been very sick with stomach trouble.

While in Omaha last week Mrs. Harry Mason was unfortunate enough to lose two valuable rings. Thieves entered her parents home while the family was absent and took a number of valuables, among them these rings.

William Gordon, a son of Mrs. R. G. Gordon of Elmwood arrived here Thursday for a visit with relatives after an absence of eight years. Will has served three years in the regular army since he left home and is now married.

We are sorry to state that Frank Root and wife and Frank's mother are to leave soon for their new home near Woodriver, where Frank owns a farm. These people are old residents and are numbered among our best citizens. Their friends regret their departure.

J. H. Johnson last Friday left at this office sample ears of his yellow dent corn, and finer specimens would be hard to find. Mr. Johnson says he has seventy acres of this corn and it is the best he has ever raised in Nebraska. One of the ears measures thirteen inches. The corn is dry enough to crib.

Last Thursday J. F. Jameson sold his fine 240 acre farm, seven miles southwest of Weeping Water, to Henry Huntmann of Otoe county; for $23,250, or $96.874 per acre. Mr. Jameson bought this land twenty years ago for $6,000. Thus it will be seen that the profits received by the increase in the value of land amounts to nearly $1,000 a year for the full time the family have lived on the land besides a good living and considerable besides.

Born.—To Mr. and Mrs. Fred Davis, Wednesday, September 30, a girl.

Tom Bourke's baby is very sick with paralysis of the left side, and its recovery is doubtful.

Pool & Colbert report the sale of the William Edgar farm, 200 acres, two miles north of town, to Josiah F. Jameson. Consideration $90 per acre.

Joseph Tighe of Wabash is circulating among his acquaintances in the west end in the interest of his candidacy for clerk of the district court.

The Frank Jameson farm of 240 acres was sold to Henry Huntmann for $97 per acre. Tom Cromwell, we learn, made the sale. He also reports selling the Jake Evans farm to Fred Bose.

Mrs. George Woods, not quite satisfied with her adventure of falling from a chair recently, not long ago slipped off a stairway and sprained one ankle. Mrs. Woods ought to take out accident insurance.

J. L. Hutchins says he was very much pleased with the two cars of cattle he bought at Omaha last week, and reports Straub brothers of near Avoca receiving four car load. There seems to be a lot of feeders coming in, as well as sheep.

Walter Perry has rented his farm to Arthur Ward for one year. Mr. Perry and family are going to do a little traveling and the fore part of November will go to California, visiting different points. They will camp while at Olive with S. R. Smith, then visit his son, and expect to put in nearly a year.

BONE FOOD
Soft and crooked bones mean bad feeding. Call the disease rickets if you want to. The growing child must eat the right food for growth. Bones must have bone food, blood must have blood food and so on through the list.
Scott's Emulsion is the right treatment for soft bones in children. Little doses every day give the stiffness and shape that healthy bones should have.
Bow legs become straighter, loose joints grow stronger and firmness comes to the soft heads.
Wrong food caused the trouble. Right food will cure it. In thousands of cases Scott's Emulsion has proven to be the right food for soft bones in childhood.

My Lungs
"An attack of la grippe left me with a bad cough. My friends said I had consumption. I then tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and it cured me promptly."
A. K. Randle, Nekoma, Ill.
You forgot to buy a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral when your cold first came on, so you let it run along. Even now, with all your hard coughing, it will not disappoint you. There's a record of sixty years to fall back on.
Three sizes: 2c, 5c, 25c. All druggists.
Consult your doctor. If he says you have consumption, then do as he says. If he tells you not to take it, then do as he says. Leave it with him. We are willing.
J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.

Monday evening inspecting the political temper.

J. A. Roush of Keosauqua, Iowa, has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. W. B. Banning, several days, departing for home yesterday.

Leonard Murry and wife, residing northwest of town, are the proud parents of a fine new daughter, the date of arrival being Sunday morning, October 4.

W. F. Jones and wife arrived last Saturday from Magnet, Nebraska, and made a visit with their Union relatives and friends, returning home Monday.

Rev. G. W. Ayers and wife are rejoicing on account of an addition to their family circle, a bright little daughter arriving at their home on Saturday morning, October 3.

H. E. Ruhman, a son-in-law of Henry J. Davis, arrived here Monday morning from Dallas, Texas, to visit his relatives and friends in this vicinity and to look after some matters of business.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Rose arrived last Friday evening from Pierce county to spend a week with their many Union relatives and friends. Mr. Rose has sold his Pierce county farm, but thinks he will invest in other land in that vicinity. The visit here was a great pleasure for them as well as for their friends.

Mr. and Mrs. William Frans arrived home last Friday from a few weeks visit in Colorado. The trip was quite beneficial as well as very pleasant for them, and they might have remained longer but "Uncle Billy" declares that his tobacco got so dry and hard that he couldn't bite it, and he concluded that it was time for him to start home.

Eagle
Mrs. Peter Christopherson, who has been very sick the past two weeks, is no longer.

Don't patronize a merchant who does not advertise. If his business does not warrant its advertising he does not deserve your patronage.

Joseph Blanchard arrived Friday night from Oregon, where he has been for several years. He expects to spend a month visiting friends and relatives here.

Invitations are out announcing the marriage of Miss Grace Blodgett to Mr. Jesse Staten, on Tuesday, October 13, at the home of the bride's parents, Fort Calhoun, Nebraska.

Rev. J. G. Walker loaded his household goods into a car Tuesday and departed for Ceresco, where he will preach the gospel the coming year. Mr. and Mrs. Walker have been among us two years and have made many warm friends during that time who regret to have them go. The best wishes of their many friends go with them in their new field of labor.

On last Monday A. E. Swarts sold the Hotel-Restaurant to C. Renner, who took possession immediately. Mr. Swarts has been in business here over a year and he says he likes our town very well. He moved his family to Elmwood Thursday, where he will probably engage in business with his brother. The best wishes of their many friends go with them to their new home.

Elmwood
From the Leader-Echo.
There is some talk of getting up a lecture course for the benefit of the school library. Let's have it.

W. D. Wheeler, democratic candidate for county treasurer, was looking after his political fences in this part of the county Wednesday.

A ten pound girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Tyson yesterday. Roan says he now feels big enough to beat anybody in the town bowling.

The many friends of Pearl Mapes will be sorry to hear that he is lying very low with typhoid fever at a hospital in Hot Springs. When first taken sick he was sent there by the railroad company for which he is working, and one evening when the nurse left the room for a little while he got up and in his delirium of fever dressed himself and wandered away. His father offered $100 reward for anyone finding him, and the whole country thereabouts was thoroughly searched, but not until three days and three nights had passed was he found. He went to a farmer's house thirteen miles from Hot Springs and asked for a drink. He was still out of his head, was without shoes or hat and his feet were badly swollen, showing that he had walked a considerable distance. The farmer brought him to Hot Springs and he was returned to the hospital where the best medical aid and nursing will be given him. Mr. and Mrs. Mapes were nearly distracted until he was found, and their many friends here hope Pearl may speedily regain his health.

One man with a broken foot, a horse badly cut and two buggies badly demolished was the result of a runaway a little ways west of town Sunday night. As near as we can learn the particulars are as follows: Clarence Ohm was returning home from church and his buggy was run into by that of Gus Breckhoge. It is said a couple of teams were behind Gus and Clarence racing, and that Gus attempted to drive out to the side of the road to get out of their way, but did not get far enough to miss Clarence's buggy. The buggies were badly wrecked, both Clarence and Gus being thrown out. The former was uninjured beyond a few bruises, but Gus has a broken foot as a memento of the occasion. Clarence's horse ran away and was not found until next day. It is badly cut and it is said it may be found necessary to kill it. It is also said that those who caused the accident by running their horses never took the trouble to drive back and see what damage had been done. This racing of horses on the public highway, especially at night, is something that should be given a severe penalty.

Nehawka
From the Register.
Miss Ruth Murdoch is very much better this, Thursday, noon.

County Superintendent C. S. Wortman visited the school Friday.

Haney Barnett from Oklahoma was in town Friday and Saturday. He is not in love with Oklahoma by any means. Stand up for Nebraska.

Our pushing, progressive and industrious parson, the Rev. Keiser, has gone to work and by himself has fenced the parsonage grounds. This is a good example for a dozen lazy parsons we have had here.

Uncle Jimmie Warden was down town Monday, the first time for three years. He held quite a levee with his old friends, as all were glad to see him after his long absence from our streets. He can walk now only with the assistance of a cane.

Our school bell is badly cracked and the frame is broken. When it is time for school the principal sends a boy or two up into the belfry to pound the old thing to call the scholars in. The noise is doleful and sounds like a jimmiehammer on a Chinese funeral. Why can't we have a good bell?

George Hansen, sr., was in town Friday and says he feels tiptop. For a few years he was ailing and always felt unwell, but lately he has been feeling quite well again, all of which his friends are glad to see. Mr. Hansen is one of the best citizens Nebraska ever had, and may he live to greet us many years yet.

W. D. Wheeler, the democratic candidate for county treasurer, was in town Tuesday and gave the Register office a friendly call. He did not talk any politics, evidently thinking the editor could make up his own mind how to vote or that he was too big a fool to waste time talking to. Whatever he may think of us, Billie is a good fellow just the same, and the county funds will be safe in his hands if he is elected—if.

Greenwood
From the Enterprise.
Uncle Jake Hurlbut is proprietor of the new dray wagon just started in town.

M. D. Kern and daughter, Genevieve, have returned from their eastern trip. Frank Welton of Illinois, father of Bert, is visiting friends in and around town at present.

County Treasurer J. L. Barton was shaking hands with his friends in town last Saturday.

Mrs. Stone of Central City, mother of the merchant, is visiting at the Stone home at present.

Mrs. Walling has bought property in town and moved in the same this week. She purchased the house west of the Polk hotel and will make that her home.

Three more weddings in sight. Will give the particulars of one next week, which will be solemnized by that time, and we will be at liberty to give full details.

William Kniss, who has had typhoid fever for several weeks and under the care of Dr. Talcott, is reported as past the danger line and improving finely.

Our townsman E. B. Craig, democratic candidate for coroner, is making a canvass of the county. He says the outlook is favorable and he thinks he will be elected.

Samuel Talcott of Missouri, a great uncle of Dr. N. D. Talcott, is visiting at the doctor's home and also at the doctor's father's in town. He is 85 years of age and is vigorous and strong for a man of his age.

The meeting at the M. E. church is attracting most of the people. The company played all week and wound up Saturday night with the popular lady and gold watch drawing. Miss McDonald registered the most votes and drew a lady's gold watch and charm.

Louisville
From the Courier.
Born.—To Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Gadow, October 3, a twelve pound boy.
Mrs. C. G. Mayfield and son, Lewis, went to Oklahoma Tuesday to be absent about two weeks.
Fred Tapper is down with typhoid fever. Dr. Thomas, the attending physician, reports him getting along as well as could be expected.

Charley Gaebel's hog sale drew out a good bunch of candidates for county offices, but in looking over the sales we find they were not there after swine, as none of them bought. Among those who were lined up around the sale ring were C. S. Wortman, Joe Tighe, Jacob Tritesch and H. D. Travis, democrats; and T. F. Wiles and Will Strelight, republicans. It is quite evident that they were in search of a different breed of swine than those offered by Mr. Gaebel.

At the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. John Koop, in this city, on Wednesday, October 7, occurred the marriage of Mr. Jacob Meier of Weeping Water and Miss Caroline E. Flamme of Berlin, Rev. Jung of the German Lutheran church officiating. The wedding was a quiet affair, only relatives of the contracting parties being present. After the wedding supper the bride and groom drove to Plattsmouth and from there took the train for Omaha, from where they will proceed east on their wedding tour. They will be at home to their friends in Weeping Water after November 1.

Again the Courier is called upon to announce the death of one of Louisville's pioneer citizens, Mr. B. W. Teodorski having died of a complication of diseases at his home in this city after an illness of long duration, on Friday, October 2, 1903. Funeral occurred from the family residence on Saturday at 2 p. m., conducted by Rev. Schadwick. Interment at River View cemetery. Benon W. Teodorski was born in the United States arsenal at St. Louis, Missouri, August 17, 1844. When the war broke out young Teodorski was eighteen years of age and he enlisted in the Thirty-first Missouri and was later transferred to the First Nebraska, with which regiment he served until the close of the war, and came with his company to Nebraska, where he has since resided. He served three years and eight months and received an honorable discharge.

Maple Grove
Special Correspondence.
Quite a number went to Omaha Wednesday and Thursday to attend the Ak-Sar-Ben's parade. Among them were Fred and August Engelkeimer, William Puls, Adam Hild, Albert Pappé, Gus Morris and Otto Puls.

Mrs. Fred Engelkeimer and son August, returned from their trip to Oklahoma last week. They were very much pleased with their trip.

Quite a number attended the sale at Weeping Water Saturday from this locality.

Mr. P. A. Hild purchased a fine black team Saturday at William Dunn's sale at Weeping Water.

Charles Engelkeimer was a Plattsmouth visitor Saturday.

Ad Boedecker left Sunday for a few weeks' visit to Knox county, Nebraska.

Mrs. Adam Hild and daughter, Emma, and Mrs. Mike Swartzfisher and daughter, Clara, visited at the home of William Puls Monday.

Cedar Creek
Special Correspondence.
Born.—To Mr. and Mrs. Ote Ward, October 9th, a baby girl.

Mrs. Christina Ahl, who has been suffering with inflammatory rheumatism, is reported much better at this writing.

A good many hay stacks were blown down by the violent wind storms in this vicinity this week.

Ben Barker, of Louisville, was doing some threshing in this neighborhood this week.

Chas. Law and family were visiting with John Hell last Sunday.

Most farmers in this vicinity expect to start husking corn in a short time.

George Hell, jr., and sister, Ida, were visiting with Adam Kaffenberger last Sunday.

Red on railroad signifies danger—the same on a man's nose. Better stop when you see the first warning, or you may get wrecked.

What is the matter with your Myriad correspondent? Are those pesky flies still biting him?
Eight Mile Grove is now booming. I will tell you about the joke on a farmer who recently laid the foundation for a new house for Joe Mesina. After the wall was completed Mr. Mesina laid boards on the wall, and when the mason returned next morning, he asked him what his reasons were for putting the boards as he did. Mr. Mesina replied: "I put them on so as to keep the sun from warping." Of course this made the mason feel quite cheap, but it really needed it.
Though the mason swore the wall was was plumb, and trowel he made things hum.
The sun shone bright with a terrible heat.
And raised the wall above his feet.
