Mr. and Mrs. George Hollenbeck, of Greenwood, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Barton Thanksgiving day.

Mrs. A. Rhode returned Saturday morning from a month's visit with her daughter and family in Galesburg, Illinois.

Roy Harrow came in from Denver Friday for a short visit with Plattsmouth friends. He is a cigarmaker formerly employed here.

While in the city last week W. G. Ehrhart called and renewed for the Journal. Mr. Ehrhart subscribed about one year ago, and so well pleased is his family with it that says it has become as much of a household necessity as bread and meat.

S. M. Patterson and brother, R. C., disposed of their interest in the Arapahoe State bank the 21st of this month to Samuel Patterson and brothers. The bank will be in charge of Samuel Patterson and his brother, Charles A., hereafter. We are not informed as to what S. M. expects to do.—Arapahoe (Neb.) Public Mirror.

Lorenz Brau, of near Manly, was in the city Saturday, and called on the Journal. Mr. Brau recently sold his farm, near Manly for $5,900 cash and invested this amount in land in Indian Territory. In this county he sold a fraction less than eighty acres and for the money he derived from this sale he purchased three hundred and twenty acres. Mr. Brau called to settle his account with the Journal, and also make arrangements to have it follow him to his new home, to which point he will remove his family some time in January. Mr. Brau is a splendid gentleman and we hate to lose all such.

Judge Travis was in Nebraska City Friday on legal business.

The funeral of Fred Walters, who died in Albuquerque, N. M., and whose remains arrived here on Saturday evening, occurred Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The services were conducted by Rev. H. B. Burgess of St. Luke's church, and the body consigned to its last resting place in Oak Hill cemetery.

Santa Claus Crippled.

Old Santa Claus reports for month of December very poor sleighing, and in a special to Mauzy & Murphy he says his bicycle is in poor gear, and his automobile needs a little repairing, consequently he will be unable to make Plattsmouth this year, and sends a large consignment of choicest Christmas goods to their popular store. They are for both old and young, from the simplest toy to the handsome imported cut glass and china ware. Remember they are being placed on sale every day, and the early shopper gets the choice. Don't forget, it's Mauzy & Murphy, and they will treat you right.

For strength, economy, convenience, durability and beauty combined "The Malleable" steel range beats them all. Call at the Ebinger hardware store any day next week and see one in operation. Free lunch to all who call.

John Schiel, living two miles north of Murdock, called Monday and left his measure for the Journal one year. Mr. Schiel says the Journal is his kind of a paper.

To improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion, try a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Mr. J. H. Seitz, of Detroit, Mich., says: "They restored my appetite when impaired, relieved me of a bloated feeling and caused a pleasant and satisfactory movement of the bowels." There are people in this community who need just such a medicine. For sale by all druggists. Every box warranted.

That true and tried democrat, Zack Schrader, one of Cass county's noblemen, was in the city Monday and gave the Journal a social visit. We always appreciate visits from our farmer friends, and want them to come and see us every time they have business at the county seat. Mr. Schrader has recently made several trips to South Dakota with a view of purchasing some farms up there for his children, but says he is getting too old to leave Cass county, where he has grown up with the country, and is a most honored and respected citizen.
