If you are a judge of a good smoke, try the 'Acorns' 5 cent cigar and you will smoke no other.

Pianison monthly payments of $5.00 and up per month. See A. J. Jackson, at Straight & Straight's.

P. Pearson, our new merchant, is himself again, after several days confinement to his room with illness.

DR. J. A. MEEHAN, OSTEOPATH Office over Mauzy & Murphy's book store, Main St., between 4th and 5th.

A marriage permit was granted yesterday to Jack E. Howard, aged 21, and Miss Mattie Berg, aged eighteen, both of this city.

Mr. Orlando Niday, of Murray, and Miss Bessie Caghill, of Union, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Judge Douglass yesterday.

W. B. Oaks, the popular cashier of the Silver City (Iowa) Bank, was in the city on business Tuesday, and of course was a caller at Journal headquarters. Billy is an old friend of the Journal family and consequently we are always happy to meet him.

Bert Painter, of Nehawka, claims to have discovered perpetual motion. He has invented a machine which has run seven weeks without stopping, and without any apparent loss of energy. He is having model made on which he hopes to secure a patent.

Do you smoke "Buds"? Well, buy them at Gering & Co's.

We have many beautiful, tasty and dainty Christmas presents. Gering & Co.

Miss Clara Street returned yesterday from a brief visit with friends in Red Oak, Iowa.

P. M. Young and wife, of Union, were Plattsmouth visitors yesterday.

L. C. Todd and wife, of near Nehawka, were in the county seat Christmas shopping yesterday.

A marriage license was issued Tuesday to Frederick W. Backmeyer, aged twenty-four, of Murock, and Miss Ida L. Gurr, aged twenty-one, of Omaha, Neb.

The Woman's club will be entertained at the home of the president, Mrs. L. A. Moore, on Saturday, the 19th.

Mrs. R. O. Fellows, of Belle Fourche, S. D., being the guest of honor.

Otto Wurl departed yesterday on a business tour to Greenwood, Haydock, Lincoln and other points. The Wurl Bros. have built up a large cigar trade, and it has all been done by kind treatment to their customers and manufacturing good goods.

Lieut. Robert E. Boyer, of the U. S. Infantry, en route to join his company in California, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Dovey over Sunday, arriving in the city Saturday morning.

Lieutenant Boyer departed Monday for his destination, and was accompanied as far as Omaha by Mrs. Dovey and daughter, Miss Ethel.

Mrs. Mahala King, formerly a resident of this county, recently died at the home of her grand-daughter in Ravenna, Neb. Mrs. King was about 82 years of age, and was among the first settlers of Cass county—having settled in the vicinity of where Weeping Water now stands in 1857. She was buried at the above-named place.

Charles Thompson will hereafter read the Journal. He orders it sent to him at Springfield, Neb.

Graceful motion, gentle speech and courteous manners, acquired in youth, will exert a salutary influence through a whole life time.

Physiologists have for many years regarded dancing as one of the the finest of gymnastic exercises, and declare it to be superior to all others in its beneficial effect upon carriage and manner.

When the afternoon passenger train from the east arrived at the station yesterday, a passenger poked his head out of the window, and glancing up Main street, he beheld all those benches across the sidewalks. He asked a citizen standing on the depot platform the occasion for all these decorations.

"Oh," replied the wag, "Plattsmouth is only holding its annual mid-winter street fair—that's all." The passenger drew his head back in, let the window down, apparently well satisfied that it was no joke.

It warms the heart like sunshine, cheers the soul like ancient wine, and hopes for the future, bids out the past. That's what Rocky Mountain Tea does. 25 cents. Gering & Co.

"Christmas comes but once a year." Remember the poor who are unable to provide even a suitable meal for that day. Prepare something for them on this day. The children of such families will remember such kindness long after they have grown to womanhood and manhood.

Harry Slogan was put in the "cooler" Friday on the charge of drunkenness. He was taken before Judge Archer Saturday and fined one dollar and costs. He didn't have but one dollar, but the Judge took that and let him go. Evidently the Judge believes if you can't get all that's coming, get what you can.

Dr. J. A. Meelan, a graduate of the S. S. College of Osteopathy, has recently furnished office rooms over Mauzy & Murphy's book store, where he will be pleased to explain the merits of osteopathy in the treatment of diseases and chronic ailments to the people of Plattsmouth and vicinity. Osteopathy has achieved marked success in many of the chronic ailments where all other methods have failed to cure. Whatever may be your ailment, call and consult the Osteopath. Consultation free. Also, osteopathic literature free.
