

A Happy and Prosperous NEW YEAR!

We wish to sincerely thank the people of Plattsmouth and vicinity for their very liberal patronage to us for the time we have been here and we can assure you that we are more than gratified with the treatment accorded us by the people of this community.

So hoping that the year 1904 will be a happy and prosperous one to you, we wish to further solicit your patronage and to help you make this the banner year.

Help us and we will help you.

Our prices are right, our goods are fresh and of A 1 quality.

We guarantee everything we sell AS REPRESENTED. Any errors made here we gladly rectify.

We will call and take your orders or you can call up Plattsmouth Phone 198—give us your order and we will deliver it, or if you send the children it makes no difference—you can rest assured your orders will receive the same attention as if you called in person.

We are continually on the market and on the lookout for anything whereby we may benefit our customers, and thereby we hope to make you a customer, and by following this policy and by fair treatment we hope to be able to say "once our customer, always so."

Remember the place and give us a trial.

Again wishing you a Happy New Year, I remain,

Yours to serve,

..P. PEARSON..

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Dr. Marshall, dentist, Fitzgerald block.

Wait for Durno, the man who makes you laugh.

Dr. E. W. Cook has been enjoying a siege of the mumps this week.

Dr. Frank L. Cummins, dentist. Office with Dr. E. D. Cummins.

For lease—several fine acreage tracts near the city. R. B. WINDHAM.

J. D. Rouse, of Esbon, Kansas, is the guest of his son, Prof. E. L. Bouse.

C. N. Beverage orders the Journal sent to his address at the Myard post-office this week.

Charley Stone, cashier of the Murray State Bank, attended the funeral of Frank Dickson Sunday.

Keep February 2nd for Durno & Co., the greatest fun-provoking combination that ever visited this city.

A marriage license was issued yesterday to Jas. W. Cogdill, aged 30 and Miss Eva Applegate, aged 18, both of Union.

Twelve new subscribers in one week is not bad. The Journal list is increasing right along. Let the good work proceed.

Our young friend James Manners, of Murray, was here Saturday evening, and was a pleasant caller at Journal headquarters.

A marriage license was granted Monday to Charles W. Tigner, aged twenty-four, and Miss Wilhelmina Drost, aged nineteen, both of Murray.

See advertisements of C. J. Gaebel's big hog sale, which comes off on Monday, February 8th, at his home five miles southwest of Louisville.

H. Beck and Ed Gansamer will hereafter receive the Journal regularly at the Nehawka postoffice, having become new readers this week.

The T. J. Sokol society gave another one of their grand masquerade balls at their hall Saturday night. It was a big success, both socially and financially.

Wyotte Hutcheson, one of our patrons of Rock Bluffs, was in the city Saturday, and while here Mr. Hutcheson called and renewed for the Journal another year.

George Kupler, M. Harding, John Sherwood and E. P. Holmberg, after visiting friends in this city a few days, returned to Alliance where they are in the employ of the B. & M.

The Plattsmouth Turners will give a mask ball on Saturday night, February 13. It is the intention of the management to make this one of the best ever given by this society.

Wm. Leddy, of South Bend, called Monday and renewed for the Journal. Mr. Leddy is one of our oldest residents, a fine gentleman and citizen and a dyed-in-the-wool democrat.

Our friend, James Stapper, of Louisville, was in the county seat Tuesday and gave the Journal a pleasant call, and while here ordered the Journal sent to W. F. Newman at Louisville.

E. Harshman while in Plattsmouth Tuesday, called and had his name enrolled on the Journal's Nehawka list. Mr. Harshman, like all others, is in love with the Journal as a county paper.

Will Stoddeman, of Kearney, Neb., sends a dollar and orders the Journal sent his address. Will is an old Plattsmouth boy, but now has charge of the Independent Telephone Company at Kearney.

Charles M. McQuinn and Miss Aggie Woodward, a young couple from the vicinity of Union, were united in the holy bonds of wedlock in this city on Tuesday, January 19, 1904. Judge M. Archer, officiating.

C. J. Gaebel, of near Louisville, accompanied by C. E. Mockenhaupt, both patrons of the Journal, were in the city Saturday, and of course paid their respects to democratic headquarters. We are always pleased to meet these gentlemen.

Chas. Jacobson is now a patron of the Journal, and will receive it in the future at the Avoca postoffice. Chas. says he has contemplated taking the Journal for some time, and while in Plattsmouth Tuesday called and deposited a dollar.

Otto Wurl returned Tuesday evening from Fremont, where he went to attend the district convention of Turners. On his return trip he stopped at several places to look after some interests connected with the Wurl Bros' cigar factory.

Andrew Stohlman, one of Cass county energetic young farmers, was in the city Tuesday and while here became a patron of the Journal. Being a democrat he came to the conclusion that it was not possible for him to get along without it longer.

Captain H. E. Palmer, formerly of this city, has been appointed postmaster at Omaha. Captain Palmer settled in this city in 1870, and engaged in the grain business removing to Omaha in 1889. He still owns several pieces of property in Plattsmouth.

Regarding the salaries paid to different county superintendents in the state, the Journal misquoted from Superintendent Wortman's petition last week. There are thirty-four counties which have paid the same and less than a dozen which have from $300 to $600 more per annum.

J. Forest Martson, arrested four or five weeks since on the charge of soliciting insurance without license, and the case continued several times, appeared before Judge Archer Monday morning and entered a plea of guilty. A fine of $50 and costs was imposed upon him, and not having the money to "poney up," he very reluctantly returned to jail to "board it out."

Mrs. Arthur Wells returned to Havelock Saturday after a brief visit with Plattsmouth friends.

Miss Pauline Holder of Pacific Junction, is visiting with Miss Kathryn Poissal in this city this week.

William Gillespie, of Myard, was a visitor in Plattsmouth Saturday, for the first time in several weeks.

Ed Barstow, car inspector for the B. & M., attended the funeral of Frank Dickson Sunday and remained over till Monday.

Wm. Waybright, of Lincoln, visited in this city with his brother Morgan, Friday. Mr. Waybright is an old-time engineer for the B. & M.

Chas. Richey was down from Louisville Sunday to attend the funeral of his brother-in-law, Frank Dickson, and went from here to Lincoln Monday.

For a bad taste in the mouth take a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. 25 cents. Warranted to cure. For sale by all druggists.

The Turners of this city never do anything by halves, and those who attend their mask ball Saturday evening, February 13, may expect some Otto Sprick of Louisville, while in the city last Saturday on other business, called and renewed for another year. Mr. Sprick is one of Cass county's prominent young German farmers.

Jennie Stitzer, Omaha—"I have gained thirty-five pounds in two months. Nothing did me any good until I used Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea." A blessing to sickly woman. Gering & Co.

Have you indigestion, constipation, headache, backache, kidney trouble? Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will make you well. If it fails get your money back. That's fair. Tea or tablet form. 35 cents. Gering & Co.

John Libershall, an employee of the B. & M. planing mill, met with a very painful accident recently. He in some manner got his left hand caught in a joiner machine, which resulted in severing three fingers from the hand.

Our old friend Harry Lehnhoff, of College Hill, gave the Journal a very pleasant call last Thursday after the issue for the week was on the press. Besides renewing for another year he spent a few moments in social chat. Mr. Lehnhoff is one of Cass county's very best citizens, and one that it is always a pleasure to meet.

And still they come. Mr. W. A. Hardknock, of Eagle, sends in a dollar and requests the Journal sent to him for one year. We'll be a conksin that Mr. Hardknock is one of those democrats who has been doing without the only democratic paper in Cass county for several years. We have room for more. Come on, boys!

Mrs. C. M. Seybert returned from her eastern visit Saturday morning, where she went several months ago. She first went to Covington, Va., where she made her principal headquarters with Mrs. Andrew Fudge. While at the latter place she drove a distance of fifty miles to Monterey, Va. Mr. Seybert's old home. She also visited Washington, D. C., and had the pleasure of shaking hands with President Roosevelt, and viewing many interesting sights in and around the capital. Mrs. Seybert returns home much benefitted by the trip, and gives a very interesting account of her travels in general.

"The nicest and pleasantest medicine I have used for indigestion and constipation is Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets," says Melard F. Craig of Middlegrove, N. Y. "They work like a charm and do not gripe or have any unpleasant effect." For sale by all druggists.

Supposing you are busted—haven't a dime. Getting poor isn't a serious crime. Put on a bold front, work with your might.

You're sure to win by taking Rocky Mountain Tea at night. Gering & Co.

H. H. Ragoos, of Cedar Creek, called last Thursday and renewed his allegiance to the Journal. Mr. Ragoos is a very sociable gentleman and we were pleased to meet him.

Mr. Wm. S. Crane of California, Md., suffered for years from rheumatism and lumbago. He was finally advised to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which he did and it effected a complete cure. For sale by all druggists.

In the Ernest Kupka estate, Carey S. Polk, as administrator, was cited by the County Judge to show cause why he should not be removed as such administrator. The citation was made upon the petition of the Kentucky heirs. Polk was given ten days to answer said citation.

E. M. Pribbe, an employee of the Weeping Water Republican, came in on the special train from that place Sunday, to attend the funeral of Frank Dickson, and stopped in the Journal office a few moments. Mr. Pribbe is a genial young gentleman and we were pleased to meet him.

We take the following from the Council Bluffs department of the World-Herald: "Twenty-one men employed at the round house repair shops of the Kansas City, St. Joseph & Council Bluffs in this city have been discharged, and it is understood that the repair work which has heretofore been done here will be done in the 'Q' shops in Creston, or in the Burlington shops in Plattsmouth."

Messrs. Francis and Fred Swingle of Avoca, Wisconsin, who were here visiting Adam Kurtz, and whose visit was also for the purpose of viewing the surroundings for the purpose of locating a cheese factory here, departed for their homes Friday morning, returning via Northern Iowa. These gentlemen are practical cheese makers, and are at present engaged in the business in Wisconsin. It is altogether probable that they will locate here some time in the future.

For Sale—A desirable 100-acre tract near Plattsmouth, for $3,200 if taken soon.

A Very Close Call.

"I stuck to my engine, although every joint ached and every nerve was racked with pain," writes C. W. Bellamy, a locomotive fireman, of Burlington, Iowa. "I was weak and pale, without any appetite and all run down. As I was about to give up, I got a bottle of Electric Bitters, and after taking it, I felt as well as I ever did in my life." Weak, sickly, run down people always gain new life, strength and vigor from their use. Try them. Satisfaction guaranteed by F. G. Fricke & Co. Price 50 cents.

What's in a Name.

Everything is in the name when it comes to Witch Hazel Salve. E. C. DeWitt & Co. of Chicago discovered some years ago how to make a salve from Witch Hazel that is a specific for piles. For blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles, eczema, cuts, burns, bruises and all skin diseases DeWitt's salve has no equal. This has given rise to numerous worthless counterfeits. Ask for DeWitt's—the genuine. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co.

Loss of Flesh

When you can't eat breakfast, take Scott's Emulsion.

When you can't eat bread and butter, take Scott's Emulsion.

When you have been living on a milk diet and want something a little more nourishing, take Scott's Emulsion.

To get fat you must eat fat. Scott's Emulsion is a great fattener, a great strength giver.

Those who have lost flesh want to increase all body tissues, not only fat. Scott's Emulsion increases them all, bone, flesh, blood and nerve.

For invalids, for convalescents, for consumptives, for weak children, for all who need flesh, Scott's Emulsion is a rich and comfortable food, and a natural tonic.

Scott's Emulsion for bone, flesh, blood and nerve.
