Weeping Water

From the Republican.
Frank Barnes is now manager of the Dickson Lumber Co.'s yards.

What has become of Bert Painter of Nehawka, and his perpetual motion machine?

Mrs. Emens, who has been here visiting her daughter-in-law for several weeks, left for her home in Illinois, today.

Miss Mayme Latta came up from Kansas City, Saturday and will remain at home for a short time with her mother, whose health is not very good.

Large quantities of corn are coming to this market, and have been for some time. E. F. Marshall informs us that he frequently takes in as much as sixty to seventy loads in a day.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the City National Bank on the 12th inst. Jacob Domingo was elected president; John Domingo, vice-president; J. A. Donelan, cashier; C. W. Bish, assistant cashier. The usual dividend was declared and the surplus fund added to, making it $7,200.

S. A. Morrison of Omaha, changed cars here Friday morning enroute home from Eagle where he had been called by the illness of Editor Ostran and got the Beacon out for him last week. Sandy says he is now in the employ of the street railway company of Omaha as motorman and likes the work very much.

Mrs. Emily Shirley, beloved wife of Alfred Shirley, was born in Jackson county, Iowa, August 18, 1832, died near Burlington, Kan., January 12, 1904. Miss Emily Dowler and Mr. Shirley were married December 5, 1867, and came to Cass county, Nebraska, in June, 1868, where they resided upon the Weeping Water, west of town, until the family removed to Coffee county, Kansas, three years ago.

From the Herald.

Mrs. C. A. Webster was on the sick list the first of the week.

Mrs. M. Kressen has been on the sick list the past week with the grip. J. T. Harrison made a trip to Waterloo, Monday, on business for the company.

Saturday, February 6th, is the date of the next big combination sale at Dunn's pavilion, Weeping Water.

Miss Dollie Winchell has some pets gathered from the lawn on Jan. 14th—young grasshoppers, and they are all lively.

Charley Hitchman is located behind the bars in the First National bank, and says he enjoys the work, and besides we think he helps the looks of the crowd.

John Domingo returned home last Saturday evening from Denmark, accompanied by Miss Ellen Jorgensen. The latter is a niece of Mrs. Peter Miller. Mr. Domingo was looking well, but says they had a rough voyage coming home.

Jim Carey left last Wednesday on a trip to Coffee county, Kansas. Jim has 160 acres of land there, and says he may probably buy another 160 adjoining. Jim is another one of Cass county's good farmers that has concluded a change would be better, and the family will move in the spring.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cook of Julian, attended the funeral of Frank Dickson, Saturday. Years ago, while surveying, Frank was a member of a party that boarded at Mr. Cook's for several months, and the old friendship was strong enough to induce these people to come to see him for the last time.

We regret to note that Masters Sam Baker and Ben Olive, while engaged in an air gun shooting tournament last week missed the mark, and Ben put a shot close to Sam's eye, which might have resulted much more seriously. It was an accident, but the gun is out of reach for the present, and we realize they are a dangerous toy for small boys.

Wonderful Nerve.

Is displayed by many a man enduring pains of accidental cuts, wounds, bruises, burns, scalds, sore feet or stiff joints. But there's no need for it. Buckland's Arnica Salve will kill the pain and cure the trouble. It's the best salve on earth for piles, too. 25c at F. G. Fricke & Co. druggists.

Union

From the Ledger.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave LaRue have cause to rejoice on account of the arrival of a new son at their home Wednesday afternoon.

G. W. Shrader, one of the well known farmers of Rock Bluffs precinct, was in town Tuesday on his way home from Lincoln, where he attended the Bryan banquet.

Clarence Murray arrived home Tuesday from a trip to Oregon, and had a fine time visiting and looking over some new country. If he saw anything that beats Nebraska he failed to mention it to us.

M. H. Shoemaker and D. W. Foster went to Lincoln on Monday evening's train to participate in the Bryan banquet, and remained for the state meeting of swine breeders and other associations.

James M. Stone of Nehawka was in town Wednesday, going to Murray to visit his sons, Charles and Bruce. He had time to call on a number of his Union friends, and the Ledger editor was included.

J. E. Grimes of St. Louis, arrived here Wednesday to make a visit with his parents and other relatives and friends. Ed made this visit without the formality of sending his card in advance, giving his parents a pleasant surprise.

John Everett returned recently from several days visit in Arkansas, and enjoyed it like a little boy with a new tin whistle. He saw some good country and good people, but he lost none of his good opinion of Cass county and Nebraska.

W. B. Banning has put a fine new 10-horse "Otto" engine in his elevator to replace the smaller one and furnish more power which is often needed. A new separator of the Barnard & Lease make is another new and valuable addition to his elevator equipments.

Just One Minute.

One Minute Cough Cure gives relief in one minute, because it kills the mucus which tickles the mucus membrane, causing the cough, and at the same time clears the phlegm, draws out the inflammation and heals and soothes the affected parts. One Minute Cough Cure strengthens the lungs, wards off pneumonia and is a harmless and never failing cure in all curable cases of coughs, colds and croup. One Minute Cough Cure is pleasant to take, harmless and good alike for young and old. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co.

Elmwood

From the Leader-Echo.

Ch. Fesenbeck and wife have moved into their residence property in Elmwood.

John Elliott returned Wednesday morning from a visit with the Stinson, Stoehr and Hayes families at El Reno, Oklahoma.

E. T. Comer and C. S. Hart went to Fremont Tuesday evening to attend the state meeting of the volunteer firemen's association.

Uncle Dave McCaig went to Lincoln Wednesday to beseege the fort and capture the district G. A. R. reunion for Elmwood this year.

Mrs. Cunningham and Ed Mapes received word Friday that their mother, living in Missouri, was dead. She was 78 years of age and leaves ten children and forty-two grandchildren.

Wm. Campbell, who came from Missouri to this neighborhood four or five years ago, loaded his goods into a car Monday night and "returned to his first love." We are sorry to lose "Billy." He was a good citizen.

Ben Hoffman has purchased the H. H. Carroll property, south of J. A. Wright's residence. Consideration $1,100. Mr. Carroll is to remove the buildings and Mr. Hoffman will build a nice residence thereon in a few months and become a citizen of Elmwood.

Milt Moore has sold his three eighty acres near Murock to a Mr. Gramlich, of Springfield, Nebraska. Consideration $24,000, or $100 per acre. Possession is to be given March 1st, 1905. Mr. Moore contemplates moving to Elmwood when he leaves the farm.

Congratulations.

Mr. John H. Cullom, editor of the Garland, Texas, News, has written a letter of congratulations to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as follows: "Sixteen years ago when our first child was a baby he was subject to croupy spells and we would be very uneasy about him. We began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in 1887, and finding it such a reliable remedy for colds and croup, we have never been without it in the house since that time. We have five children and have given it to all of them with good results. One good feature of this remedy is that it is not disagreeable to take and our babies really like it. Another is that it is not dangerous, and there is no risk from giving an overdose. I congratulate you upon the success of your remedy." For sale by all druggists.

Eagle

Wm. Klimke of Murock was calling on old friends in town Tuesday.

The youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Wetenskap, Jr., is quite sick. The Beacon pen pusher is back at his desk after a ten days absence, on the sick list.

Stephen Benton who is a patient at the insane hospital at Hastings is gradually growing weaker. His mental condition is unchanged.

Last Friday while Jacob Hursh was doing some carpenter work, he struck a nail on the head, but it flew up and struck him in the eye, cutting quite a gash near the sight. He carries said eye in a sling now and it is hoped no serious results will happen.

Mrs. Belle Gill, who was visiting her cousin, J. P. Burdick, a couple of weeks ago, was a passenger on the ill-fated steamer, Challam, that sank during a storm in Puget Sound last Saturday. She had been visiting relatives a couple of months, and was on her way to her home in Klondyke.

At the home of the bride's parents, five miles north and one-half mile east of Eagle, occurred the marriage of Miss Myrtle May Bennett to Mr. Willard Clites, on Tuesday evening, January 19th, Rev. Gettys of Alvo, officiating. The young people are well and favorably known and need no introduction. They will make their future home on the farm. The happy young couple were the recipients of many useful and beautiful presents.

Greenwood

From the Enterprise.

The best way to stand up for your town is to patronize the industries that make the town.

Mr. Isaac Stradley, who has been sick for the past three weeks is on our streets again.

Mrs. Anna Landon died at the home of her son, George Landon, north of town, Friday, January 15, 1904.

H. F. Swanback is having the architects draft the plans for his new store building which will be erected as soon as the frost is out of the ground.

Grandma Cheuvront died at Taylor, this state, and her remains will be sent here for interment. Services will be conducted at the Christian church, Saturday at 11 o'clock by Elder Utterback.

The Modern Woodmen met in the opera house last evening and initiated four members. The Alvo officers and foresters were here and took the boys through the mysteries of woodcraft.

Judge R. D. McDonald performed the ceremony Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock which bound in holy wedlock, Mr. Samuel Aaron, aged 52 years, and the charming Miss Mary Moran, aged 42 years, at the home of the bride in the west part of town. This young couple have the best wishes of all their friends, and the Enterprise predicts for them a happy voyage down life's uneven journey. May their pathway be strewn so full of roses that a double-header snow plow will be required to shovel them out of their way, and the rays of sunshine so bright that they will have to carry a two-ply asbestos umbrella all the remainder of their happy days.

Saved From Terrible Death.

The family of Mrs. M. L. Bobbitt of Bargerton, Tenn., saw her dying and were powerless to save her. The most skillful physicians and every remedy used, failed, while consumption was slowly but surely taking her life. In this terrible hour Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption turned despair into joy. The first bottle brought immediate relief and its continued use completely cured her. It's the most certain cure in the world for all throat and lung troubles. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at F. G. Fricke & Co.

Louisville

From the Courier.

Fred Ossenkop of Walton, Neb., is visiting relatives at College Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. John Waldron left Tuesday for their home in Dakota, after a week's visit with relatives in Louisville.

There are dampew men who become millionaires on the dead square. Yet after they get possession of the dough they are the people.

Little Dulele Frater, who has been quite low with pneumonia this week, requiring the attention of a trained nurse, is now reported much improved.

Mrs. W. C. Frampton, of Lincoln, has recovered from a severe attack of pneumonia and will be able to return to Lincoln within a few days. She will be accompanied by her sister, Miss Minnie Lehnhoff.

P. A. Jacobson's delivery wagon team made things lively Monday afternoon by taking one of their accustomed spins. In attempting to cross the bridge on Third street they struck the banister. One of the horses kicked until it freed itself and started on a mad rush for Sarry county. The wagon contained a number of cases of eggs, and while a plank in the big bridge was broken into kindling wood, the harness riddled and the wagon had to go to the blacksmith for repairs, it was found that not an egg had been broken.

Cured After Suffering 10 Years.

B. F. Hare, Supt. Miami Cycle & Mfg. Co., Middletown, O., suffered for ten years with dyspepsia. He spent hundreds of dollars for medicines and with doctors without receiving any permanent benefit. He says, "One night while feeling exceptionally bad I was about to throw down the evening paper when I saw an item in the paper regarding the merits of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. I concluded to try it and while I had no faith in it I felt better after the second dose. After using two bottles I am stronger and better than I have been in years, and I recommend Kodol Dyspepsia Cure to my friends and acquaintances suffering from stomach trouble." Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co.

A Cough

"I have made a most thorough trial of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and am prepared to say that for all diseases of the lungs it never disappoints."

J. Early Finley, Ironton, O.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral won't cure rheumatism; we never said it would. It won't cure dyspepsia; we never claimed it. But it will cure coughs and colds of all kinds. We first said this sixty years ago; we've been saying it ever since.

Three sizes: 25c, 50c, $1. All druggists. Consult your doctor. If he says take it, then do as he says. If he tells you not to take it, then don't take it. He knows. Leave it with him. We are willing.

NATIONAL BISCUIT COMPANY

Nehawka

From the Register.

We are sorry to hear that our old friend, Wm. Stockham, was under the doctor's care last week.

Ora Whitehead, of Plattsmouth, has been rusticated with his friend, John Doughty, for a few days.

T. B. Smith and family left for Ottawa, Kan., Monday. We'll bet a big red apple they will come back to Nebraska next year.

The young folks have been having fine skating on the ponds lately. About eighty of them were out one night last week and report a good time.

John Wunderlich shipped two of his fine blooded hogs to Coleridge, Nebraska, Tuesday. We would think they were fine hogs if they were not red.

Charley Heebner is preparing to build a big hog house in order to care for his fast increasing herd. He has just bought of A. F. Sturm a $300 bill of lumber for that purpose.

Albert Stoll is another victim to the mumps, having been out of the store a couple of weeks with them. We understand his father's family are all having a seige of the same.

Mrs. Will C. Tucker has been quite sick lately. A consultation of doctors was held Saturday to determine the method of treatment. Mrs. George Johnson is taking care of Mrs. Tucker.

The ice harvest is about finished this week, and everyone is supplied with the finest ice put up for several years. It is from 12 to 16 inches thick and very clear and clean.

Mrs. West returned from Lincoln Sunday, where she had been to see her mother, who is taking treatment. She reports her mother somewhat improved. We hope she may soon return with her health entirely recovered.

Maple Grove

Special Correspondence.

Quite a number from this vicinity were Plattsmouth visitors Saturday. Fred Engelkemier purchased the A. Ransom farm of 160 acres last Saturday, for which he paid $12,100.

Quite a number from this section attended the meeting of the Modern Woodmen at Mynard Saturday night.

A number of farmers are now engaged in hauling their corn to the railroad, having sold since the price advanced.

A Prisoner in Her Own House.

Mrs. W. H. Layha of 1001 Agnes Ave., Kansas City, Mo., has for several years been troubled with severe hoarseness and at times, a hard cough which she says "Would keep me in doors for days. I was prescribed by physicians with no noticeable results. A friend gave me a part of a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with instructions to closely follow the directions and I wish to state that after the first day I could notice a decided change for the better, and at this time, after using it for two weeks, have no hesitation in saying I realize that I am entirely cured." This remedy is for sale by all druggists.
