LOCAL BRIEVITIES.

Dr. Marshall, dentist, Fitzgerald block.

Judge Chapman was in Omaha Tuesday on legal business.

A complete line of imported enamelled ware at John Bauer's.

L. C. Todd of Nehawka, was in the city on business yesterday.

Dr. Frank L. Cummins, dentist, Office with Dr. E. D. Cummins.

"Is it cold enough for you?" has been a common salutation for the past few days.

County Judge Travis, was in Lincoln Tuesday on business before the supreme court.

County Assessor Teegarden was down from Weeping Water Tuesday on business.

A marriage license was issued by Judge Travis Tuesday to Fred Muster, aged 35, and Miss Lizzie Luft, aged 25, both of Plattsmouth.

Carl Kunsman, our meat dealer, has become the purchaser of a quarter section of land near Plainview, Pierce county, for which he paid $6,800.

For a bad taste in the mouth take a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. 25 cents. Warranted to cure. For sale by all druggists.

The Journal is pleased to learn that Otto Bookmeyer, who is now in Albuquerque, N. M., is getting along nicely and the indications are that he will recover.

The Turners of this city never do anything by halves, and those who attend their mask ball Saturday evening, February 13, may expect something grand.

A. J. Snyder was in Monday and renewed for the Journal another year. Andy is one of the young democrats of Cass county who believes in supporting his party paper.

The Plattsmouth Turners will give a mask ball on Saturday night, February 13. It is the intention of the management to make this one of the best ever given by this society.

Mr. W. W. Hamilton, one of our industrious yeomen, dropped in Monday and renewed for the Old Reliable. Mr. Hamilton resides near Murray and is a staunch friend of the Journal.

Have you indigestion, constipation, headache, backache, kidney trouble? Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will make you well. If it fails get your money back. That's fair. Tea or tablet form. 35 cents. Gering & Co.

The best physic. "Once tried and you will always use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets," says William A. Girard, Pease, Vt. These Tablets are the most prompt, most pleasant and most reliable cathartic in use. For sale by all druggists.

M. Foltz, who is spending the winter with his brother-in-law and family in South Omaha, was a Plattsmouth visitor Tuesday, and made this office a pleasant call. He is a son of Louis Foltz, deceased of near Weeping Water and called to enroll his name for the Journal. He is a very pleasant young man, and we were pleased to meet him.

When you feel blue and that everything goes wrong, take a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They will cleanse and invigorate your stomach, regulate your bowels, give you a relish for your food and make you feel that in this old world is a good place to live. For sale by all druggists.

W. A. Chalfant, a hustling young farmer living south of Plattsmouth, called Saturday and enrolled his name for the Journal. "Must have the Journal at the beginning of house-keeping," he remarked. We hope Mr. Chalfant will continue to have the Journal make its weekly visits to his fireside for many years to come.

Albert Metzger of Gregory, Neb., was in the city Monday and gave the Journal a pleasant call. Mr. Metzger is visiting with his mother in this county, where he will spend several weeks. He is a Cass county boy, a pleasant gentleman and we were pleased to meet him. While here he renewed for the Journal another year.

M. J. Rummel, while in the city Monday gave the Journal a call. Mr. Rummel is making arrangements to remove to Furnas county, Neb., and while here paid two years in advance for the Journal. He says he proposes to keep posted on affairs at his old home. Mr. Rummel is a splendid citizen and his departure will be regretted.

Chas. Schwab, of near Mynard, called Saturday and renewed his subscription for another year. Mr. Schwab is one of the yeomen of Cass county, and remarked while here that "the Journal is a household necessity with me." Such words are highly gratifying and spur us onward to make each succeeding issue of the Journal better and better.

Floyd Sexton was here from Union Saturday.

County Judge Travis made a business trip to Omaha today.

Chas. Andrews, of Weeping Water, had business in this city Saturday.

Sawdust for sale by the car load or wagon load. C. A. RICHART.

Galvanized iron and cast tank heaters at lowest prices at John Bauer's.

Jesse DeLashmut, of Pacific Junction, was a Plattsmouth visitor last Sunday.

Mrs. Jennie R. Wells and daughter, Margaret, spent Sunday with friends in South Bend.

County Attorney Root was in the capital city the fore part of the week on business in supreme court.

Will Ramsey and Glenn Smith came down from Lincoln Friday evening to pay a short visit with home folks.

Mayor Morgan returned Tuesday morning from a business trip to McCook, Neb., where he owns a branch store.

Dr. Richards, the eye specialist of Omaha, will be at the Riley Hotel Saturday, February 6th. Call and see him if in need of glasses.

Clyde McClain, manager of the Plattsmouth Telephone company's exchange at Weeping Water, was here on business the fore part of the week.

Mrs. John Farrer of Corning, Ia., arrived in the city Monday evening for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Harry Kuhney, who has been quite ill for some time.

We regret to learn that County Superintendent Wortman has been confined to his house for several days with illness. The Journal hopes it is of but short duration.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Rouse, who have been visiting their son, Prof. E. L. Rouse and family in this city for several days, departed for their home in Esbon, Kansas, Monday morning.

The Board of Education at their meeting Tuesday evening increased the salary of Superintendent Rouse $150, making his salary now $1,500. They did a good deed by so doing.

The "Rag-Time" dance given under the auspices of the Eagles at Sokol hall Saturday night, was a grand success in every particular. The dance prize (a toilet case) was awarded to Miss Josie Svoboda.

Miss Anna Boyd of Creston Iowa, is now an attaché of the Journal office. Miss Boyd was an employee of the senior of the Journal three years ago in Montana, and he well knows her worth in manipulating the silent messengers.

Dr. Richards will examine eyes at the Riley Hotel, Saturday, February 6th. The doctor needs no recommendation, as the hundreds of persons can testify with whom he has done business within the last few years at Gering & Co's drug store.

Miss Lizzie Luft and Mr. Fred Muster were united in the holy bonds of matrimony in this city on Wednesday, February 3, 1904, Rev. Ploetz officiating. A dance was given in honor of the event at Turner hall at night in which a large number of invited guests participated, and a most enjoyable time was had.

Charles Fetzner, a prominent Cass county farmer, living four miles south-east of Louisville, was in the city yesterday, and in company with Julius Pitz, made the Journal a brief call or long enough to subscribe for the Old Reliable. Mr. Fetzner recently returned from a visit to Wisconsin, and stated that it was awful cold up there, the dealers putting up ice two feet thick.

W. H. Taylor, who contemplates removing to Wood county, Oklahoma, next week, called yesterday and settled in full to date for the Journal and ordered it to follow him in his new home for one year. Mr. Taylor was reared in Cass county, is a splendid citizen, and his friends will regret the departure of himself and family. He has purchased 160 acres in the vicinity of where Geo. W. Young, J. W. Cox, and Silas Crosser live, and consequently is not settling among strangers altogether.

Gave a "Smoker." St. John's Catholic Club gave a "smoker" last evening in the parlors of the Perkins House. Most of the members of the Club were present and with a large number of specially invited guests filled almost to its highest capacity the spacious room. Progressive high five was the principal amusement of the evening. Cigars and other refreshments were served in abundance, and the evening was apparently much enjoyed by all. The out-of-town guests were the Rev. E. J. Feeney of Auburn, and the Rev. Wm. T. McKenna of Nebraska City.

Thrown Out of the Sleigh. Mrs. Joseph McMaken and Mrs. Walter Scott, while returning home from where Mr. McMaken's force is cutting ice Tuesday afternoon, experienced quite a narrow escape from serious injury. One of the runners of the sleigh in which they were seated ran onto a cake of ice lying in the road which upset the sleigh, throwing the occupants out onto the hard snow and ice. Mrs. Scott who was manipulating the lines, in some manner became entangled in them and was pulled over the dash board and dragged a distance of several hundred feet before the horse was stopped. The lady was quite badly bruised, while Mrs. McMaken was also slightly bruised. It is fortunate that neither were badly injured.

Smoke the Wurl Bros.' celebrated "Gut Heil" cigars.

Dr. Elster, Dentist, Waterman Block.

Sick Blood

Feed pale girls on Scott's Emulsion.

We do not need to give all the reasons why Scott's Emulsion restores the strength and flesh and color of good health to those who suffer from sick blood.

The fact that it is the best preparation of Cod Liver Oil, rich in nutrition, full of healthy stimulation is a suggestion as to why it does what it does.

Scott's Emulsion presents Cod Liver Oil at its best, fullest in strength, least in taste.

Young women in their 'teens' are permanently cured of the peculiar disease of the blood which shows itself in paleness, weakness and nervousness, by regular treatment with Scott's Emulsion.

It is a true blood food and is naturally adapted to the cure of the blood sickness from which so many young women suffer.

We will be glad to send a sample to any sufferer.

Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.

Sustained the Demurrer.

Judge Travis yesterday handed down his decision in the Boedecker case by sustaining the demurrer filed by Chas. H. Boedecker, Adolph F. Boedecker, Henry E. Boedecker, T. J. Boedecker, Ella L. Delezen, Minnie Blackwell and Nora Brunson, to the second amended petition of Mrs. Kate Johnson, who seeks to prove her claim to a portion of the estate left by Theodore Boedecker, by reason of a decree of adoption drawn up at Muscatine, Iowa, in 1903, but which has been lost.

The court sustained the heirs in their plea that the petitioner failed to prove sufficient facts to constitute cause for action.

Escaped an Awful Fate.

Mr. H. Haggins of Melbourne, Fla., writes: "My doctor told me I had Consumption and nothing could be done for me. I was given up to die. The offer of a free trial bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, induced me to try it. Results were startling. I am now on the road to recovery and owe it all to Dr. King's New Discovery. It surely saved my life." This great cure is guaranteed for all throat and lung diseases by E. C. Fricke, druggist. Price 50c and $1. Trial bottles free.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a copy of Swamp-Root, pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonials received from sufferers cured. In writing, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.
