ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

Clearing the Block

Fine stock is moving more freely now, and High Grade Meats Are easily obtained.

Customers can always rely upon getting prime cuts for broiling or roasting. We never purchase inferior grades of meats. They would not please our customers, and would bring us more complaints than profits.

Lorenz Brothers

North of Post Office Plattsmouth, Nebraska

We will open a fresh and complete stock of Groceries, Canned Goods, Etc., in the room adjoining our meat market Monday morning, February 15th. Call and see us.

The Best Whisky is the Cheapest in the End!

Poor Whisky is not only disagreeable to taste, but undoubtedly injurious to the stomach. A little good Whisky is a fine tonic and helps instead of harming. Such Whiskies as Yellow Stone, for instance, will do you just as much good as a doctor's prescription. If you don't know how good it is come in and try it.

PRICES:

Guckenheimer Rye, per gallon	$4 00
Yellowstone	4 00
Honey Dew	3 00
Big Horn	2 00

E. G. DOVEY & SON

R. A. Bates of the Journal, visited in Silver City, Iowa, a few hours Saturday evening.

L. W. Barger and wife spent Sunday in this city, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Peterson.

"Who will be the next mayor of Plattsmouth?" is what is worrying some people at present.

M. McCool and wife returned Sunday evening from a week's visit with relatives in Ottumwa, Iowa.

William A. Robertson has been confirmed by the county commissioners as deputy clerk of the district court.

Joseph Bell, who visited friends in the capital city several days last week, returned to Plattsmouth Monday.

Peter Keil, that fine old German farmer, of Eight Mile Grove precinct, was transacting business here Saturday.

Twenty new subscribers since our last issue is pretty fair. Keep a cumin' boys. We know you all like the Journal.

Henry Steinhaur departed Monday for Superior, Nebraska, to attend the funeral of his uncle, Matt Spohn, who died Sunday.

The city election is not far distant and it behooves those who desire to serve the "dear people" to come to the front and say so.

August Stander, John Koop and M. Tritsch, all Louisville patrons, are renewals to the Journal this week. Thanks, gentlemen.

That good old democrat, Mr. W. P. Bailey of this city, dropped in Saturday and renewed his allegiance to the Journal for another year.

Misses Grace and Cora Walker, who came down from State University to attend the funeral of Sister Craig, returned to Lincoln Monday morning.

Have you indigestion, constipation, headache, backache, kidney trouble? Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will make you well. If it fails get your money back. That's fair. Tea or tablet form. 35 cents. Gering & Co.

Escaped an Awful Fate. Mr. H. Haggins of Melbourne, Fla., writes: "My doctor told me I had Consumption and nothing could be done for me. I was given up to die. The offer of a free trial bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, induced me to try it. Results were startling. I am now on the road to recovery and owe it all to Dr. King's New Discovery. It surely saved my life." This great cure is guaranteed for all throat and lung diseases by F. C. Fricke, druggist. Price 50c and $1. Trial bottles free.

Mr. Carl N. Neilson and Miss Jennie Ohm, were married at the home of the bride's parents in this city, on Monday evening, February 8, 1904. Rev. A. F. Ploetz, of the German Presbyterian church, officiating. The bride is very popular in the city and a most lovely young lady. The groom is a most highly respected young man, and is an employe in the B. & M. shops at Havelock, where the happy couple will make their home.

Our true friend, Z. W. Schroeder, one of the prominent farmers of Cass county and one of the best democrats that God ever put breath in, was in the city Friday, and accompanied by Mr. J. R. C. Gregory, another good democrat, called at the Journal headquarters, and after spending a few moments in social chat, the latter became a new addition to our Nebraska list.

When you feel blue and that everything goes wrong, take a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They will cleanse and invigorate your stomach, regulate your bowels, give you a relish for your food and make you feel that in this old world is a good place to live. For sale by all druggists.

Mike Swartzfisher of Mt. Pleasant precinct, called Monday and renewed for another year. Mr. Swartzfisher says the Journal is so popular with his family, that when it arrives it is a scramble among his children to see who gets it first.

Geo. Woods, the genial cashier of the Bank of Commerce, and Charley Riehey, the clever lumberman, both of Louisville, were transacting business in Plattsmouth Tuesday.

S. C. Patterson, a former citizen of Cass county, but now a citizen of Columbia, Texas, remits for the Journal another year, and in doing so adds in his letter: "I am not thoroughly weaned from my old friends in Cass county, and never expect to be."

J. W. Oberg, a farmer living near Glenwood, Iowa, was in Plattsmouth Monday looking for a runaway boy, aged fifteen years. The lad evidently didn't come this way, as no one saw a boy in this city of the description given. He left home last Friday.

E. C. Baldwin, one of our prominent farmers who receives his mail at the Plattsmouth postoffice, dropped in Tuesday and renewed for the Journal another year. Mr. Baldwin began taking the Journal a year ago, and says he can't get along now without it.

J. F. Marston, the crooked insurance man, who finished a jail sentence here last Tuesday, was released to fall into the hands of Constable Dungan of Falls City, to answer to a similar charge, and was taken to that city. It is said his victims are numerous in Falls City and vicinity.

The name of the fellow who took a blanket off one of Gus Dagerdorfer's horses last Saturday night is known. The team was hitched in the shed in the rear of Hans Goos' saloon, corner of Main and Fifth streets. If it is returned nothing more will be said. If not, the law must take its course, as it will be reported to the proper authorities.

Remember that if you desire the Journal Monthly Magazine you must renew your subscription to January, 1905. All those who fail to take advantage of this proposition during the present month will have to pay fifty cents extra for the magazine, if they want it. From now till the first of March the offer of both for $1.00 holds good.
