Weeping Water

From the Herald.
It is reported that a little red paint was spread one night last week.
Mrs. Frank Baldwin and Mrs. J. C. Lehman have been on the sick list the past week. Grip and colds seem to be the prevailing malady.

F. W. Race came up from Kansas City Saturday evening. Mrs. Race has been quite sick the past few days with a hard cold and throat trouble.

W. W. Powell is confined to his room the result of a fall last week. He has been subject to dizzy spells and fell from the top of the stairs down to the foot.

Tuesday morning at about 11 o'clock Mrs. Anna McDonald passed away. Her sickness has been of long duration, her disease being consumption. The funeral will be held Thursday at 2 p. m., at the M. E. Church.

Sam Wart was down from Lincoln several days last week taking care of his father who is very poorly. Mr. Wart is quite old which is the chief cause of his weakened condition.

F. E. Miller, Evangelist, of Chicago, commenced a series of meetings at the M. E. Church Monday night. Mr. Miller is a noted worker and splendid singer, and no doubt his week's work here will be blessed with making many more conversions.

Mrs. H. Winchell fell on some ice Saturday, and fractured her wrist. Not long ago Mr. Winchell fell and has been laid up ever since, so they are both disabled. It is hard lines for these people and we hope they will soon be able to be up and doing.

This Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Peckham of Avoca, occurs the marriage of Mr. Reese Hutchins to Miss Mabel Peckham. Rev. Joseph Bennet will pronounce the words uniting the lives of these young people. The bride and groom to be will reside on the Hutchins' farm.

The school board of Plattsmouth has re-elected Prof. E. L. Rouse to serve as superintendent another year and increased his salary $150, making $1,500. The Professor's friends here, and especially the teachers, will be pleased to know that he will remain in Cass county. Mr. Rouse is bound to advance though and will be found some day at the top of the ladder in school work.

From the Republican.
Born to Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Sargent, a son on Tuesday, Feb. 9th.

Mrs. C. V. Hay was confined to her bed for several days last week with a severe attack of the grip.

Mrs. Jas. Carper went to Bancroft last week to visit her brother, Josiah Tighe and family.

Mrs. George Towle, jr., and little daughter and Miss Maud Wilson went to Council Bluffs, Ia., Tuesday to attend the wedding of a friend.

Friend of E. L. Rouse, in this vicinity, will be pleased to learn that he has been re-elected superintendent of the Plattsmouth schools and that his salary has been raised from $1,350 to $1,500 per year.

W. W. Powell met with a painful accident one night last week. While coming down stairs from his room over Hutchins' cigar factory, he either tripped or got dizzy, causing him to fall. He was found in an unconscious condition at the foot of the stairs by passers by who carried him to his room and summoned assistance.

Mrs. Anna Greenfield McDonald, wife of A. J. McDonald, died at her home in this city, Tuesday, Feb. 9, at 11 o'clock a. m. of consumption, aged 50 years. Mr. and Mrs. McDonald were among the early settlers of Weeping Water, they were married here and have lived here ever since.

I. M. Ward, living five miles west of town has let the contract for reducing into lumber, some sixty thousand feet of standing cottonwood timber. The portable saw mill will be set up in his grove where most convenient to the work. Something like thirty five years ago S. R. Smith, the former owner of the Ward farm planted this grove in the "Great American Desert." Many of the trees are very large and will produce a fine quality of lumber which Mr. Ward offers for sale at the mill for $14 per thousand feet.

Another Case of Rheumatism Cured by Chamberlain's Pain Balm.

The efficacy of Chamberlain's Pain Balm in the relief of rheumatism is being demonstrated daily. Parker Triplett, of Grigsby, Va., says that Chamberlain's Pain Balm gave him permanent relief from rheumatism in the back when everything else failed, and he would not be without it. For sale by all druggists.

John Schoman was at Council Bluffs last Saturday where he went to purchase an Ottawa corn sheller with a capacity of 10,000 per day.

C. A. Richey and wife and John Ossenkopp and son Fred left Wednesday for a two weeks' trip through the South. They will make their first stop at St. Louis where they will visit the world's fair grounds, and then proceed to New Orleans where they hope to forget all about the zero weather of Nebraska and bask for a few days in the warm rays of the sun.

A. E. Pribble, former foreman of the Weeping Water Republican, was in town this week visiting his parents. He left Thursday for Hot Springs, S. D., where he has a like position.

Local physicians are kept on the go night and day. The changeable weather of the past two weeks has been very hard on children and many are reported on the sick list.

An Early Riser.

A strong, healthy, active constitution depends largely on the condition of the liver. The famous little pills known as DeWitt's Little Early Risers, not only cleanse the system but they strengthen the action of the liver and rebuild the tissues supporting that organ. Little Early Risers are easy to act, they never gripe and yet they are absolutely certain to produce results that are satisfactory in all cases. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co.

Union

From the Ledger.
Mrs. I. N. Applegate returned home last Saturday from Villisca, Ia., where she had been called by the illness and death of her sister.

Glen Douge mourns the loss of a fine new overcoat which some lazy, worthless cuss stole from his room, and the very next day it turned so cold that Glen almost prayed for the return of his overcoat.

Mrs. Eliza Barnum, who has been very ill at Peru the past few weeks, was able to come home Wednesday evening, accompanied by Miss Ida Gregg, who has attended her during her illness. Mrs. Barnum is still very weak, but a few days' rest and home surroundings will no doubt be of great benefit and hasten her complete recovery.

Born July 10, 1862, in Liberty precinct, Cass County, Neb; died at 5:30 p. m., Wednesday, Feb. 10, 1904, at her home one mile northeast of Union, Nebraska. Deceased was the wife of Jas. M. Barkhurst, and her death came as a sad and unexpected blow, not only to the husband, but to all the relatives and many friends. A slight attack of la grippe three weeks ago was her first illness, followed by complications that baffled the skill of the physicians. She grew much worse last Sunday, and from that time she failed rapidly until death came to her relief Wednesday evening.

Nebraska City was the scene of another wedding of Union young people, Joseph W. Peden and Miss Lena Beckner being married there on Monday by Judge Goff. They returned Monday evening from Nebraska City, and we are informed that they will make their home on a farm in this vicinity. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Beckner, and is a well known and popular young lady, highly esteemed by many friends. Mr. Peden is an industrious young farmer who has lived in this neighborhood for several years, and has many friends who extend hearty congratulations and wish them abundance of happiness and prosperity.

Nearly Forfeits His Life.

A runaway almost ending fatally, started a horrible ulcer on the leg of J. B. Orner, Franklin Grove, Ill. For four years it defied all doctors and all remedies. But Bucklen's Arnica Salve had no trouble to cure him. Equally good for Burns, Bruises, Skin Eruptions and Piles. 25c at F. C. Fricke & Co's drug store.
