When the Beef Comes to the Table

It should be full of juice and free from sinew.

That is its condition when it leaves this Meat Market, and if it is otherwise when served the fault lies with the cook. The finest grade of corn-fed cattle are turned into dressed beef for our trade.

Not only our meats are first class, but our new stock of Groceries can not be beat. We are now fitted to provide all things necessary for the table.

Will Richardson and family departed last evening for Seattle, Wash., where they expect to make their future home.

L. J. Mayfield was down from Louisville Monday, and, as usual, dropped in to see how the Journal was getting along.

N. P. Larson, aged twenty-eight, and Miss Clara C. Kilver, aged twenty-five, both of Alvo, were granted a marriage permit last Monday.

G. A. Meisinger, of Mynard was in Monday and renewed to January 1905. Mr. Meisinger is one of the Journal's prompt paying patrons.

Henry Horn of Cedar Creek, while in the city Saturday, took the opportunity to call and renew for the Old Reliable for another year.

Perry is prepared to accommodate you with good things to eat. Call at his restaurant. No samples, no side lines. PERRY UTTERBACK, Prop.

N. C. Volk of Cedar Creek, was in last Thursday and ordered the Journal sent to him at Renfrow, Oklahoma, to which point he will remove.

August Stander of Louisville, was a caller at Journal headquarters yesterday and made us a very pleasant visit. Mr. Stander is one of the Journal's staunchest friends.

W. W. Coates has become the owner of the Riley hotel block, for which he paid the sum of $42,500. There will be no change in the management of the hotel, so we understand.

This spring you will need a nerve food, one that will cleanse and reconstruct your nerve centers and wasted energies. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will do it. 35 cents. Tea or tablets. Gering & Co.

Jacob Meisinger is another prompt paying patron of the Journal who called Saturday to renew his faith in the Old Reliable.

We regret that "Oxford Items" came too late for this issue. To insure publication such matters should reach the Journal not later than Wednesday noon. We would like for all our correspondents to understand this.

Gather the roses of health for your cheeks.

While the parks are shining with dew. Get out in the morning early and bright By taking Rocky Mountain Tea at night. Gering & Co.

Alvin Ferris and wife, of near Nebraska, are very proud of their new baby girl, which made her appearance at their home on the 12th of February. May the little one live to comfort her parents as old age comes creeping on.

The farmers tributary to Mynard feel justly incensed on account of the starting point of rural route No. 3 being removed to Plattsmouth. The Journal is not advised as to why this was done, but we are satisfied that a great majority of the patrons are opposed to it.

C. J. Meisinger of Cedar Creek, was a caller Saturday, and like all the members of that family, don't propose to attempt housekeeping without the great household necessity—the Journal. We are glad to see our young friend start out in married life by taking the Old Reliable.

Mrs. Ed Kruger who was called here some time since by the serious illness of her father, Lemon Bates, called Saturday to renew for the Journal. Mrs. Kruger left yesterday for Oklahoma to visit for a few weeks, and from there will return to her home in Whatcombe, Washington.

Uncle Jake Kunzman of Cedar Creek was in the city yesterday, and all his Plattsmouth friends were pleased to see the jovial old fellow. While here he ordered the Journal sent to his son, Will Kunzman at Surprise, Butler county, Neb., making four copies that Uncle Jake has paid for. Wish the Journal could boast of more friends just like him.
