TART CURB-STONE JOSHINGS

And Other Items of Interest Prepared Especially for the Journal Readers.

Monkey runs the Sunday schools, Friedrich runs the bar, Colby runs the blankets—And, gosh darn it, there you are!

Any old bachelor or maid can tell just exactly how the matrimonial ship is wrecked.

People who properly observe Lent, now buy seats in the balcony instead of sitting in the parquet.

Lots of Christians lose much valuable time gossiping about the sins of their neighbors instead of praying for them.

Before marriage a man does not know whether his sweetheart's gowns are in style or not; after marriage he doesn't care.

The goose that lays the golden egg is not so much, after all. The hen that lays the old-fashioned kind is just as valuable.

There are about twenty-five maiden girls in this town that ought to organize a "Bachelor Girls' club" and get married—if they can.

We have noticed that there are many more self-made blond women than self-made men, and it is no harder to detect one than the other.

Did you ever notice how quickly a man changes his telephone voice into a natural growl when he discovers that it is his wife who called him up.

Some men here in Plattsmouth keep up such a continuous grumble when at home that their wives can't sleep when they are gone without a dog under the bed to growl.

If there should be a three-cornered fight for mayor what would be the result? Wise men figure that the law and order league is planning for just this possibility.

Some one has sent us a package of garden seeds. Now, if that individual will only send along some one to spade the garden and sow the seed, we promise to do the rest.

The biggest trust on earth is the newspaper trust. It trusts everybody; gets cussed for trusting, mistrusted for guessing, and if it busts for trusting, gets cussed for busting.

There are men in this man's town whom we run across every day who will sit down and take a half a day at a time giving you advice instead of going to work and getting rich themselves.

Scouts returning from the ground hog region say it is still sound asleep. Noting's done! It is to be hoped that his hogship will not insist on paying interest on that six weeks of winter.

Those people who "have it in" for the present mayor and city council, should sweep before their own doors before they undertake to raise the dust before the doors of their neighbors.

The sole purpose of a newspaper is not to boom candidates. Amateurs who are placed in the chair of a ring organ are likely to be led to so believe, but the people generally think otherwise.

The man who prefers the city weekly to a home paper because "it's got more news in it," reminds us of the man who picked out the biggest pair of boots in the box because they cost more than a pair that fitted him.

Those interested in the continued success of the Plattsmouth public schools insist upon the retention of F. G. Fricke and George Dodge on the board of education. They are representative citizens and have proved the right men in the right places.

Church-goers play flinch and paucity and give flowers for prizes. Other folks play high five and give hand-painted china, etc. for prizes. Men play poker for the money it takes to buy flowers and china. Now then, what is what, and where are we at?

If you were a society leader and some young business man should attempt to take out the lady you are devoted to, would you do as a Plattsmouth leader is trying to do—bar the young man from the social functions? This question is as interesting in Plattsmouth society circles as the question, "How old is Ann?"

Marston Going the Rounds.

A special from Humboldt says that "Rev." J. Forest Marston, the preacher-crook, to whose smooth schemes some twenty-five local business men and farmers owe their loss of several hard earned dollars, is in the jail at Falls City, having been taken thither by order of Justice John H. Smith, who passed upon the first case wherein Ed Fishburn charges Marston with obtaining some of his coin by means of falsely representing himself to be agent for a responsible insurance concern. Marston has been in care of Constable Duncan ever since he was turned over to the local officers when returned from the Cass county jail, and he appeared in justice court without an attorney and was convicted upon the plaintiff's evidence, being sentenced to twenty days' imprisonment in the county jail and to pay costs of the suit. The sentence is considered rather light, but as there are a number of other parties waiting to cause his arrest as soon as he is released it is presumed he will not obtain his freedom for some time.

"Rev." Mr. Marston and family resided here some time and occupied apartments in the Pleasanton block. But little was known of the family during their stay in the city.—Gage County Democrat.

GONE TO ANOTHER CLIME.

A. L. Cox, of Mynard, Has Left the Country and Many Debts Behind Him.

About two weeks ago, A. L. Cox, former postmaster at Mynard and dealer in lumber and possessed of several other vocations, left his home, apparently on a business trip. He has not yet returned, and the indications are that he does not intend to do so.

He left numerous ones "in the hole" for various amounts, which will aggregate, some people say, away up into the thousands. His own brother-in-law we are informed "mourns" the loss of about $1,000, which he loaned the fleeing Cox. Rumors are afloat to the effect that Cox is behind in the neighborhood of $15,000. If this be the case, he will no doubt get as far away as possible from those who are left to "mourn his sudden departure."

The Journal is also informed that Cox has written a letter to his wife stating that he "was gone for good," and he would never come back to Cass county.

Another report is that Cox was a regular contributor to the Board of Trade, and that he lost most of his money in trying the "get rich quick" plan, which has caused the sudden departure of so many who are now basking in the sunshine of Old Mexico, or enjoying the cold waves of Canada, whichever climate seems most congenial to their health.

Victory of Genius.

The human genius conquered the darkness of centuries and threw light on many superstitions and bad habits. Science saved many lives, many pains and much suffering. Disease which in former days almost invariably ended with death, today are easily cured. Physicians found that one of the most horrible afflictions, typhoid fever, never can attack those having a good, healthy stomach, where the germs of the disease are killed. To preserve and increase the strength of the stomach, Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine is the only natural remedy, being made of pure grape wine and selected herbs. It is very palatable, acts as a tonic stimulant and blood builder. By keeping the digestive system in perfect order, it averts many diseases, like dyspepsia, nervousness, debility, costiveness, and gives to the skin a natural rosy tint. The most recommended remedy for ladies. At drug stores, Joseph Triner, 739 So. Ashland Ave., Chicago, Ill., Pilsen Station.

A Rare Treat.

One of the theatrical treats of the season will be the first appearance in this city as a star, of Miss Isabel Irving, who will be seen here at the head of her own company, under the management of James K. Hackett, in Winston Churchill's dramatization of his celebrated novel, "The Crisis." Miss Irving's engagement will be for Saturday night, March 12, only. She will be supported by a company of unusual merit, while the scenic equipment with which her manager James K. Hackett has surrounded her is said to be one of the most beautiful seen in many years.

Colds Cause Pneumonia.

One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, deep-seated on the lungs, causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Fenner, Marion, Ind., who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I ran down in weight from 148 to 92 pounds. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co."

AMONG JOURNAL FRIENDS.

A Brief But Pleasant Visit to Union, Eagle, Elmwood and Murdock.

On Monday of last week R. A. Bates of the Journal, took a notion that he would take a spin and visit a few of the towns of Cass county. Accordingly he boarded the 10:45 train on the M. P., making his first stop at the little city of situated on the south border of the county. After safely landing, we made a direct "shoot" for the new home of R. H. Frans & Co., the popular general merchandise firm of that village. Mr. Frans is a reader of the Journal and highly appreciates its value as a local paper. Mr. Frans is a most genial gentleman, and the store, of which he is at the head, would be a credit to any town of much larger pretensions. At Union quite a number of new subscribers to the Old Reliable were secured, among whom were Mr. J. K. P. Carper, a prominent farmer of the vicinity; also the enterprising druggist, W. C. Carraher, whom we found to be a most clever and entertaining gentleman. A brief visit was paid to Roy Upton, the enterprising hardware dealer of the village, who liked the Journal so well that his subscription is paid to the top notch. C. W. Frans, a brother of R. W., whom we were pleased to meet at this place, became a new reader of the Journal at the Nehawka postoffice. We had the pleasure also of meeting our good friend, J. W. Pitman, with whom we enjoyed a brief chat. Mr. Pitman advanced his subscription another year. W. W. Wolf, the "village blacksmith," believing that the Journal suited his notion as a county paper, enrolled his name as a subscriber, as did also R. Delahay. Ere taking our leave we couldn't possibly resist the temptation of calling on Brother Graves, of the Ledger, who gave us a most cordial greeting. Mr. Graves is giving the people of Union and vicinity an excellent paper, and we were pleased to learn that the Ledger is highly appreciated by its numerous patrons. May Bro. Graves and his Ledger continue on the road to prosperity. From Union the next stop we made was where we arrived in time for supper. After we had partaken of refreshments, we hunted up J. H. Latrom, the hardware merchant, with whom we spent an enjoyable evening. At this place we met Mr. J. B. Chabtree, of Union, who joined the Journal's many patrons and became a new subscriber. We remained over night at the popular Eagle Hotel. We also met J. Reitter, the popular saloon man, who has been a reader of the Journal for several years. The reason why Mr. Reitter is so popular is that he keeps an orderly house and has an up-to-date saloon. We called at the Beacon headquarters a few moments and learned from Brother Ostran that he was doing as well as could be expected, and if anything a little better for the time of year. May the Beacon continue to shed its light for Eagle and surrounding country. The next morning the Journal representative came east to where he met many friends of the Journal, among whom were William Mueller, the jovial blacksmith, who advanced his subscription another year. L. R. Vakiner, lumberman, became a new reader of the Old Reliable. Mr. Vakiner is a most pleasant gentleman, and one of the prominent denizens of Elmwood. His lumberyard is one of the finest in Cass county and he has the credit of furnishing his patrons with the best prices for the quality of building materials furnished. A. H. Dennison is another whole-souled citizen of Elmwood, who became a new reader of the Journal. Also Mr. J. H. Rogge, another dealer in lumber and building material, who has in every way, an up-to-date yard and is doing a splendid business. Talk about your beautiful little cities, but if Elmwood isn't the next best town in Cass county, we don't know in which direction you will go to find a more thrifty and up-to-date town. It boasts of many modern improvements, is beautifully located, fine business houses, with excellent stocks of goods, handsome residences, and we will bet contains as many beautiful ladies as any town for its size in Nebraska. From Elmwood the Journal scribe drove to where he arrived in time to spend a few hours among the enthusiastic supporters of the Journal before nightfall. H. V. McDonald, the popular druggist, was the first gentleman called upon. We were more than pleased to meet Mr. McDonald, and found him to be one of the most social and genial fellows we have ever met. He is now erecting a new residence, and when completed can justly boast of one of the finest homes in Murdock. While in this enterprising village, we also had the pleasure of meeting H. A. Austin and Charley Kupke, who became new applicants for Journal literature. We also met among other numerous patrons of the Journal who receive their mail at the Murdock postoffice, our old friend, C. P. Lau, who advanced his subscription to 1905; also Henry Kupke and H. V. McDonald advanced money on subscription. The business interests of Murdock generally seem to be prospering, and it gives us great pleasure to note this fact. The Journal in the future will always possess a warm feeling for Murdock and surrounding country. We believe in reciprocity in the fullest meaning of the word, and as the Journal's list now numbers almost a half a hundred patrons at that postoffice, we cannot but feel very grateful to Mr. H. V. McDonald and other true friends who have interested themselves in extending the circulation of the only democratic paper in Cass county.

ELMWOOD,

There are several other points that will soon receive a visit from a Journal scribe, and we trust our friends in the places he contemplates visiting, will give him a cordial greeting and aid him in extending the circulation of the Journal in those localities.

DOINGS IN DISTRICT COURT

Decision in Kupke Case Reserved Until Monday—Holmes Found Guilty.

The celebrated Kupke case was finished up last Saturday night, Judge Jensen withholding his final decision on the case until next Monday. The case attracted considerable attention throughout, and when it was known that Matthew Gering, employed by the plaintiff, was to speak Saturday night, a large audience was present to hear the "little giant," and all were of but one opinion—that it was a most masterly effort in behalf of his clients. While no one, perhaps, knows how the judge will decide, it is almost the universal opinion of those who have closely watched the proceedings in the case, and that is that they cannot possibly see how the judge can decide otherwise than in favor of the plaintiffs. One of our prominent merchants remarked soon after the close of the arguments in the case that "it would take him just five minutes to decide the matter." The evidence was clearly one-sided, and it seems some of the witnesses brought here by the defendants served as excellent witnesses for the other side.

Holmes, brought here by Detective Malone, charged with perjury, was found guilty, but up to the hour of going to press has not received sentence. Quite a large number of spectators were present during this trial, and considerable interest was manifested in the progress of the same.

In the divorce case of Mattie Hamilton against Chas. W. Hamilton, the court granted the plaintiff a decree as prayed for, together with alimony in the sum of $1,400 and the custody of the minor children.

A Safe Company.

The Plattsmouth Telephone Co., the past two weeks have sold $1,000 of stock. No better or safer investment can be found. The stock has all the stability of real estate mortgage, at a much better rate of interest. For the past five years it has paid annual dividends of 10 per cent besides investing a large per cent of the earnings in improving the plant. In less than thirty days connection will be made with 3000 phones in Lincoln which will result in the tolls being increased at least 300 per cent.

We want the largest possible number to own stock, as each stockholder is naturally a partisan friend and the more friends an enterprise has the more secure its success. In less than 60 days the entire authorized stock will be sold.

Wakeful Children.

For a long time the two year old child of Mr. P. L. McPherson, 59 N. Tenth St., Harrisburg, Pa., would sleep but two or three hours in the early part of the night, which made it very hard for her parents. Her mother concluded that the child had stomach trouble, and gave her half of one of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, which quieted her stomach and she slept the whole night through. Two boxes of these Tablets have effected a permanent cure and she is now well and strong. For sale by all druggists.

Turner's Festival.

The Turners are planning to have a grand festival at Cates' hall, April 5 and 6. There will be an exhibition in ward, dumb bells and club drills, apparatus turning, fencing bouts and basket ball games by the boys. Ladies' and young men's classes to illustrate the gymnastic work that is conducted by the Plattsmouth Turn-Verein at their gymnasium. A complete program will be prepared for each evening, and the people generally are invited to attend. Dancing each evening after the rendition of the program.

Homestead Lands

Can now be had in Garfield and Wheeler counties, Nebraska. Excursions will be conducted by O. Gunnarson, March 15, and April 5. Excursion will start from all points in Iowa and Nebraska. For rates over the Burlington, west or northwest, apply to your nearest ticket agent, or address O. Gunnarson, Aurora, Neb.

Better Come in and Get Fixed Up

MORGAN

The Leading Clothier Plattsmouth, Neb.

Peculiar Situation

Are you numbered among those who are compelled to go to bed while your pants are being fixed? Whether you are or not makes no difference with us, we are here to sell the man clothes who is in such a fix, or to sell the man who has clothes to burn and never can decide when he has enough.

Our stock never was more complete than for this Spring, and we are expecting a great business. Easter Sunday coming reasonably late, we figure most everybody will want to be seen in new "glad rags" on that day.

STARTS FOR JERUSALEM.

James Stander Takes His Departure for the Old World.

James Stander started Thursday morning for a trip around the world. He goes as a delegate to the World's fourth Sunday School convention to be held at Jerusalem. He sails from New York harbor on March 8, on the specially chartered steamer which will carry the American delegates.

Mr. Stander has been planning for this trip for some months and at the conclusion of the work of the convention he will leave the other delegates and proceed to visit all the principal cities and places of interest in the old world. He expects to be absent about eight months.

A farewell reception was given Mr. Stander on Tuesday evening at the home of his brother, P. C. Stander, by the members of the M. E. Church. About thirty-five of his close friends were invited and the evening was spent very pleasantly. A two course luncheon was served, after which Mr. Stander told of the places of interest which he expected to visit.

Before departing all joined in singing "God Be With You 'Till We Meet Again," this was followed by a hearty hand shake and the unanimous expression of all that Mr. Stander might have a pleasant voyage and a safe return.

The Courier has arranged with Mr. Stander to furnish us with letters for publication descriptive of the countries he visits.—Louisville Courier.

Long Distance Rates.

At a meeting of a committee of the various independent telephone lines of Nebraska, at the office of the Plattsmouth Telephone Company in this city on Thursday last, the toll line committee, consisting of A. M. Munn, Nebraska City; G. D. Clark, Sary county; W. D. Christ, Fremont; J. C. Kilarney, Auburn; A. E. Ganatt, Falls City; T. H. Ewing, Lincoln; E. C. Hanson, Fairbury; J. M. Bell, York; J. E. Adamson, Broken Bow; T. E. Parmele and T. H. Pollock, Plattsmouth, the matter of rates for long-distance service was adopted and an expert electrician was engaged to install uniform toll line apparatus on all connecting lines in the state. The Plattsmouth Telephone company now has a large gang of men at work stringing No. 10 copper metallic circuit directly into Lincoln and will connect with the Lincoln independent company by April 1.

More Riots.

Disturbances of strikers are not nearly as grave as an individual disorder of the system. Overwork, loss of sleep, nervous tension will be followed by utter collapse, unless a reliable remedy is immediately employed. There's nothing so efficient to cure disorders of the Liver or Kidneys as Electric Bitters. It's a wonderful tonic, and effective nerve and the greatest all around medicine for run down systems. It dispels Nervousness, Rheumatism and Neuralgia and expels Malaria germs. Only 50c, and satisfaction guaranteed by F. G. Fricke & Co.

Gering & Co. have the quality, quantity and low prices in wall paper.

School Notes.

The enrollment to date is 1239; last year 1258.

The warm spring days are a temptation to play truant. Parents will greatly oblige teachers by keeping an eye on the boys.

Some excellent map work is being done by the pupils in the sixth and seventh grades.

The Caesar class are now prepared to bid for the county bridge work. They just finished Caesar's memorable bridge.

The Cicero class are enjoying the real oratory in the defense of Archias.

The high school inspector was with us last Friday. We are always glad to have the University authorities know what we are doing. If it be unsatisfactory none want to know it more than the teachers.

Five of our Senior girls wrote upon four or five of the most difficult subject for a county certificate at the last examination. We are proud to report that no one received a grade below eighty and their average is over ninety.

If any of the Seniors are seen acting queerly do not think them demerited. They are probably rehearsing some of Macbeth or lodging the ghost that will not down.

We want every seat in the church occupied for the Mendelssohn Concert. This is the best of the course and we hope to make such a showing that the course will become a permanent feature of our school work.

A Pleasant Affair.

A farewell party was tendered Noel R. Rawls at the home of Hon. K. B. Windham, on Saturday evening last by his young friends and associates. Some forty young ladies and gentlemen were present and the evening was most enjoyably spent until a late hour. Young Rawls leaves this week for Annapolis, Maryland, to enter a preparatory school previous to entering the navy. He is quite popular among his Plattsmouth associates, and he not only takes his departure with the best wishes of his young friends, but also of many older ones for his future good health and success.

A special invitation is extended to every lady in Cass county to call and examine our line of wall paper. Then you will say it is beyond comparison in price, quality and style. Gering & Co. are the largest dealers in wall in Cass county.

Coughs

"My wife had a deep-seated cough for three years. I purchased two bottles of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, large size, and it cured her completely."

J. H. Burge, Macon, Col.

Probably you know of cough medicines that relieve little coughs, all coughs, except deep ones! The medicine that has been curing the worst of deep coughs for sixty years is Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

Three sizes: 25c, 50c, $1. All druggists.

Consult your doctor. If he says take it, then do as he says. If he tells you not to take it, then don't take it. He knows. Leave it with him. We are willing.
