Most Complete Carpet House

—IN CASS COUNTY.

Gering & Co. have the quality, quantity and low prices in wall paper.

Hon. Wm. Deles Derner was down from Elmwood yesterday on legal business.

Already people are raking off their front yards, burning trash and getting ready for making garden.

A careful housewife is careful in the selection of wall paper for her home, but it is only a matter of taste to select your wall paper from the immense stock carried by Gering & Co.

Christ Christensen departed Saturday morning for Salida, Colo., to accept a position tendered him by the Denver & Rio Grande railroad. Mr. Christensen was among the number let out of the B. & M. shops here recently.

Mr. Steve Hultsh, the principal merchant of Wabash, called Tuesday and added his name to our increasing list of patrons. Mr. Hultsh is one of Cass county's reliable democrats and we are pleased to number him among the Journal's friends.

Harry McDonald and Perry Sanderson of Murdock, and J. C. Brown of Wabash, who were called here as witnesses on the Hines-Connally case, gave the Journal a brief call Monday. While here Mr. Sanders enrolled his name for the Journal. Mr. Brown renewed his allegiance, and Harry, who is already ahead of the hounds, simply came along to show them where we grind out rock-ribbed, straight-laced and bible-backed democracy.

J. H. Bachler of Fremont county, Iowa, was in the city Saturday, and gave the Journal a pleasant call. Mr. Bachler came over to see his sister, Mrs. L. Bates, who has been quite ill with inflammatory rheumatism. Mr. Bachler has a son, Lloyd H., who lives in Dewey county, Oklahoma, who writes to his father that he has 160 acres in wheat which promises to be one of the finest crops ever raised in the territory. He is well pleased with the country and writes very encouragingly of the future of Oklahoma. Mr. Bachler is a patron of the Journal, and likes to read the news from Plattsmouth, where he resided many years.

Dr. E. W. Cummins went to Lincoln yesterday on business.

The matrimonial market is not so brisk as it was a few weeks since.

If you are a judge of a good smoke, try the "Acorns" 5 cent cigar and you will smoke no other.

From present indications considerable overhauling and rebuilding will be done in Plattsmouth this season.

P. H. Meisinger dropped a dollar in the Journal's slot Tuesday while in the city, which pays in advance to April 1, 1905.

John Bauer, Henry Richards, E. F. Carnes and Stephen Dyger of Wabash, are here as witnesses in the Hines-Connally damage suit.

F. C. Gordon, Sr., came out several days ago from Pittsfield, Mass., to visit his son, F. C. Jr., and contemplates spending the summer here.

Preaching at Knosha church Sunday, April 3, at 3 p. m. Also at Murray, morning and evening same date. You are welcome.

S. W. JACKSON, Pastor.

Commissioner Banning was here this week in an official capacity, and let the light of his genial countenance beam in upon us. He returned home to Union last night.

Gather the roses of health for your cheeks.

While the parks are shining with dew. Get out in the morning early and bright. By taking Rocky Mountain Tea at night, Gering & Co.

C. E. Metzger, one of the young democrats of Eight Mile Grove precinct, was in the city Monday, and paid his respects to the Journal. Mr. Metzger belongs to a family of five boys, every one of whom votes the democratic ticket. He is a fine young man and we were pleased to meet him.

W. W. Pool, the Weeping Water real estate man, gave the Journal a pleasant call Tuesday, while in the city on business. We were pleased to meet and make Mr. Pool's acquaintance, and found him to be a most pleasant gentleman. While here Mr. Pool left a couple of dollars to balance our books in his favor. He likes the Journal in every way but its politics.

J. Beck and Jas. Woodward, of Elmwood, were county seat visitors yesterday.

La Book, Omaha's leading constumer. Ladies tailored gowns and shirt waist suits. 513, Karbach block.

After a brief visit with Mrs. J. M. Leyda and family in this city, Mrs. M. G. Keeper returned to her home in South Omaha yesterday.

County Superintendent Wortman went over to Mead Sunday, returning Tuesday with his wife, who has been visiting there for several weeks.

A special invitation is extended to every lady in Cass county to call and examine our line of wall paper. Then you will say it is beyond comparison in price, quality and style. Gering & Co. are the largest dealers in wall in Cass county.

J. H. Meisinger was a pleasant caller at Journal headquarters Tuesday. Besides renewing for his own paper, he also renewed the subscriptions of G. L. and J. J. Meisinger, who receive the Journal at the Cedar Creek postoffice. The Meisingers are all staunch friends of the Journal, and we highly appreciate their friendship.

M. Fanger's department store is being remodelled. Mr. Fanger is arranging to use the second story of the building, by connecting a stairway from the inside, and also adding extended plate glass windows in the front. When fully completed Mr. Fanger can justly boast of one of the finest store rooms in the city.

Don't Bathe.

It was reported some time ago that a notoriety seeking physician, recommended to the people to keep away from bathing, but his theory was repudiated by all with disgust. A clean mind in a clean body, is the motto of the American people. The surface of the body will be kept clean by bathing the inside organs, by using Triner's Elixir of Bitter Wine. It is the only reliable blood purifier and stomach tonic. Being composed of pure grape wine and selected herbs, it contains no narcotic, no depressant, no poison. It builds up the body, not stupify the organs, but giving them the necessary strength to perform their duties. The stomach will readily accept all food, the digestive organs will work in harmony to transform the healthy ingredients of the food to health, rich blood. Such blood is the essence of life. Never buy "blood purifiers" which upset your stomach. Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine will always go to the foundation of the evil. At drug stores. Jos. Triner, 750 South Ashland Ave., Chicago, Ill., Pilsen Station.

A Favorite Remedy For Babies.

Its pleasant taste and prompt cures have made Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a favorite with the mothers of small children. It quickly cures their coughs and colds and prevents any danger of pneumonia or other serious consequences. It not only cures cough, but when given as soon as the croupy cough appears will prevent the attack. For sale by all druggists.

The Anchor of Hope

When sickness or reverses overtake you is the money that you have laid by for the "rainy day." Pauperism never comes to the thrifty, or to the man or woman of foresight, for they have something put by in a safe institution that is drawing 31 per cent interest.
