

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, uric acid, catarrh of the bladder and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospitals and in private practice, and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all good druggists. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

The True Sentiment.

Speaking upon the tariff, Representative Williams, in his recent and widely read address, exhibited the sound and discriminative views which characterize the democratic attitude, saying that his party had no desire to demolish the tariff at a single blow, to explode it with dynamite, or to pull down its pillars and throw down the structure with a crash. It would require a considerable time to reconstruct a tariff on democratic principles. In his opinion, though, the party's final intent was clear. To democracy a tariff virtually represents a tax upon consumers. A democratic tariff, therefore, should as nearly as might be provide for equal taxation of consumers; for an equalized charge upon consumption, or the thing consumed.

Mr. Williams thus correctly interpreted democratic conservatism. Republican conservatism is a misnomer, unless the English language has suffered a distinct loss of meaning. The republican party stands pat on its federal scandals, on the trusts, on the tariff, and especially on its machine organization now in the flower of development. The republican party is loath to forego the more abundant fruitfulness which eight years' perfection of a machine holds forth. It is obliged to seek vindication upon its past record, its past policies; it is rigidly held by circumstance to the defense of its career, its purposes, its attainments. Change of attitude is utterly denied it. Its forced position from which the times admit of no escape is expressed in the unfortunate phrase "stand pat"; signifying extreme negation; excluding the idea of determination to act, to improve, to move at all; denying intention and suggesting impotence of will. "Stand pat" is the position of a dire extreme, a party forced against a wall. Can there be conservatism in such an ultra attitude?

The country is thoroughly tired of "stand pat" which denies not only the possibility of remedy but the existence of essential wrongs. Democracy will move along a middle course, carefully guarding against unnecessary damage, seeking gradually to effect desirable changes.

Worthy of Emulation.

The spectacle, of Charles Francis, a Harvard graduate, and son of David R. Francis, the president of the World's Fair company, working daily at the World's Fair grounds, handling freight at $45 a month, ought to be an inspiration to every youth of the country, to labor. We certainly hope that some of Plattsmouth's unpromising loafers might emulate this example of industry. The lesson taught, is that labor is honorable, and that only in honest labor can happiness and comfort be found. Young Francis proposes to keep it up for a year at least. The value to him, in experience and health as a treasury to draw from in the future, will be incalculable.

At the last regular meeting of Sedgewick post, of Kearney, the following resolution was unanimously adopted: Resolved, That E. Benjamin Andrews is an unsafe man to preside over the university of the state of Nebraska and should not only be asked to resign, but should be fired bodily and driven from the state; that he has challenged the content of every liberty-loving, loyal citizen of the state, and especially old soldiers, who sincerely cling to the memory of our martyred president, Abraham Lincoln; and further, that we commend the World-Herald, of the city of Omaha, for the stand it has taken in opposition to the proposition of erecting a Rockefeller monument on the university ground and will support the said paper by every means in our power.

The Turners' Festival.

The various classes of the Plattsmouth Turnverein are very busy practicing for their festival Tuesday and Wednesday, April 5 and 6. The program will be out next week, and an invitation is extended to all parties interested in physical exercises, to see the work that is done by the classes of Turnverein. The idea of the committee is to make these evenings entertaining as well as instructive to the public in behalf of physical culture. Dancing will be the concluding feature each evening, and refreshments will be served in the dining room by the ladies. Admission 25 cents.

Ten New Commandments.

- I. Thou shalt not go away from home to do thy trading, nor thy son, nor thy daughter.
- II. Thou shalt do whatever lieth in thy power to encourage and promote the welfare of thine own town and own people.
- III. Thou shalt spend thy earnings at home, that they may return whence they came and give nourishment to such as may come after thee.
- IV. Thou shalt patronize thy home merchant and thy printer, for ye, verily doth not thy home printer spread all over the land tidings of thy goodness and greatness that the people shall patronize thee.
- V. Thou shalt not ask a printer to take less than his price.
- VI. Thou shalt not ask for credit as goods cost money, and the merchant's mind is overburdened with bills. His children clamor daily for bread, and his wife abideth at home for lack of such raiment as adorneth her sister. Blessed, ye thrice blessed is the man that pays cash.
- VII. Thou shalt not suffer the voice of price to overcome thee and if other towns entice thee, consent thou not, for thou may be deceived. Remember the fate of the calf that left its mother and followed a stray away from home and lost its supper.
- VIII. Thou shalt not ask for reduced prices for thine "Influence" for guile is in thy heart and the merchant readeth it like an open book. He laugheth thee to scorn and shouteth to his clerk, "ha ha!"
- IX. Thou shalt not ask thy printer to take two dollars for a three dollar job because some other printer will do it for less money. The other printer may use cheap stock and may underpay his help. If thou trade with such as he, thou art accessory to his crime.
- X. Thou shalt not bear witness against thy town wherein thou dwelleth, but speak well of it to all men, that thy home town and thy people may be proud of thee.

As to City Affairs.

The day is rapidly drawing near when the voters of Plattsmouth will be called upon to elect a mayor, clerk, treasurer and one councilman from each of five wards. That it is important for every citizen to be interested in the outcome of this election, goes without saying. Every citizen of the city is more or less interested in having a clean, conservative and business-like administration of the affairs of the city. It is important first that the interests of the taxpayers be carefully guarded, that franchises, when granted, should be given on terms equitable both to the holder and to the city, that the treasury of the city be carefully and zealously guarded, and that expenditures be judiciously made and economically practiced. All this is necessary as well as to see that the city is kept within the bounds of its resources. We have good material to select from, and it is important that every qualified voter should exercise his right as an American citizen by voting for no man who is not in favor of "Equal rights to all—special privileges to none," in administering to the welfare of the city of Plattsmouth.

A Favorite Remedy For Babies.

Its pleasant taste and prompt cures have made Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a favorite with the mothers of small children. It quickly cures their coughs and colds and prevents any danger of pneumonia or other serious consequences. It not only cures croup, but when given as soon as the croupy cough appears will prevent the attack. For sale by all druggists.
