

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control its passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a Home of Swamp-Root pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

J. H. Brown, of near Murray, enrolls his name this week for the Journal.

W. A. Snyder departed Tuesday for a business trip to Central City, Neb.

Will Ramsey came down from the university to spend Easter with home folks.

Jas. Chalfant and wife of near Rock Bluffs, were Plattsmouth visitors Friday.

Miss Jesse Barton, attending the State university, was home to spend Easter.

Miss Inez Reese returned Friday evening from her visit to North Platte Nebraska.

W. H. Frees called Saturday and left a dollar for one year's reading of the Journal.

Mrs. B. Seidlitz and son, Otto, left Saturday for a few days' visit with friends in Tobias, Neb.

John Ganer of Cedar Creek was in the city Saturday, and while here called and renewed for the Journal another year.

Andy Snyder and Herman Holschuh departed Tuesday in company with Barney Miller and Tom Troop, for Canada, to view the country.

J. R. P. Carper and Carl Taylor of Union, were county seat visitors Saturday. While here Mr. Carper favored the Journal with a brief but pleasant call.

H. R. Neitzel, the Murdock banker, and family spent Easter Sunday with Mrs. Neitzel's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Guthman and family.

Every farmer who came in Saturday had a lot of eggs, proof conclusive that the hen is again working. Hundreds of cases of eggs will be received daily from now on.

Dr. Oscar Meyer of Watertown, Wisconsin, arrived in the city last Friday for a few days' visit with his cousins, Mrs. James Donnelly and Miss Julia Herrman.

Miss Clara Walker, who spent a few days at home, returned to Oakdale Saturday where she occupies the position of assistant principal in the high school at that place.

The Plattsmouth quartet was given a most royal greeting at Union Friday night, and the members feel highly pleased with the manner in which they were received.

John H. Becker has purchased the Davis property on the northeast corner of Pearl and Tenth streets. Consideration $2,500. The property is now occupied by Prof. Rouse and family.

The farm machinery that was left standing in the field where it was last used, will soon have to be taken to the repair shop and put in order for use the coming summer. Weather spoils more machinery in this country than use.

R. D. Jones of Custer county, Neb., spent a few days here the past week visiting the family of his uncle, W. D. Jones. He was returning home from Tennessee, where he spent the winter with his son. He is a former resident of Cass county, and will no doubt be remembered by the early settlers.

William Jones, the youthful Cass county horse thief, was last Friday sentenced to one year in the penitentiary by Judge Holmes of Lincoln. The young man pleaded guilty to the charge of stealing a horse near Havelock. A representative of the prison association was present and made a strong plea to the court for leniency in behalf of the prisoner.

Our merchants are receiving their spring shipments and the orders are all very large. There isn't a store in town that has shelf room for the goods, and counters and floors are utilized for storage places. The merchants of Plattsmouth are looking for an unprecedented business this year and have stocked up accordingly. In former years you have been able to find what you wanted here and we believe you can be better suited this year than ever.

J. Cleve Scott and wife, formerly Miss Louise Smith, departed Monday for their future home in Central City, Nebraska.

L. J. Pepperberg came down from the state university to spend Easter with his parents.

J. T. Porter, one of the Journal's substantial patrons, living near Murray, was in the city Saturday, and favored us with a brief call.

An infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Claus died Thursday, March 31, 1904. The funeral occurred Saturday afternoon from the family residence, Rev. Baird conducting the services.

Wm. A. Brooks and Miss Dora Nutsman were married in this city last Thursday, March 24, 1904. Judge M. Archer saying the words that linked two happy hearts. The couple reside at Emerson, Iowa.

Monday afternoon, County Judge M. C. Joyce united in marriage at the court house George W. Burley and Miss Nora C. Stanton, both of Cass county. They will make their home in this city.—Nebraska City Tribune.

Omaha ministers, in order to prevent flagrant abuse of the marriage ceremony in that city, have signed an agreement providing that strangers presenting themselves to a minister must be satisfactorily identified, and must give evidence of moral fitness, and that a divorced person, upon whom the guilt of divorce rests, will be refused the ceremony of a marriage.
