

WOMEN BREAK DOWN.

Sometimes women drift into a condition of "half invalid." Continuous languor, all tired out, run down, backache, nerves shattered, headache, terrible, poor digestion, in nine cases out of ten it's because the kidneys fail to do their work of filtering the poisonous system waste from the blood. The kidneys are weak and need the strengthening help of Doan's Kidney Pills. Read how these pills repair a weakened physical condition when this condition is caused by sick kidneys:

Mrs. Sadie Mettles of 394 W. 4th Ave., Columbus, Ohio, says: "Prior to the year 1898 I suffered considerably from backache, pain in the head, languor and depression and weakness of the action of the kidneys. The pain was always worse in the morning, and I felt miserable. I was induced to procure a box of Doan's Kidney Pills and I began their use. They proved prompt and effective. They cured me and there has been no return of the trouble since taking them. I owe all the credit to Doan's Kidney Pills."

A FREE TRIAL of this great kidney medicine which cured Mrs. Mettles will be mailed on application to any part of the United States. Address: Foster-McMillan Co., Buffalo, N. Y. For sale by all druggists, price 50 cents per box.

A pompous person applied to the editor of the Benner for a job as editorial writer. "What are your qualifications?" asked the editor. "I know all the literary men of England," replied the applicant. "H'm, h'm," said Bennett. "You must know Dickens, then?" "I was a reporter with Dickens," and Thackeray?" "I helped Thackeray with his 'Book of Snobs,'" and Tennyson?" "I have broken many a pipe with Tennyson." "And George Eliot?" "I roomed with him."

Absence is a tonic for love only when men and women love with all their heart and soul. When they do not, the ancient proverb is still true: "Far from the eyes, far from the heart."

"Sardou represents a distinct type of the drama which he originated," said a pupil in Brandt Matthews' dramatic literature class at Columbia university. "What description of that type do you offer?" asked Professor Matthews. "Theatrical plays closely packed with interest mark the Sardine drama," replied the young man, promptly and earnestly. "Young man," laughed the professor, "with an opener you may yet evolve the great American play."

At an "at home" a young man came in and made his way to the hostess, greeting her and apologizing for his lateness. "Awfully glad to see you, Mr. Blank," said the hostess; "so good of you to come. But where is your brother?" "I am commissioned to tender his regrets. You see, we are so busy just now that it is impossible for both of us to get away, so we tossed up to see which of us should come." "How nice! Such an original idea. And you won't?" "No," said the young man, absently. "I lost."

Kites as Scapegoats.

Everybody knows the fondness of the adult Chinese for kite flying. The Korean, however, puts this pastime to a use altogether novel. When the time of good resolutions comes around at the new year the Korean writes on a kite all his faults, "Evil disposition, impatience, bad words, street fights," etc. "It was so dark," says one American residing in Korea, relating such an instance, that no kite could be seen, but when he had run the string out to its full length he cut it and let it go, imagining that he had rid himself of his enemies and could begin the new year with new courage."

A California senator, who recently returned to his home from a European tour, has been telling a story of his adventures which rounds out the credit of the London bus conductor. On a very rainy day, the senator got into an omnibus. Very soon he noticed that drops of water were pattering down upon his head from the roof. At that moment the conductor entered to collect the fares. "What's the matter with the roof?" said the senator; "does it do this always?" "No, sir," replied the sensible conductor; "only when it rains."

Prophet Joseph Smith, of the Mormon church, says that for a man to live with but one wife, is as bad as to be an infidel, as polygamy was commanded by God direct. If a man has a wife, and she objects direct to a second, or a third, she will be destroyed. Now will the woman be good?

Death is one thing that never fails to come to the man who waits.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local application, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running ear or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by "catarrh," which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. It will give you $100.00 for any case of deafness caused by catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. Sold by Druggists. J. C. HENRY & CO., Toledo, O. To the housewife who has not yet become acquainted with the new things of everyday use in the market and who is reasonably satisfied with the old, we would suggest that a trial of Defiance Cold Water Starch be made at once. Not alone because it is guaranteed by the manufacturers to be superior to any other brand, but because each 10c package contains 15 ozs., while all the other kinds contain but 12 ozs. It is safe to say that the lady who once uses Defiance Starch will use no other. Quality and quantity must win.

NEBRASKA STATE NEWS

LOOK TO GOOD INSURANCE.

Complaints Pouring in from Nebraska Policy Holders.

LINCOLN—Complaints from Nebraska policy holders have been pouring into the office of Deputy Auditor Pierce at a lively rate during the last few days and as a result he has declared war on wildcat concerns. These are companies not authorized to do business in the state. They solicit policies by mail and their tempting offers have led many farmers to "bite."

Mr. Pierce has notified the public in a statement that the Mercantile Fire Insurance company of Chicago, which has been flooding the state with circulars, is not authorized to do business in Nebraska. The American Underwriters of Chicago is in the same shape; also R. A. Potter & Co. of Chicago, and the Union Fire of Chicago. None of these companies are authorized to solicit in Nebraska or Illinois. The following other companies are not authorized to do business in this state: Security Fire of Chicago and the Firemen's Fire of Chicago.

Policies in "wildcat" companies are void in Nebraska, but a policy in an unauthorized insurance company, which has complied with the provisions of the insurance brokerage section of the laws, may be recovered on. None of the companies named have complied with either the insurance or brokerage sections of the law, consequently their policies are void under the statute, which reads as follows:

"All fire insurance policies issued to residents of this state or upon property situated in whole or in part in this state by companies, corporations, associations, partnerships or persons who have not complied with the laws of the state, unless procured under and by the provisions of this act, are hereby declared void."

WIFE DESERTER SENTENCED.

Hunter Gets Six Months in the Penitentiary.

NEBRASKA CITY—John L. Hunter, who was arrested and brought back here from Carbon, Ia., charged with wife desertion, was taken before Judge Jensen and pleaded guilty. He could not give bond for the support of his wife and children, so he was sentenced to the penitentiary for six months. This is the first conviction in this county for this crime, although it is the second case that has been in the courts here.

The county assessor has returned nearly all of the schedules to his deputies in the country precincts to be corrected and the value of live stock raised.

Promised to Be Good.

DAKOTA CITY—Upon promise to the court that he would provide for his wife and family and be a good and true husband, the case against William Salisbury in Judge Elmers' court was continued for thirty days and Salisbury was released from custody on his own recognizance in the sum of $200. Salisbury was arrested and placed in jail on complaint of his wife that he had failed to maintain and support herself and their children and that he had wilfully abandoned them.

Sustained the Demurrer.

LINCOLN—The district court has sustained the demurrers of the state in the Boyd county land cases. The attorneys for the settlers immediately asked leave to file amended petitions, and this was granted. Attorney General Pratt has returned from Boyd county. The cases now go over to the next session.
