

The Plattsmouth Journal

R. A. BATES, PUBLISHER.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY AT PLATTSMOUTH, NEBRASKA.

Entered at the postoffice at Plattsmouth, Nebraska, as second-class matter.

SENATOR SMOOT should not overlook his opportunity. He can make a fortune selling his photographs in St. Louis this summer.

DEMOCRATIC newspapers and leading men in the party should put in more time attacking republicans instead of members of their own party.

AN Ohio couple took an oath that they'd never be divorced. Newly married couples always feel that way, but they usually wake up at the end of a month.

MR. Toegarden and his deputies sticking closely to the text of "equal assessments to all—special favors to none?" The people will know by and by.

THE Dun commercial agency reports 241 business failures last week against 166 the year before. This unfortunate hitch in the prosperity campaign will not be called attention to by republican spellbinders.

IT would appear, from all accounts, that the Plattsmouth Republican Ring has agreed upon I. F. Dale, of Greenwood, for one of its candidates for representative. At least one would judge so from the ring's mouth-piece—the Evening News.

THE republican idea of reciprocity is to grab all you can and keep all you get. The clawless cat in Tophet would have a better chance than this pet of Blaine and McKinley in a congress whose policy is "stand pat."

MAYOR GERING insists that he has remitted no fines, the court record notwithstanding.—News.

Well, Mayor Gering's word goes for more than that of the editor of the News—that should settle it.

IN a speech on the tariff last week in the senate, Senator Bacon proved that our sewing machines, sold for $15 in England cost $25 in this country, and American steel rails could be bought $5 a ton cheaper in England than in Pennsylvania or Alabama.

WONDER if there is a mad-stone in this vicinity. Some of Farley's friends fear he is somewhat afflicted with the "rabbits," and they are on the look-out for a mad-stone, the usual remedy for such hydrophobic creatures.

IT is a fact that Dietrich is lending what little influence he has for Blawhard Burkett to succeed him in the senate. Dietrich's idea is to be succeeded by a man with less ability than himself, and he gets him in the person of the brainless fool who mis-represents the first congressional district.

THE greatest exhibit that Nebraska could make at the St. Louis Fair would be to link together Midget Mickey, Bribe-taker Dietrich and Blawhard Burkett—three of the greatest nincompoops on earth. To charge an admission fee of ten cents, the republican party would derive quite a campaign fund. However, the exhibit wouldn't reflect much credit to the state abroad.

IF Dietrich is exonerated from the charge of bribery, and the republican party feel that he has, what is the matter with his re-election? Most certainly a senator of Blawhard Burkett's calibre wouldn't improve the state's representation in the U. S. senate. But perhaps as a sly schemer is more of success, and then railroads can use him to a better advantage.

THE total capital of industrial trusts is $7,246,342,533. Those organized since January 1, 1898, represent the enormous sum of $6,506,013,500. That is to say, more than nine-tenths of existing trusts have been organized since the republican party returned to power in 1897. They have sprung up and flourished under a republican administration to an extent beyond anything previously known, and the farmer continues to pay the freight.

IN the three years of republican "redemption" the state debt has been increased $535,729,49, and all because the "redeemers" are spending the people's money with a lavish hand. Here are the plain facts:

STATE DEBT.
Populists reduction in 1 year, $677,090.10
Republican increase in 3 years, $535,729.49
APPROPRIATIONS.
Populists in 1897, $2,375,543.40
Republicans in 1900, $2,910,282.20
Republican increase, $534,738.80
Is it any wonder your taxes are so much heavier? Study the figures and understand the reason why. Increased state taxes are absolutely necessary to pay for the luxury of republican redemption.

IN the last issue of the Weeping Water Herald Bro. Olive copies the article of the News in reference to the findings of Judge Jensen in the Polk-Kupke case, and heads it "Gives Polk a Clear Bill." Now will the editor of the Herald be so kind as to copy the sections of the findings in last week's issue of the Journal? They show a different face on the matter—that is among those who understand the modus operandi of letting a fellow down easy. The News was never known to give a fair statement in anything it publishes, and only publishes that of a political nature that suits the ring, of which the editor is one of the members. The decision is only a smooth attempt of "whitewashing" and we believe that is what the principal lawyers of Plattsmouth call it.

"The Hand Writing on the Wall"

A Washington special, under date of April 30, says: "Representative John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi, the democratic leader of the house, in an authorized statement today, says he believes that the nomination of Judge Parker at St. Louis is assured.

"It seems clear to me now," said Mr. Williams, "that Judge Parker will be nominated by such an overwhelming vote that there will be substantially no opposition when the time for the convention arrives. Individually, I favor his selection."

"Mr. William, when questioned concerning the report that he will be a candidate for the presidential nomination, said: 'I think you know me well enough to know that I have never been idiot enough to take this talk seriously. There has been some talk of the nomination of a southern man. I do not think such a course would be wise just now. That time will come and it will not be very far distant, as history counts time. When it does come the south will be able to find 10,000 men abler and 100,000 better men than I am.'"

THE News editor is so given to lying that he will resort to a "little white lie" when the truth would suit better.

MAYOR GERING will do his duty in respect of the Polk-Farley enteric. It is better to have the ill will of some people than it is the good will, and we would guess that Mayor Gering will carry out his administration on this line.

MISS SUSAN B. ANTHONY at 84, as chipper as a blackbird and merry as a cricket, says, "I may not be here when the campaign opens, but if anywhere, I shall be somewhere." This is lucid, diplomatic, a little mysterious and delightfully non-committal. She would make an excellent secretary of state if anything should happen to John Hay.

OUR republican friends insist that the scandals of this administration should have no part in next fall's campaign, and that the grafting, boot-snatching arraignments, indictments and convictions which have filled even conservative newspapers to overflowing, are "ordinary incidents." Why not see what the people think about it?

THE republic of Panama did not receive that $10,000,000 about April 1st as the Associated Press announced that it would. There are still complications, law-suits, appeals, obstacles, hitches, snarls, and other impediments. And now Colombia actually stands boldly up, declares that she has been plundered, and is ready for war.

BOULKE COCHRAN made a tremendous sensation in congress recently by his brilliant and eloquent speech against Teddy's usurpation of legislative functions. The accidental president will probably hereafter rank him with Senator Carmack, whom he notified that "he would see him in h-l before he would grant him any favors."

THE proposition to suspend a state from the Union on account of its religion is about as rank as anything ever heard of. But it can be done. If Congress refuses to make a martyr of Senator Smoot because President Smith has six wives, President Roosevelt can get in his patent by simply issuing an executive order that Utah is no longer one of the United States.

CONGRESSMAN BAKER, of New York, has a keen sense of justice. He has made five efforts to hitch on to the appropriation bills a provision to reimburse the railroads of the country for the amount they have expended in dead-heading Roosevelt and his suite. The railroads do not seem to appreciate Mr. Baker's liberality. In fact, they seem to resent it. They probably think that a frequent railroad train is a proper requisite of the executive office.

RECENT speeches in congress, directed definitely and with mature consideration at the issues of the coming campaign, disclose no sign of conflict. The intellectual party spokesmen in both houses, representing all sections of the country, have given precedence in the deliberate arguments to the same issues of government. They have addressed themselves to the same faults of republican legislation and administration. In the situation of parties there is not a timely or pressing issue upon which the democracy is divided. There is every reason—except the reason of individual selfishness—for a consolidation of all the elements which naturally range themselves under the banner of democracy.

OUR genial and able district judge, Paul Jensen, may have some future political ambition that induced him to show so much leniency towards the instigator of the fraudulent transaction with the Kupke heirs, but the result of the last two elections in Plattsmouth city and Cass county ought to indicate to a blind man that any attempt to palliate the cunning trick by which this smooth attorney turned these Kentucky people, is almost suicidal to him who attempts it. Spurgeon says: "Leniency to the bad is unkindness to the good." The political influence of the Polks in this county is a thing of the past. It is said that Sig. and Mitt made quite a team in their day when they worked in unison to gain the same end. Sig. was a high dignitary in the church and the other a frequenter of saloons, thus focusing two elements of society in aid of one cause. For a time "they got there with both feet," but political aspirants will now do well to avoid such influence or meet certain defeat.

Now is the time to clean house—clean your system first, drive out the microbes of winter with Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. It will keep you well all summer. 35 cents. Tea or tablets. Gering & Co.

The Right Spirit.

In sending out advertising to the various newspapers of Cass county, the Street Fair and Carnival next week, the Union Ledger was the first on the list. In reply to our request to publish and send bill to this office the following reply was received:

R. A. BATES, Esq., Plattsmouth, Neb.—Dear Sir: Yours of the 23rd inst. received, in which you request the Ledger to do some advertising for your Street Fair to be held next week. You also request me to "send in bill for same."

I will cheerfully comply with your first request by advertisement to appear in the Ledger this week, but your request to "send bill" will have to be ignored, for the reason that it has been paid many times in the past. I remember how liberal the newspapers of the county have always been in advertising our "Old Settlers' Re-union" here each year, and this Street Fair, only affords the Ledger an opportunity to repay in part the generosity of Plattsmouth newspapers and citizens, who have always been loyal supporters of "Union's Re-unions."

Yours very truly, CHARLES L. GRAVES.
