

The Plattsmouth Journal

R. A. BATES, PUBLISHER.

Entered at the postoffice at Plattsmouth, Nebraska, as second-class matter.

The Journal's New Press.

The next issue of this paper will be printed on a new Babcock-Relliance press—one of the latest in modern improvements. The paper will also be changed to six-columns to the page and eight pages all printed at home. A new three-horse power Cushman engine has also been added to furnish the power. We simply make this announcement for the fact that it will take several days to remove the old Campbell, upon which the Journal has been printed for so many years, and replace it with the new one. Therefore, if our patrons should receive their paper one day late next week they will understand the reason why.

Two years ago when the present management became possessors of the Journal outfit it was with the full intention of improving the paper and office as time and circumstances would permit. We have followed our original plan up to the present; and when the new press and engine are placed in running order, we think we have fully accomplished our object, of boasting of one of the most complete newspaper and job offices in Nebraska, outside of the larger cities.

We feel very grateful to our friends for the very liberal patronage extended in the past, and hope they will not only continue to do as well in the future, but do all in their power to assist us in increasing the same. We now have a subscription list of nearly twelve hundred, and with a little effort on the part of our friends throughout Cass county, we should at least increase this number to 1800 or 2000 by January 1, 1905.

TEDDY'S idea of non-partisanship seems to be to permit a democrat to hold office if the law absolutely requires it.

JUDGE PARKER doesn't say much, but he is sure, and he continues to saw wood just the same. It seems to be a case of tactfulness against volubility.

To the patriots making the nation's law beneath the capitol's dome, "There's not a cent left," said Secretary Shaw, so they all lit out for home.

ALL over the country there is a protest against the management of the public schools. Spelling, geography, history and all elementary studies seem to be neglected, and pretence takes the place of real acquirement.

If the reader will listen attentively he will shortly hear reverberations of the campaign—republican statesmen going about the country telling the people that this has been an economical congress because it spent $800,000,000!

THE rush to get a seat in the Folk bandwagon over in Missouri has become so cyclonic that the endgame has been torn from its hinges. Of the eleven counties which held primaries last Saturday, Folk carried ten and Reed one.

PERHAPS Teddy does not feel so "Crum"y as he did before the adjournment of congress. Maybe he got so used to crumbs while a cowboy that his failure to get his nigger friend's appointment confirmed restored that old crumby feeling.

SECRETARY SHAW in his latest speech said "The Spanish war placed the Pacific Ocean logically where she has always been naturally." The Pacific Ocean must feel quite out of place such a remark, and perhaps it will hereafter learn to know its place.

In the republican state convention of Texas, the Rev. Daniel Abner prayed as follows: "Grant one favor, O Lord, and we will be satisfied. O Lord, we ask of Thee that you don't let your party be defeated this year!" This is the first intimation we have had of celestial politics.

JOSEPH W. FOLK, the terror of bootleggers in Missouri, is in some danger of being sprung upon the democratic convention as a candidate for president. He says he won't have it, but that only adds to his attractiveness. Several men have said that, too, who were thereafter obliged to run and be elected.

BEFORE congress took snap adjournment for campaign purpose it had spent $781,000,000 plus $24,000,000 of obligations incurred and to this must be added the Panama investment, $50,000,000 more. Ten years ago "a billion-dollar congress" started and alarmed the country, but now we have a billion-dollar session.

WAS Burkett ever known to introduce a bill of importance in congress? We would like to have some of our republican exchanges tell us just what the great wind-bag has done for the district outside of Lincoln and Lancaster county? The people would like to see his record in print. Give it to us, some of you Burkett enthusiasts.

DIETRICH was cleared, exonerated, whitewashed and released by the senate committee; now, while the republican party are blowing so furiously about it, we would like to ask why he is to be shoved aside for Burkett? If he is innocent of the charges preferred against him, his re-election to the senate would show that his party friends believed him so.

Henry R. Gering for Congress.

As will be seen by a perusal of the proceedings elsewhere in this issue of the Journal, the Louisville convention last Thursday unanimously endorsed Mayor Gering of this city for congress. No one person on earth is better pleased with this action of the convention than the editor of this paper.

Being associated with him to quite an extent in conducting the campaign last fall, we had an excellent opportunity to judge of his qualities both as an organizer and his splendid abilities. To him the democrats of Cass county owe a great deal more than the simple endorsement for the position now occupied by Blomhard Burkett, who from present appearances wants to be elected to congress and the United States Senate both at the same time. They should begin the work of securing his nomination right now, and each one make a special effort to this end.

Henry R. Gering contains all the essentials necessary to make a most creditable representative in congress, and as to ability, he is far superior to the man who failed to pass a third-grade teacher's examination over in Mills county, Iowa, as Blomhard is superior to the lowest grade teacher in Cass county, with all his experience in congress included.

Mr. Gering is a loyal democrat—in fact, his democracy is iron-clad—and with a united effort of his party friends in Cass county he can be nominated, and when once nominated, he will make the greatest Blomhard that ever graced the halls of congress—"hunt his hole" at every opportunity.

We are entering upon a campaign in which the republican party is called upon to explain a great many of their acts in state and nation, and the great wind-pag apologist will come in for his share of explaining to the people.

If Henry R. Gering is nominated, and we are almost positive he will be, he will give Burkett the liveliest race ever experienced. And if elected, he will treat every section of the district alike, and not work altogether in the interests of his home city and county, to the detriment of other localities, as Burkett has done.

Whoop'er up for Gering, boys!

SECRETARY TAFT is going about the country telling the people that on no account should the Filipinos be encouraged to expect independence. He says we must cease talking about it. He announces that the doctrine of self-government is "an impossible dogma," and a "rhetorical phrase," and the less said about it the better. The English have always talked the same way about Ireland.

WHAT has Burkett done to merit his candidacy for two offices at the same time? If he is really a candidate for the senate, and his friends are not "joshing" him, why don't he get out of the way for some able republican for congress? Perhaps he don't care to take any chances on an uncertainty. And, then, maybe, the railroads want some one else. They already have him safely within their grasp to do their bidding.

Was She to Blame?

As seen by half a million ladies and gentlemen in the last three years and voted by them the queen of dramatic productions. Its simplicity and purity gives a picture of every day life holding the auditor in rapture and admiration. Not a fulsome or spectacular show, nor a tale of falsehood and fiction, but a true picture taken from the beauties of nature. At the Park Theatre, Thursday, May 19.

Thieves Captured.

Sheriff McBride received a telegram this morning from the Sheriff of Dodge county stating that from the description received, he was positive he had captured the thieves who broke into Tool's hardware store at Murdock Monday night. Mr. Tool went to Fremont to-day to identify the persons "held in to" by the sheriff in Fremont.

Closing Out Regardless of Cost.

The "Hub" clothier is certainly offering some wonderful bargains this week in clothing, gents' furnishings, hats, caps, boots and shoes. The entire stock is offered in one grand closing out sale, with a view of going out of business. The lines of goods found in the "Hub" clothier is not like one usually found in a closing-out sale. No cheap, shoddy, sweat-shop goods will be found in this store. Every department is filled with bright, new and up-to-date wearables, and at the prices they are being offered this week they are certainly bargains. Bear in mind these prices are bound to move the goods, and if you need anything in the above lines you had better come early.

Don't allow money to lie around. It is easier to spend it and easier to lose it.

SAVE MONEY

The Bank of Cass County

You can give a check for any part of it at any time and so have a receipt for payment without asking for one. When you have a bank account you will be anxious to add to it rather than spend from it. Don't you want to know more about it.

STREET FAIR AND CARNIVAL

The Day Attendance Small, But the Streets Thronged in the Evening.

The Cosmopolitan Carnival company are with us this week. They came in over the Missouri Pacific Sunday evening, and early Monday morning began arrangements for the weeks entertainment. This occupied nearly all day, and but little was done in the way of entertaining the people. The weather for the first three days was all that possibly could be desired. Old Sol continuing to shed his pleasing rays in such a manner as to please all. In fact his pleasing countenance was so satisfactory to the farmers that very few ceased planting to come to town to view the sights. Main street merchants, along which thoroughfare was placed the principal shows and free exhibitions, was decorated with flags, and in the evening was illuminated with electric lights. The attendance in the day time has been small, but at night the crowds have been quite large, many coming in from the territory adjacent and adjoining towns.

The company furnishing the attractions is a good one, and are giving the people all that they have advertised, and more, too. The high diver, for instance, which is one of the most dangerous and difficult feats produced by any similar company. Loop the Loop, the high diving dog, and several other free exhibitions are attractions well worth coming miles to see. Up to last night nothing has occurred to make any arrests necessary.

The Cosmopolitan company is free from fakes, and so far have conducted themselves as perfect ladies and gentlemen, and their shows have been free from anything immoral, or that which would cause to blush the most pious saint.

If the weather continues favorable tomorrow, and Saturday, will perhaps be the largest in attendance, as many farmers will finish corn planting today and tomorrow.

SENATOR LODGE defiantly said just before congress adjourned: "We will not revise the tariff now; we will not investigate the postoffice department now; we are going straight ahead and when we get ready we will do whatever we see fit to do about these things." In other words: "We will do whatever we please and when we please, and thus we serve notice upon the people of the United States." This seems to be the accent of the boss.

No working man should ever again come to government by injunction after reading the following from Teddy's "American Ideals" (vol. II, p. 18): "Men who object to what they style 'government by injunction' are, as regards the essential principles of government, in hearty sympathy with their remote, skin-clad ancestors, who lived in caves, fought one another with stone-headed axes, and ate the mammoth and woolly rhinoceros."

THE democrats of Cass county have come out in favor of Henry Gering as the democratic nominee for congress. Henry is a rustler, and will poll a large vote.—Nabaska City News.
