William Neuman, one of the prosperous German farmers of the vicinity of Wabash, was in the city Tuesday and while here called on the Journal and renewed for another year. Final naturalization papers were issued to the following parties by the district court last Thursday: Andros Johnson, South Bend; Frederick Heebner, Nehawka, and William M. Simonson, of Alvo. Schieffert and wife of near Murdock, were in the city Tuesday, and during their stay Mr. Schieffert called and renewed his allegiance to the Journal. He is a most excellent gentleman and we are always pleased to meet him. Our friend Bert Huffaker, while in Plattsmouth Tuesday on business connected with the firm for which he is traveling, gave the Journal a most pleasant call. Bert is a Silver City (Iowa) boy, and that being our former home, we were awfully glad to see him. There has been a general removal of signs on Main street in accord with the order of Mayor Gering. Some of the merchants felt a little "sore" at first, but when they see that all are treated alike they are willing to acknowledge that the mayor has pursued a wise course. A Baxter Smith, coming to the conclusion that he could no longer get along without the great household necessity, called Saturday evening and enrolled his name for the Journal. Mr. Smith is among the best citizens of Plattsmouth, and a patron that we are proud of. Henry Hempel, of Havelock, came down Monday and remained until yesterday, the principal portion of his time being put in on his property in the southwest part of town, which has been re-roofed and otherwise improved. Mr. Hempel made the Journal a brief call while in the city. Our old friend, Conrad Schlater, who has been confined to his home for several weeks past, does not seem to improve very much. His many friends throughout Cass county will hail with joy any report of his improved condition. The Journal is pleased to say, however, he is not in a dangerous condition.

H. Hay, assistant superintendent of the insane asylum at Lincoln, was in the city on business Friday. Citizens of Plattsmouth seem to have caught the improvement mania, and the city will be benefited thereby. Remember the Elks Carnival will take place June 14, 15 and 16. This is straight goods, and no postponement on account of weather. Mrs. Merritt Kerr and little son departed for their home in Kansas City, Mo., Monday, after several weeks' visit with relative in this city. John Carmaek, who has been visiting relatives in Columbus, Osceola, David City and other points in Nebraska, returned home Tuesday. The J. R. Gering & Co. Now is the time to take a spring tonic to purify the blood, cleanse the liver and kidneys of all impurities. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will do the business. 35 cents. Tea or tablets. Gering & Co. Mrs. Paul Wurl and son of Byron, Neb., who have been visiting in this city, left for their home Saturday morning, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Andrus. They will visit a few days in Omaha en route. Cass county mortgage record for May is as follows: On farm property—Filed $7,975; released, $7,991. Sixteen farm mortgages were filed and fifteen released. Eleven city mortgages were filed and nineteen released. Mrs. Will Coolidge and children returned Sunday from a visit at their old home in Nebraska. Mrs. Coolidge reports a pleasant visit, but says she has no desire to return to Nebraska to remain.—Central City (S. D.) Register. The Platte Mutual Insurance company of this city paid the losses on the Bennett and Bauer stocks of goods two days after the fire. Bennett's loss was $200 and Bauer's $500. This was a very prompt adjustment and speaks well for the company. J. L. Stephens, representing the Lincoln Business college, was in the city today and made this office a brief but very pleasant visit. Mr. Stephens is a very pleasant gentleman, and we were highly pleased to make his acquaintance. This well known college is one of the best in the great west, and will bear investigation as to its excellent work. It is now proposed to authorize postmasters and deputies to open letters on which no postage stamps have been placed to learn the name of the writer and avoid sending it to the dead letter office. If all who write would have their name and address printed on the envelopes they use, as the postoffice department requests, no trouble would arise.—Western Publisher. Ed Ingram, of near Louisville, was in the city today and made a business call at Journal headquarters. Three weeks ago Mr. Ingram had a team of horses, spring wagon and harness stolen from a hitch-rack in Louisville, and says he has never heard a word from them. This is another mysterious theft, of which there have been several in the past six months. Pacific Junction is now without any representative in the way of a newspaper. Editor Withrow has received flattering inducements to move his plant to Brownville, Neb., and after looking over the field has decided to make the change. He returned home Tuesday evening and will move once to his new location. His effort in Pacific Junction has been very successful, both from his own financial standpoint and in regard to the service he has given his patrons. The change in the railroad business and the consequent decrease in general business has made the field a less desirable location for a paper, and he has decided to make the change.—Glenwood (Ia.) Opinion.

"If I Had Only Known"
So said a man the other day who had bought a $15 suit at a certain clothing store, when he accompanied a friend here, who bought even a better suit of us for only $12.
It's the same old story, as old as time. "If I had only known." Of course, as this man said, he will know better hereafter. He will come here next time. How is it with you?
Have you been here and saved $2 or $3 on a suit, or if not, will you do so? Think it over. Look around, if you please, for then you will certainly buy here.

County Superintendent Wortman attended the commencement exercises at Weeping Water Thursday evening. Peter Smith of near Murray, is a visitor in the city today, and dropped in to see how the Journal was getting along. George M. Hill, one of Cass county's most energetic young farmers, living in Mt. Pleasant precinct, was a caller at Journal headquarters yesterday and renewed for another year. Some one remarked the other day, when he heard that Blomhard Burkett had been endorsed for the senate by the republicans of Nebraska: "Burkett has lots of nerve." "Yes," answered a bystander, "and he does not have to take any nerve to retain it, either." Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are just what you need when you have no appetite, feel dull after eating and wake up with a taste in the mouth. They will improve your appetite, cleanse and invigorate your stomach and give you a relish for your food. For sale by all druggists. "I have been troubled for some time with indigestion and sour stomach," says Mrs. Sarah W. Curtis of Lee, Mass., "and have been taking Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, which have helped me very much, so that now I can eat many things that before I could not." If you have any trouble with your stomach why not take these Tablets—and get well! For sale by all druggists. Charley Banning, the rock-ribbed democrat of Nehawka, dropped in upon us as soon as the Journal office door was opened this morning. He was one of the delegates to the Omaha convention, and was en route for home. He learned from Sheriff McBride that a team, buggy and harness was stolen from his brother-in-law, H. P. Sturm, living one mile north of Nehawka, last night, and he returned to South Omaha to see if he could find any trace of the stolen team. D. P. JACKSON.

The Omaha Convention. The democratic state convention for the purpose of selecting delegates to St. Louis, met in Omaha yesterday. It was a very large gathering of the democratic hosts, and their deliberations were harmonious throughout. The Kansas City platform was reaffirmed. Mr. Bryan was present and addressed the convention at some length. Congressman Cochran, of St. Joseph, Mo., was also present to address the Nebraska democrats. The delegates-at-large are Wm. J. Bryan, W. H. Thompson, C. J. Smyth and G. W. Phillips. The delegates selected from the First district are J. A. Maguire of Lancaster county and Frank J. Morgan of this city. The First district seems to have fared pretty well in the selection of alternates-at-large—H. T. Ward of Johnson county and H. C. Davis of Richardson county being two out of the four. The First district was also honored in the selection of temporary chairman, in the person of Hon. H. H. Hanks, of Otoe county, one of the brightest young democrats in the state, and one whose name some of these days will rank with greatest democratic statesmen of Nebraska. His speech on this occasion was a masterpiece, and reads like one emanating from a man who should now be representing this district in congress instead of that very weak sister, Blomhard Burkett. Every county in the state was represented, besides there were many others from various sections of the state. Cass county's twenty delegate were all there with the exception of two. Many visitors from this county also attended. Board of Equalization. Beginning Monday, June 6, 1904, the city council of the city of Plattsmouth (at 8 o'clock p. m.) will meet as a board of equalization at the council chamber and continue such session for three consecutive nights. These meetings are held for the purpose of hearing complaints as to the assessments of property in said city, and to rectify all errors. Those interested will take due notice of these meetings. H. M. SOENNICHTSEN, City Clerk. Another Team Stolen. Sheriff McBride was notified early this morning that a team of horses, buggy and harness was stolen last night from the barn of H. P. Sturm, one mile north of Nehawka. The sheriff immediately had cards printed giving a description of the property, and scattered them broadcast over the country in the hopes of apprehending the fleeing thief and property before they have gotten very far away. The sheriffs in the adjoining counties and the livemen in the various towns have been notified by telephone. A reward of $75.00 is offered for the recovery of the property and the arrest and conviction of the thief. This horse-stealing business is becoming monotonous in Cass county, and if it does not cease soon it will probably result in a first-class lynching bee in which many farmers will participate. These thefts are too numerous for the benefit of the first one caught. Gasoline Stoves. At the second-hand store, just removed to the Dwyer building on lower Main street. A large line of second-hand gasoline stoves. All kinds of repairing for gasoline stoves and ranges. Call and see us in our new location. D. P. JACKSON.
