The democratic city administration is getting along swimmingly, thank you! Thirty-two thousand dollars of floating warrants have been called in and cancelled, and there is still $11,000 in treasury. Mayor Gering is a hustler. If he receives the democratic nomination for congress he will make Blowhard Burkett move a more rapid gait than he ever moved to save his hide from being well tanned. Grocery Store Burglarized.
The grocery store of A. Bach, at the lower end of Main street, was entered on Thursday night of last week and several articles, consisting of tobacco, pipes, shoes, etc., were taken therefrom. Entrance was effected by cutting out the glass in the transom over the rear door. The cash drawer was pried open, but two or three empty pocket books was all that met their gaze. It is supposed to have been the work of tramps, simply because several were seen in the city the day before.

The Grass-Cutter.
The thrifty man looks at his lawn. "That grass," he says, "I'll cut at dawn." And this is how it looks when over. The lawn he runs his dull lawnmower. "I see," says he, "It's merely bent." And back he goes, though well nigh spent. "Well, I'll be switched, confound such a boy!" He cries, "I'll go the other way." Grown desperate now, the shears he snatches. And cuts the grass—in gods and patches:— Only to find next day at dawn. A disast'rously mangled lawn.

Efforts have been made to locate the parents, but so far without success, although there are several families by that name living in other localities of the county. Tontepec is the name of the place where Mast died, and Mr. McCauley seems very anxious to have his parents advised of his death.

For Sleeplessness.
Anton Lypan of Lattimer Mines, Pa., suffered greatly from sleeplessness but at last found a remedy which he wishes to recommend to the public. "I advise all to whom sleep is denied, especially as the result of a stomach malady, to use Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine. For more than four years I was a sufferer from a stomach disease and could neither eat nor sleep. No medicine gave me relief, until I tried Triner's Bitter Wine. There is no doubt that Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine is the only safe and reliable remedy for the stomach. By strengthening the stomach and the intestines it makes them able to accept and digest all food. Thus new, rich blood is made, such as is needed for perfect health. The nerves and the muscles receiving nourishment from such rich blood, become strong and healthy. This remedy contains only pure, old grape-wine and imported herbs. At drug stores. Jos. Triner, manufacturer, 790 So. Ashland Ave., Chicago, Ill.

The Prodigal Son.
A paper in a neighboring town says: "We cannot let a day go by without suggesting that the only way to build up a city is to keep money at home. The parable of the prodigal son is a case in point. He took his boodle and went down into another country and spent it. And what became of him? Well, he was glad to feed with the swine before he could get back to the old place where they patronize home industries. There is only one way and that is to keep your dollars at home working for you and not sending them out to feed the merchants of other towns."
