Weeping Water

From the Republican.
Mrs. W. C. Smith and little son came in from Table Rock Saturday to visit her sisters, the Misses Goelry.

Charley Harrison went to Omaha last week to accept a position as book-keeper with the firm of H. J. Grove & Co., lumber dealers at Benson.

Mrs. Fate left Tuesday for Summerset, Pa., where she will visit with relatives. She will also visit in Baltimore and Washington before her return.

Nightwatchman Davis reports more freight train tourists on the road now than for a long time. He says they are mostly well dressed men and only stop here between trains and make no trouble.

Ray Pool took his departure on the 11 o'clock train Monday forenoon for Duluth, Minn., where he has secured a position with a lumbering company to work this summer in the pine woods of the North Star state. A friend of his from Holdrege accompanied Ray and they will work together in the woods fifty miles from Duluth. Since these young men are taking a special course in forestry at the University this summer's work will be right in their line.

Pauline A. Horton, wife of W. J. Horton, died Saturday morning, June 11, aged sixty-nine years, after a lingering illness in which she was a great sufferer. The funeral was held at the M. E. church in Wabash, Monday morning. Rev. T. H. Worley in conducting the services was assisted by Rev. Mr. Myers of Unadilla, and the Rev. Messrs. Longacre and Hentz. The body was brought to Weeping Water where the interment was made in Oakwood cemetery in the afternoon.

W. A. Davis and wife and Mrs. Davis' mother, expect to leave next week for Fort Pierre, S. D., where they will take up their residence on their homesteads. Mrs. Davis' sister and mother both have claims cornering with that of W. A.'s and they have had a house built in the shape of an L on one corner of the three claims, so that they can all reside in one house and yet each can be on their respective claims. Wm. Davis and a son and daughter each have claims, making a total of six quarters in the family.

From the Herald.
Wm. Stohlman's 13-year-old daughter has been having quite a siege with tonsillitis.

Ben Sheldon, since moving out to Custer county, has invested in 160 acres of land, which we hear is a good farming tract.

John Whiteman was in town Monday and informed us that he was doing his best to keep the weeds down in 88 acres of corn. He says he has 30 acres of fine fall wheat and a peach orchard of 100 trees that bid fair to be filled with fruit.

On Tuesday evening, June 17, Rev. Moulton united in marriage at the residence of Mrs. Bohn, B. F. Reynolds of Denver, Colorado, to Sarah Henneger of Weeping Water. The bride and groom expect to make their home in Denver.

After listening to the gentle breezes blowing through his whiskers for thirty years, Mr. H. H. Mason concluded to disclose his chin to the vulgar gaze of the public, and last week put his razor to work grubbing. He looked all right when he wore them.

Have you made up your mind which of those three Plattsmouth attorneys would look the best defending the interests of Cass county's cases in court? They are keeping pretty quiet now, for there is lots of work on the farm, and the corn rows are long and hard to follow.

Prof. W. T. Poucher, of Chadron, the newly elected superintendent of our schools, has accepted the position. To judge from the many and good recommendations from the people of Chadron, Mr. Poucher is going to please our people, and Prof. J. W. Crabtree also offers his recommend in glowing terms.

Prof. L. B. King, although elected for another year to teach in the academy, at an increase in salary, has concluded to teach nearer his home in Chicago, where he goes next week, and after a visit with the folks will go on to Massachusetts. Mr. King is a splendid instructor and is well liked by the students.

Painting, decorating and sign writing. Work guaranteed. Leave orders at Fricke's drug store.
L. BALDWIN.

Elmwood

From the Leader-Echo.
The Cass county Sunday school convention will be held at Elmwood next year, some time in June.

The latest thing talked of in Elmwood is a billiard club. Wouldn't that bust your suspender buttons!

Dr. J. M. Neely went to St. Louis Monday evening for a visit of a week or ten days at the exposition.

F. C. Voorhees has a finger badly infected with blood poisoning caused from getting it cut on a piece of screen wire.

E. E. Sams, superintendent of the schools at Stuart, Iowa, and family, are visiting at the S. Sams home, northwest of town this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Sams have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Nellie, to Rev. W. H. Shoaf, of Columbia Falls, Mont. The happy event will take place Wednesday, June 22.

A special train left Elmwood Tuesday evening for South Omaha with eight cars (120 head) of cattle for T. H. Cromwell and two cars of hogs for J. F. Hoover. Tom had one steer that weighed 2000 pounds, and Hoover had a hog that weighed 500 pounds. They should have saved them for the barbecue.

Dan Fentiman struck a fine market at Omaha last week. The twenty-six head of steers that he commenced feeding the first of last December netted him something over $1,700. Dan says it was the best market he ever struck, and that it made him over 50 cents a bushel for the corn he fed. When it comes to feeding stock, Dan is right there with the goods.

ask the readers of this paper to test the value of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. Those persons who have used it and who have been cured by it, do not hesitate to recommend it to their friends. Kodol digests what you eat, cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. Increases strength by enabling the stomach and digestive organs to contribute to the blood all of the nutriment contained in the food. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is pleasant and palatable.

Eagle

Dr. Townsend reports the birth of a pair of twins, a boy and a girl, to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hardy, on Monday, June 13.

Mrs. A. Prouty, living near Alvo, died Monday morning, June 13, aged 66 years. The funeral was held at 2 p. m. on Tuesday, at Alvo.

While Mr. Durbin was driving his newly purchased running ponies home from town Wednesday they were frightened by a dog and ran away. No damage resulted.

Joe Barrett, who lost his barn several weeks ago by fire, commenced this week to rebuild. The new barn will be 26x36 with 14 foot posts. Jacob Hursh has the contract.

Wednesday Chas. Renner sold his restaurant to Jasper Eads, who took possession at once. Mr. and Mrs. Renner have moved into their own property west of the south German church.

While playing out at his grandfather's Tuesday afternoon Morris, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Bahr fell down the stairway. He was considerably bruised but no bones were broken.

Rev. Jackson was called to Alvo Sunday to conduct the funeral services of Mrs. Stewart who died Friday. The remains were laid to rest in the Elmwood cemetery. Mrs. Stewart was 65 years of age. She leaves three children.

Last Monday P. F. Venner sold his stock of drugs to J. J. Reitter, who took possession Wednesday. Mr. Reitter formerly owned the stock, so it is not a new venture for him. Mr. Venner will continue in the barber business. J. C. Brown, who has had charge of the store for the past two years will remain in charge and will conduct the business for Mr. Reitter.

An Alarm Clock for 25c.

If you want to get up early and feel good all day take a Little Early Riser or two at bed time. These famous little pills relax the nerves, give quiet rest and refreshing sleep, with a gentle movement of the bowels about breakfast time. W. H. Howell, Houston, Tex., says, "Early Risers are the best pill made for constipation, sick headache, biliousness, etc." Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co.

Nehawka

From the Register.
M. G. Kime sold a bunch of cattle to Spearman the first of the week.

To n, to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Murray, Wednesday, June 15, 1904, a 10-pound boy.

Al Hughey and family of Nebraska City were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Sheldon last week and called on friends.

Miss Anna Davis of Weeping Water, while in the village Tuesday, filed her application with the school board for a position as teacher in the Nehawka schools next term.

Quite an exciting stir was occasioned in our town Friday night, when the announcement was made by telephone that a man had been cornered in Fremont resembling the party whom suspicion linked together as the one who stole L. W. Ingwersen's and H. P. Sturm's teams. Mr. Ingerwen went to Fremont Saturday to identify the person but was disappointed. He returned Monday and said that it was not the party. However he held out hopes of eventually running the rascal down.

"Crazy man!" was the exclamation heard in Nehawka Saturday. Telephone messages were sent in from several rural lines that assistance was needed to capture a crazy man who was circulating out in the farming districts. At one place he went into a kitchen and asked for something to eat, saying he was a detective. Going over to Will Davis, who lives about four miles from here he asked for work. Will noticed the glassy stare from his eyes and humored him to the extent that he actually went to work. In the meantime Will notified Forrest Cunningham to bring a man out with him and take the unfortunate fellow in charge. Forrest secured the services of O. E. Wampler, and went to Mr. Davis' home. They had no trouble in convincing the poor fellow that they were cattle men and wanted him to go to Omaha. He accepted their offer and they brought him to Nehawka a few minutes before the Lincoln train departed. While here the unfortunate man seemed harmless and talked to the crowd in a rational manner. He was carried back to the state asylum, from where he had made his escape some time previous, and was wandering around the country looking for work. We learned that his name was Q. H. Ferguson.

For a Hundred Years.

For a hundred years or more Witch Hazel has been recognized as a superior remedy, but it remained for E. C. De Witt & Co. of Chicago, to discover how to combine the virtues of Witch Hazel with other antiseptics in the form of salve. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is the best salve in the world for sores, cuts, burns, bruises and piles. The high standing of this salve has given rise to counterfeits, and the public is advised to look for the name "DeWitt" on the package, and accept no other. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co.

Greenwood

From the Enterprise.
The saloon has again been knocked out in the district court. This is the second decision against the Greenwood saloon by Judge Jensen.

Miss Welsh, who has been in Pasadena California, during the winter months, is here visiting her sister, Mrs. Dan Kelley. Miss Welsh will remain here all summer.

John Mefford returned today from Kansas where he has been for the past week. He reports that Mrs. J. P. Rouse who has not been expected to live for some time, is still very low.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nichols entertained about twenty-five friends at their beautiful home in the south-east part of town Saturday night. Progressive finch was the leading amusement of the evening. Wm. Armstrong carried off the first prize.

Mrs. J. S. Lytle entertained about thirty-five members of the Daughters of the Revolution from Lincoln and Alvo, at her home in the east part of town today. The house was tastefully decorated with the national colors. A dinner was served and the day spent enjoyably.

Prof. and Mrs. H. H. Bronson left last Friday for Sedalia, Mo., where they were called by a telegram announcing the death of a brother of Mrs. Bronson. His death was caused by the bite of a rattlesnake. They will be absent two or three months.

Mr. Albert D. Welton and Miss Blanche Meeker were united in marriage at the home of the bride Saturday evening at 5 o'clock by Rev. T. F. Fowler. They left the same evening for a trip through the north and will probably be gone during the summer. The bride and groom are well and favorably known here.

Can't you see that Greenwood is moving to the front and the majority of our citizens are working for its betterment? If you can't do a good deed for the town, keep quiet when the other fellow is tearing his shirt trying to build up your interests as well as his own. Lord pity the growler who is too narrow-minded to see good in anything.

Sued By His Doctor.

"A doctor here has sued me for $12.50 which I claimed was excessive for a case of cholera morbus," says R. White of Coahuila, Cal. "At the trial he praised his medical skill and medicine. I asked him if it was not Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea he used, as I had good reason to believe it was, and he would not say under oath that it was not." No doctor could use a better remedy than this in a case of cholera morbus; it never fails. Sold by all druggists.

Louisville

From the Courier.
Miss Minnie Lehnhoff of College Hill entertained a few friends Wednesday in honor of Mrs. A. L. Eckstein.

G. H. Wood and wife left Monday for a ten days' visit in Illinois. They will also visit the world's fair before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. George Jung left Tuesday for St. Louis, where they will take in the fair and visit relatives. They expect to be gone several weeks.

"Sandy" McNeely is now pronounced free from small pox and will be released from quarantine this (Friday) evening after being thoroughly disinfecting.

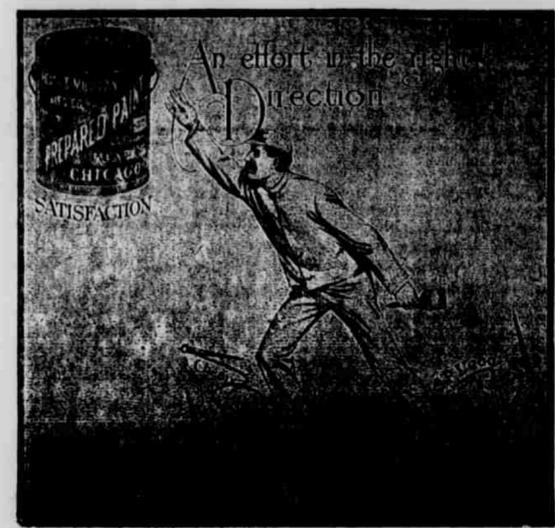

John A. Helvie and Miss Addie M. Hunt, both of this place, were married at the Methodist parsonage on Wednesday evening, by Rev. Chadwick. Immediately after the ceremony a reception and supper was served at the bride's home. The Courier extends congratulations.

Dr. Allison came down from Omaha Monday evening, and assisted by Drs. Thomas and Worthman, amputated Mr. A. E. Stander's limb which was fractured last week, mention of which was made in the Courier. Dr. Allison complimented the local physicians on the method in which they had treated the case, but expressed grave fears as to the probable outcome owing to her advanced age. The limb was amputated just above the knee. At time of going to press she is reported as resting somewhat easier.

P. A. Jacobson returned last Saturday from Rockford, Ill., where he went to attend a meeting of the Swedish Free church officials who met for the purpose of deciding on a location for a college for the education of Swedish ministers in the west. Mr. Jacobson was there with the object of locating the school at Louisville, in the large stone house on the Parmele farm east of town. He stated that the Nebraska delegation was unanimously in favor of Louisville, but that the eastern people were opposed to bringing the school so far west, and the matter was laid over until a later date.
