Help Yourself.

If there is a chance to boom business boom it, says an exchange. Don't be a knocker, don't pull a long face and get sour on your stomach. Hope a bit. Get a smile on you. Hold up your head. Get a hold with your hands, then pull. Bury your hatchet. Drop your tomahawk. Hide your little hammer. When a stranger drops in tell him this is the greatest town on earth. Don't roast. Be jolly. Get popular. It's dead easy. Help yourself along. Push your friends along with you. Soon you'll have a whole possession. Be a good fellow. No man ever helped himself by knocking people down. No man ever got rich trying to make people think he was the only man on earth. You can't climb the ladder of fame by stepping on other people's corns. They're their corns; not yours and they're tender. Keep off the corns. All men are not alike. Once in a while you will find one who is very much alike. But some are different. You're not the only shirt waist in the wash. If you don't like their styles let them alone. Don't knock. You'll get used to it. There's no end of fun in minding your own business, and it makes the people like you better. Better have others stuck on yourself. Nobody gets stuck on a knocker. Don't be one. Be good.

Cured of Bright's Disease.

Mr. Robert O. Burke, Elmore, N. Y., writes: "Before I started to use Foley's Kidney Cure I had to get up from twelve to twenty times a night, and I was all bloated up with dropsy and my eyesight was so impaired I could scarcely see one of my family across the room. I had given up hope of living, when a friend recommended Foley's Kidney Cure. One 50-cent bottle worked wonders and before I had taken the third bottle the dropsy had gone, as well as all other symptoms of Bright's disease." Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co.

Weak Hearts

Are caused by indigestion. If you eat a little too much, or if you are subject to attacks of indigestion, the stomach expands—swells, and pushes up against the heart. This crowds the heart and shortens the breath. Rapid heart beats and heart disease is the final result. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat, takes the strain off the heart, cures indigestion, dyspepsia, sour stomach, and contributes nourishment, strength and health to every organ of the body. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co.

MISTAKES IN LIFE.

Brooding Over Them is Useless and Unprofitable Work.

One of the most unprofitable ways of spending time is the practice, to which many persons are addicted, of brooding over the mistakes one has made in life and thinking what he might have been or achieved if he had not done at certain times just what he did do. Almost every unsuccessful man in looking over his past career is inclined to think that it would have been wholly different but for certain slips and blunders—certain hasty, ill-considered acts into which he was betrayed almost unconsciously and without a suspicion of their consequences.

As he thinks of all the good things of this world—honor, position, power and influence—of which he has been deprived in some mysterious, inexplicable way, he has no patience with himself, and as it is painful and humiliating to dwell long upon one's own follies it is fortunate if he does not implicate others—friends and relatives—in his disappointments. Perhaps, as education has never been free from mistakes—mistakes indeed of every kind—he imputes the blame to his early training, in which habits of thoroughness and accuracy or, again, of self-reliance and independence of thought may not have been implanted. Perhaps a calling was chosen for him by his parents without regard to his peculiar talents or tastes and preferences, or if he was allowed to choose for himself it was when his judgment was immature and unfit for the responsibility. The result was that the square man got into the round hole or the triangular man got into the square hole or the round man squeezed himself into the triangular hole.—Success.

A Natural Curiosity.

James Pompely, a cobbler at 901 Hewitt avenue, has one of nature's curios in the shape of an endless alder root that evidently grow around a log about a foot in diameter. There were originally several small branches, but it is impossible to discover the point where the ends grew together, forming an almost perfect circle. The curio was found by a small boy.—Everett (Wash.) Record.

ONE MORE EFFORT

CRISIS OF STRIKE IS PROBABLY REACHED NOW.

Decide on a Sympathetic Walkout. Efforts at Peaceful Settlement Shall Fail—Allied Unions at Stock Yards Ask for Conference.

Chicago, July 20.—The crisis in the stock yards strike will come this afternoon. Allied trades unions in the stock yards, which are certain to become involved in the controversy if it is not soon settled, held a conference lasting five hours, and at its conclusion sent a letter to the packers asking for a joint conference between representatives of the strikers of the packers and of the allied trades to see if a settlement of the strike along peaceful lines cannot be reached. There was nobody who would say that the packers would agree to the conference and it is impossible to say with certainty that the meeting will be held.

Arthur Meeker, manager of Armour & Co., speaking for the other packers as well as for his own establishment, said he would send a reply this morning to the letter received from the representatives of the allied unions. He declined to say what the nature of the reply would be. The unions joining in the request for the meeting represent all the trades engaged in the packing industry and they have joined in a final appeal for arbitration for the packers and the striking butchers. President Donnelly of the butchers' union said that he was anxious to have peace but that unless it came there would be a general sympathetic strike on the part of all the unions.

Both sides still claim to have the advantage in the strike. The packers assert that they are operating their plants to almost the full capacity, while the strikers contend that the packing trade throughout the country is practically demoralized.

Arthur Meeker, general manager of the Armour plant, said: "We are getting along fine without the unions. This is a big country and there is plenty of idle labor this year. Our plant is fairly well supplied with labor in every department. I think we have the situation well in hand."

Bread and ice are to be distributed by the packers to needy families in the stock yards district. In this way the packers are to help wives and children of the strikers.

Wary of turmoil and hardship encountered while struggling for a living in the face of strikes and lockouts, forty-two families of the strikers left Chicago this afternoon to return to Austria-Hungary. There they will receive less pay, they say, but their employment will be more steady and bereft of peril.

Injunction Served on Strikers, St. Louis, July 19.—The sweeping injunction issued by Judge Holder of the St. Clair county court against the striking butchers in East St. Louis packing houses was served by Sheriff Thompson on the union leaders. All promised to abide by the injunction, which forbade them from interfering with the operation of the packing plants or with the nonunion men hired to take the places of the employees who walked out. There is practically no change in the situation either in St. Louis or East St. Louis, and thus far the strikers have been very orderly. About twenty nonunion men were taken into one of the east side plants. Very little killing was done.

Packers Elude Pickets, South Omaha, July 20.—The tightening of the picket lines about the packing houses was the only change in the strike situation. Just about sunrise the pickets were doubled and drawn a little closer to the plants than previously. The result of the closer watch was the turning back of about forty men bound for Cudahy's and a like number headed for Armour's. Swift was more fortunate than the other packers, for Manager Patterson succeeded in getting two coach loads of men into his plant.

Situation at St. Paul, St. Paul, July 20.—With the exception of the repudiation by the butcher union officials of nominal control of the blockade at the Swift packing plant, there has been little change in the situation at South St. Paul. The women stenographers and several of the leading officials of the Swift Co.'s branch plant were the only persons allowed to pass the picket line and all efforts to recruit the force of men who have been in the plant for several days were successfully resisted.

Strikers Attack Nonunion Men, Kansas City, July 19.—A party of nonunion men employed by the Fowler Packing company were attacked by strikers and Thomas Young, a negro nonunion laborer, was struck on the head by a stone, thrown by one of the strikers. Frank White was arrested and identified by the negro as being one of the men who threw stones.

Two Perish in Hotel Fire, Reno, Nev., July 20.—The Humphrey hotel at Susanville, Lassen county, Cal., caught fire and was entirely destroyed. Two children, a daughter of Mrs. L. A. Parry and a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Miller, were burned to death.

Jockey Green Dies of Injuries, New York, July 18.—Jockey George Green, whose skull was fractured by a fall on the track at Brighton Beach, died of his injuries. He was the regular steeplechase jockey for the Hitchcock stable.
