

THE CITY.

PLATTSMOUTH AND VICINITY.

"Gut Hell," the favorite cigar Mauzy & Murphy, books and stationery.

Mauzy & Murphy, fine china and cut glass.

Dr. Marshall, Dentist, guaranteed work.

George Deford was over from Elmwood Sunday.

The best soda water in the world at Gering & Co.'s.

Mrs. F. W. Lehnhoff visited in Lincoln this week.

A. L. Tidd was in Lincoln yesterday on legal business.

Smoke the Wurl Bros. celebrated "Gut Hell" cigars.

C. D. Eads and family spent Sunday in Burlington, Iowa.

Scott Hare of Murdock was a county seat visitor Tuesday.

E. A. Wurl returned from the fair at St. Louis Sunday.

Miss Julia Herman is visiting relatives in Watertown, Wis.

Judge Sullivan went to Lincoln Tuesday on legal business.

Lee Arnett, of the capital city, was here on business yesterday.

Asa Coleman, of Nelawka, was a county seat visitor Monday.

Miss Lulu Leek of Murray was a county seat visitor Tuesday.

Chas. Noyes, of Louisville, was a county seat visitor yesterday.

C. Metzger of Louisville spent Sunday with Plattsmouth friends.

Robert Sherwood left Monday for a business trip to South Dakota.

Dr. Frank L. Cummins, dentist, Office with Dr. E. D. Cummins.

Engineer Ed. Johnson of Lincoln visited his parents here this week.

Miss Ella Anderson returned Monday from a visit to Dennison, Iowa.

That real, smooth, tasteful ice cream soda costs only 5c at Gering & Co.'s.

Crushed fruit of all kinds with ice cream soda, only 5c at Gering & Co.'s.

Charley Cunningham, the Nelawka liveryman, was here on business Monday.

Miss Helen Travis returned Sunday from St. Louis, where she visited the fair.

Mauzy & Murphy are agents for Spaulding's athletic goods, the best on earth.

After a brief visit in this city Geo. Hawkins returned to Havelock Saturday.

John Group and Peter Stander, were down from Louisville on business yesterday.

When we go three days without a rain, it seems as tho' we are having a drought.

John Rudy and family of Nebraska City, are visiting Wes Grassman and family.

Frank Slater and Ed Fitzgerald attended a big horse sale in South Omaha Tuesday.

Seven children were baptised in the river near Swallow Hill, Monday, by Rev. Swan.

Not how cheap but how good. Patton's Sun Proof Paint. Sold only by Gering & Co.

George W. Prentice and family of Havelock spent Sunday with friends in this city.

The name that means quality is Patton's Sun Proof Paint. Sold only by Gering & Co.

C. L. Berger of Elmwood and J. A. Bauer of Wabash were here on business yesterday.

Dr. and Mrs. Thomas of Weeping Water visited with Prof. and Mrs. Rouse Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe McCarthy are the proud possessors of a new daughter, born last week.

Miss Lucy Arnold went to Lincoln Tuesday to attend the Epworth League assembly.

Paul T. Seely came down from South Omaha Saturday to visit his sister, Mrs. W. E. Wells.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Shultz went to Missouri Valley, Iowa, Saturday, to visit relatives a few days.

It costs a little more but is by far the best. Patton's Sun Proof Paint. Gering & Co., sole agents.

Hon. Frank E. White was down from Omaha yesterday to attend the funeral of William Wetenkamp.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wideman are rejoicing over the advent of a new baby at their home, born Tuesday.

Leroy Saffer returned to Kansas City Monday after a week's pleasant visit with his parents in this city.

Commissioner Banning returned to his home in Union Tuesday, called on account of important business matters.

Fred Egenberger and William Holschuh started for Southeast Missouri Tuesday night to look at the country.

Dr. Marshall, Dentist, Coats' Block Miss Emma Falter has been quite ill, threatened with appendicitis.

H. C. McMacke has been numbered with the sick several days the past week.

Mauzy & Murphy for graphophones and supplies. Largest line of records in the county.

Goes further, looks better and lasts longer. Patton's Sun Proof Paint. Gering & Co. agents.

Mrs. W. E. Thompson who has been visiting her parents in this city, returned to her home in Omaha Tuesday.

James Mauzy has accepted a position as clerk in a drug store at Sedalia, Mo., and departed for that place Monday.

Mrs. Joseph Cook of Murray visited several days the past week with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Boeck.

Tom Whalen departed Tuesday for Moline, Ill., with the intention of entering the employ of the Rock Island railroad.

Mrs. Mary Rude, who has been visiting with the family of W. L. Street, left for her home in Mendota, Ill., Tuesday.

Mrs. George Gradoville went to Akron, Colo., Saturday, where she will visit her sister, Mrs. Josephine Connis, for a few weeks.

J. C. Jackson, the popular liveryman and real estate man, of Silver City, Iowa, was a Plattsmouth visitor Tuesday of this week.

Robert Troop departed for Bone-steel, S. D., Tuesday afternoon to look after his possessions recently acquired through Uncle Sam's drawing.

The local order of Masons attended the funeral of William Wetenkamp yesterday in a body. Rev. Ayers, of Union preached the funeral.

John Hall has sold his hardware stock to Andy Kroehler, and contemplates putting in a stock of dry goods in connection with his groceries.

Thom. Walling and Jerry McHugh, of South Bend, departed Tuesday for Chanute, Kansas, for a ten days trip, combining business with pleasure.

Miss Pearl Supp has returned to her home in Lincoln, after a pleasant visit of two weeks in the city. She was accompanied by Miss Ida Pearlman.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Nejedly's infant child died Monday night of what the attending physician pronounced brain fever. The funeral occurred yesterday.

A. J. Jackson went to Omaha yesterday to engage in the undertaking business. We understand his family will remain in Plattsmouth for the present.

Mrs. I. Pearlman, who went to St. Joseph to see her mother, who was dangerously ill, returned home Friday night. Her mother died on Sunday, July 24.

When you want a physic that is mild and gentle, easy to take and certain to act, always use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For sale by all druggists.

Andrew Pittman and Wm. Carroll, two old residents of Nehawka, and readers of the Journal, were in the city Monday and gave the Journal a pleasant call.

Mr. and Mrs. John Fight departed Tuesday for Akron, Col., to visit their son, Will, who resides near that place. They were accompanied by their daughter, Miss Hattie.

John Thompson, John Wooster and Frank Svoboda left yesterday for Cheyenne, Wyoming, where they hope to secure employment in the Union Pacific shops at that place.

Miss Blanche Sawyer of South Bend spent a few days this week with Miss Margaret Wells. Miss Sawyer has been attending summer school at Wesleyan University, Lincoln.

The Journal failed to mention last week the arrival of Miss Ella Herger, of Milwaukee, Wis., who is here visiting her father, C. L. Herger. She arrived Monday, July 25th.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. John Kraeger, residing near this city, died Thursday night, July 26, 1904, after a very brief illness. Interment was made in the Eikenberry cemetery.

The examinations for teachers were quite numerous at Weeping Water and Greenwood last week. At the former place thirty-seven applicants were examined and at the latter twenty-two.

The three-year-old daughter of Charles Truman died Tuesday night after a brief illness. The funeral occurred yesterday afternoon from the family residence in the west part of the city.

Dr. Elster, Dentist, Waterman Block.

M. Fanger and family of this city and Fred Nolting and family were royally entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Steppet, three and one-half miles west of this city last Sunday.

Ex-Mayor Frank J. Morgan returned from Omaha Saturday, where he recently went through an operation for appendicitis. Frank is able to ride of evenings, and feels that he is gradually improving.

Miss Katie Shields, the handsome little saleslady at Charley Herger's bakery, spent yesterday with her mother, Mrs. Matt Spader, west of town. Miss Herger, of Milwaukee, Wis., accompanied her.

Mrs. Andrew Fudge, of Covington, Va., arrived in the city a few days ago for an extended visit with relatives and friends in Cass county. Mrs. Fudge is a daughter of Geo. E. Sayles of Cedar Creek.

Aaron Anderson departed yesterday for Cheyenne, Wyoming, where he expects to enter the employ of the Union Pacific railroad. Mr. Anderson was formerly an employe in the B. & M. planing mill here.

A few days ago it was reported that the state board of equalization was about to lower the assessment on Cass county real estate five per cent., but it turns out they didn't. It remains the same as returned.

Mrs. C. H. Jennings, Boston—"Our babies (twins) were sickly. Had several doctors, but no results. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea made them strong and robust." 35 cents. Tea or tablets. Gering & Co.

W. H. Puls of Maple Grove was in the city Saturday. Will is running a threshing outfit and says some of the wheat is hardly worth the time it takes to thresh it—some turning out as low as four bushels to the acre.

J. K. Keithley has leased the Weeping Water Republic to Fred E. Bricka, and will now lend his energies in behalf of the Syracuse Journal, which paper he recently purchased. It is hinted that he will remove to Syracuse.

A. E. Neilson of Plattsmouth, and Miss Jennie Carlson were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, in Denison, Iowa, on Saturday, July 30, 1904. The newly wedded couple will make their home in this city.

I. W. Ingwerson, of near Nehawka, was in the city Saturday and gave the Journal a pleasant call. He reports the harvest about over in his neighborhood, threshing of wheat and oats very light, and some fall plowing being done.

J. G. Meisinger, one of our prompt paying Cedar Creek patrons was in Tuesday and renewed for another year. There are none in that family that ever do get behind on the Journal subscription book—they are generally "way ahead."

Henry, the seventeen-year-old son of George Lutz, of Louisville, died at that place Monday night, of heart failure, after an illness of several months. The remains were brought here yesterday and interment made in Oak Hill cemetery.

Billy Gillespie of Mynard was a county seat visitor Saturday. He is pleased with the return of R. F. D. No. 3, to Mynard. The change back and forth has been a source of annoyance to the city papers, and we trust it will now remain permanently at Mynard.

Phillip M. Meisinger was down from Cedar Creek yesterday. Mr. Meisinger is now clerking for Henry Baker at that place, and says while the farmers feel pretty well over the corn prospects, they feel pretty sore over the way small grain is turning out.

Bear in mind that the commercial club meets tomorrow (Friday) night. Let every member be present as important business will come up to be disposed of. If you not a member, and you are interested in Plattsmouth, become a member at once.

W. B. Roberts of South Bend was here on business Tuesday. Mr. Roberts is a brother of J. M. Roberts, cashier of the Plattsmouth State bank, and is a most excellent gentleman. While in the city he called and renewed for the Journal another year.

Last Sunday Wes Grassman met with quite a painful accident. While on the way to the cow pasture he slipped so as to fall, and in falling his wrist came in contact with a piece of glass. A deep cut was the result, which required the attention of a doctor, who took a number of stitches.

A. K. Kroehler has purchased the hardware stock of John Hall and has removed the same to Hall's old stand on the corner of Sixth and Pearl streets. Andy is one of the best tinkers in the land, a hard worker, and deserves success. With the addition of a stock of hardware he is bound to prosper.

Adam Engelkeimer, wife and daughter, of near Nehawka were county seat visitors Saturday. Mr. Engelkeimer is one of Cass county's wealthy German farmers, and he has amassed his wealth by hard work since his advent in Cass county. Not many farmers in this county are better fixed than Mr. Engelkeimer.

E. G. DOVEY & SON

SPECIAL OFFERING IN Bed Spreads @ Towels

We have made a very special purchase in these lines and offer them at the following low prices. In view of the fact that linens and cottons have advanced, these prices are unusually attractive:

Bed Spreads—69c, 99c, $1.18, $1.29, $1.39, $1.59, $1.78 and $1.89 Towels—11c, 15c, 18c, 19c and 20c

Defender Muslin Underwear

Just Received A NEW LINE

We have the extra sizes in these garments which are usually so hard to obtain.

Defender

E. G. DOVEY @ SON

A mistake as to date occurred in the congressional call in the last two issues of the Journal. Wednesday, August 10, is the date for the convention at Lincoln, instead of the 18th, as we had it. The same date as the democratic state convention.

The marriage of Miss Olga Antonette Hajcek to Frank E. Lotshaw is announced to take place in this city on Wednesday evening, August 17, at the home of the bride's parents. Lotshaw formerly taught in the Plattsmouth Business College.

The county commissioners, after hearing the evidence pro and con on the application of Clay Conner for a license to sell liquors at Murdock, granted the permit. However, the remonstrators have appealed the matter to the district court, and Clay will have to await the action of Judge Jessen before he can open up.

Mrs. Mollie Allen, of South Fork, Ky., says she has prevented attacks of cholera morbus by taking Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets when she felt an attack coming on. Such attacks are usually caused by indigestion and these tablets and just what is needed to cleanse the stomach and ward off the approaching attack. Attacks of bilious colic may be prevented in the same way. For sale by all druggists.

In his write-up of the stealing of F. E. Marshall's horses the editor of the Weeping Water Herald says: "The sheriff, had he come here, could have picked his men and conducted a thorough search." Now the fact of the matter is, that as soon as he was notified of the theft, Sheriff McBride telephoned to Mr. Marshall, asking him if he should come to Weeping Water, and that gentleman answered that there was no use of his coming. That's the way that matter stands.

In the matter of the Evangelical Lutheran Synod of St. Louis, Mo., vs. C. S. Polk and the Kupke heirs, of Kentucky, which occupied Friday and Saturday in Judge Travis' court, an extended account of which appears on the first page of the Journal, Hon. William Deles Dernier, of Elmwood, and Judge A. N. Sullivan of this city appeared for the Synod. Byron Clark and County Attorney Root for Polk, and Matthew Gering and W. L. Brown represented the Kupke heirs.

Ayer's

Don't try cheap cough medicines. Get the best, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. What a record it has, sixty years of cures! Ask your doctor if he doesn't use it for coughs, colds, bronchitis, and all throat and lung troubles.

Cherry Pectoral

Bronchitis

Correct any tendency to constipation with small doses of Ayer's Pills.

Summer Dress Goods: Our sale is still on. Entire Stock of Wash Fabrics: From 5c to 19c.

DON'T FORGET — WE SELL — Queen Quality Shoes

The best $3.00 shoe made. See display in east window.

Special Prices This Month on Parasols and Umbrellas. A Special Reduction on this Season's Shirt Waists. Our Lines are Complete in all the Departments.

E. G. DOVEY @ SON

NOTICE

We have moved our stock of Books, Stationery, etc. to the Leonard Building, formerly occupied by Lehnhoff Bros., where we will be pleased to serve you in the future.

Respectfully, Mauzy & Murphy

Rich's Patent JULIA MARLOWE SHOES

$2.25 and $2.50 If You Want Tans We Have Them at $2.00 Up.

LIGHT WEIGHT OXFORDS

in smooth, fine Dongola, Military Heel, Blucher Cut, a well dresser's choice, for $2.50.

SHERWOOD & SON

A. K. KROEHLER — DEALER IN —

HARDWARE

TINWARE CUTLERY, ETC.

Cor. Sixth and Pearl Sts. Hall's Old Stand.

If you are going to build give me a chance to furnish your hardware. If you want tin roofing or spouting come and see me. Work promptly done at reasonable prices.