TWO BURN AT STAKE

VICTIMS HAD BEEN CONVICTED AND SENTENCED TO HANG.

Mob Overpowers Military Guard at Court Room—Victims Chained to a Stump, Saturated With Kerosene, and Match Applied.

Statesboro, Ga., Aug. 17.—With clothing saturated with kerosene, writhing and twisting in their agony, screaming to heaven for the mercy that the mob would not show, Paul Reed and Will Cato, negroes, two of the principals in the murder and burning of Henry Hodges and family, six miles from Statesboro three weeks ago, were burned at the stake.

A determined mob charged on the court house, overpowered the military guard, secured Cato and Reed, who had been found guilty after a legal trial and sentenced to be hanged, took them two miles from Statesboro and there burned them alive. The climax came quickly and unexpectedly.

The forenoon had passed quietly, the trial of Pat Reed, the ringleader in the murder, being concluded and a verdict of guilty rendered. Both he and Will Cato, found guilty the day before, were sentenced to hang Sept. 9.

Captain Hitch of the Oglethorpe Light Infantry, who was in command of the forces, posted guards on each of the stairways that led to the floor above, where the prisoners were confined. With fixed bayonets, but unloaded rifles, the guards stood. The mob surged toward them, but were repulsed several times. Suddenly some twenty-five men crowded around the guards. Before they could be prevented, they had caught two of the guards, wrested their weapons from them and thrown open the breach blocks. The weapons were empty. That was what the crowd wanted to ascertain. The troops had been given orders not to load their rifles. The captured soldiers were held prisoners. The small guard about the prisoners withdrew into the room and closed the door. The mob crashed against it, bursting it as though it were an egg shell. The prisoners were at their mercy. Reed was taken down one stairway with a rope about his neck and Cato down the other, both pleading for their lives. The doomed men were dragged along the roadway leading to the Hodges homestead, where the five members of the family had been murdered and burned. Going a short distance from the road the crowd halted. The two negroes were told they had but a short time to live and that they should confess.

Reed confessed, implicating other negroes, but denied that he had taken an active part in the murder. Cato answered incoherently. A member of the mob made a speech, recounting the horrors of the crime. This inflamed the crowd to the burning pitch. To a large stump the men were chained. Then a wagon load of pine wood was hauled to the spot. It was piled around the men and ten gallons of kerosene was thrown over them.

Photographer on Hand.
A photographer was present and the crowd was cleared back that he might get several views of the men bound to the stake. Just as the match was applied to the pyre, one of those in front asked Reed if he did not want to tell the truth before he died. "Yes, sir, I killed Mr. and Mrs. Hodges. Handy Bell killed the children," he replied, as the flames leaped upward, and further questioning was impossible in the wild tumult. The spectacle was frightful. As the flames touched Reed's naked oil-soaked skin, he twisted his head around in an endeavor to choke himself and avoid further torture. Only once did he complain. He said, "Lord, have mercy."

Cato screamed in agony and begged that he be shot. His heavy suit of hair, which was oil-soaked, was almost the first thing the flames fastened on, while the hemp rope became a collar of fire around his neck. For only about three minutes was he visible to the crowd before the great pile of fagots made a wall of flame which the wind wiped around on Cato's body and hid him from view. Before the flames progressed very far up his body his head sank forward. As soon as it was seen that the men were dead the crowd commenced dispersing.

HENRY G. DAVIS IS NOTIFIED.
Democratic Vice Presidential Candidate Accepts Nomination.
White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., Aug. 17.—Henry G. Davis was formally notified at 1 o'clock that he is the Democratic nominee for the vice presidency of the United States. John Sharp Williams, chairman of the notification committee of the national Democratic convention, made the announcement in a speech requiring an hour to deliver. Mr. Davis, in accepting the nomination, discussed the political situation briefly. The ceremonies took place in a natural amphitheater on the lawn, under the oaks in front of the White Sulphur Springs hotel. The two speeches and music by the old "Stonewall Brigade Band" of Staunton, Va., constituted the program.

Mrs. Maybrick May Come Back.
Washington, Aug. 17.—It was stated at the bureau of immigration that its officials in charge at New York have instructions not to detain Mrs. Florence Maybrick, now on her way to America after spending years in an English prison. The New York officials have been given instructions to extend to her every courtesy due an American citizen and to facilitate her landing as far as possible.

LOOK FOR CORN DEMAND.

New York Exporters Already Getting Many Inquiries.

New York, Aug. 15.—The exporters of corn are receiving inquiries which indicate that there will be an exceptionally heavy demand for the cereal for export during the coming season. The news is exceedingly welcome to the farmers who have large crops and are prepared to meet the foreign demands. The crop of 1903 was large, amounting to 2,244,176,925 bushels, and that of two years ago was also large, amounting to 2,523,648,213 bushels, so that there are no shortages in the domestic supply to make up, while the present crop is estimated by Statistician Brown of the New York Produce exchange at 2,506,000,000 bushels.

The grain is also reported to be in excellent condition and it is expected to be in good shape for export. Together with the large available supply for export, the country has the good fortune to possess this stock when the other large markets will be in great need of supplies by reason of crop shortages in other countries. Rumania ordinarily exports 25,000,000 bushels of corn a year but the crops are so light in that country this season that a ukase has been issued forbidding the exportation of corn this year. The outlook in Italy and Bulgaria is also bad, and Germany is in need of so much corn that the government is considering a reduction of the import duty.

The ocean freight rates for corn are exceedingly low, and both the exporters and shipping interests are expecting a record breaking export movement during the coming season.

RUSSIA PROTESTS TO CHINA.

Japan Accused of Flagrant Violation of Neutrality at Che Foo.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 16.—The progress of a strongly worded Russian note to the Peking government, demanding an explanation of the Ryeshiteld incident, coupled with a demand for the restoration of the boat, as foreshadowed by the protest sent to Japan and the powers, shows that Russia is apparently determined to obtain satisfaction for the affront. It is believed here that the least Japan can do is to surrender the destroyer, unless she wishes to place herself on record as defying the most categorical provisions of international law, with the possibilities of international complications.

Russian, Japanese and Chinese versions all agree that the vessel was secured in a neutral harbor. The charge of cowardice and complicity brought against the Chinese admiral is based alike on his failure to protect an unarmed vessel and on his permitting the Japanese destroyers to enter the harbor. It is pointed out that it was the admiral's duty to take a guard on board the Ryeshiteld, taking of the Russian crew.

A dispatch to Lloyd's from Shanghai says that the cruiser Astold has gone into the dock and the torpedo boat destroyer Grozovoi is being dismantled.

Mrs. Maybrick Sails for Home.
London, Aug. 15.—A dispatch to a news agency from Brussels says it is asserted at Antwerp that Mrs. Maybrick sailed for America under an assumed name on the Vaterland.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS

Features of the Day's Trading and Closing Quotations.

Chicago, Aug. 15.—A new high record for the season was scored today in wheat. The rise in price came with great waves of buying throughout the day, the accumulations of dispatches received, each increasingly calamitous in suggestions of rain, the spring wheat. According to the dispatches current, the prospect of enough for bread and seed appeared to be a more sickly gimmer. The market closed strong at practically the top, with gains of 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 cts. Corn was off 1/2 cts. Oats were 1/4 cts. down to 2 1/2 cts. Closing prices: Wheat—Sept., $1.05; Dec., $1.00; May, $1.00.
Corn—Sept., 54c; Dec., 53c; May, 51c.

A Great Inheritance.

A poor waiter in a restaurant, working for small wages, received a dispatch the other day that his uncle left him over a million dollars. This will make him independent and probably happy. We say, probably happy, because happiness is not always the companion of inheritance. If, besides wealth, we inherit from our parents a weak body, a disease or inclination to a disease, the wealth will not make us happy, unless we use Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine. This great remedy, made of pure grape-wine and selected herbs and containing no chemicals will change the whole system of our body, because it renews the blood. It acts directly on the stomach making it strong and capable to receive and digest food, it strengthens the intestines to assist in the digestion and to change the food-stuffs into pure, healthy blood, the foundation of strength, health and beauty. At drugstores. Jos. Triner, 709 South Ashland Ave., Chicago, Ills.

A Sweet Breath

Is never a falling sign of healthy stomach. When the breath is bad the stomach is out of order. There is no remedy in the world equal to Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for curing indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach disorders. Mrs. Mary C. Crick, of White Plains, Ky., writes: "I have been a dyspeptic for years; tried all kinds of remedies but continued to grow worse. By the use of Kodol I began to improve at once, and after taking a few bottles am fully restored in weight, health and strength and can eat whatever I like." Kodol digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet. Sold by E. G. Fricke & Co.

Was Wasting Away.

"I had been troubled with kidney disease for the last five years," writes Robert R. Watts, of Salem, Mo. "I lost flesh and never felt well and doctored with leading physicians and tried all remedies without relief. Finally I tried Foley's Kidney Cure and less than two bottles cured me and I am now sound and well." During the summer kidney irregularities are often caused by excessive drinking or being overheated. Attend to the kidneys at once by using Foley's Kidney Cure. F. G. Fricke.
