Nebraska Crop Conditions.

Lincoln, Aug. 17 .- The past week has been warm with deficient rainfall and excessive sunshine in nearly all countles. The week was very favorable for securing hay and grain. Haying and threshing have progressed rapidly in practically all parts of the state. Stacking and shock threshing are about completed. Fall plowing has begun, but in many localities the soll is too dry to plow to advantage. The warm weather of the week has caused corn to grow rapidly, but rain hours of conferences between comwould be beneficial in southern coun-

JAP WARSHIPS WIN

TO THE BOTTOM.

Two of the Russian War Vessels Escape to Northward, Badly Crippled. Japan's Naval Waiting Game Final ly Rewarded With Success,

Tokio, Aug. 15 .- Flags are flying lanterns are glimmering and cries of "banzal' are ringing in the streets of Tokio in monor of the victories gained at sea by Admiral Togo and Vice Admiral Kanimura. Underneath feeling of deep satisfaction and gratication at the disposal of a desperately serious problem of the war.

The Russian squadron which confronted Admiral Togo refused battle. squadron in battlesnips and armored cruisers and had it elected to fight the result might have altered the fortunes which opposed Admiral Togo compelled him to draw vessels from the squadron under Vice Admiral Kamimura, and this left the Japanese navy powerless to operate against the Russian Vladivostok squadron and unable to prevent the raids of these vessels. stok squadron in July was extremely expensive to Japan, and not only was retaliation tempting, but it was demanded by commercial interests.

The navy, however, grimly refused to make a diversion and stuck to Port Arthur. It was confident that the harbor soon would be untenable for eventually get a fair fight in the open sea, away from the Russian land batwere correct, and the Russians, with the chances even, have been hopelessly defeated.

Vice Admiral Kamimura, after months of weary and patient waiting, finally got his chance at dawn yesterday off Tsu island, in the stralt of Korea. The battle lasted five hours and resulted in a complete Japanese victory. He sunk the Russian cruiser Rurik and sent the cruisers Gromobol and Rossia fleeing back from the fight, badly damaged. The injuries inflicted on the Japanese vessels were Japanese guns dominate the dock yards at Port Arthur and in view of this fact it would seem to be impossible again to make seaworthy or fightable the Russian battleships which have returned to Port Arthur. It is probable that the Russian battleship Czarovitch will disarm at Tsingchau. The best possible naval force that Russia can now concentrate at Vladivostok is four cruisers.
