"Dickey Dickey Doubt."

F. P. Sheldon's man Friday in his last effusion in that great moral and religious weekly, the Nebraska Register, says: "We have no crow to pick with John McBride, but will say for the edification of the Journal man that Hon. Frank P. Sheldon has nothing to do with the Nebraska Register at this time, and knew nothing of what appeared in its columns. The writer does not court newspaper controversy but will inform Bro. Bates that his interference in the news matter of Register will be disregarded; and that Sheriff McBride and the writer can settle their differences without the intervention of financially interested meddlers." Well, Dickey, we must say you feel quite egotistical, since you threw aside the paint brush and donned the garb of editor. When we see one of our best county officials slandered, as the copy of the Register which bore the name of F. P. Sheldon at the masthead, slandered Sheriff McBride, the Journal will fly right to his rescue, notwithstanding you consider the Journal a "financially interested meddler." But don't call us any more hard names, Dickey, as we might be placed under the painful necessity of calling you down "good and hard."

The Poison Label.

The health department of the state of Illinois has in consideration the proposition of a prominent physician to compel by law the manufacturers of medicines and articles of food to label their specialties poison, even if it contains the smallest amount of a deleterious ingredient. Such a law would show to the people that Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine is the only reliable remedy for the stomach containing no poison. It consists of the purest natural grape wine and of herbs known for their prompt action on the digestive organs and thus on the blood. For years it has been before the public and today it has friends in every country, because it always gave satisfaction. In all diseases of the stomach and in those caused by impure or weak blood, in nervousness, in bodily weakness, you cannot find a more palatable and more effective remedy than Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine. At drug stores or directly from the manufacturer, Jos. Triner, 799 So. Ashland avenue, Chicago, Ill.

Miraculous Escape.

Last Saturday Lee Allison, of near Murray, came very near meeting with a fatal accident. He was going from Union to the reunion grounds, and drove too close to the creek along side of which he was passing, when the horses, vehicle, Lee and his companion went over the bank, landing in the mud and water, several feet below. It was with considerable difficulty that the team was extricated. After cutting the harness and by the use of a block and tackle, the horses were raised from their muddy bed. No serious damage was done, but we'll bet that Lee and his companion don't want to experience any more such narrow escapes from serious injury, if not instant death.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by all Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.
