

FURTHER AID IS REFUSED.

Chicago Teamsters Losing Interest in Butchers' Strike.

Chicago, Aug. 24.—The joint council of the teamsters' union met last night to consider the advisability of granting further aid to the sympathetic strikers upon which the stock yards teamsters entered some time ago with the idea of aiding the butchers who had gone out. The meeting was long, lasting until a late hour, and the arguments were at times very heated. It was finally decided to take no action relative to the strike, beyond what has been taken, and an application made by the striking butchers for additional aid was passed over in silence. A motion that the packing house teamsters return to work was voted down, and it was decided to allow matters to remain as they are, so far as teamsters are concerned.

Another shooting array that may cause a life marked the progress of the stock yards strike, and in addition the second killing of the long struggle was recorded in the death of one of the men who was wounded in the train riot of last Saturday evening. The man who was shot and whose life is despaired of is Albert Grohn, a striking cattle butcher. He was wounded in the stomach at Fifty-second street and Wentworth avenue, and the man who fired upon him is believed to have been Charles Morrill, a nonunion fireman employed at the Nelson stork power house. Morrill escaped. The man who died as a result of the train riot was Dennis Ryan.

FIFTEEN MEN ARE DEPORTED.

Work of Mine Owners' Association and Citizens' Alliance.

Cripple Creek, Colo., Aug. 22.—No secret is made here of the fact that the deportation of Attorneys Eugene Engley, Frank J. Hango and J. C. Cole and twelve other men from this district Saturday night was planned by members of the Mine Owners' Association and Citizens' Alliance and was carried out under their direction. The El Paso, Vindicator, Findley and other large mines were closed down when the day shift stopped work and the miners of both day and night shifts were required to assemble in Cripple Creek, as trouble was brewing. A report had been in circulation that several hundred deported union men were returning to the camp in a body, and it had been determined to drive them away again should they come. This report proved to be groundless. However, other work had been laid out for the 2,000 or more miners who swarmed into town, and acting under orders given by leading citizens, they proceeded to "round-up" the Federation attorneys, employees of the Inter-mountain Mercantile company's store and others who have openly expressed sympathy with the Western Federation of Miners and escorted them beyond the city limits. City Marshal Crowder arrived from Victor while the looting of the Inter-mountain Mercantile company's store was in progress and essayed in vain to stop the destruction of property. The store is completely wrecked and the entire stock, valued at several thousand dollars, destroyed or stolen.

Mining Congress is at Work.

Portland, Ore., Aug. 24.—The American Mining Congress devoted some time to a presentation of the purposes of the commission appointed by President Roosevelt to investigate the condition of public lands and recommend to the national congress remedies for existing evils and suggested reforms in the land laws.

Nebraska National Guard in Camp.

David City, Neb., Aug. 18.—All the companies of the Nebraska National Guard have arrived and are in camp. Adjutant General Culver has assumed command of the First brigade. Four companies of regulars, accompanied by a regimental band, from Fort Crook, arrived about noon and immediately went into camp. Camp Victor Viquain has been formally dedicated.

First and Second Wife Same.

Omaha, Aug. 19.—The police have discovered that the Mrs. Frank Knight known as the "first wife," who disappeared from Marshalltown, Ia., in 1896, and was thought to have been murdered by her husband, is the same person known as the "second wife," who disappeared similarly at Omaha last year and is now believed to have been killed by Knight. The discovery was made from letters written by the woman in the interval between her first disappearance and her return.

Domestic is Burned to Death.

Nebraska City, Neb., Aug. 22.—Miss Henrietta Staak, a domestic in the employ of A. F. Kendall of Syracuse, was fatally burned by an explosion of coal oil. Miss Staak had built a fire in the kitchen stove and as it did not burn well she took a can containing a gallon of coal oil and commenced to put the oil on the fire, when the explosion occurred. Her clothing was saturated by the burning oil. Mr. Kendall heard the girl's screams and hastened to her assistance, extinguishing the flames, but not before her entire body had been burned and in many places the flesh fell off the bones.

CLAIM FAITH CONTROLS HORSES.

Christian Scientists at Omaha Hear Stories of "Fear Treatment."

Omaha, Aug. 20.—At a convention of Christian Scientists testimony was given as to the success claimed for the science in preventing runaways. One incident recounted was alleged to have occurred in Omaha last week. Mrs. Wakeley testified that she believed a treatment for fear which she gave enabled Florence Fuller, a fourteen-year-old girl, to steer a team of frightened horses for two miles through the city without mishap. On the way the child gave a little frightened cry and looked directly into the eyes of Mrs. Wakeley, who says that she at once gave a treatment for fear.

STRANGE CASE OF AERONAUT.

Omaha Man Who Has Sensation of Always Falling Puzzles Physicians.

Omaha, Aug. 19.—For the rest of his life Harry Hensley will be subject to the sensations of being always shooting downwards through space. Hensley has been a professional balloonist. So often has he made parachute leaps that a nervous affection has been developed, producing the effect of perpetually falling, even though his body is at rest. Physicians at the Presbyterian hospital, where Hensley is being treated, say that his case is the strangest encountered in many years' experience. Hensley was found by the police suffering intense pain. He told them that since his parachute leap at Courtland beach the preceding evening he has felt the peculiar sensation at the pit of the stomach and difficulty in breathing he experienced when he began to make the parachute jumps a dozen years ago. The case has challenged the interest of the oldest practitioners in the city. They declare that the patient's fading sensation has become incurable. Medical skill has brought no relief to the balloonist.

RIOTING AT SOUTH OMAHA.

Violent Disorder Created at Funeral of a Baby.

Omaha, Aug. 23.—J. J. Thompson and Lawrence Qualley, employees of the Omaha Distilled Water Ice company, badly injured, a striker shot in the leg, and Frank Hisowski, shot in the hand, are the results of a feud between strikers and special deputy sheriffs in the vicinity of Twenty-fifth and Marcy and Twenty-sixth and Walnut streets, in which about 100 pistol shots were exchanged. It is said the deputy sheriffs were intoxicated and were responsible for the outbreak, which, if it does not have fatal, will have very serious effects.

There was a riot when Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Stuart attempted to bury their infant daughter. Stuart is a carpenter employed in one of the packing houses. Funeral services were held in the house and all arrangements had been made to convey the remains of the infant to a cemetery when a crowd of men, said to be strikers, appeared and protested against the funeral procession starting. Women with tin pans started the noise. This was taken up by youngsters, who threw bricks at the house and at the hearse and carriages. A call was sent in for deputies and when they arrived the rioting began in earnest. Bricks flew thick and fast. Deputy Sheriff C. C. McGuire drew his revolver and fired a few shots. One of the bullets lodged in the hip of James Potash. During the rest of the funeral service the police preserved order and escorted the remains of the child to the cemetery.

A man believed to be C. W. Hodgins of Kearney is lying in the city hospital at the point of death, the victim of violence. He was picked up unconscious on the sidewalk. He was bleeding profusely and his face showed that he had been badly beaten. He had been employed at the Cudahy plant.

NEWS OF NEBRASKA.

Fatal Quarrel Over Horse Trade.

Tekamah, Neb., Aug. 24.—An English killed James Henslip at Decatur in a quarrel over a horse trade, choking him to death. Both men had been drinking. English was arrested and is in jail here.

Situation Remaining the Same.

South Omaha, Aug. 29.—Business at the packing houses proceeds with no perceptible change in the situation other than that additional men have arrived and taken the places of a number of colored men who were discharged. Managers of the packing plants now declare that they are operating with about two-thirds of the usual force.

Fusion Headquarters at Lincoln.

Lincoln, Aug. 20.—At a meeting of the Populist and Democratic state central committees it was decided to locate the state headquarters at Lincoln and wage an aggressive campaign for state and legislative officers. The contest for president will be abandoned. The two committees will occupy adjoining rooms, but will work separately.

Young Woman Loses Her Life.

Hemlingford, Neb., Aug. 20.—Miss Hetrick was killed and Harry Wildly slightly injured as a result of a runaway accident here. The wagon was loaded with lumber and when the team took fright and started to run Miss Hetrick attempted to jump off and was crushed by one of the wheels. She died in a few minutes. Her home was in Canada, where her body will be taken for burial.

Waiter Commits Suicide.

Lincoln, Aug. 24.—Joseph Rice, a waiter employed at the Bennett restaurant, committed suicide in the old Fedawa hotel building by taking morphine. He had been despondent for several days because two young men whom he had befriended by allowing them to share his room at the hotel had robbed him of $101 with which he had intended going to the World's fair at St. Louis.

Worsley Offered National Nomination.

Lincoln, Aug. 20.—A. A. Worsley, nominated for land commissioner at the recent fusion state convention, has been made the Populist nominee for congress in the Sixth Nebraska district, and the nominee of the same party for state senator in Boyd county. He was tentatively proffered the presidential nomination of the Labor Party, soon to meet at Chicago. Mr. Worsley said he would probably decline the latter nomination and remain on the state ticket.

Buckner Gets Out on Bond.

Omaha, Aug. 18.—Threshley B. Buckner, postmaster at Oconto, who has been in the Douglas county jail for two or three weeks in default of $1,000 bail on a charge of a shortage of $400 in his accounts, has been released on the order of United States Commissioner Anderson, having furnished the required bail. Buckner was charged with neglecting to deposit postal funds within the time required by the postal laws, and made good the amount through his bondsmen as postmaster. He is held for simply a technical violation of the postal laws.

NEBRASKA CROP CONDITIONS.

Warm Weather and Good Rains Prove Beneficial to Corn.

Lincoln, Aug. 24.—Weekly bulletin of the Nebraska section of the climate and crop service of the weather bureau: "The rains of the last week were very beneficial to corn and in most counties were sufficiently heavy to relieve the droughty conditions. Corn generally is now in very promising condition, although the crop would have been larger in most southern counties had there been more rain the first two weeks in August. In northern counties many fields are late and will require three or four weeks yet to mature.

An excellent crop of prairie hay is being secured in good condition. Threshing has progressed well, although delayed in some places by showers. The rains moistened the soil and fall plowing has made good progress. Pastures as a rule continue good."

PASSENGER TRAINS COLLIDE.

Nine Persons are Injured, Three of Them Seriously, in Wreck.

Pawnee City, Neb., Aug. 24.—A bad wreck occurred at Violet, six miles west of here, on the Burlington. No. 15, a passenger train, was standing on the track expecting No. 16 to take the siding, but for some reason No. 16 kept the track and ran into No. 15. The engines of both trains were badly smashed up, but no one was killed. Several of the passengers were very seriously injured, but it is thought none fatally. No. 16 was heavily loaded. A number of the passengers were on their way to the St. Louis fair. The injured were attended by the company's surgeon and were taken to Wymore. Nine persons were injured, three of them seriously. Those who were able went on to St. Joseph and the others were taken to division headquarters at Wymore. The injured at Wymore are: George Gray, engineer of train No. 16, injured internally, may lose a foot; Fireman Giles, foot badly crushed; E. C. Beck, severely, but not fatally, injured; Mrs. Beck, slightly; baby of Mr. and Mrs. Beck, ribs broken, condition critical; James Mendenhall, train inspector.

It is claimed the brakemen on No. 16 failed to work and the engineer could not stop his train.
